2016 c29 s52

Part 1 Appointments

Chief Electoral Officer

2(1) There shall be appointed pursuant to this Act a Chief Electoral Officer.

(2) The Chief Electoral Officer is an officer of the Legislature.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s2

Appointment of Chief Electoral Officer

3(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Lieutenant Governor in Council shall appoint the Chief Electoral Officer on the recommendation of the Assembly.

(2) If a vacancy occurs while the Legislature is not in session, the Lieutenant Governor in Council, on the recommendation of the Standing Committee, may appoint a Chief Electoral Officer to fill the vacancy, and unless that office sooner becomes vacant, the person so appointed holds office until a Chief Electoral Officer is appointed under subsection (1), but if an appointment under subsection (1) is not made within 30 days after the commencement of the next session, the appointment under this subsection lapses and there is deemed to be another vacancy in the office of Chief Electoral Officer.

(3) The appointment of the Chief Electoral Officer expires 12 months after polling day for a general election unless the Chief Electoral Officer is reappointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council prior to that date on the recommendation of the Standing Committee.

(4) The Lieutenant Governor in Council, on an address of the Assembly, may suspend or remove the Chief Electoral Officer from office for disability, neglect of duty, misconduct or bankruptcy.

(5) If the Legislature is not then sitting, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may suspend the Chief Electoral Officer from office for disability, neglect of duty, misconduct or bankruptcy proved to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, but the suspension shall not continue in force beyond the end of the next sitting of the Legislature.

(6) The Chief Electoral Officer may resign that office by filing a written notice with the Speaker of the Assembly or, if there is no Speaker or the Speaker is absent from Alberta, with the Clerk of the Assembly.

(7) During the time that there is a vacancy in the office of Chief Electoral Officer, the Deputy Chief Electoral Officer shall perform all the duties and exercise all the powers of the Chief Electoral Officer.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s3;1992 c12 s3

Oath of office

3.1(1) Before beginning the duties of office, the Chief Electoral Officer shall take an oath to perform the duties of the office faithfully and impartially and, except as provided in this Act, the Senatorial Selection Act or the Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act, not to disclose any information received by the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer under this or any other Act.

(2) The oath referred to in subsection (1) shall be administered by the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly or the Clerk of the Assembly.

2004 c23 s3;2010 c8 s3

Duties and powers of Chief Electoral Officer

4(1) The Chief Electoral Officer shall

- (a) provide guidance, direction and supervision respecting the conduct of all elections, enumerations and plebiscites conducted under this Act and the Senatorial Selection Act and plebiscites and referendums under any other Act to which this Act applies;

- (b) enforce fairness and impartiality on the part of all election officers in the conduct of their duties and compliance with this Act and the Senatorial Selection Act;
- (c) issue to election officers any guidance, direction and information the Chief Electoral Officer considers necessary to ensure the effective carrying out of their duties under this Act and the Senatorial Selection Act;
- (d) perform all duties assigned to the Chief Electoral Officer by this or any other Act.

(1.1) The Chief Electoral Officer may, on the Chief Electoral Officer's own initiative or at the request of another person or organization, conduct an investigation into any matter that might constitute an offence under this Act.

(2) The Chief Electoral Officer may provide information to the public about the election process and the democratic right to vote.

(2.1) The Chief Electoral Officer may from time to time meet with representatives of the registered political parties that are represented in the Legislative Assembly concerning the election process or activities under this Act, the Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act or the Senatorial Selection Act.

(3) The Chief Electoral Officer may, where the Chief Electoral Officer considers it necessary for the efficient conduct of an election, enumeration or plebiscite under this Act, an election under the Senatorial Selection Act or a plebiscite or referendum under any other Act to which this Act applies,

- (a) extend the time for doing anything under this Act, except
 - (i) the time for the holding of an election, and
 - (ii) the time by which a nomination paper must be filed,
- (b) increase the number of election officers or enumerators,
- (c) appoint other persons as election officers to carry out duties authorized by the Chief Electoral Officer, for the faithful performance of which those persons are to be sworn,
- (d) increase the number of polling stations,

- (e) omit or vary a prescribed form, except the ballot, to suit the circumstances, and
- (f) generally, adapt the provisions of this Act to the circumstances.

(4) The Chief Electoral Officer may remove any election officer from office for disability or misconduct or for failing to perform his or her work satisfactorily and may order that election officer to deliver all materials in the election officer's possession relating to that office to a designated person.

(5) The Chief Electoral Officer shall, immediately after each enumeration, general election, election under the Senatorial Selection Act, by-election or plebiscite or a plebiscite or referendum under any other Act, prepare and have printed a report including

- (a) a summary of the Chief Electoral Officer's conduct respecting the enumeration, general election, election under the Senatorial Selection Act, by-election, plebiscite or referendum, as the case may be,
- (b) a breakdown of results and a summary of costs, and
- (c) any recommendations for amendments to this Act or the Senatorial Selection Act, as the case may be.

(6) The Chief Electoral Officer shall transmit the report prepared under subsection (5) to the Standing Committee, which shall lay the report before the Legislative Assembly if it is then sitting or, if it is not then sitting, not more than 15 days after the commencement of the next sitting of the Assembly.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s4;2004 c23 s4;2010 c8 s4;2012 c5 s3

Test of new equipment and procedures

4.1(1) Where the Chief Electoral Officer wishes to test at a by-election the use of election procedures and equipment that are different from what this Act requires, the Chief Electoral Officer shall submit a written proposal to the Standing Committee describing in detail the election procedures and equipment proposed to be tested.

(2) If the Standing Committee approves the proposal, with or without changes, the Chief Electoral Officer may test the use of the election procedures and equipment in accordance with the approved proposal.

(3) As soon as possible after the proposal is approved, the Chief Electoral Officer shall publish the approved proposal on the Chief Electoral Officer's website.

(4) A by-election held in accordance with the details provided in the approved proposal is not invalid by reason of any non-compliance with this Act.

(5) To the extent of any conflict between the approved proposal and this Act or a regulation under this Act, the approved proposal prevails and has the force of law with respect to the by-election.

2010 c8 s4

Inquiries and investigations

4.2(1) For the purpose of carrying out an inquiry or conducting an investigation under this Act, the Chief Electoral Officer has all the powers of a commissioner under the Public Inquiries Act as though the investigation or inquiry were an inquiry under that Act.

(2) For the purpose of carrying out an inquiry or conducting an investigation under this Act, a representative of the Chief Electoral Officer, on production of the representative's authorization from the Chief Electoral Officer, may at any reasonable time enter any premises referred to in the authorization in which books or documents of a political party, constituency association or candidate relevant to the subject-matter of the investigation are kept and may examine and make copies of the books or documents or remove them temporarily for the purpose of making copies.

(3) A registered political party, registered constituency association or registered candidate shall, within 30 days after receiving a written request from the Chief Electoral Officer or within an extended period that the Chief Electoral Officer may determine, provide any information with respect to the affairs of the registered political party, registered constituency association or registered candidate that is reasonably required by the Chief Electoral Officer in the course of the Chief Electoral Officer's duties under this Act.

Notice of investigation and conclusion

4.3(1) At any time before completing an investigation referred to in section 4(1.1), the Chief Electoral Officer shall notify any person or organization who is the subject of the investigation that the person or organization is being investigated and inform the person or organization of the nature of the matter being investigated, unless the Chief Electoral Officer believes that doing so would compromise or impede the investigation.

(2) The Chief Electoral Officer may refuse to conduct or may cease an investigation if the Chief Electoral Officer is of the opinion that

(a) the matter is frivolous or vexatious, or

- (b) there are no or insufficient grounds to warrant an investigation or the continuation of an investigation.

(3) The Chief Electoral Officer shall not make an adverse finding against a person or organization unless that person or organization has had reasonable notice of the substance of the allegations and a reasonable opportunity to present his or her or its views.

(4) If the Chief Electoral Officer refuses to conduct or ceases an investigation under subsection (2) or determines that no offence was committed, the Chief Electoral Officer

- (a) shall provide notice of that decision to

- (i) every person or organization who

- (A) is the subject of the investigation, or

- (B) would have been the subject of an investigation if the Chief Electoral Officer had not refused to conduct an investigation,

and

- (ii) every person or organization who requested an investigation, if any,

and

- (b) may, as the Chief Electoral Officer considers to be appropriate, provide notice of that decision to any other person or organization involved in the matter referred to in section 4(1.1).

2012 c5 s4

Disclosure

4.4(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), the Chief Electoral Officer, any former Chief Electoral Officer and every person who is or was employed or engaged by the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer shall maintain the confidentiality of all information and allegations that come to their knowledge in the course of an inquiry or investigation.

(2) Information and allegations to which subsection (1) applies may be

- (a) disclosed to the person or organization whose conduct is the subject of proceedings under this Act;
- (b) disclosed by a person conducting an investigation to the extent necessary to enable that person to obtain information from another person;

- (c) adduced in evidence at an inquiry;
- (d) disclosed where the Chief Electoral Officer believes on reasonable grounds that the disclosure is necessary for the purpose of advising the Minister of Justice and Solicitor General or a law enforcement agency of an alleged offence under this Act or any other enactment of Alberta or an Act or regulation of Canada.

(3) Findings and decisions and any additional information that the Chief Electoral Officer considers to be appropriate shall be published on the Chief Electoral Officer's website in the following circumstances:

- (a) if a penalty is imposed or a letter of reprimand is issued under section 153.1;
- (b) if the Chief Electoral Officer has provided notice under section 4.3(4) and receives a written request for disclosure from a person or organization who received the notice.

Office of Chief Electoral Officer

5(1) There shall be a department of the public service of Alberta called the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, consisting of the Chief Electoral Officer and those officers and employees, including a Deputy Chief Electoral Officer, appointed pursuant to the Public Service Act who are required to assist the Chief Electoral Officer in the administration of this Act.

(1.1) The Office of the Chief Electoral Officer may operate under the name "Elections Alberta".

(2) On the recommendation of the Chief Electoral Officer, the Standing Committee may order that

- (a) any regulation, order or directive made under the Financial Administration Act,
- (b) any regulation, order, directive, rule, procedure, direction, allocation, designation or other decision under the Public Service Act, or
- (c) any regulation, order, determination, direction or other decision under the Public Sector Compensation Transparency Act, be inapplicable to, or be varied in respect of, the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer or any particular employee or class of employees in the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer.

(3) An order made under subsection (2)(a) in relation to a regulation, order or directive made under the Financial Administration Act operates notwithstanding that Act.

(3.1) An order made under subsection (2)(c) in relation to a regulation, order, determination, direction or other decision under the Public Sector Compensation Transparency Act operates notwithstanding that Act.

(4) The Regulations Act does not apply to orders made under subsection (2).

(5) The chair of the Standing Committee shall lay a copy of each order made under subsection (2) before the Assembly if it is then sitting or, if it is not then sitting, within 15 days after the commencement of the next sitting.

Salary of Chief Electoral Officer

6 The salary of the Chief Electoral Officer shall be in an amount fixed by the Standing Committee at the time of appointment, that shall be reviewed at least once a year by the Standing Committee.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s6;1992 c12 s3

Annual estimates

7(1) The Chief Electoral Officer shall submit to the Standing Committee on Legislative Offices in respect of each fiscal year an estimate of the sum that will be required to be provided by the Legislature to defray the various charges and expenses of the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer in that fiscal year.

(2) The Standing Committee on Legislative Offices shall review each estimate submitted pursuant to subsection (1) and, on completion of the review, the chair of the Committee shall present the estimate to the President of Treasury Board and Minister of Finance for presentation to the Assembly.

(3) If at any time the Legislative Assembly is not in session, the Standing Committee, or if there is no Standing Committee, the President of Treasury Board and Minister of Finance,

- (a) reports that the Chief Electoral Officer has certified that in the public interest an expenditure of public money is urgently required in respect of any matter pertaining to the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, and
- (b) reports that either
 - (i) there is no supply vote under which an expenditure with respect to that matter may be made, or
 - (ii) there is a supply vote under which an expenditure with respect to that matter may be made but the authority available under the supply vote is insufficient, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may order a special warrant to be prepared to be signed by the Lieutenant Governor authorizing the expenditure of the amount estimated to be required.

(4) When the Legislative Assembly is adjourned for a period of more than 14 days, then, for the purposes of subsection (3), the Assembly is deemed not to be in session during the period of the adjournment.

(5) When a special warrant is prepared and signed under subsection (3) on the basis of a report referred to in subsection (3)(b)(i), the authority to spend the amount of money specified in the special warrant for the purpose specified in the special warrant is deemed to be a supply vote for the purposes of the Financial Administration Act.

(6) When a special warrant is prepared and signed under subsection (3) on the basis of a report referred to in subsection (3)(b)(ii), the authority to spend the amount of money specified in the special warrant is, for the purposes of the Financial Administration Act, added to and deemed to be part of the supply vote to which the report relates.

(7) When a special warrant has been prepared and signed pursuant to this section, the amounts authorized by it are deemed to be included in, and not to be in addition to, the amounts authorized by the Act, not being an Act for interim supply, enacted next after it for granting to Her Majesty sums of money to defray certain expenditures of the Public Service of Alberta.

Appointment of returning officers

9(1) The Chief Electoral Officer may, 2 years after a general election, appoint a returning officer for each electoral division for the purposes of or in connection with elections, enumerations and plebiscites under this Act and elections under the Senatorial Selection Act.

(1.1) If a by-election or plebiscite under this Act or an election under the Senatorial Selection Act is to be conducted under this Act before returning officers are appointed under subsection (1), returning officers may be appointed for the purpose of the by-election or plebiscite or the election under the Senatorial Selection Act.

(2) The returning officer for an electoral division must be a resident elector of that electoral division and must not be ineligible under section 46 for appointment.

(2.1) Where, in the opinion of the Chief Electoral Officer, the Chief Electoral Officer is unable to appoint a qualified person resident within an electoral division as returning officer for that electoral division, the Chief Electoral Officer may appoint as returning officer an elector resident in any other electoral division as the Chief Electoral Officer considers appropriate.

(3) In addition to performing the duties specified in this or any other Act, a returning officer shall

- (a) from time to time review polling subdivision boundaries on the direction of the Chief Electoral Officer,
- (b) make all advance plans and preparations to enable an enumeration, election or plebiscite to be proceeded with expeditiously and efficiently when called in the returning officer's electoral division,

- (c) keep himself or herself informed and knowledgeable of the requirements of all relevant legislation, and
 - (d) from time to time and when requested by the Chief Electoral Officer, investigate and study enumeration, election and plebiscite practices and procedures for the purpose of effecting increased economy, efficiency and service to electors and candidates.
- (4) The Chief Electoral Officer shall publish in The Alberta Gazette the name and address of the returning officer appointed for each electoral division.
- (5) Each returning officer shall, before assuming the returning officer's duties, take the prescribed oath of office and transmit it to the Chief Electoral Officer.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s9;2004 c23 s7;2010 c8 s7

Termination of appointment of returning officer

- 10(1) A returning officer shall immediately notify the Chief Electoral Officer in writing if the returning officer is unable to act and, if the returning officer wishes to resign, shall submit the returning officer's written resignation to the Chief Electoral Officer.
- (2) If a returning officer is for any reason unable or unwilling to act, or neglects the returning officer's duties, the Chief Electoral Officer
- (a) before a writ of election has been issued, or
 - (b) after a writ of election has been issued and if there is no election clerk appointed for the relevant electoral division,
- may appoint an acting returning officer who shall have all the rights and powers and shall perform all the duties of a returning officer for that electoral division until the returning officer resumes the returning officer's duties or a new returning officer is appointed.
- (3) The appointment of a returning officer expires 4 months after polling day of the general election in which the returning officer was a returning officer unless it is sooner terminated.
- (4) The Chief Electoral Officer shall confirm in writing to each returning officer the date of termination of the returning officer's appointment.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s10;2010 c8 s8

Remuneration of returning officers

11 All returning officers shall, on performance of their duties at the request of the Chief Electoral Officer, be paid

- (a) an honorarium of the same amount, and
- (b) fees and expenses at the same rate, prescribed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s10;2010 c8 s8

Prohibition against political activity

12 No person who has been appointed or is acting as a returning officer, election clerk or administrative assistant may

- (a) engage in political activity on behalf of any political party, candidate or constituency association, or
- (b) make a contribution under the Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act, while the person is so appointed or acting.

Part 2 Election Lists

Division 1 Register of Electors

Maintenance of register

13(1) The Chief Electoral Officer shall maintain a register of electors from which lists of electors for polling subdivisions for each electoral division may be compiled for use at general elections, by-elections or plebiscites under this Act, elections under the Senatorial Selection Act or referendums or plebiscites under any other Act.

(2) The register of electors may only contain the following information about persons ordinarily resident in Alberta who are electors or will be eligible to be electors:

- (a) the residential address, including the postal code, of the residence of the person, and the mailing address, including the postal code, if the mailing address is different from the residential address,
- (b) the surname, given name and any middle name of the person,
- (c) the telephone number of the person,

- (d) the gender of the person,
- (e) the citizenship of the person,
- (f) the date of birth of the person,
- (g) the permanent unique identifier number assigned under subsection (4), and
- (h) any other identification number assigned by other persons who provide information to the Chief Electoral Officer under section 13.1 or pursuant to an agreement under section 13.2 to assist in distinguishing a person from another person or verifying information about a person.

(3) The information referred to in subsection (2)(d), (e) and (f) obtained under this Act may only be used to verify the identification of an elector when revising the register.

(4) The Chief Electoral Officer may assign, in respect of each elector whose information is contained in the register, a permanent unique identifier number consisting of numbers or letters, or a combination of numbers and letters, to be used to assist in distinguishing an elector from another elector or verifying information about an elector.

2010 c8 s10

Revising the register

13.1(1) The register may, in accordance with this section, be revised from time to time as the Chief Electoral Officer considers necessary but must be revised as soon as possible after the Schedule of electoral divisions in the Electoral Divisions Act is amended or re-enacted.

(2) The register may be revised by any or all of the following methods:

- (a) conducting a door-to-door enumeration in accordance with Division 3 of all or some of the electoral divisions, or portions of any of them, as determined by the Chief Electoral Officer;
- (b) using information provided pursuant to an agreement under section 13.2(1) or (2);
- (c) using personal information held by a public body as defined in the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act if in the opinion of the Chief Electoral Officer the information is necessary for the purpose of revising the register;

- (d) using personal information listed in public telephone directories;
- (e) using any other information obtained by or available to the Chief Electoral Officer.

(2.1) If information has been collected under the Alberta Personal Income Tax Act with the consent of the taxpayers to whom the information relates for the purpose of updating the list of electors, the Chief Electoral Officer must use that information to revise the register.

(3) A public body as defined in the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act shall, at the request of the Chief Electoral Officer,

- (a) for the purpose of subsection (2)(c), provide personal information held by that public body, and
- (b) provide address, mapping, demographic or geographic information, including geospatial information.

(4) A public body providing information under subsection (3) may charge a reasonable fee for providing the information, but the fee may not exceed the actual cost of producing a copy of the information.

(5) The Chief Electoral Officer may retain information collected under subsection (2) but not included in the register, for the purpose of correlating information contained or to be included in the register.

2010 c8 s10;2012 c5 s6

Agreements on information

13.2(1) The Chief Electoral Officer may enter into an agreement with the Chief Electoral Officer of Canada under the Canada Elections Act (Canada)

- (a) to receive from the Chief Electoral Officer of Canada information that will assist the Chief Electoral Officer of Alberta in revising the register, and
- (b) to provide to the Chief Electoral Officer of Canada information that will assist the Chief Electoral Officer of Canada in preparing or revising that Chief Electoral Officer's information for the purpose of compiling or revising lists of electors under the Canada Elections Act (Canada).

(2) The Chief Electoral Officer may enter into an agreement with a municipality

- (a) to receive from the municipality information that will assist the Chief Electoral Officer in revising the register, and
- (b) to provide to the municipality's secretary, as defined in the Local Authorities Election Act, information that will assist the secretary in compiling or revising information for the purpose of compiling or revising the municipality's permanent electors register under the Local Authorities Election Act.

(3) The Chief Electoral Officer may enter into agreements with any person for the purpose of obtaining address, mapping, demographic or geographic information, including geospatial information.

2010 c8 s10

Access to information in the register

13.3(1) A person or the person's agent may, on request and in the manner determined by the Chief Electoral Officer,

- (a) have access to information in the register about the person to determine whether the information is correct, and
- (b) have his or her personal information removed from or not included in the register.

(2) Where a request is made under subsection (1)(b), the Chief Electoral Officer must remove the person's personal information from the register or not include the person's personal information in the register.

(3) Any person requesting access to information for the purpose set out in subsection (2) shall complete and sign a declaration.

2010 c8 s10

Division 2 List of Electors

Review of subdivisions

14 The Chief Electoral Officer shall, from time to time, in consultation with the returning officer for each electoral division,

- (a) review the boundary of and the number of electors in each subdivision, and
- (b) if necessary, subdivide the entire electoral division for which the returning officer was appointed into as many sequentially numbered subdivisions as considered necessary for use as polling subdivisions in any general election, by-election, referendum or plebiscite and shall attempt to ensure, as far as possible, that no subdivision contains more than 450 electors.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s14;2004 c23 s9

List of electors

15(1) Lists of electors for polling subdivisions for each electoral division to be used for a general election, by-election, referendum or plebiscite are to be compiled from the register.

(2) The lists of electors may be compiled manually or by means of any computer-based system and may be in printed form or may be stored in any computer-based system or any other information storage device that is capable of reproducing any required information in legible printed form within a reasonable time.

1996 c15 s5

Persons entitled to be listed as electors

16 Subject to section 45, a person is eligible to have the person's name included on a list of electors if that person as of a date fixed by the Chief Electoral Officer

- (a) is a Canadian citizen,
- (b) is at least 18 years of age,
- (c) has been or will have been ordinarily resident in Alberta for at least 6 months as of that date, and
- (d) is ordinarily resident in the electoral division and subdivision for which that person is to have the person's name included on the list of electors.

1996 c15 s5

Contents of list of electors

17 Subject to section 18(7), only the first names, middle names and surnames, the addresses, including postal codes, the telephone numbers and the unique identifier numbers of electors may be contained in the list of electors.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s17;2004 c23 s10;2010 c8 s11

Distribution of lists of electors

18(1) The Chief Electoral Officer shall furnish the information referred to in subsection (2) free of charge to each registered political party and to each member of the Legislative Assembly who is not a member of a registered political party,

- (a) 2 years after a general election,
- (b) during the 4th and 5th years after a general election,

- (c) as soon as possible after the register is updated after the Schedule of electoral divisions in the Electoral Divisions Act is amended or re-enacted, and
- (d) as soon as possible after the receipt by the Chief Electoral Officer of the Clerk's warrant delivered pursuant to section 32 of the Legislative Assembly Act.

(2) The information to be furnished under subsection (1) is as follows:

- (a) to a registered political party,
 - (i) 2 maps showing the polling subdivisions in each electoral division, and
 - (ii) in accordance with the political party's request, one printed copy or one copy in electronic form, or both, of the list of electors for each polling subdivision in each electoral division,

and

- (b) to a member of the Legislative Assembly who is not a member of a registered political party,
 - (i) 2 maps showing the polling subdivisions, and
 - (ii) in accordance with the member's request, one printed copy or one copy in electronic form, or both, of the list of electors for each polling subdivision in the electoral division that the member represents.

(3) The Chief Electoral Officer shall, as soon as possible after a writ has been issued for a general election, furnish free of charge to each registered political party,

- (a) 2 maps showing the polling subdivisions in each electoral division, and
- (b) in accordance with the political party's request, one printed copy or one copy in electronic form, or both, of the list of electors for each polling subdivision in each electoral division.

(4) The Chief Electoral Officer is not required to furnish copies of the maps and lists of electors under subsection (1) or (3) if there has been no change to the boundaries, the maps or the information in the register that is used to compile the lists of electors since the Chief Electoral Officer last furnished copies of the boundaries, maps and lists of electors pursuant to subsection (1) or (3), as the case may be.

(5) The Chief Electoral Officer shall, on request and payment of the cost to produce the information as determined by the Chief Electoral Officer, furnish

- (a) to a registered political party in accordance with the political party's request, one printed copy or one copy in electronic form, or both, of the list of electors for each polling subdivision in each electoral division, and
- (b) to each member of the Legislative Assembly in accordance with the member's request, one printed copy or one copy in electronic form, or both, of the list of electors for each polling subdivision in the electoral division that the member represents.

(6) A member or a registered political party may request additional copies of the lists of electors in addition to those furnished under subsection (1) or (3) on providing a reason for the additional copies and on payment of an amount determined by the Chief Electoral Officer.

(7) For the purpose of tracing the unauthorized use of the list of electors, the Chief Electoral Officer may have fictitious voter information included in a list of electors provided under this section.

Protection of list

19.1(1) A person or registered political party to whom a copy of a list of electors has been furnished under this Act shall take all reasonable steps to protect the list and the information contained in it from loss and unauthorized use.

(2) A person or registered political party to whom a copy of a list of electors has been furnished under this Act shall immediately notify the Chief Electoral Officer if the list or information contained in the list has been lost.

(3) On being notified under subsection (2), the Chief Electoral Officer shall direct the person or registered political party to take any action the Chief Electoral Officer considers appropriate.

2012 c5 s8

Restricted use of list of electors

20(1) In this section, "elector" includes a person who is eligible to vote at a plebiscite or referendum conducted under this Act or under an Act to which this Act applies.

(2) A list of electors, including a post-polling-day list of electors under section 19, may be used only as follows:

- (a) by a registered political party or a registered constituency association, for communicating with electors, including for soliciting contributions and recruiting party members;
- (b) by a member of the Legislative Assembly
 - (i) for carrying out the duties and functions of the member,
 - (ii) in the case of a member of a registered political party, for soliciting contributions for the use of the registered political party or any constituency association of that party and recruiting party members, and
 - (iii) in the case of a member who is not a member of a registered political party but who has endorsed a constituency association as the official association of the member, for soliciting contributions for the use of the constituency association;

- (c) by a candidate,
 - (i) for communicating with electors during a campaign period, including for soliciting contributions and campaigning, and
 - (ii) for soliciting contributions during any period authorized under section 43.1 of the Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act,
- (d) by election officers for the purpose of carrying out their duties under this Act.

Division 3 Enumerations

Enumeration and revision

21(1) The Chief Electoral Officer may, at any time the Chief Electoral Officer considers it advisable, conduct an enumeration of all or some of the electoral divisions, or within an electoral division, as directed by the Chief Electoral Officer.

(2) An enumeration is to be conducted during a period determined by the Chief Electoral Officer and is to be followed by at least one day for revisions as determined by the Chief Electoral Officer.

1996 c15 s5

Preparation of materials for enumeration

22(1) In conducting an enumeration, the Chief Electoral Officer shall provide maps showing subdivision boundaries for use by the enumerators.

(2) The Chief Electoral Officer shall provide each returning officer with sufficient quantities of all necessary forms and materials, including enumerator identification documents, to enable the efficient conduct of the required enumeration.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s22;2004 c23 s13

Appointment of enumerators

23 Each returning officer shall, in accordance with directions issued by the Chief Electoral Officer, appoint sufficient enumerators for the efficient conduct of the enumeration within the returning officer's electoral division.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s23;2010 c8 s13

Persons ineligible to act as enumerators

24 The following persons may not be appointed or act as enumerators:

- (a) persons who are not electors;
- (b) members of the Parliament of Canada;
- (c) members of the Legislative Assembly;
- (d) candidates;
- (e) official agents;
- (f) judges of federal or provincial courts;
- (g) persons who have within the immediately preceding 10 years been convicted of an indictable offence for which the penalty that may be imposed is greater than 2 years' imprisonment.

1996 c15 s5

Enumerators for subdivisions

25(1) Each returning officer shall in accordance with the directions of the Chief Electoral Officer appoint, as an enumerator for each subdivision in the electoral division, one elector resident in that electoral division.

(2) The returning officer may, with the approval of the Chief Electoral Officer, appoint as an enumerator for a subdivision a 2nd resident elector for the subdivision if the returning officer considers it necessary for the completion of the enumeration or the security of the enumerator.

(3) Repealed 2012 c5 s10.

(4) When 2 enumerators are appointed for a subdivision, they shall

- (a) act jointly and not individually in each step of the preparation of the list of electors,
- (b) both sign any document that is required to be signed by an enumerator in respect of an enumeration, and
- (c) report immediately to the returning officer for the electoral division the facts and details of any disagreement between them.

(5) The returning officer shall decide any matter under disagreement referred to the returning officer under subsection (4)(c) and immediately communicate that decision to the enumerators.

(6) A qualified enumerator may, at the discretion of the returning officer, be appointed as an enumerator for more than one subdivision.

(7) If sufficient qualified persons are not available from among those persons resident within an electoral division, the returning officer may appoint as enumerators qualified persons from any other electoral divisions as the returning officer considers appropriate.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s25;2004 c23 s14;2012 c5 s10

Identification documents

26 The returning officer shall provide all necessary forms and materials, including identification documents, to each enumerator in the returning officer's electoral division.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s26;2004 c23 s15

Replacement of enumerators

27(1) If an enumerator is unable or unwilling to act or neglects the enumerator's duties, the returning officer may appoint another enumerator in the enumerator's place.

(2) An enumerator replaced under this section shall, on receipt of a written request signed by the returning officer, deliver or give up to the enumerator's successor or any other authorized person the enumerator's identification documents and any enumeration documents and written information the enumerator has obtained respecting the enumeration.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s27;2004 c23 s16

Oath of office

28 Each enumerator shall, before assuming the enumerator's duties, take the prescribed oath of office before the returning officer or any person authorized to take oaths in Alberta, and no fee may be charged by the person administering the oath.

1996 c15 s5

Right of access for enumerations

29(1) In this section, "multiple dwelling site" means

- (a) an apartment building, condominium building or other multiple residence building, or
- (b) any site in which more than one residence is contained, including a mobile home park, gated community and any similar site.

(2) A person who is in control of a multiple dwelling site shall permit an enumerator who has produced identification documents prescribed by the Chief Electoral Officer to enumerate between 9:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. at each residential unit in the multiple dwelling site.

(3) A person to whom an enumerator has produced identification documents referred to in subsection (2) shall not

- (a) obstruct or interfere with, or
- (b) cause or permit the obstruction or interference with, the free access of an enumerator to each residential unit in a multiple dwelling site.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s29;2004 c23 s17

Conducting an enumeration

30(1) In this section, “assigned residence” means a residence selected by the returning officer in respect of which the information required for the register may be incomplete or incorrect.

(2) Subject to subsection (10), each enumerator shall contact, either in person, by telephone or by mail, as directed by the returning officer, each assigned residence in the subdivision to determine which persons residing in the assigned residence

- (a) are Canadian citizens,
- (b) are at least 18 years of age,
- (c) have been or will have been ordinarily resident in Alberta for at least 6 months, and
- (d) are ordinarily resident in the electoral division and subdivision for which those persons are to have their names included on the list of electors, as of a date determined by the Chief Electoral Officer, and shall record on the form provided by the Chief Electoral Officer the information referred to in section 13(2)(a) to (f) with respect to those persons.

(3) The enumerator shall leave at each assigned residence contacted under subsection (2) a notice that elector information relating to the persons living in that residence has been collected.

(4) An enumerator is not to visit or contact treatment centres, students’ residences operated by an educational institution and exempted by the Chief Electoral Officer, temporary work camps, penitentiaries, correctional institutions, remand centres, detention centres, emergency shelters or any similar institutions.

(5) When visiting assigned residences, the enumerator shall wear and prominently display the enumerator’s identification documents.

(6) Each enumerator, in accordance with the directions of the Chief Electoral Officer, shall visit every assigned residence in the enumerator's subdivision at least once during the enumeration period, and if the enumerator has visited an assigned residence and found no responsible person there, the enumerator shall contact the residence on at least 2 more occasions.

(7) The enumerator may contact the assigned residences in the enumerator's subdivision only between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m.

(8) If an enumerator has visited an assigned residence and found no responsible person there, the enumerator shall leave a form provided by the Chief Electoral Officer at the residence so that any qualified elector residing at the residence may be added to the list of electors.

(9) Prior to the date determined by the Chief Electoral Officer, a form left under subsection (8) may be returned as stated in the form.

(10) The Chief Electoral Officer may direct a returning officer for an electoral division that assigned residences be contacted within that electoral division by means other than those referred to in subsection (2).

Remote areas

31(1) The returning officer for an electoral division may, with the approval of the Chief Electoral Officer, designate any area of the electoral division as a remote area.

(2) An elector ordinarily resident in a designated remote area is eligible to vote by Special Ballot.

(3) Notwithstanding section 30, an enumeration in a designated remote area shall, subject to

- (a) the regulations, and
- (b) any directions of the Chief Electoral Officer, be conducted in a way the returning officer considers appropriate.

(4) A designated remote area is a polling subdivision but no polling places may be established in it and no deputy returning officer or poll clerk may be appointed for it.

Authorization to issue writ of election

39 Every election shall be commenced by the passing of an order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council

- (a) authorizing the issue of a writ of election in the prescribed form directed and addressed to the returning officer of each electoral division for which an election is to take place,
- (b) fixing the date of the writ,
 - (i) which must be the same for all writs in the case of a general election, and
 - (ii) which must be the same as the date of the order in the case of a by-election,

- (c) appointing the 10th day after the date of the writ as nomination day, or if the 10th day is a holiday, the next following day not being a holiday,
- (d) providing that, where voting is necessary, the 28th day after the date of the writ is the day on which voting is to take place, or if the 28th day is a holiday, the next following day not being a holiday, and
- (e) directing that the writ be returned as provided by this Act.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s39;2012 c5 s15

Issue of writ of election

40(1) On receipt of an order under section 39, the Chief Electoral Officer shall

- (a) issue writs in accordance with the order, and
- (b) transmit each writ to the returning officer to whom it is addressed.

(2) Immediately on receiving a writ, the returning officer shall endorse on it the date on which it was received by the returning officer.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s37

Writ not affected

41 The validity of any proceedings taken under a writ is not affected by the appointment of a new or acting returning officer.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s38

Forms and materials

42 When transmitting a writ to a returning officer, the Chief Electoral Officer shall also forward sufficient copies of the lists of electors for the electoral division and a supply of election forms and materials.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s39

Persons eligible to vote

43 Subject to section 45, a person is eligible to vote at an election if that person is an elector and ordinarily resident on polling day in the polling subdivision in which the person seeks to vote, and

- (a) that person's name appears on the list of electors for the polling subdivision,
- (b) that person signs a declaration under section 95, or

- (c) that person's name has been entered in the Special Ballot Poll Book and the person has properly completed part 1 of the certificate referred to in section 118(2)(d).

RSA 2000 cE-1 s43;2012 c5 s16

Absentee voters

44(1) A person who is otherwise eligible as an elector but who does not meet the residence requirements of section 16(c) and (d) because the person's ordinary place of residence is outside Alberta for the purpose of carrying out the person's function as

- (a) a member of the House of Commons of Canada representing an electoral district in Alberta,
- (b) a member of the Senate of Canada representing Alberta, or
- (c) an employee of the Government of Alberta

is, for the purposes of voting, deemed to be and to have been for the required period ordinarily resident in the polling subdivision of the electoral division in which the person last resided in Alberta and is eligible to have the person's name entered on the list of electors for that subdivision and to vote at an election.

(2) A person who

- (a) is the spouse or adult interdependent partner or a dependant of and is ordinarily resident with a person described in subsection (1), and
- (b) is otherwise eligible as an elector,

is, for the purposes of voting, deemed to be and to have been for the required period ordinarily resident in the same subdivision as the person described in subsection (1) and is eligible to have the person's name entered on the list of electors for that subdivision and to vote at an election.

(3) An application to have a name entered on the lists of electors must be made under section 37 to the returning officer of the electoral division before the time fixed for concluding revisions to the lists.

Appointment of administrative assistants

47.1(1) In preparation for the conduct of an election in an electoral division, the returning officer shall appoint an elector of the electoral division as administrative assistant.

(2) If an administrative assistant is unable or unwilling to act or neglects the administrative assistant's duties, the returning officer may appoint another administrative assistant in the administrative assistant's place.

(2.1) Where, in the opinion of the returning officer, the returning officer is unable to appoint a qualified person resident within an electoral division as administrative assistant for that electoral division, the returning officer may appoint as administrative assistant an elector resident in any other electoral division as the returning officer considers appropriate.

(3) Each administrative assistant shall, before assuming the administrative assistant's duties, take the prescribed oath of office.

(4) An administrative assistant shall assist the returning officer and the election clerk in the performance of their duties.

2004 c23 s26;2010 c8 s17;2012 c5 s18

Duties of election clerks

48(1) An election clerk shall assist the returning officer in the performance of the returning officer's duties and, if the returning officer becomes ineligible to hold the office or is unable or unwilling to act and has not been replaced by a successor, the election clerk or, if there is more than one, the election clerk first appointed, shall act as returning officer.

(2) When an election clerk is acting as a returning officer, the election clerk is liable for the election clerk's acts or omissions in the election clerk's capacity as returning officer as if the election clerk had been appointed a returning officer.

(3) An election clerk acting as a returning officer is not required to take the oath of a returning officer.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s44

Oaths and affidavits

49(1) An oath or affidavit required under this Act from any person except a returning officer may be sworn before the returning officer for the relevant electoral division.

(2) An oath or affidavit required under this Act from any person except a returning officer or election clerk may be sworn before the election clerk for the relevant electoral division.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s45

Revision of polling subdivision lists

50(1) Immediately following receipt of a writ, the returning officer shall have available in the returning officer's office and in any other location as directed by the Chief Electoral Officer one copy of the list of electors transmitted by the Chief Electoral Officer, together with a notice in the prescribed form designating the dates, time and place for consideration of applications for revisions to the list of electors.

(2) The period for considering applications for revisions to the list shall

- (a) commence on the 5th day after the date of the writ,
- (b) continue each day except Sundays and holidays, and
- (c) conclude on the Saturday of the week preceding the opening of the advance polls.

(3) Section 37 applies with all necessary modifications to revisions under this section.

(4) At 4 p.m. on the Saturday referred to in subsection (2)(c) or so soon after that hour as all applications of persons present at that hour are disposed of, the returning officer or election clerk shall

- (a) draw a line immediately under the last name on the list of electors for each polling subdivision, and
- (b) forthwith date the list and certify that the list of electors is closed to further revision by signing that official's name immediately under the line drawn under the last name on the list.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s50;2004 c23 s27

Access to electors list and revisions

51(1) The list of electors and a separate list of additions to or revisions of the list of electors shall be available in the office of the returning officer to any person for the purpose of

- (a) determining whether the person's name is on the list of electors, or
- (b) verifying whether the information about the person is correct.

(2) The lists referred to in subsection (1) shall be available from the date the Chief Electoral Officer issues a writ of election under section 40 until the end of polling day.

(3) A candidate or the candidate's official agent may inspect the list of electors and a separate list of additions to or revisions of the list of electors following the commencement of the revision period and may request copies of the additions to the list of electors.

(4) Any person requesting access to the information in the lists for the purposes set out in subsection (1) or (3) shall complete and sign a declaration.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s51;2004 c23 s28;2010 c8 s18

Location of polling places

52(1) Each returning officer shall, following receipt of the writ, provide polling places at which the polling stations for each polling subdivision within the returning officer's electoral division will be located.

(2) A polling place shall be in a location that, in the opinion of the returning officer, is convenient for the electors.

(3) Every polling place shall, where practicable, be situated so that it is readily accessible to handicapped persons.

(4) A returning officer may utilize as a polling place any public building or any school that is the property of any school district or school division organized under any Act if the building or school is suitable for the purpose.

(5) There may be more than one polling station located in a polling place.

(6) A polling place or polling station does not need to be located in the polling subdivision but shall be located in the electoral division.

(6.1) Notwithstanding subsection (6), with the prior written approval of the Chief Electoral Officer a polling place or polling station may be in an adjacent electoral division if the returning officer is unable to find a suitable place in the electoral division for the polling place or polling station.

(7) No polling place may be situated in licensed premises.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s52;2004 c23 s29

Change of polling place

53(1) If by reason of some emergency it is found to be impractical to hold the poll in a polling place fixed by the returning officer, the returning officer may fix a different polling place as near as possible to the location originally fixed and shall give immediate notice of the change to all candidates or their official agents by telephone, confirmed by written notice.

(2) When a different polling place is fixed under subsection (1), the returning officer shall cause a conspicuous sign that clearly and accurately states the location of the new polling place to be attached to the original place where the polling place was to be located.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s49

Polling place signs

54(1) Each returning officer shall

- (a) have prepared conspicuous signs for directing electors to the location of each polling place within the returning officer's electoral division, and
- (b) distribute the signs to each supervisory deputy returning officer or deputy returning officer in the returning officer's electoral division.

(2) The supervisory deputy returning officer or deputy returning officer shall place the signs received under subsection (1) at those places that will best direct attention to the polling place.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s54;2004 c23 s30;2012 c5 s19

Publication of election proclamation

55(1) Each returning officer shall, as soon as possible but not later than the 5th day before nomination day, issue a proclamation containing the following:

- (a) the place, dates and hours for considering applications for revisions to the lists of electors,
- (b) the place and hours fixed for the nomination of candidates and the date fixed for the closing of nominations,
- (c) the place, dates and hours fixed for voting at an advance poll if voting is necessary,
- (d) the date of polling day and the hours at which the polling places will open and close if voting is necessary,
- (e) the place, date and time for announcing the results of the official count, that date being the 10th day after polling day, and
- (f) the name, address and telephone number of the returning officer.

(2) A returning officer shall post a copy of the following in the returning officer's office:

- (a) the proclamation referred to in subsection (1);

- (b) a map of the electoral division including the numbered polling subdivisions;
- (c) a list of the locations of polling places;
- (d) a statement of the availability of level access to the office of the returning officer and to the advance polling places;
- (e) a list of the qualifications for electors who may use a Special Ballot.

(2.1) A returning officer shall as soon as possible publish the information in the proclamation referred to in subsection (1)(a) to (f) and the information referred to in subsection (2)(b), (d) and (e) in a newspaper of general circulation in the returning officer's electoral division and on the Chief Electoral Officer's website.

(3) A returning officer may post additional copies of the information in the proclamation referred to in subsection (1), the map and the list of locations at any other places in the electoral division where the returning officer considers they will be reasonably safe from damage and will serve to provide information to the public.

(4) If any of the information published under subsection (2.1) is or becomes inaccurate for any reason, the returning officer shall

- (a) publish details of the correction in the newspaper in which the information in the proclamation was published under subsection (2.1) and on the Chief Electoral Officer's website, and
- (b) immediately provide to all candidates or their official agents written details of the correction.

(5) If the returning officer is for any reason unable to comply with subsection (4), the returning officer shall immediately notify the Chief Electoral Officer, who shall take whatever action, if any, the Chief Electoral Officer considers appropriate.

Election by acclamation

64 If only one candidate is nominated by the time nominations close for an electoral division, the returning officer shall

- (a) immediately declare that candidate elected,
- (b) make the returning officer's return in the prescribed form to the Chief Electoral Officer certifying the election of the candidate, and
- (c) as soon as possible return to the Chief Electoral Officer the writ of election and all other election materials.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s58

Withdrawal of candidate

65(1) At any time after the filing of the candidate's nomination paper but not later than 48 hours before the opening of the polls on polling day, the candidate may withdraw by filing with the returning officer a declaration to that effect signed by the candidate and having the candidate's signature witnessed.

(2) If, after a candidate withdraws, only one candidate remains, the returning officer shall proceed in accordance with section 64 as if only one candidate had been nominated.

(3) If

- (a) a candidate withdraws after the ballots for the electoral division for which the candidate was nominated are printed, and
- (b) there remain 2 or more candidates,

the returning officer shall advise each deputy returning officer of the returning officer's electoral division personally or by letter or telephone of the withdrawal and, if there is sufficient time, shall prepare a notice of withdrawal and distribute a copy to each deputy returning officer, who shall post it in a conspicuous location in the deputy returning officer's polling place.

(4) When, in acting under subsection (3), there is insufficient time to prepare and distribute a notice of withdrawal, the returning officer, when advising the deputy returning officers of the withdrawal, shall instruct each of them to cause a notice of the withdrawal to be prepared by hand, and on so complying each deputy returning officer shall post the notice in a conspicuous location in the deputy returning officer's polling place.

(5) When a candidate has withdrawn, the deputy returning officer is responsible for ensuring that each voter is so advised when receiving a ballot.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s59

Death of candidate

66(1) If a candidate in an electoral division dies after being nominated and prior to the closing of the polling places on polling day,

- (a) the election for that electoral division shall be discontinued,
- (b) a new election for the electoral division shall be commenced under section 39 as if the election were a by-election, and
- (c) nominations of candidates previously filed remain valid for the new election.

(2) This Act applies to an election under this section as if it were a by-election.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s76

Ballot boxes

81(1) The Chief Electoral Officer shall provide each returning officer with a sufficient number of ballot boxes to conduct the election in the returning officer's electoral division.

(2) The ballot boxes shall be

- (a) made of a durable material,
- (b) accompanied with a sufficient number of appropriate seals, and
- (c) designed in a manner that permits the deposit of ballots but does not permit their removal without breaking the seals after they have been attached.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s77

Printing of ballots

82(1) Each returning officer shall have printed on paper supplied to the returning officer by the Chief Electoral Officer the ballots for use in the election in the returning officer's electoral division.

(2) The number of ballots printed shall exceed by at least 25% the number of electors listed in the electoral division.

(3) The printer shall deliver to the returning officer with the printed ballots a completed and executed Affidavit of Printer in the prescribed form.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s78

Contents of ballots

83(1) On each ballot shall be printed the name of each candidate together with

- (a) the name of the registered political party for which the candidate is the candidate, or
- (b) the word “Independent” if the candidate is not a candidate for a registered political party in a type of 10 point capital letters.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(a), an abbreviated form of the name of the registered political party or recognizable initials representing that party as directed by the leader of the political party under section 7(1)(b) of the Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act may be used.

(3) The names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballot as follows:

- (a) the candidate’s
 - (i) given name,
 - (i.1) middle name,
 - (ii) initials, or
 - (iii) nicknameor any combination of them in a type of 10 point capital letters;
- (b) the candidate’s surname shall appear following the given name, initials or nickname, as the case may be, and be in a type of 12 point capital letters;
- (c) the candidates’ names shall be listed on the basis of the alphabetical order of their surnames and, where 2 or more candidates have identical surnames, those candidates’ names shall be listed on the basis of the alphabetical order of their given names;
- (d) no titles, degrees, prefixes or suffixes may be included with a name.

(3.01) For the purpose of subsection (3)(a)(i.1), only one middle name is permitted.

(3.1) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (3), where the name of the registered political party or a candidate does not fit on the ballot, the returning officer shall have the ballots printed, in their entirety, in a font that is up to 2 points smaller than that required by subsections (1) and (3).

(3.2) The Chief Electoral Officer may disallow the use of a nickname if in the opinion of the Chief Electoral Officer it is a nickname by which the candidate is not generally known or that is unacceptable for any other reason.

(4) Every ballot shall include a counterfoil and stub, and there must be a line of perforations between

- (a) the ballot and the counterfoil, and
- (b) the counterfoil and the stub.

(5) The ballot, counterfoil and stub shall be in the prescribed form and shall be bound or stitched in books in quantities that the returning officer considers appropriate.

(6) The ballots shall be serially numbered with the number of each ballot appearing on the back of both the stub and counterfoil.

(7) All ballots shall be as nearly alike as possible.

(8) Repealed 2010 c8 s27.

Pilot for earlier opening of polls at a by-election

88.1(1) Notwithstanding section 88(1)(c), where authorized under subsection (3), polling places with respect to a by-election authorized under the regulations to be conducted in accordance with this section shall be open for the purpose of voting from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. on polling day.

(2) In order to assist with the counting of ballots at a poll for a by-election authorized to be conducted in accordance with this section, the Chief Electoral Officer may use vote-counting equipment for the purpose of conducting the unofficial count of votes under this Act.

(3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations

- (a) authorizing that a by-election may be conducted in accordance with this section;
- (b) respecting the modification of procedures under this Act for the unofficial counting of votes.

(4) After a by-election that has been authorized to be conducted in accordance with this section has been held, the Chief Electoral Officer shall table a report with the Standing Committee setting out the Chief Electoral Officer's opinion on the following:

- (a) whether any increase in voter turnout was attributable to the earlier opening of the poll;
- (b) whether the use of any vote-counting equipment that was used at the by-election was effective and efficient;
- (c) whether the extended hours had any adverse effect on election officials and their ability to carry out their functions, including whether they caused any difficulty in recruiting persons to work at the poll;
- (d) any other matter the Chief Electoral Officer considers appropriate.

(5) The Standing Committee shall lay the report before the Legislative Assembly if it is then sitting or, if it is not then sitting, not more than 15 days after the commencement of the next sitting of the Assembly.

Declaration procedure

95(1) An elector who is otherwise eligible to vote but whose name does not appear on the list of electors for the polling subdivision in which the elector is ordinarily resident may vote if

- (a) the elector produces to the registration officer or deputy returning officer the following proof of his or her identity and current residence:
 - (i) one piece of identification issued by a Canadian government, whether federal, provincial or local, or an agency of that government, that contains a photograph of the elector and his or her name and current address, or

- (ii) 2 pieces of identification authorized by the Chief Electoral Officer each of which establish the elector's name and at least one of which establishes the elector's current address,

and

- (b) the elector signs a declaration before the registration officer or deputy returning officer stating that the elector
 - (i) qualifies as an elector, and
 - (ii) ordinarily resides in that polling subdivision.

(2) An elector may instead prove his or her identity and residence by signing a declaration if he or she is accompanied by an elector whose name appears on the list of electors for the same polling subdivision and that elector

- (a) provides to the registration officer or deputy returning officer the piece or pieces of identification referred to in subsection (1)(a), and
- (b) vouches for him or her by signing a declaration.

(3) The registration officer or deputy returning officer shall indicate on the declaration referred to in subsections (1) and (2) the nature of the identification accepted.

(4) An elector who has been vouched for at an election may not vouch for another elector at that election.

(4.1) Scrutineers may not vouch for an elector.

(5) The Chief Electoral Officer shall publish each year, and within 3 days after the issue of a writ, in a manner that he or she considers appropriate, a notice setting out the types of identification that are authorized for the purpose of subsection (1)(a)(ii).

(6) The deputy returning officer shall, after receiving a signed declaration under subsection (1)(b) or (2), enter the elector's name and address on the list of electors and enter in the poll book in the appropriate column a check mark or other annotation indicating that the voter signed a declaration or was vouched for, as the case may be.

Voter assistance

96(1) The deputy returning officer, at the request of a voter who is unable to vote in the usual manner due to a physical incapacity or inability to read the ballot, shall

- (a) assist the voter by marking the voter's ballot in the manner directed by the voter in the presence of the poll clerk, and
- (b) if requested by the voter, place the ballot so marked in the ballot box.

(1.1) Where a voter is unable to access a polling place because of the voter's physical incapacity, the poll clerk, and the other election officers the deputy returning officer considers necessary, shall bring the ballot box to some other place on the site on which the polling place is located.

(1.2) Before bringing the ballot box to some other place under subsection (1.1), the poll clerk shall advise the scrutineers at the polling place.

(2) Repealed 2004 c23 s49.

(3) The deputy returning officer, in the case of a voter referred to in subsection (1), shall

- (a) if the voter is accompanied by a friend,
 - (i) permit the friend to accompany the voter into a polling booth to mark the voter's ballot, and
 - (ii) if requested by the voter or the friend, place the ballot in the ballot box,

or

- (b) if the voter is a blind voter and is not accompanied by a friend or does not wish to be assisted by the deputy returning officer,
 - (i) provide the voter with a Blind Voter Template in the prescribed form, and
 - (ii) instruct the voter in its use.

(4) A voter referred to in subsection (1) and the friend of such a voter, if assisting the voter to vote, shall both take the prescribed oath before voting.

(5) When a ballot has been marked pursuant to this section, the deputy returning officer or poll clerk shall enter in the poll book opposite the name of the voter and in the appropriate column either "voter assistance" or "template", as the case may be.

Polling place for advance poll

98(1) The returning officer shall establish at least one and no more than 4 polling places to enable electors to vote in advance at an election in the electoral division in which those electors ordinarily reside.

(1.1) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Chief Electoral Officer may authorize a returning officer to establish more than 4 polling places.

(2) The Chief Electoral Officer shall ensure that the distance that an elector would have to travel to attend at an advance poll is no greater than 100 km, unless the cost to do so in any particular situation would be unreasonable in the circumstances.

(3) The polling places for advance polling shall be open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. on each of the Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the full week preceding polling day.

(4) The provisions respecting the conduct of an election on polling day and related matters apply, with all necessary modifications, to the holding of an advance poll.

(5) After the opening of a polling place for an advance poll the deputy returning officer shall take all reasonable precautions to ensure that no other person except the poll clerk has access to the ballot box.

(6) Each day at the close of the polling place for an advance poll the ballot box

- (a) shall be sealed by the deputy returning officer and poll clerk, and
- (b) may be sealed by any candidate, official agent or scrutineer so desiring, so that it cannot be opened and no ballots can be deposited without breaking those seals.

(7) Seals placed on a ballot box shall not be removed from the time they are placed on it until the close of the polling places on polling day except as may be necessary at the opening of the polling place for the advance poll on the Friday and Saturday to permit the deposit of ballots.

(8) At the close of the polling place for the advance poll on the final day the deputy returning officer shall, after the seals have been affixed pursuant to subsection (6), take charge of and safely keep the ballot box until the close of polls on polling day, when the ballots shall be counted in accordance with section 111.

Provision of ballot

100(1) Each elector who presents himself or herself to vote on polling day shall give his or her name and address to the deputy returning officer and if

- (a) the name of that elector appears on the list of electors for the polling subdivision, or
- (b) the elector complies with section 95(1) or (2),

the poll clerk shall strike the elector's name off the list of electors and enter the name and address in the poll book if it is not already there, and for each name so recorded the poll clerk shall enter a number in consecutive sequence opposite it.

(2) The deputy returning officer shall provide to each elector recorded in the poll book a prefolded ballot

- (a) containing the deputy returning officer's initials in the prescribed place on its back so that when the ballot is folded the initials can be seen without unfolding it, and
- (b) that has a counterfoil attached to it on the back of which the deputy returning officer has inserted a number corresponding to the number recorded next to the elector's name in the poll book.

Voting procedure

101(1) The deputy returning officer shall, without inquiring or ascertaining for whom the voter intends to vote, instruct the voter to

- (a) proceed to one of the polling booths and there, with the marker provided, mark his or her ballot by placing an "X" in the white space opposite the name of the candidate of his or her choice,
- (b) refold the ballot so that the initials, electoral division and year of the election on the back of the ballot and the number on the back of the counterfoil can be seen without unfolding it, and
- (c) hand the folded ballot to the deputy returning officer.

(2) The deputy returning officer, without unfolding the ballot, shall in full view of the voter and all present

- (a) ascertain by examining
 - (i) the initials, and
 - (ii) the number on the counterfoil,that it is the same ballot the deputy returning officer provided to the voter,
- (b) remove and tear up the counterfoil, and
- (c) return the ballot to the voter so that the voter may place the ballot in the ballot box.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), on being requested by the voter, the deputy returning officer shall place the ballot in the ballot box.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s101;2010 c8 s36

Spoiled ballot

102(1) If a voter has dealt with the voter's ballot in a manner that may render its use inappropriate, the voter may surrender the ballot to the deputy returning officer and on surrendering it obtain a new ballot.

(2) The deputy returning officer shall immediately write the word "spoiled" on the previous ballot returned to the deputy returning officer under subsection (1) and place it in the required envelope to be sent to the returning officer, and the poll clerk shall annotate the poll book accordingly.

Elector's declaration

104(1) A deputy returning officer shall administer the declaration in the prescribed form to a person if

- (a) the deputy returning officer doubts the eligibility of that person to vote, or
- (b) the deputy returning officer is requested to do so by a candidate, official agent or scrutineer and the deputy returning officer is of the opinion that the request is made in good faith.

(2) An election officer, candidate, official agent or scrutineer who presents himself or herself for the purpose of voting at the polling subdivision in which that person ordinarily resides may be required by a candidate, official agent or scrutineer before that person votes to sign the declaration before the deputy returning officer or poll clerk located at that polling subdivision.

(3) If a voter

- (a) has signed a declaration for the purpose of voting, or
- (b) has refused to sign a declaration that the voter is required to complete for the purpose of voting, the poll clerk shall annotate the poll book accordingly.

(4) A person who refuses to sign the declaration when required to do so

- (a) shall not be provided with a ballot or permitted to vote,
- (b) forfeits the person's right to vote in the election, and
- (c) shall forthwith leave the polling place.

(5) An elector who has signed the declaration under section 95 is not required to sign a declaration under this section.

Prohibited conduct during polling

105(1) No person may

- (a) interfere or attempt to interfere with a voter who is attempting to mark the voter's ballot,
- (b) attempt to obtain any information at a polling place regarding which candidate a voter has voted for, is voting for or is about to vote for, or
- (c) prevent or attempt to prevent a person from exercising the person's right to vote.

(2) No person may communicate any information obtained at a polling place regarding which candidate a voter has voted for, is voting for or is about to vote for.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s102

Secrecy of vote

106(1) While a voter is in a polling booth for the purpose of marking the voter's ballot, no other person may, except as permitted in section 96, enter the polling booth or be in a position from which the person can see for whom the voter marks the voter's ballot.

(2) No person may directly or indirectly induce or attempt to induce a voter to show the voter's ballot after the voter has marked it so as to allow the name of the candidate for whom the voter has voted to be known.

(3) Except as provided in section 96, a voter shall not show the voter's ballot, after the voter has marked it, to any person so as to allow the name of the candidate for whom the voter voted to be known.

(4) A voter shall

- (a) vote without unnecessary delay, and
- (b) leave the polling place as soon as the voter's ballot has been placed in the ballot box.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s103

Taking ballot out of polling place

107(1) A person who receives a ballot shall not take it out of the polling place.

(2) If a person contravenes subsection (1), the deputy returning officer shall make an entry in the poll book in the appropriate column to the effect that the person received a ballot but took it out of the polling place.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) forfeits the right to vote in the election.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s107;2010 c8 s40

Declining to vote

107.1(1) If a person returns the person's ballot indicating that the person does not wish to mark the ballot, the deputy returning officer shall immediately write the word "declined" on the ballot and place it in the required envelope to be sent to the returning officer.

(2) A person who returns a ballot under subsection (1)

- (a) forfeits the right to vote in the election, and
- (b) shall forthwith leave the polling place.

(3) If a person declines to vote, the poll clerk shall annotate the poll book accordingly.

2010 c8 s40;2012 c5 s41

Alleged impersonation of an elector

108(1) If a person representing that person to be an elector applies for a ballot after another person has voted in the name of that elector, the person is entitled to receive a ballot and to vote after taking the prescribed oath and establishing the person's identity to the satisfaction of the deputy returning officer.

(2) The name of the voter shall be entered in the poll book and a note shall be made stating the fact that the voter voted after taking the oath, any objection made, and the name of any candidate on whose behalf an objection was made.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s105

Person deemed to have voted

RSA 1980 cE-2 s107

Procedure on close of poll

111(1) After the closing of the poll, the deputy returning officer shall immediately count the number of spoiled and declined ballots and record the total on the outside of the envelope containing those ballots and then seal it.

(2) On complying with subsection (1), the deputy returning officer shall count

- (a) the number of electors whose names appear on the list of electors, and
- (b) the number of voters recorded in the poll book as having voted, and shall draw a line immediately under the last name in the poll book and affix the deputy returning officer's initials.

(3) On complying with subsection (2), the deputy returning officer shall, in the presence of the poll clerk and those candidates, official agents and scrutineers entitled to be present, open the ballot box and proceed with a count of the votes, using tally sheets.

(4) The deputy returning officer shall provide to the poll clerk and any other person present who wishes to keep a tally a sufficient number of tally sheets.

(5) In counting the votes, the deputy returning officer shall reject and place in a rejected ballot envelope any ballot that

- (a) does not have on its back the name of the electoral division and year of the election,
- (b) does not indicate a vote for any candidate,
- (c) in the case of a vote by Special Ballot, does not indicate a vote for any candidate or registered political party, as the case may be,
- (d) contains votes for more than one candidate,

- (e) in the case of a vote by Special Ballot, contains votes for more than one candidate or registered political party, as the case may be,
 - (f) is so marked that it is uncertain for which candidate the vote was cast,
 - (g) in the case of a vote by Special Ballot, is so marked that it is uncertain for which candidate or registered political party, as the case may be, the vote was cast,
 - (h) contains a vote for a candidate who has withdrawn,
 - (h.1) in the case of a Special Ballot,
 - (i) does not have the prescribed identification document or documents required under section 118(2)(c.1) included in the certificate envelope, or
 - (ii) is treated as a rejected ballot under section 118(5)(b),
 - (i) in the case of a vote by Special Ballot, contains a vote for a candidate who has withdrawn or for a registered political party that does not have a candidate for the electoral division, or
 - (j) contains any writing or mark enabling the voter to be readily identified.
- (6) Notwithstanding subsection (5)(a) to (i), a ballot shall not be rejected
- (a) by reason of any writing, number or mark made or omitted by the deputy returning officer, or
 - (b) when the vote, though incorrectly made on the ballot, clearly indicates the voter's intention to vote for one particular candidate.
- (7) When, in the course of counting the votes, any ballot is found with the counterfoil still attached, the deputy returning officer shall, after carefully concealing the number from all persons present and without examining the number on the counterfoil himself or herself, remove and destroy the counterfoil, and shall not reject the ballot merely by reason of the deputy returning officer's previous failure to remove the counterfoil.
- (8) The deputy returning officer shall make a note in the poll book of every objection to a ballot and the name of any candidate on whose behalf an objection was made.

(9) Each objection shall be numbered and a corresponding number placed on the back of the ballot that is the subject of the objection and initialled by the deputy returning officer.

(10) The deputy returning officer shall decide any question arising out of an objection.

(11) Only the following persons may be present during the unofficial count of ballots and then only if they have taken the prescribed oath of secrecy:

- (a) the returning officer;
- (a.1) repealed 2012 c5 s42;
- (b) any other election officer authorized by the returning officer;
- (c) repealed 2012 c5 s42;
- (d) the Chief Electoral Officer, members of the Chief Electoral Officer's office staff designated by the Chief Electoral Officer and visiting officials from other electoral jurisdictions authorized by the Chief Electoral Officer;
- (e) the candidates;
- (f) the official agents of the candidates;
- (g) one scrutineer per candidate for each ballot box.

Procedure on conclusion of unofficial count

112 The deputy returning officer shall, at the conclusion of the count,

- (a) complete a Statement of Poll in sufficient numbers that shall be signed by the deputy returning officer, the poll clerk and any person present who wishes to sign the statement of the poll,
- (b) immediately communicate the unofficial results in accordance with the directions of the returning officer,
- (c) provide one copy of the Statement of Poll to each candidate or to the candidate's official agent or scrutineer present,
- (d) administer the poll clerk's oath and take the deputy returning officer's oath in the prescribed forms,

- (e) place the ballots for each candidate in the envelopes provided for that purpose and mark on the outside of each envelope the name of the candidate whose ballots are contained in it,
- (f) place the envelopes containing the ballots in one large envelope that the deputy returning officer shall then seal and endorse with an indication of its contents, and any scrutineer present may, if the scrutineer so wishes, write the scrutineer's signature across the envelope and its flap,
- (g) place the rejected ballots and the unused ballots in separate envelopes each of which the deputy returning officer shall then seal and endorse with an indication of its contents, and any scrutineer present may, if the scrutineer so wishes, write the scrutineer's signature across the envelope and its flap,
- (h) ensure that
 - (i) the list of electors,
 - (ii) all envelopes containing ballots,
 - (iii) the poll book,
 - (iv) the original copy of the Statement of Poll, and
 - (v) all other documents relating to the operation of the poll,are placed in the ballot box that the deputy returning officer shall immediately seal with the seal provided for that purpose and with the seals of those candidates or their official representatives who also desire to seal the ballot box,
- (i) return the sealed ballot box to the returning officer in accordance with section 114, and
- (j) retain the deputy returning officer's copy of the Statement of Poll until the returning officer completes the official count.

Voting by Special Ballot

118(1) On receipt of the prescribed forms, the voter shall mark the ballot by writing, with a pen or pencil of any colour, in the space provided, the name of the candidate or the registered political party of the candidate of the voter's choice.

(2) After marking the voter's ballot, the voter shall

- (a) place the marked ballot in the ballot envelope,
- (b) seal the ballot envelope,
- (c) place the ballot envelope in the certificate envelope,
- (c.1) place a copy of the prescribed identification document or documents in the certificate envelope,
- (d) complete and sign part 1 of the certificate and seal the certificate envelope,
- (e) place the certificate envelope in the outer envelope, and
- (f) seal the outer envelope.

(3) The outer envelope, when sealed, shall be forwarded so that it reaches the returning officer not later than the close of the polling places on polling day.

(4) On receipt of the outer envelope, the returning officer or election clerk shall remove and open the certificate envelope and determine

- (a) whether the name on the certificate envelope is the same as that of a person already entered in the Special Ballot Poll Book under section 116,
- (b) whether a copy of the prescribed identification document or documents has been included, and
- (c) whether part 1 of the certificate has been properly completed.

(5) On determining that the voter is recorded in the Special Ballot Poll Book, that a copy of the prescribed identification document or documents has been included and that part 1 of the certificate is completed, the returning officer or election clerk, as the case may be, shall,

- (a) if the returning officer or election clerk is satisfied as to the voter's eligibility to vote,
 - (i) sign part 2 of the certificate,
 - (ii) if the voter's name appears on the list of electors for the polling subdivision in which the voter is entitled to vote, put a line through the voter's name and enter opposite the name of that person on the list of electors the word "special",
 - (iii) if the voter's name does not appear on the list of electors for the polling subdivision in which the voter is entitled to vote, enter the voter's name on the list of electors and put a line through the voter's name and enter opposite the name of that voter on the list of electors the word "special",
 - (iv) record in the Special Ballot Poll Book in the appropriate column the date the returning officer or election clerk received the certificate envelope,
 - (v) remove the sealed ballot envelope from the certificate envelope and place the sealed ballot envelope in a sealed ballot box marked "special ballot",
 - (vi) enter in the Special Ballot Poll Book, in the appropriate columns, a check mark or other annotation indicating that the voter has voted and the reason for using the Special Ballot, that is, physical incapacity, absence, inmate, election officer, candidate, official agent, scrutineer, remote area or another reason prescribed by the Chief Electoral Officer, and

- (vii) retain the certificate envelope and the copy of the identification document or documents and forward them to the Chief Electoral Officer in accordance with section 142,

or

- (b) if the returning officer or election clerk is not satisfied as to the voter's eligibility to vote,
 - (i) retain the certificate envelope and its contents,
 - (ii) treat the ballot in the envelope as a rejected ballot, and
 - (iii) mark the certificate envelope accordingly.

(6) At the close of the polling place on polling day, the returning officer shall deliver the sealed ballot box referred to in subsection (5)(a)(v) to the authorized election officers in the electoral division and advise them of the names of the electors who have voted by Special Ballot, and the authorized election officers shall proceed in accordance with section 113 as if the ballot box were from an advance poll.

(6.1) Any election officer appointed for the electoral division may assist with the duties under subsection (6).

(7) After completing the count of the ballots, the election officer authorized by the returning officer shall record the results on the prescribed form.

Printed or electronic advertising

134(1) In this section, "advertisement" means an advertisement, for which there is or normally would be a charge, in any broadcast, print, electronic or other media, including telephone, fax, internet, electronic mail and text messaging, with the purpose of promoting or opposing any registered political party or the election of a registered candidate.

(2) A registered candidate, a registered constituency association and a registered political party must ensure that advertisements sponsored by the registered candidate, the registered constituency association or the registered political party comply with the following in accordance with the guidelines of the Chief Electoral Officer:

- (a) the advertisement must include the sponsor's name and contact information and must indicate whether the sponsor authorizes the advertisement;
- (b) subject to clause (c), in the case of an advertisement that is broadcast or is made through electronic media, the information referred to in clause (a) must be stated at the beginning of the advertisement;
- (c) in the case of an advertisement transmitted to a telephone, whether in the form of a live call or an automated pre-recorded call,
 - (i) the telephone number of the sponsor must be capable of being displayed on the call display of called parties who subscribe to call display, and must not be blocked from being displayed;
 - (ii) the name of the sponsor and the sponsor's party affiliation, if any, must be stated at the beginning of the advertisement;
 - (iii) the advertisement must state whether the sponsor authorizes the advertisement;
 - (iv) the telephone number of the sponsor or the sponsor's campaign office at which the sponsor can be contacted must be stated at the end of the advertisement.

(3) The Chief Electoral Officer shall establish guidelines respecting the requirements referred to in subsection (2).

(4) The guidelines must be published on the Chief Electoral Officer's website.

(5) If an advertisement is not in compliance with this section, the Chief Electoral Officer may cause it to be removed or discontinued, and in the case of an advertisement displayed on a sign, poster or other similar format neither the Chief Electoral Officer nor any person acting under the Chief Electoral Officer's instructions is liable for trespass or damage resulting from or occasioned by the removal.

Transmission of election survey results

135.2(1) The first person who transmits the results of an election survey, other than a survey described in section 135.3, to the public during an election period and any person who transmits them to the public within 24 hours after they are first transmitted to the public shall provide the following together with the results:

- (a) the name of the sponsor of the survey;
- (b) the name of the person or organization that conducted the survey;
- (c) the date on which or the period during which the survey was conducted;
- (d) the population from which the sample of respondents was drawn;
- (e) the number of people who were contacted to participate in the survey;
- (f) if applicable, the margin of error in respect of the data obtained.

(2) In addition to the information referred to in subsection (1), the following must be provided in the case of a transmission to the public by means other than broadcasting:

- (a) the wording of the survey questions in respect of which data was obtained, and
- (b) the means by which a report referred to in subsection (3) may be obtained.

(3) A sponsor of an election survey shall, at any time during an election period after the results of the survey are transmitted to the public, provide, on request, a copy of a written report on the results of the survey, as transmitted under subsection (1).

- (4) The written report must include the following, as applicable:
- (a) the name and address of the sponsor of the survey;
 - (b) the name and address of the person or organization that conducted the survey;
 - (c) the date on which or the period during which the survey was conducted;
 - (d) information about the method used to collect the data from which the survey results were derived, including
 - (i) the sampling method,
 - (ii) the population from which the sample was drawn,
 - (iii) the size of the initial sample,
 - (iv) the number of individuals who were asked to participate in the survey and the numbers and respective percentages of them who participated in the survey, refused to participate in the survey, and were ineligible to participate in the survey,
 - (v) the dates and time of day of the interviews,
 - (vi) the method used to recalculate data to take into account in the survey the results of participants who expressed no opinion, were undecided or failed to respond to any or all of the survey questions, and
 - (vii) any weighting factors or normalization procedures used in deriving the results of the survey;
 - (e) the wording of the survey questions and, if applicable, the margins of error in respect of the data obtained.
- (5) A sponsor may charge a fee of up to $0.25 per page for a copy of a report provided under subsection (3).

Part 4 Post-Polling-Day Procedures

Facilities for official count

136 The returning officer for each electoral division shall provide adequate quarters and facilities for receiving and conducting the official count of the ballots received from all the deputy returning officers of the returning officer's electoral division.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s136;2010 c8 s47

Conduct of official count

137(1) The returning officer shall give written notice to each candidate or each candidate's official agent of the place, date and time of commencement of the official count.

(2) No person may be allowed in the room where an official count is being conducted except

- (a) the returning officer and election clerk, and any other election officers authorized by the returning officer to assist with the counting of the ballots,
- (b) deputy returning officers in the discharge of their duties,
- (c) the candidates for the electoral division, their official agents or electors of the electoral division appointed in writing by the candidates, or all of them, and
- (d) the Chief Electoral Officer or a designate or both.

(3) In conducting the official count, the returning officer, with the assistance of the election clerk and any other election officers authorized by the returning officer to assist with the counting of the ballots, shall open each ballot box and remove the deputy returning officer's Statement of Poll and the envelopes containing the ballots.

(3.1) The returning officer shall

- (a) check the deputy returning officer's Statement of Poll,
- (b) make a note in the poll book of every objection to a ballot made by or on behalf of a candidate and the name of any candidate by or on whose behalf an objection was made,
- (c) number each objection to a ballot in the poll book, place a corresponding number on the back of the ballot and initial the back of the ballot,
- (d) decide any questions arising out of an objection regardless of whether a decision was made by the deputy returning officer in the first instance,
- (e) inspect all rejected ballots and decide on the validity of each ballot regardless of the previous rejection by the deputy returning officer,
- (f) supervise election officers in conducting the official count of the valid votes,
- (g) supervise election officers in reconciling the number of spoiled and declined ballots, and

(h) complete an official count of the valid votes.

(4) The decision of the returning officer under subsection (3)(d) or (e) is final, subject only to a judicial recount under this Part.

(5) On completion of the official count of the polls, the returning officer shall provide to each candidate or each candidate's official agent a Certificate and Return in the prescribed form indicating

- (a) the number of votes counted for each candidate under this section,
- (b) unless clause (c) applies, the name of the candidate to be declared elected pursuant to section 138, and
- (c) if no candidate can be declared elected because there is an equality of votes for 2 or more candidates, that the results of the election will be subject to a judicial recount under this Part.

(6) On complying with subsection (5), the returning officer shall prepare the prescribed Statement of Official Results.

Disclaimer

139(1) A candidate who has been declared elected under section 138(1) may disclaim the candidate's right to become a Member of the Legislative Assembly by filing a disclaimer in the prescribed form with the Chief Electoral Officer at any time after the candidate is declared elected under this Part and before the candidate would otherwise become a member of the Assembly by reason of section 1(2) of the Legislative Assembly Act.

(2) A candidate who files a disclaimer pursuant to subsection (1) shall deliver a copy of it forthwith to the returning officer and to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), if a disclaimer is filed pursuant to subsection (1), the election in which that candidate was declared elected is void.

(4) The filing of a disclaimer under subsection (1) does not affect any application under section 144 or appeal under section 148 by another candidate or the right of that other candidate to be declared elected if that other candidate's application or appeal is successful.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s139;2010 c8 s47

Delay in announcement of official results

140(1) If in any electoral division not all the ballot boxes have reached the returning officer by the date stated in the election proclamation for announcing the results of the official count, the returning officer shall on that date adjourn the proceedings for a period of not more than one week and subsequently may adjourn for further periods of not more than one week at a time.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the announcement of the results shall not be delayed under subsection (1) beyond 30 days from the date stated in the election proclamation.

(3) If after a delay of 30 days the ballot boxes are not recovered, the returning officer shall forthwith announce the results of the official count without considering the missing ballots.

(4) If a returning officer is unable for any reason other than the one referred to in subsection (1) to announce the results of the official count at the date and time stated in the election proclamation, the returning officer shall adjourn the proceedings from time to time as may be required.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the announcement of the results of the official count shall not be delayed under subsection (4) beyond 14 days from the date stated in the election proclamation.

Handling of documents and register information after official count

141(1) After the official count of the votes has been completed and the Statement of Official Results has been completed, the returning officer shall prepare the following for return to the Chief Electoral Officer in accordance with the Chief Electoral Officer's directions:

- (a) the lists of electors;

- (b) the various envelopes containing the ballots;
- (c) the poll books;
- (d) the election proclamation;
- (e) the writ;
- (f) the Statement of Official Results;
- (g) the Certificate and Return;
- (h) repealed 2012 c5 s51;
- (i) any other documents requested by the Chief Electoral Officer.

(2) The returning officer shall enter in the register in accordance with the directions of the Chief Electoral Officer any information listed in section 13(2) that is collected during the election period.

(3) The returning officer shall complete the updating of the register under subsection (2) within the time period set out in section 142(1).

(4) The returning officer shall prepare a report concerning the election proceedings in the returning officer's electoral division, including the returning officer's recommendations regarding those proceedings as prescribed by the Chief Electoral Officer, within a time period determined by the Chief Electoral Officer.

Judicial recount

144(1) An application may be made to the Court in accordance with this section for a judicial recount of some or all of the votes for an election.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (5), an application may only be made on one or both of the following bases:

- (a) that votes were not correctly accepted or ballots were not correctly rejected;
- (b) that a Certificate and Return does not accurately record the number of votes for a candidate.

(3) An application must be filed not later than 8 days after the date the returning officer announces the results of the official count under section 138 and on the filing of the application, the clerk of the Court shall set the date of the recount not later than the 10th day after the filing of the application.

- (4) The application may only be filed
 - (a) by a candidate or the candidate's official agent, or
 - (b) by a returning officer in the case of a declaration made under section 138(1)(b).
- (5) The returning officer shall make an application under this section if a declaration has been made under section 138(1)(b).
- (6) At least 4 days' notice of the time and place appointed for the recount shall be given by the applicant
 - (a) to the candidates, in the manner prescribed in section 68, and
 - (b) to the returning officer, if the returning officer is not the applicant, and the election clerk.
- (7) A candidate served with notice under subsection (6) respecting a recount that is limited to a recount of votes that have been rejected or in respect of which there has been an objection may, not later than the 2nd day following service of the notice, make application for any further recount as if the application had been made within the original 8-day period.

Conduct of recount

146(1) At the time and place appointed and in the presence of the persons entitled or required to attend, the judge shall conduct the recount.

(2) If consented to by the applicant or applicants for the recount, the returning officer and the candidates present at the recount, the judge may limit the ballots to be considered to those for which the recount was requested.

(3) In his or her discretion, the judge may consider other ballots and open other envelopes in addition to those for which the recount was requested, and for this purpose may require the returning officer to bring other ballot boxes.

(4) The judge may hear any oral evidence the parties wish to adduce.

(5) In the case of a recount of all the votes, the judge shall open all the envelopes containing

- (a) the votes counted,
- (b) the rejected ballots,
- (c) the spoiled and declined ballots, and
- (d) the unused ballots.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), the judge shall not open the outer envelope containing a Special Ballot if the envelope was received by the returning officer after the closing of the polling places on polling day.

(7) The judge shall as far as practicable proceed continuously with the recount from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. or for any longer hours to which the judge and the persons present agree.

(8) During the periods when the recount is not being actually conducted, the judge shall place the ballots and other related documents in a closed container under the judge's seal and the seals of any others present who so desire, and shall cause to be taken all other security precautions the judge considers necessary.

(9) The judge shall conduct a recount according to the provisions governing an official count by a returning officer and shall verify and, if necessary, amend the Statement of Official Results.

(10) When a recount is completed, the judge shall seal all the ballots in their respective envelopes and shall seal the statements of the deputy returning officers in suitably marked envelopes.

(11) On the request of any party to the proceedings, the judge shall number any disputed ballots on their backs and seal them in a separate envelope.

Results of recount

147 On conclusion of a recount, the judge shall immediately certify the result to the returning officer, who shall, on the 3rd day after the certification,

- (a) declare elected the candidate found to have received the largest number of votes, unless the returning officer is served with a notice of appeal under section 148(1), or
- (b) declare that the results of the election are subject to an appeal under section 148
 - (i) if the returning officer is served with a notice of appeal under section 148(1), or
 - (ii) if no candidate can be declared elected because there is an equality of votes for 2 or more candidates.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s147;2010 c8 s47

Appeal to Court of Appeal

148(1) Any party may appeal to the Court of Appeal from the decision of a judge of the Court of Queen's Bench respecting a recount under section 146 by serving the judge, the parties and the returning officer with a notice of appeal not later than the 2nd day following the judge's certification of the result.

(2) The returning officer shall appeal if, after the results of a recount referred to in section 147, a candidate cannot be declared elected because there is an equality of votes for 2 or more candidates.

(3) A notice of appeal may limit the appeal to specified ballots.

(4) If an appeal is limited to specified ballots, the judge shall

- (a) seal in a packet the ballots so specified, and

(b) immediately forward the packet and the certified results to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal.

(5) If an appeal is not limited to specified ballots, the judge shall immediately forward all ballots and relevant documentation to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal.

(6) On receipt of the ballots and documents, the Registrar of the Court of Appeal shall set the matter down for hearing not later than the 10th day after the receipt, and shall notify the parties and the returning officer accordingly.

(7) At the conclusion of the appeal, the Court of Appeal shall declare the results of the election in accordance with its recount and shall issue to the returning officer a certificate of those results.

(8) On receipt of the certificate of results under subsection (7), the returning officer shall

- (a) declare elected the candidate found to have received the largest number of votes, or
- (b) if no candidate can be declared elected because there is an equality of votes for 2 or more candidates, declare that no member was elected for the electoral division.

Costs

148.1(1) If a recount is conducted or an appeal is heard under this Part, the court may direct

- (a) that the parties bear their own costs, or
- (b) that costs be paid to one or more of the parties by any or all of the following:
 - (i) the applicant;
 - (ii) one or more of the candidates;
 - (iii) the Crown in right of Alberta.

(2) Costs must be determined in accordance with the Alberta Rules of Court and the practice and procedure of the Court of Queen's Bench or the Court of Appeal, as the case may be.

Publication of election results

150(1) On receiving a Certificate and Return respecting the election of a member to serve in the Legislative Assembly, the Chief Electoral Officer shall cause notice of the receipt of the Certificate and Return and the name of the candidate elected to be published in The Alberta Gazette.

(2) The Chief Electoral Officer shall provide a copy of each Certificate and Return respecting the election of a member to serve in the Legislative Assembly to

- (a) the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, and
- (b) the Clerk of the Assembly, and where a judicial recount or an appeal has been commenced under section 144 or 148, the Chief Electoral Officer shall notify the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly and the Clerk of the Assembly of that recount or appeal and the results of that recount or appeal.

Inspection of election documents

152(1) A candidate and the candidate's official agent, or either of them, may for a period of 30 days after the publication in The Alberta Gazette of the name of the candidate declared elected in the relevant electoral division, inspect any election documents, except ballots, retained by the Chief Electoral Officer and pertaining to the election in that electoral division.

(2) If within the 30-day period described in subsection (1) a candidate in an electoral division, a candidate's official agent or a political party that has a candidate in the electoral division makes a written request to the Chief Electoral Officer for a copy of the poll books for the relevant electoral division, the Chief Electoral Officer shall, on payment of the cost to produce the copy as determined by the Chief Electoral Officer, furnish the copy to the candidate, official agent or political party.

(3) Information contained in documents referred to in subsections (1) and (2) may be used only for electoral purposes.

(3.1) A candidate, a candidate's official agent or a political party to whom a copy of a poll book has been furnished under this section shall take all reasonable steps to protect the poll book and the information contained in it from loss and unauthorized use.

(3.2) A candidate, a candidate's official agent or a political party to whom a copy of a poll book has been furnished under this section shall immediately notify the Chief Electoral Officer if the poll book or the information contained in the poll book has been lost.

(3.3) On being notified under subsection (3.2), the Chief Electoral Officer shall direct the candidate, the candidate's official agent or the political party to take any action the Chief Electoral Officer considers appropriate.

(4) Subject to subsection (1), no person may inspect any election documents retained by the Chief Electoral Officer pertaining to the election in that electoral division except by order of a judge.

(5) A judge may make an order under subsection (4) if the judge is satisfied on oral or affidavit evidence that inspection of the election documents is required for the purpose of

- (a) a prosecution for an offence under this Act, or
- (b) a petition questioning an election or return.

(6) An order under this section may be made subject to any conditions regarding the inspection that the judge considers appropriate.

Part 5
Administrative Penalties and Offences*Administrative penalties

153.1(1) If the Chief Electoral Officer is of the opinion that a person has contravened a provision of this Act, the Chief Electoral Officer may serve on the person either a notice of administrative penalty requiring the person to pay to the Crown the amount set out in the notice, or a letter of reprimand.

(2) A notice of administrative penalty must contain the following information:

- (a) the name of the person required to pay the administrative penalty;
- (b) the particulars of the contravention;
- (c) the amount of the administrative penalty and the date by which it must be paid;
- (d) a statement of the right to appeal the imposition or the amount of the administrative penalty to the Court of Queen's Bench.

(3) In determining the amount of an administrative penalty required to be paid or whether a letter of reprimand is to be issued, the Chief Electoral Officer must take into account the following factors:

- (a) the severity of the contravention;
- (b) the degree of wilfulness or negligence in the contravention;
- (c) whether or not there were any mitigating factors relating to the contravention;
- (d) whether or not steps have been taken to prevent reoccurrence of the contravention;
- (e) whether or not the person has a history of non-compliance;

- (f) whether or not the person reported the contravention on discovery of the contravention;
- (g) any other factors that, in the opinion of the Chief Electoral Officer, are relevant.

(4) The amount of an administrative penalty that may be imposed under subsection (1) must not exceed the maximum fine that could be imposed for the corresponding offence under sections 154 to 161.

(5) A person who pays an administrative penalty in respect of a contravention shall not be charged under this Act with an offence in respect of the same contravention that is described in the notice of administrative penalty.

(6) A person who has been served with a notice of administrative penalty shall pay the amount of the administrative penalty within 30 days from the date of service of the notice.

(7) Subject to the right to appeal, where a person fails to pay the administrative penalty in accordance with a notice of administrative penalty, the Chief Electoral Officer may file a copy of the notice of administrative penalty with the clerk of the Court of Queen's Bench, and on being filed, the notice has the same force and effect and may be enforced as if it were a judgment of the Court.

177(1) A person who commits a corrupt practice is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5000 or to imprisonment for not more than 2 years or to both fine and imprisonment.

(2) An offence under this Part shall be tried in the Court of Queen's Bench under the summary conviction procedure.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s172

Corrupt practice by candidate

178(1) If the Court finds that an elected candidate is guilty of a corrupt practice or that a corrupt practice was committed with the knowledge and consent of the elected candidate, the Court shall declare the election in which the candidate was elected void.

(2) If the Court finds that a candidate, other than the elected candidate, is guilty of a corrupt practice or that a corrupt practice was committed with the knowledge and consent of the candidate, the Court shall send a report of its findings to the Chief Electoral Officer and, subject to subsection (3), may declare the election in which the candidate was nominated void.

(3) The Court may confirm the election of a candidate in relation to which the Court finds that a corrupt practice was committed by another candidate if the Court is satisfied that

- (a) the elected candidate did not also commit a corrupt practice,
- (b) the corrupt practice of the other candidate was not committed with the knowledge and consent of the elected candidate, and
- (c) the corrupt practice of the other candidate did not materially affect the results of the election.

(4) During the 8 years immediately following the date on which the Chief Electoral Officer receives the report of the Court under subsection (1) or (2), the candidate who is the subject of the report is, subject to subsection (5), prohibited from

- (a) being nominated as a candidate under this Act,
- (b) being elected to any public office under any other Act,
- (c) being entered on any list of electors,
- (d) being registered as an elector,
- (e) voting at an election, and
- (f) holding any office at the nomination of the Crown.

(5) If the Court finds that

- (a) a corrupt practice was committed by a candidate, or by any other person with the knowledge and consent of a candidate,
- (b) the corrupt practice was committed without any corrupt intent and in ignorance that was excusable in the circumstances, and
- (c) the candidate honestly desired and attempted as far as reasonably possible to have the election conducted according to law, the Court shall make an order declaring that the prohibitions referred to in subsection (4) do not apply to the candidate.

Payments not constituting corrupt practice

182(1) The following payments made by a candidate do not constitute a corrupt practice or an improper payment:

- (a) reasonable rent or hire of halls or other places used by a candidate personally to address public meetings of electors, and the expenses incurred in
 - (i) providing equipment or services to be used in respect of the meeting, and
 - (ii) heating, lighting and cleaning the premises rented;
- (b) reasonable, ordinary and necessary travelling and living expenses of the candidate;
- (c) reasonable, ordinary and necessary travelling and living expenses of one speaker for each public meeting to be addressed by the candidate if the speaker accompanies the candidate and travels with the candidate for the purpose of so speaking;
- (d) reasonable and ordinary charges for the hire of conveyances for the use of the candidate in travelling to and from public meetings and in canvassing in the electoral division and reasonable and ordinary charges for the services and maintenance of a person operating the conveyance.

(2) The onus is on the candidate to show that the campaign expenses paid by the candidate under subsection (1) were fair, reasonable and proper and not in excess of what is ordinarily paid for similar facilities, services and goods.

(3) The contracting for or the receipt of ordinary and reasonable charges

- (a) by the owner or possessor of a hall or other place in which to hold bona fide public meetings for purposes related to the election,
- (b) by a printer for printing lists of electors, election addresses or advertisements or notices of election meetings, or
- (c) by any person for the hire of transportation used in connection with and for the proper purposes of the election, is lawful and does not disqualify the owner, printer or other person from voting.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s176

Effect of previous corrupt practices

183(1) If an election is void due to one or more corrupt practices being committed and a 2nd election is held, the 2nd election is a new election and is not to be considered void by reason of corrupt practices committed at the former election except for those corrupt practices that were

- (a) the personal acts of the candidate, or
- (b) the personal acts of the candidate's official agent done with the candidate's knowledge and consent.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the new election is not to be considered void for corrupt practices by the candidate at the former election if the corrupt practices were not proved at a trial and so adjudged by the Court so as to make applicable the prohibitions specified in section 178.

Part 7 Controverted Elections

Filing of petition

185(1) A petition may be filed with the Court in accordance with this Part to void an election by reason of the undue return or undue election of a candidate as the member of the Legislative Assembly for an electoral division.

(2) The petition

- (a) may be filed only by
 - (i) a candidate defeated in the election, or
 - (ii) a person who on the polling day of the election was qualified to vote at the election,
- (b) except as provided in clause (c), shall be filed with the Court within 30 days after the date of the issue of The Alberta Gazette containing the notice published pursuant to section 149, and

- (c) may be filed with the Court at any time during the continuation of the Legislative Assembly of which the elected candidate is a member, if the grounds for the petition relate only to the eligibility of the respondent as a candidate at the time of the filing of the candidate's nomination paper.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s179;1983 cL-10.1 s54

Petition

186(1) The petition

- (a) may be in the prescribed form;
- (b) shall within the time prescribed by section 185 be filed at the judicial centre located in the electoral division or, if there is none, at the judicial centre closest to the electoral division;
- (c) shall contain the following statements:
 - (i) the right of the petitioner to petition;
 - (ii) the holding and result of the election in general terms;
 - (iii) in a brief form the facts and grounds relied on to sustain the prayer;
- (d) shall conclude with a prayer that the election be declared void and set aside.

(2) No person, other than the candidate whose election is challenged, shall be named as a respondent in the petition.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s186;2011 c14 s6

Security for costs

187 The petitioner shall at the time the petitioner files the petition deposit with the clerk the sum of $1000 as security for the respondent's costs of and incidental to the petition and the proceedings under the petition.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s187;2004 c23 s80

Service of petition

188(1) A copy of the petition shall, within 20 days after being filed, be served on the respondent and the Chief Electoral Officer, and service of the copy of the petition may be effected

- (a) in the way that service of a statement of claim in an ordinary civil action in the Court is effected, or
- (b) in the manner provided by section 68.

(2) On the Court being satisfied by affidavit either before or after the time limited by subsection (1) for the service of a copy of the petition

- (a) that every reasonable effort has been made to effect service, and
- (b) that service has not been effected,

it may ex parte extend the time for effecting service for a period not exceeding 10 days and so on from time to time until service has been effected, or the Court may make an ex parte order for substitutional service of the petition.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s188;2012 c5 s56

Address for service

189(1) The petitioner shall endorse on the petition an address for service, which shall not be more than 5 kilometres from the clerk's office, at which all summonses, notices, demands and other papers in the proceedings may be served on the petitioner, and in default of the petitioner doing so the summonses, notices, demands and other papers in the proceedings may be served on the petitioner by being filed with the clerk.

(2) The respondent shall, within 10 days after being served with the petition, file with the clerk a notice in writing specifying an address for service, which shall not be more than 5 kilometres from the clerk's office, at which all summonses, notices, demands and other papers in the proceedings may be served on the respondent, and in default of the respondent doing so the summonses, notices, demands and other papers may be served on the respondent by being filed with the clerk.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s183

Application to set aside petition

190 The respondent may, at any time within 20 days after the service on the respondent of the petition, apply to the Court to set the petition aside on any of the following grounds:

- (a) that the petitioner is not qualified to file a petition;
- (b) that the petition was not filed within the prescribed time;
- (c) that the deposit has not been made as provided in section 187;

- (d) that the petition does not on its face disclose sufficient grounds or facts to have the election declared void;
- (e) that service of a copy of the petition has not been made on the respondent as prescribed by this Part,

and the Court, if satisfied that the application is well founded, may order the petition to be set aside or, if it is not so satisfied, the Court may dismiss the application.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s184;1983 cL-10.1 s54

Application by respondent for further particulars

191(1) Evidence need not be stated in the petition, but the respondent may

- (a) within 20 days after service on the respondent of the petition, unless the respondent applies to set aside the petition, and
- (b) if the respondent applies to set aside the petition, within 5 days after the application is disposed of if the application is dismissed, apply to the Court for particulars or for further and better particulars of the facts and grounds relied on to sustain the prayer of the petition.

(2) On hearing an application under subsection (1), the Court

- (a) may direct any particulars that may be necessary to prevent surprise and to ensure a fair and effectual trial,
- (b) may prescribe the time within which the particulars must be delivered, and
- (c) may direct that in case the particulars are not delivered as prescribed, the petitioner will not be at liberty to give any evidence at the trial with respect to facts and grounds of which particulars are ordered and not delivered.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s187

Time and place of trial

192(1) At any time after the petition is at issue the petitioner may apply to the Court to appoint a time and place for the trial of the petition, and the Court, on being satisfied that the petition is at issue, shall appoint a time and place for trial.

(2) A petition is at issue when all other orders on applications under sections 190 and 191 have been made, whether granting or refusing the applications, or if no applications have been made when the time for making those applications has expired.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s189

Application to dismiss petition

193 If the petitioner does not within one month after the petition is at issue apply to the Court to appoint a time and place for the trial of the petition, the respondent may apply to the Court to dismiss the petition, and the Court may either dismiss the petition or appoint a time and place for the trial of the petition.

Rules of Court apply

194 The petition and all proceedings under it is deemed to be a cause in the Court and all the provisions of the Alberta Rules of Court insofar as they are applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this Part, including the tariff of costs for clerks, sheriffs, civil enforcement agencies, civil enforcement bailiffs, solicitors and counsel and interpreters, apply to the petition and proceedings.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s191;1994 cC-10.5 s124

Report to Chief Electoral Officer

195(1) The judge who tries the petition shall forthwith on the expiration of 14 days after the filing of the judge's directions for judgment, unless

- (a) a notice of appeal, and
- (b) an order of a judge staying the proceedings

has before the expiration of 14 days been filed in the clerk's office, make and forward to the Chief Electoral Officer a report of the judge's judgment including the judge's reasons.

(2) If the judgment contains findings that the respondent was unduly returned or elected,

- (a) the election in which the respondent was a candidate is void on the receipt of the judge's report by the Chief Electoral Officer, and
- (b) the Chief Electoral Officer shall inform the Lieutenant Governor in Council of the report.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s192;1983 cL-10.1 s54

Withdrawal from proceedings

196(1) The petitioner may at any time withdraw the petitioner's petition by

- (a) filing with the clerk a statement in writing that the petitioner withdraws it, and
- (b) serving the respondent with a notice of withdrawal, and in that case the Court shall on application order the petitioner to pay the respondent's costs of and incidental to the petition and the proceedings under it.

(2) The respondent may at any time withdraw any statement of objections by

(a) filing with the clerk a written statement that the respondent withdraws it, and

(b) serving the petitioner with a notice of withdrawal, and in that case the Court shall on application order the respondent to pay the petitioner's costs of and incidental to that statement.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s193

Admission of undue election

197(1) The respondent may at any time admit that the respondent was unduly returned or elected by filing with the clerk a statement in writing admitting that fact and consenting to the entry of a judgment declaratory of that fact and by serving the petitioner with a notice that the statement has been filed.

(2) If a statement is filed under subsection (1), the petitioner may enter a formal judgment declaring the election void, and if the petitioner so desires directing the respondent to pay the petitioner's costs of and incidental to the petition, and on the judgment being entered, the Court shall send a report of the facts to the Chief Electoral Officer, and on the receipt of it by the Chief Electoral Officer, the election is void and a writ of election shall issue to fill the vacancy so created.

Costs

198(1) Except when otherwise provided by this Part, the costs of the petition and all matters incidental to it and arising out of it are to be dealt with in the same manner as in any ordinary civil matter before the Court.

(2) If the judge at any time orders costs to be paid by the petitioner, the judge may, when the petition and all matters arising out of it have been finally determined and disposed of, order the costs to be paid out of the money deposited by the petitioner on filing the petition, but nothing in this subsection is to be construed as preventing the respondent from proceeding at any time to recover any costs that may have been awarded to the respondent according to the ordinary practice of the Court.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s195

Appeals

199(1) An appeal lies to the Court of Appeal from any order, direction or determination of the judge and from any judgment entered in pursuance of it, and the appeal and all proceedings relating to it shall be had and taken, and the Court of Appeal shall, subject to this Part, deal with the appeal in the same manner as appeals in civil matters from the Court of Queen's Bench.

(2) If the appeal is from an order or determination of a judge, other than the judgment entered on the trial of petition, the notice of appeal shall be filed and served within 10 days from the entry of the judgment or order and it does not operate as a stay of proceedings unless so ordered by the judge.

(3) If a judge orders a stay of proceedings under subsection (2), the judge may do so on any terms the judge thinks just, and the judge may in making the order, or afterwards by separate order, fix the time for doing any act required or authorized by this Part to be done, the time for doing which has been fixed without reference to an appeal, and the judge or any other judge may for reasonable cause at any time set aside or modify any stay of proceedings that has been ordered under this section.

(4) If the appeal is from any finding, determination or judgment under section 195 or 197, the appellant shall file and serve the appellant's notice of appeal within 14 days after the filing of the directions for judgment and shall, before the expiration of that period, apply ex parte to the judge for a stay of proceedings, and the judge on being satisfied that the notice of appeal has been duly given shall make an order staying proceedings.

(5) After a stay of proceedings has been made, the appeal shall proceed and be dealt with in the same manner and is subject to the same rules as an ordinary appeal in a civil action.

(6) The costs of the appeal shall be dealt with in the same manner as in any ordinary civil appeal before the Court of Appeal.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s196

Report of judgment on appeal

200 On judgment being given by the Court of Appeal, the presiding judge shall forthwith send to the Chief Electoral Officer

- (a) a report of the judgment and with it a copy of all reasons for judgment given by any member of the Court of Appeal, and
- (b) a copy of the reasons of the trial judge for the judgment appealed from and on the receipt by the Chief Electoral Officer of the report, the same consequences follow and the same acts shall be done as on the receipt of a report of a judge under section 195.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s197

No count of ballots by judge

201 Nothing in this Part shall be construed to authorize a judge to count or recount the ballots cast at any election, and the count of ballots or the recount, if any, under Part 4 is conclusive.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s198

Part 8 General

Certain irregularities excused

202 No election is void by reason of

- (a) an irregularity on the part of an election officer or in any of the proceedings preliminary to the poll,
- (b) a failure to hold a poll at any place appointed for holding a poll,
- (c) a non-compliance with the provisions of this Act relating to the taking of the poll or the counting of the votes or with regard to limitations of time, or
- (d) any mistake in the use of the prescribed forms,

if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Court that the election was conducted in accordance with this Act and that the irregularity, failure, non-compliance or mistake did not materially affect the result of the election.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s199

General evidence

203 In any proceeding under this Act it is not necessary at any hearing to produce the writ or the election return or to establish the authority of the returning officer founded on the writ, but general evidence is sufficient.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s200

Confidentiality of vote

204 In any inquiry or legal proceeding relating to an election or return, a voter is not required to reveal for whom the voter voted.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s201

Returning officer's certificate

205 The certificate of the returning officer to the effect that the election was held and that any person stated in the certificate to have been a candidate was in fact a candidate constitutes proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the contents of the certificate without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed the certificate.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s202

Delay in court proceedings

206 In the event of suspension or delay at any stage of the proceedings, the Court before which the matter is pending may permit one or more persons to intervene and carry out the proceedings to a final determination.

RSA 1980 cE-2 s203

Regulations

207 The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations

- (a) prescribing the amounts of honoraria and fees;
- (b) establishing rates for the payment of expenses;
- (c) respecting forms for the purposes of this Act;
- (d) prescribing oaths to be used;
- (e) governing any necessary matter for which no provision is made in this Act.

RSA 2000 cE-1 s207;2010 c8 s53

Part 9 Fees and Expenses

Fees and expenses

208 The method and procedure of applying for payment in respect of services and expenses under this Act shall be prescribed by the Chief Electoral Officer.
