was sufficient to affect the result of the election if they had not been counted or rejected, as the case may be, or

(c) the returning officer is of the opinion that there may have been an administrative or technical error that may cause an error in the count of votes.

(2) If the returning officer makes a recount, the returning officer shall

(7) If the recount results in an equality of votes different from the result of the original count and it is necessary to determine which candidate is elected, section 99 applies.

(8) If votes have been taken and counted under section 84, a reference in this section to a voting station is deemed to include the place where the votes were counted.
