- (p) a person is included in or excluded from a unit;
- (q) a strike has occurred or is lawful under this Act;
- (r) a lockout has occurred or is lawful under this Act, and the Board's decision is final and binding.

(3) The Chair or a vice-chair may sit alone to hear and decide a question under subsection (2)(b), (c), (j), (k), (n) or (p).

RSA 2000 cP-43 s3;2016 c10 s20

Part 3 Trade Unions and Bargaining Units

Division 1 Trade Unions

Filing of constitution, etc., of trade union

4(1) In accordance with the rules and procedures established by the Board, a trade union shall file with the Board

- (a) a copy of its constitution, bylaws or other constitutional documents, and
- (b) the names and addresses of its president, secretary, officers and other organizers and the names of its officers who are authorized to sign collective agreements.

(2) The trade union shall send to the Board any changes to the information supplied under subsection (1) as soon as possible after the change is made and in any event when required to do so by the Board.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s12;1994 c19 s2(4)

Disclosure of information

5 The Board is not required to divulge any information as to whether a person

- (a) is or is not a member of a trade union,
- (b) has or has not applied for membership in a trade union, or
- (c) has or has not indicated in writing the person's selection of a trade union to be, or the person's opposition to the trade union's being, the bargaining agent on the person's behalf.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s13;1994 c19 s2(4)

Status of trade unions

6(1) For the purposes of this Act, a trade union is capable of

- (a) prosecuting and of being prosecuted, and
- (b) suing and being sued.

(2) A trade union and its acts shall not be deemed to be unlawful by reason only that one or more of its objects or purposes are in restraint of trade.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s14

Expulsion and suspension of trade union members

7 No trade union shall expel or suspend any of its members or take disciplinary action against or impose any form of penalty on any person for any reason other than a failure to pay the periodic dues, assessments and initiation fees uniformly required to be paid by all members of the trade union as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the trade union unless that person has been

- (a) served with specific charges in writing,
- (b) given a reasonable time to prepare the person's defence,
- (c) afforded a full and fair hearing, including the right to be represented by counsel, and
- (d) found guilty of the charge or charges and, when a fine is imposed, fails to pay the fine after having been given a reasonable time to do so.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s15

Temporary trade union cards

8 When a trade union issues a temporary card to a person who is not a member of the trade union, the fee charged by the trade union for the temporary card for each month shall not exceed an amount equivalent to the dues payable by a member of the trade union for the same period.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s16

Rights of employees and employers

9(1) An employee has the right

- (a) to be a member of a trade union and to participate in its lawful activities, and
- (b) to bargain collectively with the employee's employer through a bargaining agent.

(2) An employer has the right to bargain collectively with its employees.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s17

Division 2
Bargaining Units*Crown employees

10 The employees of the Crown in right of Alberta constitute a single bargaining unit.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s18

Other employers

11(1) This section does not apply to the employees of the Crown in right of Alberta.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the employees of each employer respectively constitute single bargaining units unless the Board otherwise determines in accordance with section 16(3).

RSA 1980 cP-33 s19;1994 cR-9.07 s25(32);1994 c19 s2(5)

Division 3
Persons Included in and Excluded from Bargaining Units and Other Units for Collective Bargaining

Composition of bargaining units

12(1) A person employed by an employer

- (a) who has or exercises managerial duties and responsibilities in relation to one or more persons or in relation to the formulation, development or administration of policies or programs,
- (b) who is primarily engaged in the administration of personnel policies or personnel programs including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, payroll, health and safety or training programs,
- (c) in the office of the Public Service Commission established under the Public Service Act or in a personnel office of an employer other than the Crown in right of Alberta or in any capacity requiring the person to deal on behalf of an employer with any matter related to collective bargaining under this Act,
- (d) who is required by reason of the person's duties and responsibilities to represent the employer in a procedure established pursuant to a collective agreement for the resolution of differences,
- (e) as an officer under the Labour Relations Code dealing with any matter related to collective bargaining under that Act,
- (f) in a position classified under the Public Service Act as
 - (i) a budget officer,
 - (ii) a systems analyst,
 - (iii) an auditor,

- (iv) a disbursement control officer, or
 - (v) a hearing officer who hears matters under the Provincial Offences Procedure Act, or performing for an employer substantially similar duties to a person employed in any of those positions,
 - (g) in any of the following:
 - (i) the Legislative Assembly Office,
 - (ii) the Office of the Auditor General,
 - (iii) the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer,
 - (iv) the Office of the Ombudsman,
 - (v) the Office of the Ethics Commissioner,
 - (vi) the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner,
 - (vii) the Office of the Child and Youth Advocate, or
 - (viii) the Office of the Public Interest Commissioner,
 - (h) in the Legislative Counsel Office of the Department of Justice and Solicitor General,
 - (i) in the office of
 - (i) the Lieutenant Governor,
 - (ii) a member of the Executive Council, or
 - (iii) the Executive Council,
 - (j) on the personal staff of
 - (i) a deputy Minister or assistant deputy Minister or a person who has comparable duties and responsibilities, or
 - (ii) a person referred to in clause (b), (c) or (e),
- or
- (k) who in the opinion of the Board should not be included in a bargaining unit or any other unit for collective bargaining by reason of the duties and responsibilities the person has to the person's employer or for any other reason, shall not be included in a bargaining unit or any other unit for collective bargaining.

(2) If a question arises over whether a person is or is not included under subsection (1) and the matter cannot be settled by the employer and the bargaining agent, the question may be referred to the Board and its decision is final and binding.

RSA 2000 cP-43 s12;2007 c15 s2;2011 cC-11.5 s35;
2012 cP-39.5 s61;2013 c10 s36;2016 c23 s7

Certain professionals excluded

13(1) Those persons who are members of or training to become members of

- (a) the medical profession,
- (b) the dental profession,
- (c) the architectural profession,
- (d) the engineering profession, or
- (e) the legal profession, and who practise their profession as a condition of employment, shall not be included in a bargaining unit or any other unit for collective bargaining unless the Board directs that the members of the profession be included in the unit pursuant to subsection (2).

(2) The Board may direct that members or persons training to become members of a profession referred to in subsection (1) be included in a bargaining unit or any other unit for collective bargaining if

- (a) it is satisfied that the majority of the persons employed by an employer who are members or persons training to become members of the profession wish to be included in the unit, and
- (b) it has allowed affected employers, bargaining agents and any other person or organization interested in the matter and whom the Board agrees to hear to present any facts or arguments they feel are relevant.

(3) For the purpose of determining a majority under subsection (2), only those members or persons training to become members of the profession who would not be excluded from a bargaining unit or any other unit for collective bargaining under section 12(1) are entitled to vote or otherwise express an opinion on the matter.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s22;1983 c96 s4

Included professions opting out

14(1) If the members of a profession are included in a bargaining unit or any other unit for collective bargaining by the Board pursuant to section 13(2), they may subsequently be excluded from the unit by the Board if

- (a) it is satisfied that the majority of the persons employed by an employer who are members of the profession and who practise their profession as a condition of employment wish to be excluded, and
- (b) it has allowed affected employers, bargaining agents and any other person or organization interested in the matter and whom the Board agrees to hear to present any facts or arguments they feel are relevant.

(2) In determining a majority for the purposes of subsection (1), only those members of the profession who are members of the bargaining unit or any other unit for collective bargaining are entitled to vote or express an opinion on the matter.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s23

Time limits

15 An application to the Board to be included in or excluded from a bargaining unit or any other unit for collective bargaining under section 13 or 14 may be made

- (a) if a collective agreement for a term of 2 years or less is in force in respect of any of the employees of the employer, at any time in the 2 months prior to the end of the term of the collective agreement affecting the unit in respect of which the application is made,
- (b) if a collective agreement for a term of more than 2 years is in force in respect of any of the employees of the employer, at any time
 - (i) in the 11th or 12th month of the 2nd year or the 11th or 12th month of any subsequent year of the term, or
 - (ii) in the 2 months prior to the end of the term, of the collective agreement affecting the unit in respect of which the application is made.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s24

Part 4 Certification of Bargaining Agents

Certification

16(1) A trade union may apply to the Board to be certified as the bargaining agent for the employees in a unit that the trade union considers appropriate for collective bargaining, and in that case Division 5 of Part 2 of the Labour Relations Code applies, subject to subsection (2).

(2) In an application for certification under this Part where the employer is the Crown in right of Alberta, the unit must be the single bargaining unit constituted under section 10.

(3) In an application for certification under this Part where the employer is an employer to whom section 11 applies, the Board shall not certify the unit applied for or a unit reasonably similar to it unless the Board is satisfied that that unit is more appropriate for collective bargaining than the single bargaining unit constituted under section 11.

1994 c19 s2(6)

Voluntary recognition

17(1) Subject to subsection (2), Division 6 of Part 2 of the Labour Relations Code dealing with an employer's right to bargain collectively with a voluntarily recognized trade union acting on behalf of the employer's employees or a unit of them applies to employers, employees and trade unions under this Act.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), section 43(1) of the Labour Relations Code shall be read as if "section 59(2)" read "Part 5 of the Public Service Employee Relations Act".

1994 c19 s2(6)

Revocation of bargaining rights

18(1) A trade union, the employees within a unit or the employer or former employer to whom bargaining rights relate may apply to revoke the bargaining rights, and in that case sections 50 to 54 of the Labour Relations Code apply.

(2) Section 55 of the Labour Relations Code applies to this Act.

1994 c19 s2(6)

General provisions re certification and voluntary recognition

19 Division 9 of Part 2 of the Labour Relations Code applies to this Act.

1994 c19 s2(6)

Part 5 Collective Bargaining

Commencement of collective bargaining

20(1) When a certified bargaining agent or an employer wishes to commence collective bargaining then, subject to the provisions on commencing collective bargaining contained in this Act,

- (a) the certified bargaining agent may serve on the employer, or
- (b) the employer may serve on the certified bargaining agent,

a notice in writing to commence collective bargaining.

(2) When a collective agreement is in effect, either party to the collective agreement may, not less than 60 days and not more than 120 days preceding the expiry of the term of the collective agreement or within any longer period that is provided for in the collective agreement, by notice in writing, require the other party to the collective agreement to commence collective bargaining.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s38;1994 c19 s2(7)

Notice

21(1) A notice to commence collective bargaining shall

- (a) be served at least 10 days before the time fixed in the notice for the commencement of collective bargaining,
- (b) name the one or more persons resident in Alberta with authority to
 - (i) bargain collectively,
 - (ii) conclude a collective agreement, and
 - (iii) sign a collective agreement,

and

- (c) be served personally or by mailing it by registered mail to the last known business address of the addressee, and in the event that the notice is mailed, the date of mailing shall be treated as the date of service.

(2) On receipt of a notice to commence collective bargaining, the recipient shall by notice in writing to the other party name the one or more persons resident in Alberta with authority to

- (a) bargain collectively,

- (b) conclude a collective agreement, and
- (c) sign a collective agreement

on the recipient's behalf.

(3) On the service of a notice to commence collective bargaining, the bargaining agent and the employer, without delay but in any event within 30 days after the notice is given, shall

- (a) meet and commence or cause authorized representatives to meet and commence to bargain collectively in good faith, and
- (b) make every reasonable effort to enter into a collective agreement.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s39;1994 c19 s2(8)

Collective agreement

22 An employer and a bargaining agent may enter into a collective agreement

- (a) authorizing or requiring an employer to deduct from the pay of employees who are members of the unit on whose behalf the bargaining agent is bargaining collectively
 - (i) trade union dues, or
 - (ii) a sum that is the equivalent of the dues paid by members of the trade union;
- (b) requiring that all the employees of an employer or any unit of employees become members of a trade union during their employment.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s40

Effect of Collective Agreement

Effect of collective agreement

23 The provisions of a collective agreement are binding on

- (a) the bargaining agent and every employee in the unit on whose behalf it was bargaining collectively, and
- (b) the employer.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s41

Unspecified periods of time

24(1) If a collective agreement is for an unspecified period of time, the agreement is deemed to provide for its operation for one year from the date that it commenced to operate.

(2) and (3) Repealed 2016 c10 s21.

RSA 2000 cP-43 s23;2016 c10 s21

Bridging

24.1(1) When notice to commence collective bargaining has been served under this Act, a collective agreement that applies to the parties at the time of service of the notice is deemed to continue to apply to the parties, notwithstanding any termination date in the collective agreement, until

- (a) a new collective agreement is concluded,
- (b) the right of the bargaining agent to represent the employees is terminated,
- (c) a collective agreement becomes a collective agreement between the parties pursuant to section 43(2), or
- (d) a strike or lockout commences under Part 2, Division 13 of the Labour Relations Code as it applies to this Act.

(2) If a strike or lockout commences under Part 2, Division 13 of the Labour Relations Code as it applies to this Act, a collective agreement is deemed to continue to apply under subsection (1) during that strike or lockout in respect of any designated essential services workers, subject to any changes or permitted changes described in the essential services agreement.

(3) No application for certification as bargaining agent and no application for revocation of bargaining rights may be made without the Board's consent during a strike or lockout under Part 2, Division 13 of the Labour Relations Code as it applies to this Act.

2016 c10 s22

Filing

25 Each of the parties to a collective agreement shall on its execution forthwith file one copy with the Board.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s43

Domination of or influence on trade unions

26 Any collective agreement entered into between an employer and a trade union that is not a certified bargaining agent may be declared by the Board to be void if in its opinion the administration, management or policy of the trade union is

- (a) dominated by an employer, or
- (b) influenced by an employer so that the trade union's fitness to represent employees for the purpose of collective bargaining is impaired.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s44

Signing collective agreement

27(1) Subject to this section, when the terms and conditions to be included in a collective agreement have been settled, each of the parties who bargained collectively shall sign the collective agreement.

(2) No employee is required to sign a collective agreement that has been entered into on the employee's behalf by a bargaining agent.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s45

Part 6 Resolution of Collective Bargaining Disputes

30(1) A compulsory arbitration board may only consider, and an arbitral award may only deal with, those matters that may be included in a collective agreement.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), none of the following matters may be referred to a compulsory arbitration board and provisions in respect of the following matters shall not be contained in the arbitral award of a compulsory arbitration board:

- (a) the organization of work, the assignment of duties and the determination of the number of employees of an employer;

- (b) the systems of job evaluation and the allocation of individual jobs and positions within the systems;
- (c) selection, appointment, promotion, training or transfer;
- (d) pensions.

Request for compulsory arbitration board

31(1) If a dispute cannot be resolved and a declaration has been made under section 95.44(7) or 95.45(1) of the Labour Relations Code, the employer or the bargaining agent, or both, may request the Board to establish a compulsory arbitration board.

(2) A request by either or both of the parties under subsection (1) shall

- (a) if it is made by the employer, be accompanied with a list of the items it claims are in dispute and that the employer wishes to be referred to compulsory arbitration at that time,
- (b) if it is made by the bargaining agent, be accompanied with a list of the items it claims are in dispute and that the bargaining agent wishes to be referred to compulsory arbitration at that time, or
- (c) if it is made jointly, be accompanied with a list of the items that each party claims are in dispute and that each wish to be referred to compulsory arbitration at that time.

(3) On receipt of a request by either party under subsection (1), the Board shall as soon as possible send a copy of the request and the list of items claimed to be in dispute to the other party.

(4) The party receiving the copy of the request for the appointment of a compulsory arbitration board shall within 10 days after receipt of the copy and if the party has additional items to add, send those items to the Board and send a copy of them to the other party to the dispute.

RSA 2000 cP-43 s31;2016 c10 s24

Establishment of compulsory arbitration board

32 When a request for the establishment of a compulsory arbitration board is made by either an employer or a bargaining agent, the Board may establish a compulsory arbitration board if it is satisfied that

- (a) there are arbitral items to refer to a compulsory arbitration board,

- (b) the arbitral items can satisfactorily be considered together,
- (c) it is an appropriate time to refer the matter to a compulsory arbitration board, and
- (d) the dispute is a proper one to refer to a compulsory arbitration board.

RSA 2000 cP-43 s32;2016 c10 s25

Appointment of members

33(1) When the Board agrees to establish a compulsory arbitration board, it shall notify the parties to the dispute in writing accordingly and require each of them within 10 days to appoint a person to act as a member of the compulsory arbitration board.

(2) The 2 persons appointed to act as members of a compulsory arbitration board shall appoint a 3rd person to act as a member and chair of the compulsory arbitration board within 10 days after the date the 2nd person is appointed.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s51;1994 c19 s2(13),(15)

Board appointments

34(1) If an employer or bargaining agent fails to appoint a person as a member of a compulsory arbitration board, the Board may appoint a person to act as a member on its or their behalf.

(2) If the 2 persons appointed as members of a compulsory arbitration board fail to appoint a person to act as a member and chair, the Board may appoint a person to act as a member and chair on their behalf.

(3) If a vacancy occurs in the membership of a compulsory arbitration board, it shall be filled in the same manner as provided for the appointment of the member or chair.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s52;1994 c19 s2(13)

Expenses and remuneration

35 The expenses and remuneration of a person appointed under section 33 or 34 shall be paid

- (a) in the case of a person other than the chair of the compulsory arbitration board, by the party who appointed or failed to appoint the person, and
- (b) in the case of the chair of the compulsory arbitration board, jointly by the parties.

1983 c34 s5(5);1994 c19 s2(16)

Terms of reference

36(1) When 3 persons are appointed to act as members of a compulsory arbitration board, the Board, by notice in writing to the chair, shall establish the members as a compulsory arbitration board.

(2) The Board, in the notice referred to in subsection (1) or in one or more additional notices in writing to the chair, shall list the arbitral items in dispute to be resolved by the compulsory arbitration board.

(3) When the Board refers arbitral items to the compulsory arbitration board, the compulsory arbitration board shall inquire into the arbitral items in dispute and endeavour to effect a settlement.

(4) If it is unable to effect a settlement, the compulsory arbitration board shall make an inquiry into the arbitral items in dispute in accordance with this Division.

(5) A compulsory arbitration board remains constituted until it is dissolved by the Board by notice in writing to the chair of the compulsory arbitration board.

(6) The Board may

- (a) refer additional arbitral items in dispute to the compulsory arbitration board at any time before the compulsory arbitration board is dissolved under subsection (5), or
- (b) remove items in dispute from the consideration of the compulsory arbitration board at any time before the issuance of an award with respect to those items by the compulsory arbitration board.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s53;1983 c34 s5(6);1985 c47 s3;
1994 c19 s2(12),(13),(14)

Additional arbitral items

37(1) Where a compulsory arbitration board is established, the employer and the bargaining agent may jointly refer additional items in a dispute to the Board with a request that they be sent to the compulsory arbitration board.

(2) If the Board is satisfied with respect to the matters referred to in section 32, the Board shall refer the arbitral items in a dispute to the compulsory arbitration board for resolution.

RSA 2000 cP-43 s37;2016 c10 s26

Matters to be considered

38 To ensure that wages and benefits are fair and reasonable to the employees and employer and are in the best interest of the public, the compulsory arbitration board

- (a) shall consider, for the period with respect to which the award will apply, the following:
- (i) wages and benefits in private and public and unionized and non-unionized employment;
 - (ii) the continuity and stability of private and public employment, including
 - (A) employment levels and incidence of layoffs,
 - (B) incidence of employment at less than normal working hours, and
 - (C) opportunity for employment;
 - (iii) the general economic conditions in Alberta;
- and
- (b) may consider, for the period with respect to which the award will apply, the following:
- (i) the terms and conditions of employment in similar occupations outside the employer's employment taking into account any geographic, industrial or other variations that the board considers relevant;
 - (ii) the need to maintain appropriate relationships in terms and conditions of employment between different classification levels within an occupation and between occupations in the employer's employment;
 - (iii) the need to establish terms and conditions of employment that are fair and reasonable in relation to the qualifications required, the work performed, the responsibility assumed and the nature of the services rendered;
 - (iv) any other factor that it considers relevant to the matter in dispute.

1994 c19 s2(14)

Arbitral award

39(1) As soon as possible after making an inquiry into the arbitral items in dispute referred to it, the compulsory arbitration board shall make an award and in its award deal with each arbitral item in dispute.

(2) An arbitral award may be retroactive in whole or in part.

- (3) The compulsory arbitration board may issue
- (a) one arbitral award,
 - (b) one arbitral award in separate parts at different times, or
 - (c) 2 or more arbitral awards at different times.
- RSA 1980 cP-33 s56;1994 c19 s2(14)

Filing and service of award

40(1) On making an arbitral award, the compulsory arbitration board shall

- (a) file a copy of it with the Board, and
- (b) serve a copy of it on the employer and the bargaining agent personally or by double registered mail.

- (2) The Board may in any manner publish an arbitral award.
- RSA 1980 cP-33 s57;1994 c19 s2(14)

Effect of arbitral award

41(1) An arbitral award of a compulsory arbitration board is binding on

- (a) the bargaining agent and every employee in the unit on whose behalf it was bargaining collectively, and
- (b) the employer,

and the employer and the bargaining agent shall forthwith give effect to it.

- (2) The terms of the one or more arbitral awards relating to entering into, renewing or revising a collective agreement shall be included in a collective agreement.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s58;1994 c19 s2(13)

Incorporating arbitral award

42(1) If either the employer or the bargaining agent neglects or refuses to participate in the preparation of a collective agreement in accordance with section 41(2), the other party may prepare the agreement giving effect to

- (a) the one or more arbitral awards of the compulsory arbitration board or compulsory arbitration boards, and
- (b) any other matters that are agreed on by the parties, and shall submit the agreement to the one or more compulsory arbitration boards concerned to certify in each case that the agreement accurately incorporates the one or more awards of that compulsory arbitration board.

(2) When a compulsory arbitration board receives a collective agreement pursuant to subsection (1) and it is satisfied that it gives effect to its award, the compulsory arbitration board shall certify the collective agreement as accurately incorporating its award.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s59;1994 c19 s2(13),(14),(15)

Signing collective agreement

43(1) On certification by the one or more compulsory arbitration boards concerned pursuant to section 42, the employer and the bargaining agent shall sign the collective agreement.

(2) If, at the expiration of 10 days after the date of certification by the only or the final compulsory arbitration board concerned

(a) neither party to the agreement has signed it, or

(b) one party to the agreement has signed it, the collective agreement on that expiration becomes a collective agreement between the parties as if they had both signed it and is effective from the date or dates specified in the agreement or if there is no date, from the date or dates specified by the one or more compulsory arbitration boards concerned.

(3) A collective agreement referred to in subsection (2) is binding on

(a) the bargaining agent and every employee in the unit on whose behalf it was bargaining collectively, and

(b) the employer.

Part 8 Unfair Practices

Acts prohibited by employer

45(1) No employer and no person acting on behalf of an employer shall

- (a) participate in or interfere with the formation or administration of a trade union, or
- (b) contribute financial or other support to a trade union.

(2) An employer does not contravene subsection (1) by reason only that the employer

- (a) in respect of a trade union that is a bargaining agent for its employees
 - (i) permits an employee or a representative of a trade union to confer with the employer during working hours or to attend to the business of the trade union during working hours without deduction in the computation of time worked by the employee and without deduction of wages in respect of the time so occupied,
 - (ii) provides free transportation to representatives of the trade union for purposes of collective bargaining, the administration of a collective agreement and related matters, or
 - (iii) permits the trade union to use the employer's premises for the purposes of the trade union,

or

- (b) makes to a trade union donations to be used solely for the welfare of the members of the trade union and their dependants.

(3) No employer and no person acting on behalf of an employer shall

- (a) refuse to employ or terminate the employment of any person or discriminate against any person in regard to employment or any term or condition of employment because the person
 - (i) is a member of a trade union or is an applicant for membership in a trade union,

- (ii) has been expelled or suspended from membership in a trade union for a reason other than a failure to pay the periodic dues, assessments and initiation fees uniformly required to be paid by all members of the union as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the trade union,
 - (iii) has testified or otherwise participated or may testify or otherwise participate in a proceeding under this Act,
 - (iv) has made or is about to make a disclosure that the person may be required to make in a proceeding under this Act,
 - (v) has made an application or filed a complaint under this Act,
 - (vi) has participated in any strike that is permitted by this Act, or
 - (vii) has exercised any right under this Act;
- (b) impose any condition in a contract of employment that restrains, or has the effect of restraining, an employee from exercising any right conferred on the employee by this Act;
 - (c) deny to any employee any pension rights or benefits to which the employee would be entitled but for the wrongful dismissal of the employee;
 - (d) seek by intimidation, threat of dismissal or any other kind of threat, by the imposition of a pecuniary or other penalty or by any other means, to compel a person to refrain from becoming or to cease to be a member, officer or representative of a trade union;
 - (e) suspend, discharge or impose a financial or other penalty on a person employed by the employer or take any other disciplinary action against that person by reason of that person having refused to perform an act prohibited by this Act;
- (e.1) suspend, discharge or impose a financial or other penalty on an employee, or take any other disciplinary action against an employee, by reason of the employee's refusal to perform all or some of the duties and responsibilities of another employee who is participating in a strike that is permitted under this Act;

- (f) bargain collectively for the purpose of entering into a collective agreement or enter into a collective agreement with a trade union in respect of a bargaining unit if another trade union is the bargaining agent for that unit;
- (g) discriminate against a person in regard to employment or membership in a trade union or intimidate or threaten to dismiss or in any other manner coerce a person or impose a pecuniary or other penalty on a person because the person
 - (i) has testified or otherwise participated or may testify or otherwise participate in a proceeding authorized or permitted under a collective agreement or a proceeding under this Act,
 - (ii) has made or is about to make a disclosure that the person may be required to make in a proceeding authorized or permitted under a collective agreement or a proceeding under this Act, or
 - (iii) has made an application or filed a complaint under this Act.

RSA 2000 cP-43 s45;2016 c10 s27

Terms and conditions of employment frozen

46(1) When a trade union makes an application for certification as a bargaining agent, no employer shall alter any term or condition of employment of the employees in the unit affected by the application during the time between the date of the application for certification and either

- (a) the date of refusal of the application, or
- (b) 30 days after the date the trade union is certified as the bargaining agent of the employees unless the alteration is permitted by a collective agreement, if one is in effect respecting the employees in the unit affected by the application, or the trade union applying for certification agrees to the alteration.

(2) When a notice to commence collective bargaining is given, the employer affected by the notice shall not alter any term or condition of employment of an employee in the unit on whose behalf the bargaining agent has given notice until

- (a) a collective agreement is in effect between the parties,
- (b) the award or the final award of an arbitration board is issued,

- (c) the right of the trade union to represent employees is terminated, or
- (d) a strike or lockout commences under Part 2, Division 13 of the Labour Relations Code as it applies to this Act, whichever occurs first, unless the alteration is permitted by a collective agreement, if one is in effect respecting the employees represented by the bargaining agent, or the bargaining agent agrees to the alteration.

(2.1) If a strike or lockout is subject to an essential services agreement, the prohibition in subsection (2) remains in effect during that strike or lockout in respect of any designated essential services workers, subject to any changes or permitted changes described in the essential services agreement.

(3) Nothing in this section detracts from or interferes with the right of an employer to discipline, suspend, lay off, demote, dismiss or terminate the employment of employees

- (a) in accordance with a collective agreement, or
- (b) for cause, if there are no provisions in a collective agreement relating to those rights.

RSA 2000 cP-43 s46;2016 c10 s28

Insurance and pension rights

46.1(1) No employer and no person acting on behalf of an employer shall deny to any employee any pension rights or benefits or insurance rights or benefits to which the employee would be entitled but for

- (a) the cessation of work by the employee as the result of a lockout or strike that is permitted by this Act, or
- (b) the dismissal of the employee contrary to this Act.

(2) While an insurance scheme remains in force, no employer or person acting on behalf of an employer shall, without lawful excuse,

- (a) deny or threaten to deny to an employee any benefit under the insurance scheme,
- (b) cancel or threaten to cancel the insurance scheme,
- (c) refuse to accept any of the premiums tendered by a bargaining agent on behalf of all the employees enrolled in the insurance scheme who are represented by the bargaining agent, or

- (d) fail to remit to the insurer any of the premiums tendered by a bargaining agent, in the circumstances referred to in subsection (3).

(3) Subsection (2) applies where

- (a) the employee in a unit of employees of the employer ceases to work because the employees in the unit are locked out by the employer or because the employees in the unit are on a lawful strike, and
- (b) the trade union that was the bargaining agent for the employees in the unit at the time the lockout or strike commenced tenders, or attempts to tender, to the employer, for the duration of the lockout or strike, the premiums in respect of all the employees covered by the insurance scheme who are represented by the bargaining agent.

(4) In this section,

- (a) “insurance scheme” means a medical, dental, disability, life or other insurance scheme normally maintained by the employer on behalf of the employees in the unit;
- (b) “premiums” includes all amounts payable by the employees and the employer in consideration for a contract of insurance.

2016 c10 s29

Acts prohibited by trade union

47 No trade union and no person acting on behalf of a trade union shall

- (a) seek to compel an employer to bargain collectively with the trade union if the trade union is not the bargaining agent for a unit of employees that includes employees of the employer;
- (b) bargain collectively or enter into a collective agreement with an employer in respect of a unit, if that trade union or person knows, or in the opinion of the Board ought to know, that another trade union is the bargaining agent for that unit of employees;
- (c) except with the consent of the employer of an employee, attempt, at an employee’s place of employment during the working hours of the employee, to persuade the employee to become, to refrain from becoming or to cease to be a member of a trade union;

- (d) use coercion or intimidation of any kind with respect to any employee with a view to encouraging or discouraging membership or activity in or for a trade union;
- (e) require an employer to terminate the employment of an employee because the employee has been expelled or suspended from membership in the trade union for a reason other than a failure to pay the periodic dues, assessments and initiation fees uniformly required to be paid by all members of the trade union as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the trade union;
- (f) expel or suspend a person from membership in the trade union or deny membership in the trade union to a person by applying to the person in a discriminatory manner the membership rules of the trade union;
- (g) take disciplinary action against or impose any form of penalty on a person by applying to the person in a discriminatory manner the standards of discipline of the trade union;
- (h) expel or suspend a person from membership in the trade union or take disciplinary action against or impose any form of penalty on a person by reason of the person having refused to perform an act that is contrary to this Act;
- (i) expel or suspend a person from membership in the trade union or take disciplinary action against or impose any form of penalty on any person for engaging in employment in accordance with the terms of a collective agreement between the person's employer and the trade union;
- (j) authorize, encourage or permit any employee in a unit in respect of which the trade union is the bargaining agent to refuse to perform work for the employee's employer for the reason that other work was or will be performed or was not or will not be performed by any persons or class of persons who were or are not members of a trade union or a particular trade union;
- (k) discriminate against a person in regard to employment or membership in a trade union, or intimidate or coerce a person or impose a pecuniary or other penalty on a person, because the person
 - (i) has testified or otherwise participated or may testify or otherwise participate in a proceeding authorized or permitted under a collective agreement or a proceeding under this Act,

- (ii) has made or is about to make a disclosure that the person may be required to make in a proceeding authorized or permitted under a collective agreement or a proceeding under this Act, or
- (iii) has made an application or filed a complaint under this Act.

Refusal to commence collective bargaining

48 No employer or bargaining agent and no authorized representative acting on behalf of either of them, after having served or having been served with a notice to commence collective bargaining in accordance with section 21 or the provisions of a collective agreement, shall refuse

- (a) to meet and commence to bargain collectively in good faith, or
- (b) to make every reasonable effort to enter into a collective agreement.

Complaints

Complaints

50(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), any employer, employee, trade union or other person may make a complaint in writing to the Board that there has been or is a failure to comply with sections 45 to 49.

(2) The Board has no jurisdiction to hear a complaint made pursuant to section 47(f) or (g) unless the complainant establishes to the satisfaction of the Board that

- (a) the complainant has presented an appeal to the trade union in accordance with the appeal procedure established by the trade union, and
- (b) the trade union failed to deal with the matter within 6 months from the date the complainant made his or her appeal.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply when the Board is satisfied that

- (a) the action or circumstance giving rise to the complaint is such that the complaint should be dealt with without delay, or
- (b) the trade union has not given the complainant ready access to a reasonable appeal procedure.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s74

Board powers

51(1) When a complaint is made to the Board under section 50, the Board may serve a notice of the complaint on the person against whom the complaint is made.

(2) When a complaint is made, the Board may appoint a person to inquire into the complaint and endeavour to effect a settlement.

(3) When the Board does not appoint a person under subsection (2) or when the appointed person is unable to effect a settlement within a period that the Board considers to be reasonable in the circumstances, the Board may inquire into the complaint.

(4) The Board may refuse to inquire into any complaint in respect of a matter that, in the opinion of the Board, could be referred by the complainant to an adjudicator.

(5) When the Board is satisfied after an inquiry that an employer, employee, trade union or other person has failed to comply with any of the provisions of sections 45 to 49, the Board

- (a) shall issue a directive to the employer, employee, trade union or other person concerned to cease doing the act in respect of which the complaint was made;
- (b) may in the same or a subsequent directive require the employer, employee, trade union or other person to do all or any of the following:
 - (i) reinstate any employee suspended or discharged contrary to those sections;
 - (ii) pay to any employee or former employee suspended or discharged contrary to those sections compensation not exceeding the sum that in the opinion of the Board would have been paid by the employer to the employee;
 - (iii) reinstate or admit an employee as a member of a trade union;
 - (iv) rescind any disciplinary action or pecuniary or other penalty taken or imposed contrary to those sections;

- (v) pay to a person compensation not exceeding the sum that in the opinion of the Board is equivalent to the pecuniary or other penalty imposed on a person contrary to those sections;
 - (vi) pay to an employee in respect of a failure to comply with section 45 compensation not exceeding the sum that in the opinion of the Board is equivalent to the remuneration that would have been paid to the employee by the employer if the employer had complied with that section.
- (6) When the Board is satisfied after an inquiry that an employer or bargaining agent or an authorized representative of either of them is contravening or has contravened section 48, the Board
- (a) shall issue a directive directing the employer, bargaining agent or authorized representative concerned to bargain in good faith and make every reasonable effort to enter into a collective agreement, and
 - (b) may prescribe the procedure or conditions under which collective bargaining is to take place.
- (7) If a directive made by the Board pursuant to subsection (5) or (6) is not complied with, the Board may, on the request of an employer, employee, trade union or other person affected by the directive, file a copy of the directive with the clerk of the Court at the judicial centre closest to the place where the complaint arose and, on being filed, the directive is enforceable as a judgment or order of the Court.
- (8) If in the opinion of the Board the complaint is without merit, the Board may reject the complaint at any time.

Review of decisions by Court of Queen's Bench

63(1) No award, proceeding or decision of a tribunal shall be questioned or reviewed in any court, and no order shall be made or process entered or proceedings taken in any court, whether by way of injunction, declaratory judgment, prohibition, quo warranto or otherwise, to question, review, prohibit or restrain the tribunal in any of the tribunal's proceedings.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the award, proceeding or decision of a tribunal may be questioned or reviewed by way of an application for judicial review in the nature of certiorari or mandamus if an application for it is filed with the Court not later than 30 days after the date of the award, proceedings or decision of the tribunal.

Effect of judicial review

64 If an arbitral award of a compulsory arbitration board is questioned or reviewed under section 63, a decision under that section that the award is invalid with respect to one or more arbitral items does not affect the validity of the award as it relates to the other arbitral items unless the Court otherwise directs.

Successor Employers and Trade UnionsSuccessor employers

65 If an employer is incorporated or established and replaces or takes the place in whole or in part of another or other employers or if one or more employers are in whole or in part merged with another employer or employers, the Board may, on the application of any employer or trade union affected,

- (a) declare which employer is bound by this Act,
- (b) determine, in accordance with this Act, whether the employees concerned constitute one or more bargaining units,
- (c) declare which trade union or trade unions, if any, are the bargaining agent or agents on behalf of employees,
- (d) amend, to the extent the Board considers necessary, any certificate issued to any trade union or any bargaining unit defined in any collective agreement, and
- (e) declare which collective agreement, if any, continues in force and to what extent it continues in force and which collective agreement, if any, terminates.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s90

Successor trade unions

66(1) When a trade union claims that by reason of a merger or amalgamation or a transfer of jurisdiction of a trade union it is the successor of a trade union that at the time of the merger, amalgamation or transfer of jurisdiction was the bargaining agent of a unit of employees of an employer, the Board in any proceedings before it or on the application of any person or trade union concerned may declare that the successor trade union has acquired the rights, privileges and duties under this Act of its predecessor.

(2) When the Board makes a declaration under subsection (1), the successor trade union is deemed to have acquired the rights, privileges and duties of its predecessor, whether under a collective agreement or otherwise.

RSA 1980 cP-33 s91

Other MattersRemuneration

67 The Board may govern the remuneration, travelling and living expenses to be paid to

- (a) the chair and members of a compulsory arbitration board or arbitration board appointed by the Board, and
- (b) a mediator.

68 Repealed 2016 c10 s31.

Suspension of dues check-off

69(1) If a strike of employees contrary to this Act commences, the employer, notwithstanding any collective agreement or any other provision of this Act, may serve the bargaining agent that represents those employees with a notice of intention to suspend the deduction and remittance of union dues, assessments or other fees payable to the bargaining agent.

(2) A notice of intention under subsection (1) shall specify

- (a) the bargaining unit or part of the bargaining unit with respect to which the employer intends to suspend the deduction and remittance of union dues, assessments or other fees, and
- (b) a time period of not less than one month and not more than 6 months with respect to which the employer intends the suspension to be in effect.

(3) A bargaining agent affected by the notice under subsection (1) may apply to the Board within 72 hours after service of the notice, but not afterwards, for a determination as to whether a strike contrary to this Act has occurred.

(4) If the bargaining agent does not make an application under subsection (3), the employer may suspend the deduction and remittance of union dues, assessments or other fees in accordance with the notice of intention under subsection (1) at any time after 72 hours from the service of the notice.

(5) If the bargaining agent makes an application under subsection (3), the employer shall not suspend the deduction and remittance of union dues, assessments or other fees unless and until the Board makes the determination under subsection (6)(b) that a strike contrary to this Act has occurred.

(6) If the bargaining agent makes an application under subsection (3), the Board may

- (a) if it determines that no strike contrary to this Act has occurred, cancel the notice of intention under subsection (1), or
- (b) if it determines that a strike contrary to this Act has occurred, confirm the notice of intention under subsection (1) and order that the suspension may take place
 - (i) for the period specified in the notice of intention, or
 - (ii) for a period of not less than one month and not more than 6 months specified by the Board, and, on that order being made, the employer may suspend the deduction and remittance of union dues, assessments and other fees in accordance with the notice of intention.

(7) Unless sooner revoked by the employer, the suspension under subsection (4) or (6) shall continue

- (a) until the end of the period specified in the notice of intention under subsection (1), or
- (b) if the Board has specified a period under subsection (6), until the end of that period.

(8) Notwithstanding any collective agreement or any other provision of this Act, an employee does not become ineligible for employment with an employer only because the employee fails to pay union dues, assessments or other fees the deduction and remittance of which have been suspended under this section.

(9) At the end of the suspension period as determined under subsection (7), the employer shall resume the deduction and remittance of union dues, assessments and other fees in accordance with the collective agreement, but nothing in this subsection requires the employer to deduct and remit union dues, assessments and other fees with respect to the suspension period.

(10) No provision may be made in a collective agreement in substitution for the suspension of the deduction and remittance of union dues, assessments and other fees under this section.
