order that the decision takes effect from the time and on the terms that the Court considers proper.

(13) The Court may make any award as to the costs of the appeal alleviating the effects of any emergency or disaster whether or not remuneration is paid for that employment;

(b) persons who are engaged on a voluntary basis as firemen,

RSA 2000 cW-15 s15;2002 c27 s8

Persons deemed workers

16(1) Where an individual performs any work for any other person in an industry to which this Act applies, that individual is deemed to be a worker of the other person, except when the individual

Jurisdiction of Board

17(1) Subject to section 13.1, the Board has exclusive jurisdiction to examine, inquire into, hear and determine all matters and questions arising under this Act or the regulations and the action or decision of the Board on such matters and questions is final and conclusive, and is not open to question or review in any court.

(2) No proceedings by or before the Board shall be restrained by injunction, prohibition or other process or proceedings in any court or are removable by certiorari or otherwise into any court, nor shall any action be maintained or brought against the Board, any employee or officer of the Board or any member of the board of directors in respect of any act or decision done or made in the honest belief that it was within the jurisdiction of the Board.

(3) The Board has authority to reconsider any matter that it has dealt with and to rescind or amend any decision or order previously made by it.

(4) Each matter shall be decided on the merits and justice of the case and the Board is not bound to follow any previous decision or ruling of the Board as a precedent in reaching its decisions or making its rulings.

(4.1) If the evidence in support of the opposite sides of an issue related to a claim for compensation is approximately equal, the issue shall be resolved in favour of the worker.

(5) The Board has the same powers as the Court of Queen’s Bench for compelling the attendance of witnesses and of examining them under oath and compelling the production and inspection of books, papers, documents and things.

(6) The Board may cause depositions of witnesses residing in or outside Alberta to be taken before any person appointed by the Investigation by Board

18(1) In this section, “employer” includes a person who the Board considers might be an employer.

(a) may inquire into and examine

(i) the business affairs of an employer involved in the matter under investigation,

(ii) the books, files, papers, documents, correspondence, records or other things in relation to or connected with an employer involved in the matter under investigation as they relate to the subject-matter of the investigation, and may give to the employer or the employer’s agent notice in writing requiring the employer to bring and produce before the Board or authorized person at a place and time stated in the notice, which time shall be at least 10 days after the giving of the notice, all books, files, papers, documents, correspondence, records and other things in the employer’s custody, possession or control that are relevant to the matter under investigation,

(b) may take possession of, examine and remove and take extracts from or obtain reproduced copies of any of the things referred to in clause (a), and

(c) may enter, inspect and examine at all reasonable times any premises or other place, other than a private dwelling, in which an employer carries on business.

(4) If a person

the person making the investigation may apply to the Court of Queen’s Bench and the Court may make any order it considers necessary requiring the person to comply with the notice or permit the entry, inspection or examination.

(5) A copy of the application, and each affidavit in support, shall be served not less than 3 days before the date named in the notice for hearing the application.

(6) A person who, pursuant to subsection (3)(b), removes any of the things permitted by that subsection to be removed shall

(a) give to the person from whom the things were taken a receipt for the things taken, and

(b) otherwise obstruct, hinder or interfere with the Board, or a person acting on its behalf, in the making of an investigation under section 18.

General powers on investigation

20 For the purposes of conducting an investigation under this Act, the Board or other person conducting the investigation has all the powers, privileges and immunities of a commissioner appointed under the Public Inquiries Act.
Compensation in place of action

21(1) No action lies for the recovery of compensation under this Act and all claims for compensation shall be determined by the Board.

(2) This Act and the regulations apply instead of all rights and causes of action, statutory or otherwise, to which a worker, the worker’s legal personal representatives or the worker’s dependants are or might become entitled against the employer of the worker by reason of any accident happening to the worker, and no action in respect of that accident lies against the employer.

(3) Any party to an action may, on notice to the other parties, apply to the Board for determination of whether a worker who is a party to the action is entitled to compensation under this Act and the regulations.

Action vests in the Board

22(1) In this section and section 22.1,

(a) “action” means a cause of action and all rights of recovery of a claimant, whether inside or outside Alberta, against any person or persons, in respect of or arising out of the personal injury to or the death of a worker;

(b) “claimant” means a worker, a worker’s legal personal representative or a worker’s dependants;

(c) “compensation costs” means the present and future costs, as determined by the Board, of all benefits paid or payable to or on behalf of a claimant under this Act including, without limitation, all disability, medical aid and vocational rehabilitation benefits.

(2) This section

(a) applies to accidents that occur on or after the date this section comes into force;

(b) does not apply in respect of an action that the Board has divested itself of under section 22.1.

(3) Notwithstanding any other Act, if an accident happens to a worker entitling a claimant to compensation under this Act, any action of the claimant in respect of that accident vests in the Board.
(4) Nothing in subsection (3) shall be construed so as to affect the operation of section 13(b) of the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Act.

(5) Where an action vests in the Board under subsection (3),

(a) the Board

(i) may bring the action in the name of the claimant for the entire value of the action including, without limitation, all compensation costs,

(ii) has the same right to recover any amounts in the action that the claimant would have been entitled to recover, including the compensation costs as if the claimant had been required to pay the compensation costs,

(iii) has the same right to pursue all of the same claims for losses and damages in the action as the claimant would have had but for the vesting of the action in the Board, whether or not those claims or damages have been accepted by the Board, in whole or in part, in the adjudication of the compensation claim,

(iv) has control of the action including, without limitation,

(A) determining whether or not to bring the action,

(B) compromising and effecting a settlement of the action at any time for any amount it considers advisable,

(C) fully or partially releasing any party from liability, and

(D) retaining and instructing counsel of its choice, including counsel employed by the Board, to bring the action,

and

(v) may enter evidence by way of a certificate issued under section 149,

(b) the court, in hearing the action, may consider any evidence that the Board gathered in its adjudication of the claimant’s compensation claim.
(6) No decision made or required to be made by the Board under this section shall be construed as placing the Board in a conflict of interest in respect of a decision made or required to be made by the Board under any other section of this Act, nor shall the pursuit of an action under this section by the Board be construed as placing the Board in a fiduciary relationship with the claimant.

(7) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, no legal fees are payable by the Board to counsel retained by a claimant in respect of an action to which the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Act applies.

(8) No settlement may be made and no payment shall be made to any person other than the Board or its designate for or in respect of any action except with the approval of the Board, and any release, payment or settlement made in contravention of this subsection is void.

(9) The claimant shall not adversely affect the conduct of an action and shall co-operate fully with the Board in bringing an action or any appeal of an action including, without limitation, by

(a) securing and providing any or all information or evidence,

(b) attending at any or all meetings, mediations, arbitrations, questionings under Part 5 of the Alberta Rules of Court, medical examinations, including independent medical examinations, and the trial of the action, and

(c) providing and executing any or all documents required by the Board to bring the action, including endorsing an assignment or release of the action and providing consents to secure information, in the form and manner prescribed by the Board, in favour of the Board, as and when required by the Board.

(10) If a claimant does not comply with subsection (9), the Board may suspend the payment of periodic compensation to the claimant during the period of non-compliance.

(11) All proceeds of settlement or judgment resulting from an action, including any costs and disbursements recovered, shall be paid to the Board or its designate and shall be distributed in the following order:

(a) payment of any costs awarded against the claimant;

(b) payment of disbursements approved or incurred by the Board;
(c) if the claimant has complied with subsection (9), payment of 25% of the remaining amount to the claimant;

(d) where the Board retained counsel to bring the action, payment of legal fees from the proceeds of the action in an amount prescribed by the regulations unless the Board determines that that amount is insufficient, in which case the Board may increase the amount;

(e) where the action was pursued by counsel employed by the Board, payment of an administration fee as determined by the Board;

(f) payment of any compensation costs;

(g) payment of the balance, if any, to the claimant.

(12) The Board shall set off any amount due to the Board by a claimant against any payment under subsection (11)(c) or (g) or both.

(13) Where future compensation costs are incurred by the Board in addition to the compensation costs recovered under subsection (11)(f) and a payment is made to the claimant under subsection (11)(g), the amount of the payment is deemed to be an advance of any future benefits determined to be payable under Part 4, including benefits relating to periods of time prior to the date of settlement or judgment, and shall be set off against any of those future benefits.

(14) No employer shall, directly or indirectly, by agreement, threats, promises or persuasion or by any other means, discourage or impede a worker of the employer, or the worker’s dependant, from participating in or co-operating with the Board in pursuing an action under this section.

Divested action

22.1(1) If the Board determines that it is not in the best interests of the Accident Fund or the workers’ compensation system to bring an action under section 22, the Board may divest itself of the action and assign it in writing to the claimant, in which event the claimant may bring the action.

(2) After an action is divested under subsection (1), the Board is not liable for the payment of any legal or other costs or damages, or entitled to recover any amount, in connection with the claimant’s pursuit of the action.
Circumstances removing cause of action

23(1) If an accident happens to a worker entitling the worker or the worker’s dependants to compensation under this Act, neither the worker, the worker’s legal personal representatives, the worker’s dependants nor the worker’s employer has any cause of action in respect of or arising out of the personal injury suffered by or the death of the worker as a result of the accident

(a) against any employer, or

(b) against any worker of an employer,

in an industry to which this Act applies when the conduct of that employer or worker that caused or contributed to the injury arose out of and in the course of employment in an industry to which this Act applies.

(2) In an action to which section 22 applies, a defendant may not bring third party or other proceedings against any employer or worker whom the plaintiff may not, by reason of this section bring an action against, but if the court is of the opinion that that employer or worker, by that employer’s or worker’s fault or negligence, contributed to the damage or loss of the plaintiff, it shall hold the defendant liable only for that portion of the damage or loss occasioned by the defendant’s own fault or negligence.

(a) the employer shall, by the end of the next regularly scheduled pay period after that day, pay compensation to the worker for that day in an amount equal to the minimum normal net wage the worker would have received for that day if the worker had not been disabled and had been available for work in the normal course, and

(3) An employer may refuse to make a payment under subsection (1)(a) or (2)(a) until the worker provides to the employer a report from a physician of the worker’s choice stating that the injury resulting from the accident was the cause of the consequent absence of the worker from work.

(4) No employer shall deduct sick pay entitlement or otherwise reduce the usual benefits to which the worker is entitled by reason of the employer having to make a payment under subsection (1)(a) or (2)(a).

(5) If an employer contravenes subsection (1)(a) or (2)(a), the Board

(a) may pay to the worker the amount due under that subsection, and in that case the employer is liable to repay to the Board the amount so paid, and

(2) If a worker or dependant does not report an accident within the time prescribed by subsection (1), the Board may nevertheless pay compensation if it is satisfied that there are reasonable and justifiable grounds for the accident’s not being reported within the prescribed time or that the claim is a just claim and should be allowed despite the failure to report within the prescribed time.

Intervention by Lieutenant Governor in Council

27 Notwithstanding anything in this Act, if, after considering the report and recommendations of the Ombudsman, the Lieutenant Governor in Council is of the opinion that an injustice or hardship to a worker has resulted or will result, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may direct the Board

(5) The Board may, on application either before or after the expiration of the 30-day period referred to in subsection (4), extend that period.
(6) If a worker or dependant elects under subsection (3) to claim compensation under this Act and at any time claims compensation or some other remedy under the law of another jurisdiction in respect of the same accident, the worker or dependant is deemed to have forfeited all rights to compensation under this Act in respect of that accident, and any money paid to the worker or dependant or on the worker’s or dependant’s behalf by the Board in respect of it constitutes a debt due from the worker or dependant to the Board.

(7) Repealed 2005 c48 s6.

(8) Notwithstanding subsection (6), if a worker or dependant, before claiming compensation under this Act, and in ignorance of the worker’s or dependant’s rights or the extent of the worker’s or dependant’s rights under this Act, claims compensation under the law of the other jurisdiction where the accident happened and is found to be not entitled to compensation, the worker or dependant is deemed not to have forfeited the worker’s or dependant’s rights under this Act by reason only of making that claim.

(2) Payment out of the Accident Fund of money required to be paid pursuant to an agreement under subsection (1) may be made to the workers’ compensation board or other body with which the agreement has been made, and all money received by the Board pursuant to the agreement shall be paid by it into the Accident Fund.

(5) A request for the establishment of a medical panel shall be made to the Medical Panels Office and must include the records and information, including personal information, available to the Board or the Appeals Commission, as the case may be, relating to the medical issue or matter.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5),

(a) the Medical Panels Office is authorized to collect and use the records and information, and

(b) the Board and the Appeals Commission are authorized to disclose the records and information.

(7) Where the Medical Panels Office receives a request for the establishment of a medical panel, the Medical Panels Commissioner shall, in accordance with the regulations and subject to section 46.4, establish a medical panel to deal with the issue or matter that is the subject of the application.

(8) A person is not eligible to be a member of a medical panel unless the person is a regulated member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Alberta who holds a practice permit issued under the Health Professions Act or has a similar status under similar legislation in a jurisdiction outside Alberta.

(9) For the purposes of providing a report of its medical findings, the medical panel established under subsection (7)

(a) shall review the records and information received under subsection (5),

(b) if the worker has selected a physician to provide input and make representations on behalf of the worker before a medical panel pursuant to the regulations, shall arrange to receive the physician’s input and representations, and

(c) may

(i) interview or examine the worker,

(ii) invite a physician, including the worker’s treating physician, and any other health provider who holds a practice permit under the Health Professions Act whom the medical panel considers appropriate, to provide input,

(iii) seek, or request the Medical Panels Commissioner to seek, advice or information relevant to the medical issue or matter from one or more of any of the following:

(A) physicians;
(B) medical specialists;
(C) health care providers who hold a practice permit under the Health Professions Act,

and

(iv) request the Medical Panels Commissioner to do one or both of the following:

(A) to arrange for any tests on or assessments of the worker;
(B) to compile medical information relevant to the medical issue or matter.

(10) For the purposes of this section, a difference of medical opinion arises where

(a) the medical issue is substantial and material to the claim,
(b) the physicians who provided the medical opinions are in possession of the same facts in respect of the medical issue,
(c) the physicians have reasonably similar qualifications or expertise in respect of the medical issue, and
(d) the medical opinions relate to the same time frame and the Board is not able to resolve the outstanding medical issue through consultation with the physicians.

(11) If the evidence in support of the opposite sides of an issue relating to the difference of a medical opinion in the course of evaluating a claim for compensation is approximately equal, the issue shall be resolved in favour of the worker.

(12) The medical findings of a medical panel are binding on the Board, the Appeals Commission and all other persons with a direct interest in the claim.
(13) The medical findings of a medical panel are final and conclusive and not open to question or review in any court.

Case conferencing

46.4(1) Before referring a matter to a medical panel under section 46.3, and unless it is impractical to do so, the Medical Panels Commissioner may request any of the following to attend a case conference:

(b) simplification or clarification of a matter or issue referred to the medical panel under section 46.3, and

(c) any other matter that may aid in the resolution or facilitate the resolution of the matter referred to the medical panel.

(3) The Medical Panels Commissioner shall provide the parties and any other person directed to attend the conference with notice of the conference and any material to be relied on in the conference in a reasonable time before the date the conference is scheduled to take place.

(4) The Medical Panels Commissioner may make a procedural order before, at or following the conference.

2017 c25 Sched. 2 s21

Commutation of periodic payments

47(1) The Board may commute to a lump sum periodic compensation payments to a worker or dependant, regardless of whether the accident that gave rise to the right to compensation occurred before or after the coming into force of this Act.

(2) The fact that the Board makes a lump sum payment to a worker or dependant in full settlement of the worker’s or dependant’s claim does not affect the worker’s or dependant’s right to compensation under Parts 5 and 6 or the Board’s right to alter the amount of compensation if a change in disability occurs.

(3) In the case of
(a) death or permanent total disability, or

(b) permanent partial disability resulting in greater than 25% impairment of the worker’s earning capacity immediately before the accident, the Board shall not commute any periodic compensation payments except with the agreement of the worker or dependant entitled to them.

(4) A lump sum payment made by the Board shall be computed on the basis of the rate of compensation being paid at the date the lump sum payment is approved by the Board.

NOTE: Subsection (4) applies in respect of accidents that occur on or after September 1, 2018. See SA 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s22(2).

Lump sum advance

48 The Board may, in any case in which in its opinion the interest or pressing need of the worker or dependant warrants it, advance or pay to the worker or dependant a lump sum that it considers appropriate, and any sum so advanced or paid shall be on account of and is chargeable against the compensation payable to the worker or dependant.

1981 cW-16 s43

Payments to spouse or adult interdependent partner or child

49 If the Board is satisfied

(a) that a spouse or adult interdependent partner or child dependent on the worker and residing in Alberta is without adequate means of support and is or is likely to become a charge on the Government or on the municipality where the spouse or adult interdependent partner or child resides or on private charity, or

(b) that a spouse or adult interdependent partner or child dependent on the worker and residing in or out of Alberta is not being supported by the worker and an order has been made against the worker by a court for support or maintenance of the spouse or adult interdependent partner or child or for alimony, the Board may pay the compensation payable to the worker in whole or in part to the spouse or adult interdependent partner or child.

Payment to child

49.1 Where a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner receives or is entitled to receive a pension under section 70 and there are dependent children of the deceased worker who resided with the worker at the time of the worker’s death but do not reside with that dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner following the death of the worker, the Board may pay the pension in whole or in part to the children.

Payment for person under disability

50 The Board may, instead of making a payment to the worker or dependant, pay the money to some other person for the benefit of the worker or dependant or direct that the payment be applied in a manner that it considers to be for the best advantage of the worker or dependant if it is satisfied that the worker or dependant is under the age of 18 years, that the worker or dependant suffers from some other disability or incapacity or that for some other reason the money should not be paid directly to the worker or dependant.

1981 cW-16 s45

Only one pension payable

51 If a person who is receiving or is entitled to receive a pension because of the death of a worker subsequently becomes entitled to a pension because of the death of another worker, that person shall not receive both pensions but shall be paid the greater of the 2 pensions.

1981 cW-16 s46

Worker leaving Alberta

52 If a worker who is entitled to compensation under this Act leaves Alberta and takes up residence in another jurisdiction, the Board may cease paying compensation under this Act to that worker unless

(a) the worker provides medical evidence in a manner satisfactory to the Board confirming the continuation of the disablement and the Board is satisfied that the period of disablement is not prolonged by the worker leaving Alberta, or

(b) the worker has been granted an award for permanent disability arising out of the accident.

1981 cW-16 s47; 1984 c68 s12

Compensation to dependants residing outside Canada

53 The Board may, in its discretion, pay compensation to a dependant who resides outside Alberta but no such dependant is entitled to receive greater compensation than the dependant would receive if the dependant were resident in Alberta.

Reduction or suspension of compensation

54 If a worker behaves in a manner that tends to imperil or retard the worker’s recovery or refuses to undergo any medical aid that the Board, based on independent medical advice, considers reasonably essential to promote the worker’s recovery, the Board may reduce or suspend the compensation payable to that worker.

Payments to end of month

55 If, under this Act, periodic payments of compensation, other than for temporary disability, are to cease on the happening of an event, the Board shall pay the compensation up to the end of the month in which the event happens.

Disability

Compensation for disability

56(1) The Board shall pay periodic compensation

(a) on a monthly basis in the case of permanent disability,

(b) on a bi-weekly basis in the case of temporary disability, or

(c) on a basis other than under clause (a) or (b), if the Board considers it appropriate to do so.

(2) If an accident results in an impairment of earning capacity after the date of the accident, the Board shall estimate the impairment of earning capacity resulting from the accident and shall pay periodic compensation to the worker in an amount equal to 90% of the estimated loss of net earnings as determined by the Board in accordance with subsection (3).

(3) Subject to section 68(1), the estimated loss of net earnings shall be based on the difference between

(a) the worker’s net earnings at the time of the accident based on a period or periods of time prior to the accident or the date of disablement, as the case may be, that, in the Board’s opinion, fairly and justly represent the worker’s net earnings at that time, and

(b) the greater of the worker’s

(i) actual earnings after the accident, and
(ii) estimated earning capacity after the accident,

as periodically determined by the Board.

(4) Subject to section 88.1, the Board may estimate earning capacity referred to in subsection (3)(b)(ii) only after the Board has demonstrated it has made every reasonable effort to support the worker in the worker’s search for suitable employment.

(5) Compensation shall be paid in accordance with subsection (1) for as long as the impairment of earning capacity lasts.

(6) If the period or periods of time prior to the accident referred to in subsection (3)(a) are, in the Board’s opinion, insufficient to allow the Board to calculate the worker’s net earnings, the Board may pay periodic compensation based on another amount as determined by the Board.

(7) In making a calculation under subsection (3), the Board shall consider separately each source of employment the worker had at the time of the accident from which the worker no longer has the ability to earn wages or in which the worker’s ability to earn wages is impaired, due to the accident, regardless of whether the source of employment is in an industry to which this Act applies.

(8) Payments customarily made by an employer to a worker to cover any special expenses incurred by the worker in the course of the worker’s employment shall not be included in computing the worker’s net earnings under subsection (3) for the purposes of this Act.

(9) In determining impairment of earning capacity, the Board shall not consider any disability benefit paid by the employer, either by way of continued salary or otherwise.

(10) The amount of the periodic payment of compensation is

(a) in the case of permanent total disability and temporary total disability, 90% of the worker’s net earnings, and

(b) in the case of permanent partial disability and temporary partial disability, a proportionate part of 90% of the worker’s net earnings based on the Board’s estimate of the impairment of earning capacity from the nature and degree of disability.

(11) Compensation for permanent total disability and permanent partial disability is payable to the worker during the worker’s lifetime and must not be less than.
(a) in the case of permanent total disability, $1640.90 per month, and

(b) in the case of permanent partial disability, a proportionate part of $1640.90 per month based on the Board’s estimate of the impairment of earning capacity from the nature and degree of disability.

(12) Compensation for temporary total disability and temporary partial disability is payable to the worker only as long as the disability lasts, and compensation for temporary total disability must be

(a) where the worker’s bi-weekly net earnings are greater than the sum referred to in subsection (11)(a), the greater of

(i) the sum referred to in subsection (11)(a), and

(ii) the bi-weekly equivalent of the amount that the worker would have received under subsection (10) had the worker been permanently totally disabled,

and

(b) where the worker’s bi-weekly net earnings are equal to or less than the sum referred to in subsection (11)(a), 100% of those bi-weekly net earnings.

(13) Where work is made available to a worker who is temporarily partially disabled and the Board is satisfied that the worker is medically and physically capable of doing the work and that, considering all the circumstances, it is fair and just to expect the worker to accept the work, the following applies, notwithstanding subsection (12):

(a) if the worker accepts the work, the Board shall pay periodic compensation to the worker if, in doing the work, the worker suffers an earnings loss that is caused by the residual disability, and in that case the compensation must be in an amount that is a proportionate part of 90% of the worker’s earnings loss, based on the Board’s estimate of the degree to which the earnings loss is caused by the residual disability;

(b) if the worker refuses the work, the Board shall continue to pay periodic compensation to the worker in accordance with clause (a) as if the worker had accepted the work.

(14) Notwithstanding subsection (13), if the worker is subsequently terminated or the work is withdrawn by the employer, the Board shall pay compensation for temporary total disability until the Board determines the worker is capable of other suitable employment.

(15) Subsection (13) applies regardless of whether the work is in an industry to which this Act applies.

(16) Where the Board determines that a worker has reached both medical and vocational plateaus in respect of the worker’s injury, and the worker continues to suffer impairment of earning capacity, the Board shall pay to the worker periodic compensation in the form of an economic loss payment for permanent disability, calculated in accordance with subsection (3).

(17) After the worker has reached both medical and vocational plateaus, the Board may, at such times as it considers appropriate, investigate the worker’s circumstances for the purposes of reviewing the worker’s entitlement to an economic loss payment, and may, following the investigation, confirm or adjust the level of the economic loss payment payable in accordance with the worker’s actual or estimated earning capacity at the time.

(18) In computing net earnings for the purposes of this Act with respect to accidents that occurred before September 1, 2018, no regard may be taken of the aggregate gross annual earnings of the worker in excess of an amount prescribed by order of the Board.

(Note: Section 56 applies in respect of accidents that occur on or after September 1, 2018. See SA 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s23(2).)

Non-economic loss payment

56.1(1) When the worker has reached medical plateau, the Board shall pay the worker a non-economic loss payment as compensation for permanent clinical impairment, including disfigurement, that results from the accident.

(2) A worker’s non-economic loss payment is calculated by multiplying the worker’s percentage of permanent clinical impairment by $90,772.20.

(3) This section applies in respect of accidents that occur on or after September 1, 2018.

57 Repealed 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s25.

(Note: The repeal of section 57 applies in respect of accidents that occur on or after September 1, 2018. See SA 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s23(2).)
Cost of living adjustments

59(1) Commencing for the 2018 calendar year and for subsequent calendar years, for the purpose of maintaining parity with the cost of living, the amounts payable as compensation to persons who are receiving compensation under this Act or any predecessor of this Act in respect of permanent total disability, permanent partial disability or death of a worker must be adjusted cumulatively from year to year by a percentage equal to the increase to the Alberta Consumer Price Index, All-items, published by Statistics Canada for each year for the 12 months ending September 30 of the year immediately prior to the adjustment.

(2) If the percentage increase in the Alberta Consumer Price Index is a negative number, that negative number must be treated as if it were zero.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to amounts specifically referred to in this Act for the 2018 calendar year as those amounts have been adjusted for the 2018 calendar year.

(4) An adjustment under this section with respect to an accident that occurred on or before September 1, 2018 is subject to the maximum pension payable under section 56.

Adjustment to temporary disability

60(1) If after December 31, 1989 a worker is receiving compensation for temporary disability 24 months after the date of the accident, the Board shall adjust the compensation by the same percentage as it would have had the worker been permanently totally disabled at the time of the accident.

(2) An adjustment under subsection (1) is subject to the maximum pension payable under section 56 that is in effect on the day that the worker is entitled to receive the adjustment.

Retirement benefit

60.1(1) For the purposes of this section, “worker’s retirement date” means the later of

(a) the date the worker reaches the age of 65 years,
(b) 5 years following the date of the accident, and

(c) another date, if the Board is satisfied that the worker would have retired at a later date than provided for in clauses (a) and (b).

(2) Where immediately prior to the worker’s retirement date the worker had been in receipt of economic loss payments, the Board shall, effective on the worker’s retirement date, pay an annual retirement benefit calculated by multiplying the total amount of the periodic compensation paid up to the month in which the periodic compensation ended by 2%.

(3) The annual retirement benefit is payable on a monthly basis for the lifetime of the worker.

(4) Where a worker has been in receipt of periodic compensation continuously for a period of at least 2 years, and the worker’s entitlement to periodic compensation ends before the worker’s retirement date, the worker is entitled to receive a lump sum retirement benefit calculated by multiplying the total amount of the periodic compensation paid up to the month in which the periodic compensation ended by 2%.

(RSA 2000 cW-215 s59; 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s27)

(NOTE: Section 60.1 applies in respect of accidents that occur on or after January 1, 2018. See SA 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s27(2).)

Recurrence of disability
61(1) The Board may, if

(a) a worker who was awarded compensation in respect of an accident ceases to receive that compensation by reason of recovery from the disability,

(b) there is a recurrence of disability in the form of temporary disability and that disability is due to the same accident,

(c) the worker has, at the time of recurrence of the disability, earnings in an amount that is greater than the amount of the worker’s net earnings at the time of the accident, and

(d) more than 12 months have elapsed since the date of the accident, pay compensation on and from the date of the recurrence on the same basis as if the worker had suffered another accident and been disabled on the date of the recurrence of disability.

(2) Subsection (1) applies regardless of whether the accident that gave rise to the right to compensation occurred before or after the coming into force of this Act.

62 Repealed 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s28.

Determining impairment of earning capacity
63 In determining the degree of impairment of earning capacity, the Board may consider as a factor the nature of the injury and the physical and mental fitness of the worker to continue in the employment in which the worker was injured or to adapt himself or herself to some other suitable employment.

1981 cW-16 s57

Deduction of allowance or benefit from employer
64(1) The Board may, in fixing the amount of compensation payable to a worker, deduct all or part of the amount of any payment, allowance or benefit that the worker will receive from the worker’s employer in respect of the period of the worker’s disability and the Board may pay all or part of that amount to the employer out of the Accident Fund.

(2) An employer who receives money under subsection (1) shall credit that amount to the account of the worker from whom the deductions were made.

Compensation to learner and apprentice
67(1) If a worker who is a learner suffers impairment of earning capacity because of an accident, the periodic compensation to which the worker is entitled must be calculated on the same basis as if the worker were, at the time of the accident, a beginner in the industry in which the worker was a learner.

(2) If a worker who is an apprentice in an industry suffers impairment of earning capacity because of an accident and is entitled to periodic compensation, the Board may grant the worker an adjustment in the periodic compensation at the time that the worker would, in the normal course, have become qualified in the worker’s trade.
Increase in compensation for young workers

68(1) For the purposes of section 56, the worker’s net earnings is the Alberta average weekly earnings for the year prior to the issuance of the compensation payment if

(a) the worker was

(i) under the age of 25 years at the date of the accident, or

(ii) 25 years of age or older at the date of the accident and was enrolled in a vocational or academic program approved by the Board,

(b) the Alberta average weekly earnings exceed the worker’s actual net earnings at the time of the accident, and

(c) the worker

(i) has been assessed as having a permanent clinical impairment of 50% or higher, or

(ii) has been receiving compensation for temporary disability for 24 months after the date of the accident and is expected to have a permanent clinical impairment of 50% or higher.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Alberta average weekly earnings is an amount based on the average weekly earnings for Alberta as published annually by Statistics Canada for the year preceding the date of the accident.

NOTE: Section 68 applies in respect of accidents that occur on or after September 1, 2018. See SA 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s32(2.).

69 Repealed 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s33.

Death

Compensation for death

70(1) For the purposes of this Act, if at the time of the worker’s death there is both a spouse and an adult interdependent partner of the worker, then

(a) if the spouse is a dependent spouse, the spouse is entitled to a pension under this section, or
(b) if the spouse is not a dependent spouse and the adult interdependent partner is a dependant, the adult interdependent partner is entitled to a pension under this section, and nothing in this subsection affects the rights under this Act of dependent children of either relationship.

(2) If a worker dies as a result of an accident and leaves a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner, a pension is, subject to this section, payable to the dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner in an amount equal to the pension the worker would have received had the worker lived and been permanently totally disabled.

(3) If a worker dies as a result of an accident and leaves a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner and dependent children, the pension payable under subsection (2) shall be paid to the dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner for the dependent spouse’s or dependent adult interdependent partner’s benefit and the benefit of the dependent children until 5 years has expired from the month in which there is no longer a dependent child.

(4) If, following the month in which there is no longer a dependent child, a child who is 18 years of age or older but less than 25 years of age becomes a dependent child because of being enrolled at an educational institution approved by the Board, the dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner is entitled to a pension until the child is no longer a dependent child.

(5) If a worker dies as a result of an accident and leaves a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner and no dependent children, the pension payable under subsection (2) is payable to the dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner for a term of 5 years.

(6) If a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner is not gainfully employed in the month in which the pension payable in accordance with subsection (3) or (5) ends, and the dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner accepts vocational or other rehabilitation services referred to in section 89(1), the pension payable under subsection (2) continues until the earlier of

(a) the date the dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner becomes gainfully employed, and
(b) the expiration of 5 years after the pension payable under subsection (3) or (5) ends.

(7) A pension under subsection (6) to a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner with no dependent children or where there is no longer a dependent child is payable until

(a) the worker would have attained the age of 65, or

(b) the dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner attains the age of 65, whichever is later.

(8) If a worker dies as a result of an accident and

(a) leaves dependent children but no dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner, or

(b) leaves a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner and dependent children, but the dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner later dies, the pension payable under subsection (2) shall be paid to the person who acts as guardian of the dependent children for the maintenance and education of the dependent children until the month in which there is no longer a dependent child, at which time the pension payable under subsection (2) continues for a term of 5 years, to be divided equally among the surviving children who were dependent children at the time of the worker’s death.

(9) If more than one person is acting as a guardian referred to in subsection (8), the Board may divide the amount payable under that subsection proportionately among those persons according to the number of children of whom they are the guardian.

(10) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, if the Board considers that a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner is incapable of substantially benefitting from rehabilitation services referred to in section 89(1)(c) or of becoming gainfully employed, the Board may continue payment of the pension payable under subsection (2), or a percentage of it that the Board considers appropriate, for as long as the incapability continues.

(11) Where a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner is receiving a pension other than under subsection (10) and that pension ends, that person is entitled to receive a lump sum retirement benefit calculated by multiplying the total amount of the pension paid up to the month in which the pension payments ended by 2%.

NOTE: Section 70 applies in respect of accidents that occur on or after September 1, 2018. See SA 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s34(2).)

Lump sum death payment

70.1(1) If a worker dies as a result of an accident and leaves a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner to whom compensation is payable, in addition to any other compensation payable, the dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner is entitled to a lump sum payment of $90,772.20.

(2) If a worker dies as a result of an accident and leaves dependent children but no dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner, the lump sum payable under subsection (1) must be divided equally among the dependent children.

(3) If a worker dies as a result of an accident and leaves no dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner or dependent children, the lump sum payable under subsection (1) must be paid to the worker’s estate.

(4) This section does not apply if the worker has received compensation under section 56.1 or section 69 before its repeal.

Compensation to child not residing with dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner

71 Notwithstanding any payment to a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner under section 70, the Board may pay compensation to a dependent child of the deceased worker who is not residing with the dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner at the time of the worker’s death in an amount not exceeding $420 per month.

Additional payments to child

72 If a worker dies as a result of an accident and leaves no spouse or adult interdependent partner, or if a surviving spouse or adult interdependent partner subsequently dies or is confined to an institution, prison or correctional institution, the Board may make additional payments of not more than $420 per month to a dependent child of the worker to assist in that child’s maintenance and support.

74 and 75 Repealed 2017 c25 Sched. 2 s38.

Compensation to other dependants
76(1) If the only dependant of a deceased worker is a person other than a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner or dependent child of the worker, the Board shall pay compensation to that dependent person in an amount the Board considers to be reasonable and proportionate to the pecuniary loss caused to that dependent person by the death of the worker, subject to the maximum amount payable pursuant to section 56.

(2) The Board may in respect of an accident occurring before January 1, 1982, pay to a dependant referred to in subsection (1) who is receiving compensation in respect of that accident under a predecessor of this Act, an additional amount of compensation determined by the Board to be reasonable and proportionate to the pecuniary loss caused to that dependant by the death of the worker, subject to the maximum amount payable under the predecessor of this Act at the time of the accident, as adjusted pursuant to that Act.

(3) Compensation to which this section applies shall continue for as long as, in the opinion of the Board, it might reasonably be expected that the worker, had the worker lived, would have continued to contribute to the support of the dependant.

Funeral and other expenses
77 If a worker dies as a result of an accident for which compensation is payable, the Board shall, subject to the maximum amounts prescribed by an order of the board of directors of the Board, pay

No charge for medical aid

86 No part of the cost of any medical aid provided to or in respect of a worker under this Part is payable by the worker.

(2) If a worker refuses an employer’s offer of transportation under subsection (1) and the Board is satisfied that the worker’s refusal has prolonged or will prolong the recovery period, the Board may relieve the employer’s accident experience record of the additional costs resulting from the refusal.

(3) If an employer

(a) fails to provide transportation to the appropriate place under subsection (1), or

(b) fails to pay the cost of transportation under subsection (1),

Part 5.1
Obligation to Reinstall Worker and Continue to Provide Benefits

Obligation to return injured workers to work

88.1(1) In accordance with this section, an employer shall offer to reinstall a worker

(a) who has been unable to work as a result of an accident, and

(b) who, on the date of the accident, had been employed by the employer for at least 12 continuous months on a full-time or regular part-time basis.

(2) This section does not apply to
(a) persons declared to be workers pursuant to section 14(3),

(b) persons whose applications under section 15 have been approved by the Board,

(c) individuals deemed to be workers pursuant to section 16,

(d) persons declared to be workers by orders of the Board made pursuant to the regulations, or

(e) unless subject to an order issued under section 14(2), employers and workers in an industry designated by the regulations as being exempt.

(3) The employer shall accommodate the work or the workplace to the needs of the worker to the extent that the accommodation does not cause the employer undue hardship.

(4) When the worker is medically and physically capable to perform the essential duties of the worker’s employment on the date of the accident, the employer shall

(a) offer to reinstate the worker in the position the worker held on the date of the accident, or

(b) offer to provide the worker with alternative employment of a comparable nature at not less than the earnings and benefits earned by the worker on the date of the accident.

(5) When the worker is medically and physically capable to perform suitable work but is unable to perform the essential duties of the worker’s employment on the date of the accident, the employer shall offer the worker the first opportunity to accept suitable employment that becomes available with the employer.

(6) Where an employer reinstates a worker in accordance with this section and then terminates the employment, the employer is presumed not to have fulfilled the employer’s obligations under this section if the worker is terminated

(a) within 6 months after reinstatement, or

(b) while the worker is continuing to receive compensation under this Act.

(7) The employer may rebut the presumption under subsection (6) by demonstrating to the Board that the termination was not related to the worker’s accident.

(8) Nothing in this section prevents an employer from
(a) refusing to continue to employ a worker,

(b) terminating, laying off or suspending a worker, or

(c) altering the status of or transferring a worker,

if the employer satisfies the Board that the employer’s decision to do so was for a business reason made in good faith and that the decision was not affected by the worker being or having been unable to work as a result of an accident.

(9) The employer or the worker shall notify the Board of disputes concerning whether the employer has fulfilled the employer’s obligations to the worker under this section.

(10) On receiving a notice under subsection (9), the Board shall, within 60 days or within any longer period that the Board allows, determine whether the employer has fulfilled the employer’s obligations to the worker under this section.

(11) The Board may attempt to resolve the dispute referred to in subsection (9) through mediation.

(12) The Board is not required to make a determination under subsection (10) where the worker’s notice under subsection (9) is provided to the Board more than 3 months after the date of termination.

(13) If the Board determines that the employer has not complied with an obligation under this section, the employer is subject to an administrative penalty under section 152.1 in an amount not exceeding the amount of the worker’s net average earnings for the year before the accident.

(14) The Board may provide to the worker an amount not exceeding the penalty paid by the employer under subsection (13).

(15) If the employer’s obligations under this section provide the worker greater reinstatement terms than does a collective agreement that is binding on the employer, this section prevails over the collective agreement except that this subsection does not operate to displace the seniority provisions of the collective agreement.

(16) An employer is obligated under this section until the date on which the worker declines an offer from the employer to reinstate the worker that, in the opinion of the Board, complied with this section.
(17) The employer of an injured worker shall cooperate in the early and safe return to work of the worker by

(a) contacting the worker as soon as possible after the accident occurs and maintaining communication throughout the period of the worker’s recovery and impairment,

(b) attempting to provide suitable employment that is available and consistent with the worker’s functional abilities and that, when possible, restores the worker’s earnings payable to the worker on the date of the accident,

(c) giving the Board such information as the Board may request concerning the worker’s return to work, and

(d) doing such other things as may be prescribed by the Board.

(18) The worker shall cooperate in the worker’s early and safe return to work by

(a) contacting the worker’s employer as soon as possible after the accident occurs and maintaining communication throughout the period of the worker’s recovery and impairment,

(b) assisting the employer, as may be required or requested, to identify suitable employment that is available and consistent with the worker’s functional abilities and that, when possible, restores the worker’s earnings payable to the worker on the date of the accident,

(c) giving the Board such information as the Board may request concerning the worker’s return to work, and

(d) doing such other things as may be prescribed by the Board.

(19) If a worker fails to comply with subsection (18), the Board may reduce or suspend the compensation payable to the worker.

(20) For the purposes of section 22 of the Alberta Human Rights Act,

(a) the Board shall notify the director of the Alberta Human Rights Commission if a matter under this section is being dealt with by the Board under this section, and

(b) the Appeals Commission shall notify the director of the Alberta Human Rights Commission if a matter under this section is under appeal to the Appeals Commission.
Continuation of employment benefits

88.2(1) In this section, “contributions for health benefits”, in relation to a worker, means amounts paid in whole or in part by an employer on behalf of the worker or the worker’s spouse or adult interdependent partner or dependants for health benefits.

(2) Throughout the first year after a worker is injured as a result of an accident, the employer shall make contributions for health benefits when the worker is absent from work because of the injury sustained from the accident. However, the contributions are required only if

(a) the employer was making contributions for health benefits in respect of the worker when the accident occurred, and

(b) the worker continues to pay the worker’s contributions, if any, for the health benefits while the worker is absent from work.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to persons or individuals referred to in section 88.1(2).

(4) If an employer fails to make contributions for health benefits under subsection (2) and the worker incurs expenses for the provision of health services that would otherwise have been covered by the health benefit, the Board shall reimburse the worker for the amount incurred and the employer is liable to the Board for the amount so paid.

(5) If the Board determines that the employer has not complied with an obligation under this section, the employer is subject to an administrative penalty under section 152.1 in an amount not exceeding one year’s contributions for health benefits in respect of the worker.

(6) The Board may provide to the worker an amount not exceeding the penalty paid by the employer under subsection (5).

(7) Where an employer participates in a multi-employer benefit plan in respect of a health benefit, subsection (2) does not apply with respect to that employment benefit if

(a) the plan continues to provide the worker with the health benefit to which the worker would otherwise be entitled, and

(b) the plan does not require the employer to make contributions during the worker’s absence and does not require the worker to draw on the benefit credits, if any, under the plan during the absence.

(8) For the purpose of determining a worker’s entitlement to an employment benefit under a health benefit plan, fund or arrangement, the worker is deemed to continue to be employed by the employer for one year after the date of the accident.

Part 6
Vocational Rehabilitation

Board to provide vocational and rehabilitation services

89(1) The Board shall take whatever measures it considers necessary to assist a worker injured in an accident and entitled to compensation to return to work and to lessen or eliminate any handicap resulting from that injury and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may offer to do any or all of the following:

(a) provide physical, social and psychological services;

(b) relocate a worker who suffers from an occupational disease and the worker’s dependants if, in the opinion of the Board, a change of industry or occupation is advisable;

(c) provide vocational or other rehabilitation services;

(d) reimburse a worker engaged in a vocational or rehabilitation program the worker’s actual and reasonable expenses, including the cost of relocation, if applicable.

(2) If a worker dies as a result of an accident, the worker’s dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner is entitled to receive the same benefits and services as would have been available to the worker under subsection (1) had the worker lived.

(3) The Board may, if it is of the opinion that such action will assist in the rehabilitation of a dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner receiving benefits under section 70, provide that dependent spouse or dependent adult interdependent partner with a pension advance but the total of the term pension payments received and the pension advance shall not exceed the total amount payable under section 70.

94 An employer in an industry to which this Act applies is liable for the payment of premiums.

Separate experience accounts for each employer

95(1) The Board shall maintain separate experience accounts in respect of assessments levied and costs of claims chargeable in respect of each employer, but for the purpose of paying compensation the Accident Fund is one indivisible fund.

negligence of 2 or more persons, one of whom may be the worker who was injured or killed, the Board may direct

(a) that the cost of the claim be included and charged in the experience accounts and classes of the employers who, or whose workers, were negligent, in proportion to the degree of negligence of each person involved, or

(b) that the cost of the claim be included and charged in equal proportions in the experience accounts and classes of the employers involved where the Board is of the opinion that it cannot establish different degrees of negligence.

Publication of assessment

101(1) The Board shall publish in The Alberta Gazette a notice containing a statement of percentages and rates determined and fixed by the Board and of the industries to which they respectively apply and, subject to subsection (2) and the Board’s powers in this Part to subsequently alter the amount of the assessment, that publication constitutes the making of an assessment on, and notice of it to, each employer in an industry named in the notice for the year or other period named in the notice, computed on the payroll of the employer at the applicable percentage or rate set out in the notice.

(2) Publication of a percentage or rate under subsection (1) does not limit the right of the Board to increase or decrease that percentage or rate from time to time, if notice of the increase or decrease is also published in The Alberta Gazette, and on that publication the new percentage or rate has effect in the same manner and to the same extent as if it had been the percentage or rate originally fixed by the Board.

Separate statements for each industry

110 If the business of an employer consists of more than one industry, the Board may require of the employer separate statements under sections 103 to 109 as to each industry and the employer shall prepare and deliver those statements as prescribed by the Board.
Basis of assessment when no statement

111(1) The Board may base the assessment on what the Board estimates the probable amount of payroll or other basis of assessment to be if

(a) an employer does not prepare and deliver the statement prescribed in sections 103 to 110 to the Board within the prescribed time, or

(b) the statement referred to in clause (a) does not, in the Board’s opinion, reflect the probable amount of payroll of the employer or other applicable basis of assessment.

(2) If the amount estimated by the Board under subsection (1) is less than the actual amount of the payroll or other basis of assessment, the employer is liable to pay to the Board the difference between the amount for which the employer was assessed and the amount for which the employer should have been assessed on the basis of the employer’s payroll or on the other basis of assessment.

(3) If the amount estimated by the Board under subsection (1) is more than the actual amount of payroll or other basis of assessment, the Board shall credit the employer with the amount by which the employer was over-assessed.

112(1) Unless a statement or other satisfactory evidence of an employer’s payroll for any period is submitted to or obtained by the Board, the payroll estimated by the employer under this Part or by the Board under section 111, as the case may be, is, for all purposes under this Act, deemed to be the actual payroll of the employer.

(2) If, in an employer’s statement to the Board of the amount or estimated amount the employer will expend for wages during the then current year, the employer underestimates that amount, the employer shall pay to the Board as a penalty an amount prescribed by the regulations.

(3) If, in a statement referred to in subsection (2), the employer overestimates the wages, the Board shall credit the employer with the amount the employer is over-assessed as a result of the overestimate.

Rate modification

113 If the Board considers it appropriate, it may adopt systems of rate modification in accordance with the guidelines it establishes in relation to the employer’s accident experience record and may modify the assessment rate or grant a credit or rebate to the employer or levy a surcharge on the employer, as the case may be.

(2) The employer shall, within 15 days after being served with the notice, provide the security to the Board.

(3) If the Board at any time considers that the security provided is no longer sufficient, due to an increase in the number of workers employed by the employer, it may require further security from the employer, and subsections (1) and (2) apply.

(4) If the employer defaults in the payment of any premium that is payable to the Board by the employer and is levied in the period for which the security is given, the Board may do all things it considers necessary, having regard to the nature of the security, to realize on it.

but in the absence of any term in the subcontract to the contrary, the subcontractor is, as between the subcontractor and the others, liable for that amount.

(3) A principal may withhold from any money payable to a contractor the amount that the principal is liable to pay under this section and pay that amount to the Board, and as between the principal, the contractor and the subcontractor, the payment is deemed to be a payment on the contract or subcontract, or both, as the nature of the payment requires.

(4) A contractor may withhold from any money payable to a subcontractor the amount that the contractor is liable to pay with respect to the subcontractor under this section and pay that amount to the Board and, as between the contractor and the subcontractor, the payment is deemed to be a payment on the subcontract.

(4) All reasonable costs and charges incurred or paid in respect of the filing of a certificate or certified statement under subsection (2) or in respect of any proceedings taken to collect the amount certified are recoverable in the same way as if they had been included in the amount certified in the certificate or certified statement when it was filed.

(b) any property, other than real property, or any proceeds of property that is subject to the charge under section 129.

(4) No person to whom a distress warrant is delivered for execution is bound to proceed unless the person has been furnished with security in an amount the person considers reasonably sufficient to indemnify the person in respect of the person’s fees, charges and expenses, and any claims for damages in respect of the distress and levy, and anything done in relation to it.

(5) A person executing a distress warrant under this section shall

(10) A sale of goods seized under this section is without warranty of title and the purchaser acquires no more than the precise interest in the goods that can be sold under the power of distress.

(11) If the goods seized are sold for more than the amount due and costs, and if no claim to the surplus is made within 6 months from the date of the sale by any other person on the ground that the goods sold belonged to that other person or that that other person was entitled by lien or other right to the surplus, it shall be paid to the person in whose possession the goods were when the distress was made.
