Restrictions on investments

- 4(1) In determining market values of securities an authorized trustee may rely on published market quotations of a recognized stock exchange in Canada or the United States of America.
- (2) No corporation that is an authorized trustee shall invest trust money in its own securities or lend money on the security of its own securities.
- (3) In the case of an investment under section 3(e), the inclusion, as additional security under the mortgages, charges or hypothecs, of any other assets not of a class authorized by this Schedule as investments does not render the bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness ineligible as an investment.
- (4) No investment may be made under section 3(e), (h) or (i) that would at the time of making the investment cause the aggregate market value of the investments made under those clauses to exceed 35% of the market value at that time of the whole trust estate.
- (5) Investments made by the testator or settlor and retained by the authorized trustee under the authority of the trust instrument that come within any of the classes authorized by section 3(e), (h) or (i) may, notwithstanding subsection (4), be retained by the authorized trustee under the authority of the trust instrument.
- (6) No sale or other liquidation of any investment made under section 3(e), (h) or (i) is required solely because of any change in the ratio between the market value of those investments and the market value of the whole trust estate.

(7) In the case of an investment under section 3(i) or (j), not more than 30% of the total issue of shares of any corporation may be purchased for any trust.

(8) No investment shall be made under section 3(j) that, at the time of making the investment, would cause the aggregate market value of the common shares held for any particular trust fund to exceed 15% of the market value of that trust fund at that time.

(9) No sale or other liquidation of common shares is required under this section solely because of any change in the ratio between the market value of those shares and the market value of the whole trust fund.

Court approved trustee investments

5 In addition to the investments authorized by section 3 or by the trust instrument (except when that instrument expressly prohibits the investment), an authorized trustee may invest funds in any other securities that the Court of Queen's Bench on application in any particular case approves as fit and proper, but nothing in this section relieves the authorized trustee of the trustee's duty to take reasonable and proper care with respect to the investments so authorized.

Deposit of trust funds

6 An authorized trustee may, pending the investment of any trust money, deposit it for a time that is reasonable in the circumstances

- (a) in any bank or treasury branch,
- (b) in any trust corporation,
- (c) in any credit union, or
- (d) in any loan corporation.

Registration of securities

7(1) Except in the case of a security that cannot be registered, an authorized trustee who invests in securities shall require the securities to be registered in the authorized trustee's name as the trustee for the particular trust for which the securities are held, and the securities may be transferred only on the books of the corporation in the authorized trustee's name as trustee for that trust estate.

(2) This section does not apply when the authorized trustee is a trust corporation.

Statutory powers of authorized trustee

8(1) The powers conferred by this Schedule relating to trustee investments are in addition to the powers conferred by the instrument, if any, creating the trust.

(2) Nothing in this Schedule relating to trustee investments authorizes an authorized trustee to do anything that the authorized trustee is in express terms forbidden to do or to omit to do anything that the authorized trustee is in express terms directed to do by the instrument creating the trust.

Variation of investments

9(1) An authorized trustee in the trustee's discretion may

- (a) call in any trust funds invested in securities other than those authorized by this Schedule and invest the funds in securities authorized by this Schedule, and
- (b) vary any investments authorized by this Schedule.

(2) No authorized trustee is liable for a breach of trust by reason only of the authorized trustee's continuing to hold an investment that since its acquisition by the authorized trustee has ceased to be one authorized by the instrument of trust or by this Schedule.

(3) When an authorized trustee has improperly advanced trust money on a mortgage that would at the time of the investment have been a proper investment in all respects for a lesser sum than was actually advanced, the security is deemed to be an authorized investment for that lesser sum and the authorized trustee is liable to make good only the amount advanced in excess of the lesser amount with interest.

Concurrence by authorized trustee in corporate schemes

10(1) When an authorized trustee holds securities of a corporation in which the authorized trustee has properly invested money under this Schedule, the authorized trustee may concur in any compromise, scheme or arrangement

- (a) for the reconstruction of the corporation or for the winding-up or sale or distribution of its assets,
- (b) for the sale of all or any part of the property and undertaking of the corporation to another corporation,
- (c) for the amalgamation of the corporation with another corporation,
- (d) for the release, modification or variation of any rights, privileges or liabilities attached to the securities or any of them, or

- (e) whereby
 - (i) all or a majority of the shares, stock, bonds, debentures and other securities of the corporation, or of any class of them, are to be exchanged for shares, stock, bonds, debentures or other securities of another corporation, and
 - (ii) the authorized trustee is to accept the shares, stock, bonds, debentures or other securities of the other corporation allotted to the trustee pursuant to the compromise, scheme or arrangement, in like manner as if the authorized trustee were entitled to the securities beneficially and may, if the securities are in all other respects reasonable and proper investments, accept any securities of any denomination or description of the reconstructed or purchasing or new corporation instead of or in exchange for all or any of the original securities.

(2) An authorized trustee is not responsible for any loss occasioned by any act or thing done in good faith under subsection (1) and the authorized trustee may, if the securities accepted under subsection (1) are in all other respects reasonable and proper investments, retain them for any period for which the authorized trustee could have properly retained the original securities.

Subscription for securities

11(1) If any conditional or preferential right to subscribe for any securities in any company is offered to an authorized trustee in respect of any holding in the company, the authorized trustee may, as to all or any of the securities,

- (a) exercise that right and apply capital money subject to the trust in payment of the consideration, or renounce the right, or
- (b) assign for the best consideration that can be reasonably obtained the benefit of that right, or the title to it, to any person, including any beneficiary under the trust, without being responsible for any loss occasioned by any act or thing so done by the trustee in good faith.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the consideration for any such assignment shall be held as capital money of the trust.

(3) The powers conferred by this section may be exercised only with the consent of any person whose consent to a change of investment is required by law or by the instrument, if any, creating the trust.
