HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta, enacts as follows:

Definition

1 In this Act, except in Part 2.1, “Court” means the Court of Queen’s Bench or, on appeal, the Court of Appeal.

RSA 2000 cJ-2 s1;2013 c23 s8

Part 1
Jurisdiction of the Court

Powers, etc., of Court

2(1) The Court has generally all the jurisdiction, powers and authority that before its organization were by any law, order or regulation vested in, or capable of being exercised within, Alberta by the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories.

(2) The Court has all the jurisdiction, powers and authority that were by any law, order or regulation vested in, or capable of being exercised by, The Surrogate Court of Alberta immediately before the coming into force of this subsection.

RSA 2000 cJ-2 s2;RSA 2000 c16(Supp) s36

Jurisdiction of Court of Appeal

3 The Court of Appeal

- (a) has all the jurisdiction and powers possessed by the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories en banc immediately before the Court’s organization, and
- (b) has jurisdiction and power, subject to the Rules of Court, to hear and determine
 - (i) all applications for new trials,
 - (ii) all questions or issues of law,
 - (iii) all questions or points in civil or criminal cases,
 - (iv) all appeals or applications in the nature of appeals respecting a judgment, order or decision of
 - (A) a judge of the Court of Queen’s Bench, or
 - (B) a judge of a court of inferior jurisdiction when an appeal is given by any other Act,

and

- (v) all other petitions, applications, matters or things whatsoever that might be brought in England before a Divisional Court of the High Court of Justice or before the Court of Appeal.

RSA 2000 cJ-2 s3;2014 c13 s29

Powers of judges

4 The judges of the Court have and shall use, exercise and enjoy all the powers, rights, incidents, privileges and immunities of a judge of a superior court of record, and all other powers, rights, incidents, privileges and immunities as amply and as fully to all intents and purposes as they were on and before July 15, 1870, had, used, exercised and enjoyed in England by any of the judges of the following courts:

- (a) the Superior Courts of Law or Equity;
- (b) the Court of Exchequer as a court of revenue;
- (c) the Court of Probate;
- (d) the Courts created by Commissions of Assize, of Oyer and Terminer and of Gaol Delivery, or any of those commissions;
- (e) any other superior court or court of record.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s4

Additional powers of Court

5(1) For the administration of the law, the Court possesses, in addition to any other jurisdiction, powers, rights, incidents, privileges and authorities that immediately before the organization of the Supreme Court of Alberta were vested in, or capable of being exercised within, Alberta by the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories, the jurisdiction that on July 15, 1870, was in England vested in

- (a) the High Court of Chancery, as a common law court as well as a court of equity, including the jurisdiction of the Master of the Rolls as a judge or master of the Court of Chancery, and any jurisdiction exercised by the Master of the Rolls in relation to the Court of Chancery as a common law court,
- (b) the Court of Queen's Bench,
- (c) the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster,
- (d) the Court of Exchequer as a court of revenue as well as a common law court,

- (e) the Court of Probate,
- (f) the courts created by Commission of Assize, of Oyer and Terminer and of Gaol Delivery, or any of those commissions, and
- (g) any other superior court or court of record.

(2) The jurisdiction mentioned in subsection (1) includes

- (a) the jurisdiction that at any time before the organization of the Court was vested in or capable of being exercised by all or any one or more of the judges of the courts mentioned in subsection (1), sitting in court or chambers or elsewhere, when acting as judges or a judge pursuant to a statute, law or custom,
- (b) all the powers given to any such court or to any judges or judge by a statute, and
- (c) all ministerial powers, duties and authorities incident to any and every part of the jurisdiction so conferred.

(3) For the purpose of removing any doubt, but not so as to restrict the generality of subsections (1) and (2), it is declared that the Court has the like jurisdiction and powers that by the laws of England were, on July 15, 1870, possessed and exercised by the Court of Chancery in England in respect of

- (a) fraud, mistake and accident,
- (b) all matters relating to trusts, executors and administrators, partnerships and accounts, mortgages and awards, or to infants, idiots or lunatics and to the estates of infants, idiots or lunatics,
- (c) the staying of waste,
- (d) compelling specific performance of agreements and contracts,
- (e) compelling discovery of concealed papers or evidence, or such as might be wrongfully withheld from the party claiming the benefit of them,
- (f) preventing the multiplicity of actions,
- (g) decreeing the issue of letters patent from the Crown to rightful claimants,
- (h) decreeing the repeal of and making void letters patent issued by mistake or improvidently or through fraud,

- (i) the administration of justice where there exists no adequate remedy at law, and
- (j) a grant of injunction to stay waste in a proper case notwithstanding that the party in possession claims by an adverse legal title.

(4) The rules of decision in matters mentioned in subsection (3), except where otherwise provided, shall be the same as governed the Court of Chancery in England in like cases on July 15, 1870.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s5

Pronouncement on wills, etc.

6(1) The Court has jurisdiction

- (a) to try the validity of last wills and testaments, whether relating to real or personal estate and whether probate has been granted or not, and
- (b) to pronounce the wills and testaments to be void for fraud and undue influence or otherwise, in the same manner and to the same extent as the Court has jurisdiction to try the validity of deeds and other instruments.

(2) The Court has the same jurisdiction as the Court of Chancery had in England on July 15, 1870, with regard to

- (a) leases and sales of settled estates,
- (b) enabling infants with the approbation of the Court to make binding settlements of their real and personal estates on marriage, and
- (c) questions submitted for the opinion of the Court in the form of special cases on the part of those persons that by themselves, their committees or guardians, or otherwise, concur therein.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s6

Jurisdiction regarding lunatics

7 In the case of lunatics and their property and estates, the jurisdiction of the Court includes, subject to the Rules of Court, the jurisdiction that in England is conferred on the Lord High Chancellor by a Commission from the Crown under the Sign Manual.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s7

General jurisdiction

8 The Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction in every proceeding pending before it has power to grant and shall grant, either absolutely or on any reasonable terms and conditions that seem just to the Court, all remedies whatsoever to which any of the parties to the proceeding may appear to be entitled in respect of any and every legal or equitable claim properly brought forward by them in the proceeding, so that as far as possible all matters in controversy between the parties can be completely determined and all multiplicity of legal proceedings concerning those matters avoided.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s8

Province-wide jurisdiction

9 Each judge of the Court has jurisdiction throughout Alberta, and in all causes, matters and proceedings, other than those of the Court of Appeal, has and shall exercise all the powers, authorities and jurisdiction of the Court.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s9

Part 2 Powers of the Court

Relief against forfeiture

10 Subject to appeal as in other cases, the Court has power to relieve against all penalties and forfeitures and, in granting relief, to impose any terms as to costs, expenses, damages, compensation and all other matters that the Court sees fit.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s10

Declaration judgment

11 No proceeding is open to objection on the ground that a judgment or order sought is declaratory only, and the Court may make binding declarations of right whether or not any consequential relief is or could be claimed.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s11

Canadian law

12 When in a proceeding in the Court the law of any province or territory is in question, evidence of that law may be given, but in the absence of or in addition to that evidence the Court may take judicial cognizance of that law in the same manner as of any law of Alberta.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s12

Part performance

13(1) Part performance of an obligation either before or after a breach thereof shall be held to extinguish the obligation

- (a) when expressly accepted by a creditor in satisfaction, or
- (b) when rendered pursuant to an agreement for that purpose though without any new consideration.

(2) An order in the nature of a mandamus or injunction may be granted or a receiver appointed by an interlocutory order of the Court in all cases in which it appears to the Court to be just or convenient that the order should be made, and the order may be made either unconditionally or on any terms and conditions the Court thinks just.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s13

Interest

14(1) In addition to the cases in which interest is payable by law or may be allowed by law, when in the opinion of the Court the payment of a just debt has been improperly withheld and it seems to the Court fair and equitable that the party in default should make compensation by the payment of interest, the Court may allow interest for the time and at the rate the Court thinks proper.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a cause of action that arises after March 31, 1984.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s15;1984 cJ-0.5 s10

Equity prevails

15 In all matters in which there is any conflict or variance between the rules of equity and common law with reference to the same matter, the rules of equity prevail.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s16

Equitable relief

16(1) If a plaintiff claims to be entitled

- (a) to an equitable estate or right,
- (b) to relief on an equitable ground
 - (i) against a deed, instrument or contract, or
 - (ii) against a right, title or claim whatsoever asserted by a defendant or respondent in the proceeding,

or

- (c) to any relief founded on a legal right,

the Court shall give to the plaintiff the same relief that would be given by the High Court of Justice in England in a proceeding for the same or a like purpose.

(2) If a defendant claims to be entitled

- (a) to an equitable estate or right, or
- (b) to relief on an equitable ground

- (i) against a deed, instrument or contract, or
- (ii) against a right, title or claim asserted by a plaintiff in the proceeding, the Court shall give to each equitable defence so alleged the same effect by way of defence against the claim of the plaintiff that the High Court of Justice in England would give if the same or like matters had been relied on by way of defence in a proceeding for the same or like purpose.

(3) The Court may grant to a defendant respecting an equitable estate or right or other matter of equity and also respecting a legal estate, right or title claimed or asserted by the defendant, all such relief against a plaintiff that the defendant has properly claimed by the defendant's pleading.

(4) The Court shall recognize and take notice

- (a) of all equitable estates, titles and rights, and
- (b) of equitable duties and liabilities,

appearing incidentally in the course of a proceeding, in the same manner in which the High Court of Justice in England would recognize and take notice of them in a proceeding instituted in that Court.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s17;1991 c21 s15

Stay of proceedings

17(1) In a proceeding

- (a) for the recovery of a debt or liquidated demand,
- (b) for the enforcement of a security or charge on land,
- (c) for the determination or specific performance of an agreement for the sale of land, or
- (d) for the possession of land,

the Court in its discretion may at any stage of the proceeding grant a stay of proceedings on any terms that the Court may prescribe, and in like manner the Court in its discretion may with or without imposing terms, after final judgment in any proceeding whatsoever, grant a stay of execution of an order for sale or of other similar process, including a stay of an order for possession of land, and may by an order granting the stay extend the time for payment of a judgment debt or the time for doing any act or making any payment prescribed by a previous order of the Court.

(2) In a proceeding

- (a) for the enforcement of a security or charge on farm land,
- (b) for the determination or specific performance of an agreement for the sale of farm land, or
- (c) for the possession of farm land,

the Court, notwithstanding the terms of an order or judgment previously made, shall grant a stay of proceedings when it appears that the default of the mortgagor, purchaser or other person is in whole or in part caused by the inability of the mortgagor, purchaser or other person to market grain by reason of lack of elevator space or by reason of the restrictions as to delivery of grain imposed under the Canadian Wheat Board Act (Canada) and the regulations under that Act.

(3) A stay granted under subsection (2) remains in force until set aside by the Court, but shall be set aside only on application after notice and on the Court being satisfied that the conditions existing at the time of the granting of the stay and by reason of which it was granted no longer exist.

(4) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the Court, at or after the time that a judgment is granted, to stay the enforcement of the judgment or to remove or extend any stay already granted in respect of the judgment.

RSA 2000 cJ-2 s17;2009 c53 s1

Restraint by prohibition, injunction

18(1) No proceeding at any time pending in the Court shall be restrained by prohibition or injunction, but each matter of equity on which an injunction against the prosecution of the proceeding might formerly have been obtained either unconditionally or on any terms or conditions may be relied on by way of defence in the proceeding.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) disables the Court from directing, if it thinks fit, a stay of proceedings in a proceeding pending before it, and any person, whether a party or not to any proceeding at any time pending in the Court

- (a) who would have been entitled formerly to apply to a court to restrain the prosecution of it, or
- (b) who may be entitled to enforce by attachment or otherwise a judgment, decree, rule or order contrary to which all or part of the proceedings may be taken, may apply to the Court for a stay of proceedings in the proceeding either generally or so far as might be necessary for the purposes of justice, and the Court shall on that application make any order that will be just.

RSA 2000 cJ-2 s18;2009 c53 s1

Damages instead of injunction, specific performance

19 In all cases in which the Court has jurisdiction to entertain an application

- (a) for an injunction against
 - (i) a breach of a covenant, contract or agreement, or
 - (ii) the commission or continuance of a wrongful act,
- or
- (b) for the specific performance of a covenant, contract or agreement, the Court if it thinks fit may award damages to the injured party either in addition to or in substitution for the injunction or specific performance, and the damages may be ascertained in any manner the Court may direct, or the Court may grant any other relief that it considers just.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s20

Periodic payment of damages

19.1(1) In this section,

- (a) “damages” means damages
 - (i) for personal injuries or for the death of a person, or
 - (ii) provided for under the Fatal Accidents Act;
- (b) “judgment” means a judgment under which damages are to be paid in whole or in part by periodic payments;
- (c) “judgment creditor” means a person who is entitled to receive periodic payments under a judgment;
- (d) “periodic payment termination date” means the date or event on which periodic payments are to cease being paid;
- (e) “proceeding” means a proceeding under which damages are claimed.

(2) On application by any party to a proceeding, the Court may order that damages awarded be paid in whole or in part by periodic payments, and where no party to a proceeding has made an application for periodic payments, the Court nevertheless

- (a) may, in the Court's discretion and on the terms that the Court thinks just, order that an award for damages be paid by periodic payments if the Court considers it to be in the best interests of the plaintiff, and
- (b) shall order that an award for damages be paid by periodic payments if the plaintiff requests that an amount be included in the award to compensate for income tax payable on income from investment of the award.

(2.1) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Court shall not make an order under this section

- (a) if all the parties agree otherwise,
- (b) if one or more of the parties in respect of whom the order would be made satisfies the Court that the parties do not have sufficient means to fund the order, or
- (c) if the Court, on considering all the circumstances, including but not limited to considering whether an order for periodic payments would have the effect of preventing the plaintiff or another person from obtaining full recovery for damages awarded, is satisfied that such an order would not be in the best interests of the plaintiff.

(3) Where the Court orders that damages are to be paid by periodic payments, the Court in its judgment

- (a) must identify the specific damages for which periodic payments are to be made and, with respect to each of those specific damages, set out
 - (i) the amount of each periodic payment,
 - (ii) the date of each periodic payment or the interval between periodic payments,
 - (iii) the recipient of each periodic payment,
 - (iv) the annual percentage increase, if any, in the amount of each periodic payment, and
 - (v) the periodic payment termination date,

and

- (b) in addition to any matter referred to in clause (a), may make any direction and include any material that the Court considers appropriate.

(4) The Court may, for the purposes of assuring payment of a judgment, order any party liable under the judgment to provide security in the form of an annuity contract that complies with the requirements of the Income Tax Act (Canada) regarding the tax-free status of the payments, issued by a life insurer satisfactory to the Court and irrevocably payable to the plaintiff, subject to any terms or conditions the Court considers appropriate.

(5) and (6) Repealed 2006 c4 s2.

(7) Periodic payments of damages for loss of future earnings are exempt from civil enforcement proceedings to the same extent that wages or earnings are exempt from civil enforcement proceedings.

(8) Periodic payment of damages that are for the cost of future care of the judgment creditor are not assignable to another person unless

- (a) the person who is to be the assignee is a provider of care to the judgment creditor and the assignment is to pay for the costs of products, services and accommodation, or any one or more of those items, in respect of the judgment creditor, and
- (b) the Court, on application, approves the assignment.

(9) This section applies to any proceeding, whether the proceeding was commenced before or after this section comes into force.

2004 c11 s3;2006 c4 s2;2017 c22 s30

Assignment of chose in action

20(1) When a debt or other legal chose in action is assigned by an absolute assignment made in writing under the hand of the assignor and not purporting to be by way of charge only, if express notice in writing of the assignment has been given to the debtor, trustee or other person from whom the assignor would have been entitled to receive or claim the debt or chose in action, the absolute assignment is effectual in law to pass and transfer

- (a) the legal right to the debt or chose in action from the date of the notice of the assignment,
- (b) all legal and other remedies for the debt or chose in action, and
- (c) power to give a good discharge for the debt or chose in action without concurrence of the assignor, and is subject to all equities that would have been entitled to priority over the right of the assignee if this section had not been enacted.

(2) In the case of an assignment of a debt or other chose in action, if the debtor, trustee or other person liable in respect of the debt or chose in action has had notice

- (a) that the assignment is disputed by the assignor or anyone claiming under the assignor, or
- (b) of any other opposing or conflicting claims to the debt or chose in action, the debtor, trustee or other person is entitled, if the debtor, trustee or other person thinks fit, to call on the several persons making claim to the debt or chose in action to interplead concerning it.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s21

Time of essence

21 Stipulations in contracts, as to time or otherwise, that would not heretofore have been deemed to be or have become of the essence of the contracts in a court of equity shall receive the same construction and effect as they would receive in equity.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s22

Validity of orders

22 No order of the Court under any statutory or other jurisdiction may, as against a purchaser, and whether with or without notice, be invalidated on the ground

- (a) of want of jurisdiction, or
- (b) of want of concurrence, consent, notice or service.

RSA 1980 cJ-1 s23

23.1(1) Where on application or on its own motion, with notice to the Minister of Justice and Solicitor General, a Court is satisfied that a person is instituting vexatious proceedings in the Court or is conducting a proceeding in a vexatious manner, the Court may order that

- (a) the person shall not institute a further proceeding or institute proceedings on behalf of any other person, or
- (b) a proceeding instituted by the person may not be continued, without the permission of the Court.

(2) An application under subsection (1) may be made by a party against whom vexatious proceedings are being instituted or

(7) A person against whom an order has been made under subsection (1) or (4) may apply to a Court for permission to institute or continue a proceeding in that Court and the Court may, subject to any terms or conditions it may impose, grant permission if it is satisfied that the proceeding is not an abuse of process and that there are reasonable grounds for the proceeding.
