(3) An action under subsection (1) against the Administrator may be commenced only within the time limited by the Limitations Act for bringing an action against the owner or operator of the vehicle.

and that the identity of the owner and operator cannot be ascertained.

(6) If before judgment is granted in an action against the Administrator as nominal defendant the identity of the unknown owner or operator is ascertained, then, notwithstanding the Limitations Act, that owner or operator shall be added as a defendant in the action in substitution for the Administrator, subject to any conditions the court prescribes.

(9) When a person has entered into a settlement agreement with the Administrator under subsection (8), the person may apply to the Administrator in the prescribed form for payment under this section of the amount set out in the settlement agreement.

(2) If the court is satisfied on the evidence that the person named in the application was, at the time of the accident that caused the bodily injury or death giving rise to the action in which the judgment was recovered, the owner or operator, or both, of the motor vehicle involved in that accident, the court may make the order applied for, unless it is satisfied that the person would not have been liable for any damages if the person had appeared and defended the action, or it may direct the trial of an issue.

(3) On the making of an order or judgment declaring that a person was the owner or operator of a motor vehicle,

- (a) that person is for the purpose of this Act deemed to be the defendant in the action in which judgment was given against the Administrator, and the judgment against the Administrator is deemed to be a judgment against that person, and
