(a) must direct the investigator, or appoint another investigator, to undertake a further investigation and make a report and submit it to the complaint inquiry committee, and
(b) may request an expert to assess and prepare a written report on the subject-matter of the complaint or matters arising from the investigation of the complaint.

(3) If, on reviewing a report prepared under this section or section 57(5)(b), the complaint inquiry committee determines that the

(4) Despite subsection (3)(a), if the hearing tribunal has not commenced a hearing and the complaint inquiry committee learns of new evidence that causes the complaint inquiry committee to be of the opinion that the complaint is trivial or vexatious or there is insufficient or no evidence of unprofessional conduct, the complaint inquiry committee may withdraw the complaint from the hearings director and the hearing tribunal and dismiss the complaint.

Notification of action taken

(3) Within 60 days after receipt of a report under subsection (2), a complaint review committee must commence a review of the report and the decision to dismiss the complaint.

(4) A complaint review committee may determine whether the submissions to it with respect to a review under subsection (3) by the complainant and the investigated person must be written, oral or both.

(5) The complaint review committee, on complying with subsection (3), must

(a) refer the matter to the hearings director for a hearing,

(b) direct the complaint inquiry committee to conduct or appoint an investigator to conduct a further investigation and to prepare a report on the further investigation and submit it to the complaint review committee for its consideration before acting under clause (a) or (c), or

(c) the complaint inquiry committee and the investigated person agree to an extension.

Sanction agreements

58.1(1) At any time after a complaint has been made but before a hearing tribunal starts to hear evidence about an allegation of unprofessional conduct, the complaint inquiry committee and the investigated party may, in accordance with this section, enter into an agreement

(a) setting out the relevant agreed facts,

(a) ratify the sanction agreement, or

(b) refuse to ratify the sanction agreement.

(4) The complaint review committee must notify the complaint inquiry committee of its actions under subsection (3).

(5) If the complaint inquiry committee is unable to enter into an agreement under this section, the proceedings under this Division continue.

(6) If an agreement is made under this section,

(a) each admission of unprofessional conduct is to be considered and treated, for all purposes, as a finding of unprofessional conduct made by a complaint inquiry committee, and

(7) The complaint inquiry committee must give the complainant written notification of any agreement made under this section.

(3) If an admission under subsection (1) is accepted in whole or in part by the hearing tribunal, any investigation of the complaint and any alternative complaint resolution process with respect to the complaint are suspended, and the hearing tribunal may hold a hearing to decide

(a) whether the admitted conduct is unprofessional conduct, and

(b) whether any orders are to be made under section 71(1).

(4) Despite subsection (3), if an admission under subsection (1) does not relate to all the matters complained of or investigated, the remaining matters may be submitted to the complaint inquiry committee to be treated as information received under section 46.
Division 4

60 Any person who has investigated, reviewed or made a decision on a complaint or matters related to a complaint may not subsequently sit as a member of the Council or a tribunal or committee while it is holding a hearing or a review with respect to that complaint.

Investigated person at hearing
61(1) The investigated person must appear and may be represented by counsel at a hearing before the hearing tribunal.

(2) The investigated person or counsel for the investigated person may examine any witness appearing before the hearing tribunal.

Witnesses

Investigated person’s witnesses
62 The investigated person may call as a witness and cause to be given to any person, including the complainant, a notice to attend or a notice to attend and a notice to produce at the hearing any document, substance or thing related to the subject-matter of the hearing.

Association witnesses
63 The complaint inquiry committee may request that any person, including the complainant and the investigated person, who in the opinion of the complaint inquiry committee has knowledge of the subject-matter of the hearing be called as a witness and be given, under section 66, a notice to attend or a notice to attend and a notice to produce any document, substance or thing related to the subject-matter of the hearing.

Rights and obligations of witnesses

(b) subject the witness to orders under this Part, or
(c) tend to establish the witness’s liability in a civil proceeding or a prosecution under this or any other enactment.

(2) If an answer given under subsection (1) by a witness could

(a) incriminate the witness, or
(b) establish the witness’s liability in a court proceeding or proceedings under any enactment, that answer may not be used or received against the witness in a civil proceeding, a prosecution under this Act or proceedings under any other Act, but that answer may be used or received against the witness in proceedings in respect of perjury or giving contradictory evidence under this Act.

(3) A witness must be advised that the hearing is open to the public unless the hearing tribunal directs that the hearing be closed.

(4) If a person who has been given a notice to attend or a notice to attend and a notice to produce in accordance with section 62 or 66 fails

(b) to produce the items set out in the notice to produce, or the Association or the investigated person may apply to the Court of Queen’s Bench for an order directing the person to comply with the notice and to be sworn and answer questions.

   (i) because of probable prejudice to a civil action or a prosecution of an offence,

   (ii) to protect the safety of the person or of the public,

   (iii) because not disclosing a person’s confidential personal, health, property or financial information outweighs the desirability of having the hearing open to the public,

   (iv) because not disclosing confidential forest industry information outweighs the desirability of having the hearing open to the public,

   (v) because the presence of the public or complainant could compromise the ability of a witness to testify, or

   (vi) because of other reasons satisfactory to the hearing tribunal,

or
(b) another Act requires that the hearing or part of the hearing be held in private.

(2) If a hearing or part of a hearing is held in private, the hearing tribunal must state the reason why and must include the reason in the record.

(a) refer the matter as information to the complaint inquiry committee under section 46, or

(b) refer the matter to the hearings director for a hearing under section 58.
Evidence may be given before the hearing tribunal in any manner that it considers appropriate, and it is not bound by the rules of law respecting evidence applicable to judicial hearings.

Despite section 61(1), if the investigated person does not appear at a hearing and there is proof that the investigated person has been given a notice to attend, the hearing tribunal may

(a) proceed with the hearing in the absence of the investigated person, and

(b) act or decide on the matter being heard in the absence of the investigated person.
