jurisdiction that shows that a motor vehicle or trailer is registered under the laws of that jurisdiction.

(9) For the purposes of sections 1(1)(rr) and 11.1 and Part 8, licence plate includes a licence plate issued in another jurisdiction.

(10) Where a highway is located both within an urban area and outside an urban area and this Act refers to the highway

(a) as a highway in an urban area, that reference is a reference to that portion of the highway that is located in an urban area, or

(b) as a highway outside an urban area, that reference is a reference to that portion of the highway that is not located in an urban area.

(11) In this Act, a reference to the Rules of the Road is a reference to the regulations made under section 112.

(12) Any reference in this Act to a sign erected means a sign erected under the authority of this Act.

(13) Any reference in this Act to “driver’s vehicle” means the vehicle that a driver is driving whether or not that person is the owner of the vehicle.

(14) Any reference in this Act to the weight of or carried on a commercial vehicle is a reference to, as the case may be,

(a) the weight of or borne by the vehicle,

(b) the weight borne by an axle or an axle group of a vehicle,

(c) the weight borne by a tire or group or combination of tires of a vehicle, or

(d) the weight borne by any other portion or part of a vehicle.
Nature of contraventions

Subject to section 157(1.1), (1.2) and (1.3) or an express provision in this Act or the regulations, a contravention of this Act may be enforced

(a) as an offence to which the Provincial Offences Procedure Act applies, or

(b) as a contravention to which the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act applies.

No imprisonment

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, no term of imprisonment may be imposed in respect of a contravention in respect of which a notice of administrative penalty is issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act.

Part 1
General Administration

Division 1
General

Staff

In accordance with the Public Service Act there may be appointed a Registrar of Motor Vehicle Services and any other officers and employees required for the administration of this Act.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the Minister may appoint or designate persons

(a) as engineers, and

(b) as testers of speedometers on motor vehicles, of tuning forks, of intersection safety devices and of other devices.

Investigators

The Minister may designate as investigators individuals or classes of individuals whom the Minister considers qualified to act as investigators for the purposes of this Act and the regulations generally or for the purposes of any specific provisions of this Act or the regulations, subject to any terms and conditions the Minister considers necessary.

(2) The Minister shall provide each investigator with a certificate of designation, and on entering any place, an investigator shall, on request, produce the certificate of designation and explain the nature of the powers or duties the investigator wishes to carry out.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, an investigator is not authorized to act outside the terms and conditions, if any, imposed in respect of that investigator under this section.

2009 c35 s3

Authority to enter and inspect premises

2.2(1) An investigator may enter any premises, other than a private dwelling, and investigate, inspect or audit the premises and any records, including electronic records, reports and documents, and any vehicles and equipment within the premises to ensure compliance with this Act and the regulations.

(2) An investigation, inspection or audit under subsection (1) must be conducted at a reasonable time.

(3) An investigator may, in the course of an investigation, inspection or audit, require a person

(a) to give written or oral replies to questions,

(b) to produce any books, records, electronic records, reports, documents or other things and to provide copies of them, and

(c) to provide any other information requested by the investigator.

(4) An investigator may, in the course of an investigation, inspection or audit, inspect, examine and make copies of or temporarily remove books, records, reports, documents or other things that are relevant to determine if persons required to comply with this Act and the regulations are complying with this Act and the regulations.

(5) When an investigator removes any books, records, reports, documents or other things under subsection (4), the investigator

(a) must give a receipt for them to the person from whom they were taken,

(b) may make copies of, take photographs of or otherwise record them, and

(c) must, within a reasonable time, return them to the person to whom the receipt was given.

2009 c35 s3
Obstruction of investigators

2.3 When an investigator is exercising powers or carrying out duties under this Act, a person shall not

(a) fail to comply with any reasonable request of the investigator,

(b) knowingly make a false or misleading statement to the investigator either orally or in writing, or

(c) otherwise obstruct or hinder the investigator.

Delegation of power

3(1) A person who is empowered under this Act to do any act or thing or perform any function may in writing authorize the doing of that act or thing or the performance of that function, other than the making of regulations, by one or more of the following:

(a) repealed 2020 cP-30.8 s44(4);

(b) an employee of the Government;

(c) a peace officer;

(d) any person or class of persons designated by the Minister.

(2) An authorization made under subsection (1) may be

(a) general or applicable to a particular case, and

(b) conditional or unconditional.

(3) Where an authorization

(a) purports to be signed by the person giving the authorization, and

(b) states that the person named in it is authorized to do the act or thing or perform the function set out in the written authorization, that authorization or a copy of it shall be admitted in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of that person’s authorization to do the act or thing or perform the function without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed the authorization.

(4) Notwithstanding that a person has given an authorization under this section, that person may do the act or thing or perform the function in respect of which the authorization was given.

(5) Where authorized by the Minister,

(a) the Registrar, or

(b) an employee of the Government designated by the Minister, may accept and exercise powers conferred on that person or body pursuant to the Canada Transportation Act (Canada) or the Motor Vehicle Transport Act (Canada).

Reproduction of documents, etc.

4(1) The Minister may, on any terms or conditions that the Minister directs, authorize the Registrar to cause any document, item or thing, including a class of document, a copy of a document or a document recorded on a photographic medium or by electronic means, that is filed or maintained under this Act to be reproduced on a photographic medium or by electronic means.

(2) A reproduction of a document, item or thing that is certified by the Registrar to be a true copy of the reproduced document, item or thing

(a) stands in the place of the original document, item or thing,

(b) shall be treated as the original document, item or thing for all purposes under this Act, and

(c) is admissible in evidence in any proceeding in the same manner and for all purposes as if it were the original document, item or thing.

Documents signed by officials

5(1) Every document that purports to be signed or issued by

(a), (b) repealed 2020 cP-30.8 s44(6),

(c) the Registrar,

(d) a person to whom an authorization is made under section 3, if the document relates to a function that the person is authorized to perform,

(e) the Registrar of Corporations,
(f) a person who is authorized to perform a function of the Registrar, if the document relates to a function that the person is authorized to perform,

(f.1) an official of a jurisdiction other than Alberta who is a registrar of corporations or performs a function for that jurisdiction similar to the function that the Registrar of Corporations performs for Alberta,

(g) an official of a jurisdiction other than Alberta who is a registrar of motor vehicles or performs a function for that jurisdiction similar to the function that the Registrar performs for Alberta, or

(h) the person performing the functions of the provincial authority as defined in the Motor Vehicle Transport Act (Canada), shall be admitted in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the facts stated in the document without proof of the signature or official character of the person who signed the document, if any.

(2) When proof is required of

(a) the suspension or cancellation of a motor vehicle document, or

(b) the disqualification of a person from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta or from holding a motor vehicle document under this Act, the production of a certificate purporting to be signed by the Registrar stating that

(c) the motor vehicle document issued to that person is suspended or cancelled, or

(d) the person named in the certificate is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta or from holding a motor vehicle document under this Act, shall be admitted in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the motor vehicle document is suspended or cancelled or that the person so named is so suspended or disqualified, without proof of the signature or official character of the person signing the certificate, if any.

(3) In a proceeding with respect to a failure to comply with section 70 or 71, a certificate purporting to be signed by the Registrar that any accident report required under this Act has or has not been made shall be admitted in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of all the facts stated in the certificate without proof of the signature or official character of the person signing the certificate, if any.

(4) A certificate purporting to be signed by the Registrar certifying

(a) that a notice or document given or made under this Act was served, and

(b) that according to the records kept under this Act the notice or document was served on the person named in the notice or document,

shall be admitted in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the facts stated in the certificate without proof of the signature or official character of the person signing the certificate, if any.

(5) A document or certificate referred to in this section is admissible in evidence in all actions to which the Alberta Evidence Act applies.

(6) The Minister may approve a seal of office for the Registrar and that seal may for the purposes of this Act be used in conjunction with or in place of a signature.

Service

6 A notice or document that is to be served or given under this Act by or on behalf of the Registrar, a Director or an adjudicator under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act may be served or given

(a) by personal service;

(b) unless otherwise provided for under this Act, by being sent by ordinary mail sent to the latest address of the person who is to be served as shown on the records of the Registrar;

(c) unless otherwise provided for under this Act, by being transmitted by electronic means to the latest email address of the person who is to be served as shown on the records of the Registrar;

(d) in a manner or by a method provided for by regulation.
Crown not liable

7 No liability attaches to the Crown for any loss or damage that arises from

(a) incorrect information contained in

   (i) a motor vehicle document,

   (ii) an application for a motor vehicle document, or

   (iii) any other document created under this Act that is not referred to in subclauses (i) and (ii),

or

(b) the issuance of any document referred to in clause (a), notwithstanding that the information may have been entered by some person other than an applicant for the document, if that information was entered on the document in good faith.

Division 2
Release of Information

Release of personal driving and motor vehicle information

8(1) In this section, “personal driving and motor vehicle information” means

(a) any information supplied by an individual under this Act in order for that individual to be issued a motor vehicle document in that individual’s name, or

(b) any information contained in an individual’s driving record that if released could identify or lead to the identification of an individual.

(2) Repealed 2013 cS-19.3 s3.

(3) Repealed 2005 c34 s4.

(4) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations respecting

(a) the release of personal driving and motor vehicle information,
(b) the criteria that the Registrar must consider when deciding whether a person may be given access to personal driving and motor vehicle information,

(c) the circumstances under which the Registrar or a person acting on behalf of the Registrar may release personal driving and motor vehicle information,

(d) the terms and conditions that may be imposed on a person that is given access to personal driving and motor vehicle information, and

(e) notification of decisions of the Registrar regarding the release of personal driving and motor vehicle information.

Information forwarded to Registrar

9(1) Notwithstanding anything in the Youth Justice Act, when a court

(a) finds a young person guilty of an offence under this Act,

(b) finds a young person guilty of an offence to which section 83, 84, 86, 87, 172, 172.1 or 173 applies,

(c) makes a judgment for damages arising out of a motor vehicle accident, or

(d) makes any other order under this Act,

the clerk or registrar of the court shall, on the request of the Registrar, immediately forward to the Registrar a certified copy of the order, judgment, conviction, absolute discharge or conditional discharge or a transcript or certificate of it in a form prescribed by the Registrar.

(2) The certified copy or certificate is proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the order, judgment, conviction, absolute discharge or conditional discharge or of the finding of guilt of a young person.

(3) The clerk or other official charged with the duty of reporting to the Registrar is entitled to collect and receive a fee prescribed by regulation for each copy or certificate required by this section.
(4) If the defendant is not resident in Alberta, the Registrar shall provide a certificate of the order, judgment or conviction to the registrar or other officer or officers, if any, in charge of the registration of motor vehicles and the licensing of drivers in the province, territory or state in which the defendant resides.

Release of safety information

10(1) The Registrar may publish reports, statistics or other information arising out of matters referred to in sections 11 and 73 for the purposes of informing the Minister and the public as to the nature and causes of accidents.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), no report, statistics or other information published under subsection (1) shall contain any particulars that any person could identify as relating to any specific person or accident unless the previous consent in writing of the person, or if more than one person, of all of them, has been obtained for release of the information.

(3) Publication of information under subsection (1) is not a contravention of section 11 or 73(3) or (4).

1999 cT-6.4 s10

Inspection of accident report

11(1) In this section, “previous legislation” means

(a) sections 83, 84 and 85 of the Highway Traffic Act, RSA 1970 c169, and

(b) sections 77, 78 and 79 of the Motor Vehicle Administration Act, RSA 1980 cM-22 or any one or more of those provisions that are applicable in the circumstances.

(2) Subject to the regulations, where a report is made in respect of an accident involving a motor vehicle under

(a) the previous legislation,

(b) section 70 or 71 of this Act, or

(c) the regulations,

a peace officer may release information contained in that report to the Registrar for the purposes of monitoring drivers and the safe operation of commercial vehicles and motor vehicles.
(2.1) The Registrar or a peace officer may release information contained in a report referred to in subsection (2) to

(a) a person or an insurance company or a lawyer, agent or representative of that person or company if the person or company

(i) has paid or may be liable to pay damages, or

(ii) has recovered or may be entitled to recover damages,

(b) a road authority for the purposes of improving traffic circulation or the management of roadways, or

(c) the Director under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for the purposes of a review under that Act.

(3) Subject to subsections (2) and (2.1), a report or statement made or furnished under the previous legislation or section 70 or 71 and the regulations made under this Act governing accident reports

(a) is not open to public inspection, and

(b) is not admissible in evidence for any purpose in a legal proceeding arising out of the accident except to prove

(i) compliance with the previous legislation or section 70 or 71 of this Act and the regulations made under this Act governing accident reports, as the case may be,

(ii) falsity in a prosecution for making a false statement in the report or statement, or

(iii) the identity of the persons who were driving the vehicles involved in the accident.

Commercial transport information

11.1(1) In this section,

(a) “commercial transport information” means, with respect to a commercial vehicle, any information or record concerning the following:

(i) any commission of contraventions relating to the operation of the commercial vehicle;

(ii) any accidents relating to the operation of the commercial vehicle;
(iii) any inspections of the commercial vehicle;

(iv) matters related to the operation of the commercial vehicle recorded by the Registrar under this Act;

(v) matters related to the compliance or failure to comply of an operator of the commercial vehicle or a carrier as defined in Part 7 with safety laws;

(vi) safety matters and matters relating to the compliance or failure to comply with transportation legislation referred to in section 132(1) by carriers as defined in Part 7 and other persons who engage in, have engaged in or may become engaged in the operation of commercial vehicles;

(b) “commercial transport official” means an official of a jurisdiction other than Alberta who performs for that jurisdiction the functions with respect to commercial vehicles that the Registrar performs for Alberta;

(c) “safety laws” means

(i) this Act;

(ii) the Dangerous Goods Transportation and Handling Act and regulations made under that Act;

(iii) the laws of a jurisdiction other than Alberta respecting the same, similar or equivalent subjects as those regulated or controlled by the enactments referred to in subclauses (i) and (ii).

(2) This section applies only in respect of those commercial vehicles or classes of commercial vehicles specified by the regulations.

(3) The Registrar may provide to a commercial transport official for another jurisdiction and to any law enforcement agency in or outside Alberta any commercial transport information with respect to the following:

(a) drivers whose operator’s licences are issued by that other jurisdiction;

(b) commercial vehicles for which a document is issued or otherwise provided by that other jurisdiction that, if issued or provided in Alberta, would be a motor vehicle document as defined in section 1(1)(y)(ii) to (ix);
(c) persons that carry on business in that other jurisdiction who in Alberta are or would be carriers as defined in Part 7.

Division 3
Municipalities and Other Authorities

General powers of municipality
13(1) Subject to this Act and the Dangerous Goods Transportation and Handling Act, the council of a municipality may, with respect to a highway under its direction, control and management, make bylaws that are not inconsistent with this Act, doing the following:

(a) governing the use of highways;

(b) governing the parking of vehicles;

c) governing the establishment and use of parking places that are for the exclusive use of persons with disabilities who display on their vehicles a disabled placard or licence plate that is issued or recognized by the Registrar;

d) governing access to highways from private land;

e) governing fees charged with respect to the parking of vehicles;

(f) classifying motor vehicles and other vehicles and pedestrians for any purposes involving the use of streets, lanes and other public places;

g) with respect to noise produced in connection with a vehicle,

(i) defining what constitutes an objectionable noise,

(ii) establishing a method of determining or measuring noise, and

(iii) prohibiting the use or operation of a vehicle where the noise produced in connection with that vehicle is objectionable noise;

(h) governing the turning of vehicles at intersections;

(i) governing the encumbering of highways;
(j) governing, subject to sections 77 to 79, the impounding and removal of vehicles

(i) in respect of which parking fees are payable,

(ii) that are parked in an area where parking is prohibited, or

(iii) that are parked in contravention of this Act or a bylaw;

(k) governing the licensing of bicycles;

(l) governing the impounding of bicycles, skateboards and similar devices;

(m) governing parades and processions;

(n) governing closing or restricting the use of a highway;

(o) authorizing the municipality to issue a licence or permit that is terminable on 30 days’ notice in writing for the temporary occupation or use of a road allowance or highway or a portion of a road allowance or highway when it is not required for public use;

(p) restricting the use of specific traffic lanes to vehicles carrying a prescribed number of passengers;

(q) restricting the use of specific traffic lanes to specific vehicles or classes of vehicles;

(r) governing the issuing of tags, tickets or other documents;

(s) governing the placing of tags, tickets or other documents on vehicles;

(t) governing the marking of tires on vehicles for the purpose of enforcing parking bylaws;

(u) governing the employing of or engaging the services of persons to enforce bylaws made with respect to the parking of vehicles;

(v) designating routes for vehicles or classes of vehicles;

(w) restricting the weight of vehicles or of vehicles and the goods being carried by the vehicles;

(x) prescribing or otherwise providing for penalties with respect to the contravention of a bylaw made under this Division.
(2) Where permitted under a regulation, a municipality may, subject to any term or condition prescribed by the regulation, make bylaws under which the municipality may provide that the regulation does not apply in whole or in part to or within the municipality.

1999 cT-6.4 s13

Private property

14 Subject to this Act and the Provincial Offences Procedure Act, the council of a municipality may make bylaws,

(a) with respect to privately owned property that is located within the municipality to which vehicles driven by members of the public generally have access,

(i) governing parking on the property without the permission or authorization of the owner of the property or a person having possession or control of the property;

(ii) governing the parking of vehicles in manufactured home communities;

(iii) governing the establishment and use of parking places that are for the exclusive use of persons with disabilities who display on their vehicles a disabled placard or licence plate that is issued or recognized by the Registrar;

(iv) prescribing speed limits in respect of lanes or other thoroughfares used by vehicles;

(b) with respect to private property that is located within the municipality to which vehicles driven by members of the public generally do not have access but on which the owner of the property or a person having possession or control of the property may park or otherwise keep vehicles, prohibiting

(i) the parking of vehicles on that property without the permission or authorization of that person;

(ii) the parking of vehicles so that the access to that property is denied or otherwise restricted;

(c) with respect to a vehicle parked or driven in contravention of a bylaw made under this section,

(i) governing the issuing of tags or tickets or other documents;
(ii) governing the placing of tags, tickets or other documents on vehicles;

(iii) governing, subject to sections 77 to 79, the removal and impounding of vehicles;

(iv) providing for the laying of an information and complaint.

1999 cT-6.4 s14

Prohibitions and offences

15(1) The authority to make a bylaw under this Act governing or respecting any matter includes the authority to make prohibitions in respect of that matter.

(2) The authority to make a bylaw under this Act includes the authority to specify that a contravention of or a failure to comply with the bylaw is an offence.

1999 cT-6.4 s15

Restriction of powers

16 Unless specifically permitted by this Act or any other Act, a council of a municipality does not have any power to make a bylaw that does one or more of the following:

(a) imposes any tax, fee, licence or permit respecting the use of highways by pedestrians or vehicles;

(b) excludes pedestrians or vehicles generally from using highways;

(c) prohibits the use of highways by pedestrians or vehicles;

(d) affects in any way the registration or numbering of motor vehicles.

1999 cT-6.4 s16

Control of traffic in provincial parks

17 With respect to a highway under the direction, control and management of the Minister responsible for the Provincial Parks Act, the Minister responsible for the Provincial Parks Act may make regulations

(a) governing, by means of signs erected along the highway, the movement of pedestrians, vehicles or other traffic on the highway;

(b) governing the opening or closing of highways.

Division 4
Regulations

Regulations by the Lieutenant Governor in Council

18(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations

(a) subject to section 6, providing for and governing the service of notices and documents and the deemed service of notices and documents under this Act;

(b) subject to section 1(7), (8) and (9), specifying the provisions of this Act in which a reference to

(i) a certificate of registration includes a document issued in another jurisdiction that shows that a motor vehicle or trailer is registered under the laws of that jurisdiction;

(ii) a licence plate includes a licence plate issued in another jurisdiction;

(iii) an operator’s licence includes a licence or permit issued in another jurisdiction that permits a person to operate a motor vehicle;

(c) for the purposes of section 169(2)(q) and (r), designating those contraventions under this Act for which a person may be arrested without a warrant;

(d) establishing and governing a program under which drivers are assessed demerit points for a contravention of

(i) this Act, or

(ii) any other Act or regulation that relates to the safe operation of a vehicle;

(e) providing for and governing sanctions that may be imposed in respect of a program referred to in clause (d), including the suspension or cancellation of an operator’s licence;

(f) for the purposes of section 1(1)(gg), designating persons as pedestrians;

(g) governing the establishment of school zones and playground zones;

(h) providing for or otherwise specifying the periods of time and the days during which speed limits established or prescribed in respect of school zones and playground zones are in effect.
(2) The Minister may make regulations

(a) exempting or providing for the granting of exemptions of persons or vehicles or classes of persons or vehicles from any provision of this Act;

(b) governing any matter respecting the seizure under this Act of vehicles and the contents of and goods carried by vehicles;

(c) specifying commercial vehicles or classes of commercial vehicles to which section 11.1 applies.

Statute prevails
19 Where there is a conflict between this statute and a regulation or bylaw made under this statute, this statute prevails.

Prohibitions and offences
20(1) The authority to make a regulation under this statute governing or respecting any matter includes the authority to make prohibitions in respect of that matter.

(2) The authority to make a regulation under this statute includes the authority to specify that a contravention of or a failure to comply with the regulation is a contravention.

Power to establish standards, etc.
21 The authority to make a regulation or a bylaw under this statute governing or respecting any matter includes the authority

(a) to establish criteria, specifications and standards in respect of that matter,

(b) to adopt any code with respect to the matters referred to in clause (a), and

(c) to modify any code referred to in clause (b).

Part 2
Reviews

Division 1 Repealed 2020 cP-30.8 s44(17).
Division 2
Reviews Respecting Conduct of Drivers

Reviews by Board

30(1) The Registrar may conduct reviews into a person’s ability or attitude respecting the operation of a motor vehicle

(a) where the Registrar is concerned as to the person’s ability or attitude regarding the operation of a motor vehicle, or

(b) where the Minister or a court has advised the Registrar as to a concern respecting the person’s ability or attitude regarding the operation of a motor vehicle.

(2) The Registrar may consider applications by persons seeking relief under section 31(b).

Action taken re reviews

31 On conducting a review or considering an application under section 30 the Registrar may,

(a) where a person’s ability or attitude regarding the operation of a motor vehicle has been considered by the Registrar,

(i) disqualify the person from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a definite or indefinite period of time;

(ii) with respect to that person, prescribe any measure or course of remedial education, monitoring or treatment as a condition of acquiring or holding an operator’s licence;

(iii) prescribe terms and conditions governing that person’s operator’s licence;

(b) where the suspension of a person’s operator’s licence or the disqualification of a person to hold an operator’s licence arises out of that person being found guilty under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada),

(i) on the expiration of a suspension or disqualification imposed by a court, set aside the operation of the suspension or disqualification imposed under this Act on the condition that the person who is subject to the suspension or disqualification

(A) repealed 2011 c22 s5,

(B) complies with any terms or conditions imposed by the Registrar;
(ii) on the expiration of the suspension or disqualification imposed under this Act, direct that the reinstatement or issuance of an operator’s licence to the person who was subject to the suspension or disqualification be on the condition that the person, in addition to complying with the requirements imposed under this Act,

(A) repealed 2011 c22 s5,

(B) complies with any terms or conditions imposed by the Registrar;

(c) where a person has been suspended or disqualified from driving 2 or more times in a 10-year period under section 88.1, on the expiration of the suspension or disqualification imposed under this Act, direct that the reinstatement or issuance of an operator’s licence to the person who was subject to the suspension or disqualification be on the condition that the person, in addition to complying with the other requirements imposed under this Act,

(i) does not operate a motor vehicle unless the vehicle is equipped with an alcohol-sensing device that meets the approval of the Registrar, and

(ii) complies with any terms or conditions imposed by the Registrar.

Reconsideration re reviews

32(1) Where the Registrar has reviewed or considered a matter under section 30 and made a decision under section 31, the Registrar shall on the application of the person who is the subject of that decision reconsider the decision.

(1.1) An application for reconsideration of a decision referred to in subsection (1) must be made by the person within 30 days of service of the decision on the person.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), once a decision of the Registrar has been reconsidered by the Registrar in respect of a matter referred to in subsection (1), the Registrar may refuse to reconsider the decision again if in the opinion of the Registrar the circumstances in respect of the matter have not substantially changed from the time of the previous reconsideration.

Division 3
Reconsiderations and Reviews by Registrar

Reconsiderations by Registrar

34(1) Where the Registrar has made a decision or taken an action referred to in the following clauses, the Registrar shall on the application of the person who is the subject of the decision or action reconsider the decision or action:

(a) where the Registrar

   (i) refuses to issue a permit to a person under section 62,

   (ii) suspends or cancels a person’s permit under section 62, or

   (iii) imposes a term or condition to which the permit is subject;

(b) where, under section 91(4), the Registrar

   (i) disqualifies a person from driving a motor vehicle, or

   (ii) suspends or cancels a certificate of registration issued to a person;

(c) where the Registrar conducts a review under section 99 and with respect to the suspension or cancellation of a person’s operator’s licence by reason of the accumulation of demerit points;

(d) where the Registrar

   (i) refuses to set aside the operation of a disqualification or suspension imposed under this Act, or imposes terms or conditions, in accordance with section 88.1(3.2) or 88.11(4) as they read immediately before the coming into force of this clause,

   (ii) refuses to exempt a person from the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device under section 88.1(3.4) or 88.11(5) as they read immediately before the coming into force of this clause,

(iii) sets aside the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device but imposes a further period of disqualification or another term or condition under section 88.1(3.5) or 88.11(6) as they read immediately before the coming into force of this clause, or

(iv) rescinds the setting aside of the disqualification or suspension of the person on the basis that the alcohol-sensing device with which the person’s vehicle has been equipped as a condition of the setting aside of the operation of a disqualification or suspension imposed under section 88.1(3) or 88.11(2) registers a warn or a fail under section 88.1(3.6) or 88.11(7) as they read immediately before the coming into force of this clause;

(e) where the Registrar

(i) refuses to set aside the operation of a disqualification imposed under this Act, or imposes terms or conditions, in accordance with section 88.2(2),

(ii) refuses to reinstate or issue a licence, or imposes terms or conditions, in accordance with section 88.2(4),

(iii) determines the length of the term under section 88.2(5)(b),

(iv) orders an extension of the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device under section 88.2(6)(b),

(v) refuses an application for exemption from the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device under section 88.2(6)(c) where it is not feasible for the suspended person to comply with the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device, or

(vi) refuses to set aside the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device, or imposes a further period of disqualification or a term or condition, under section 88.2(7);
(ii) imposes a term or condition on the person’s eligibility to obtain an operator’s licence with which that person does not agree;

(g) where a regulated person, as defined in section 143, is affected by a decision made or an action taken by the Registrar under section 143;

(h) where a transportation network company, as defined under section 129.4, is affected by a decision made or an action taken by the Registrar under section 129.2;

(i) where a person who

   (i) operates a driver training school,

   (ii) is a driver examiner, or

   (iii) is a driving instructor is affected by a decision or action of the Registrar with respect to the operation of or the provision of services by the driver training school or the actions of or the provision of services by the driver examiner or driving instructor;

(j) where a person who pursuant to a licence issued under this Act

   (i) operates a vehicle inspection facility, including an inspection station, or

   (ii) is a vehicle inspection technician, including an inspection technician and an inspection mechanic, is affected by a decision or action of the Registrar with respect to the operation of or the provision of services by the vehicle inspection facility or the actions of or the provision of services by the vehicle inspection technician;

(k) where the Registrar

   (i) refuses to issue a certificate as defined in section 130(1)(c) to an applicant,

   (ii) imposes a term or condition in respect of a certificate as defined in section 130(1)(c),

   (iii) makes an order under section 132(2) suspending or cancelling a certificate as defined in section 130(1)(c), or
(iv) makes an order changing the safety rating of a carrier.

(2) The application referred to in subsection (1) must be made within 30 days of service of the notice of the decision or action.

(3) The Registrar may extend the period referred to in subsection (2) if in the opinion of the Registrar the circumstances in respect of the matter have substantially changed from the time of the decision or action.

(4) The Registrar may confirm, cancel or vary the Registrar’s decision or action.

(5) Once a decision or action of the Registrar has been reconsidered by the Registrar in respect of a matter referred to in subsection (1), the Registrar may refuse to reconsider the decision again.

(6) A reconsideration commenced under this Division does not, except as otherwise directed by the Registrar, stay any suspension, cancellation, disqualification or other decision or action that is the subject of or otherwise related to the reconsideration.

Review of seizure or immobilization of motor vehicle

35(1) Subject to subsection (3) and the regulations, where a driver’s motor vehicle is seized or immobilized under this Act, the driver may request a review of the seizure or immobilization by the Registrar.

(2) In determining a review commenced pursuant to this section, the Registrar may, subject to the regulations, confirm, cancel or vary the seizure or immobilization.

(3) This section does not apply to seizures or immobilizations of motor vehicles made pursuant to section 88, 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 or 88.1.

Relief for affected persons

36(1) A person who is an affected person as defined in the regulations and who is affected by an administrative penalty as defined in the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act may apply in accordance with the regulations to the Registrar for relief from that administrative penalty.

(2) An affected person whose motor vehicle is seized as the consequence of an administrative penalty imposed under this Act or another affected person with an interest in the motor vehicle may apply to the Registrar in accordance with the regulations for relief from that seizure.

Division 4
Judicial Review

Judicial review
47.1(1) Subject to sections 32 and 34 and subsection (2), no decision or order of the Registrar shall be questioned or reviewed in any court by application for judicial review or otherwise, and no order shall be made, process entered or proceedings taken in any court, whether by way of certiorari, injunction, declaratory judgment, prohibition, mandamus, quo warranto, application to quash or set aside or otherwise, to question, review, prohibit or restrain any decision or order of the Registrar or any of the Registrar’s proceedings.

(2) A decision or order of the Registrar may be questioned or reviewed by way of an application for judicial review seeking an order in the nature of certiorari or mandamus if the application is filed with the Court and served on the Registrar no later than 30 days after the date of the decision or order or the date a copy of the decision or order and reasons in respect of it have been received by the applicant, whichever is later.

(3) On an application for judicial review under subsection (2), the standard of review is reasonableness.

Part 3
Motor Vehicle Administration

Division 1
Licences, Registration, Insurance and Permits

Operator’s licences
51 Except as otherwise permitted under this Act, a person shall not do any of the following:

(a) drive a motor vehicle on a highway unless that person is the holder of a subsisting operator’s licence;
(b) drive a motor vehicle on a highway unless that motor vehicle is of a class or type that is authorized to be operated under the class of operator’s licence held by that person;

c) drive a motor vehicle on a highway contrary to a restriction or condition to which that person’s operator’s licence is subject;

d) drive a motor vehicle on a highway unless that person’s operator’s licence is in that person’s possession;

e) where the person holds an operator’s licence classified as a learner’s operator’s licence, drive a motor vehicle on a highway unless there is a person occupying a front passenger seating position of the motor vehicle who

(i) is supervising the person driving the vehicle,

(ii) is a holder of a subsisting operator’s licence that is not classified as a learner’s operator’s licence or a probationary operator’s licence and that is valid for the operation of the vehicle being driven,

(iii) has the operator’s licence referred to in subclause (ii) in that person’s possession, and

(iv) is of the age prescribed by regulation;

(f) where a motor vehicle is being driven on a highway by a person holding an operator’s licence classified as a learner’s operator’s licence, supervise the driving of the vehicle by the person holding the learner’s operator’s licence unless the person carrying out that supervision

(i) is occupying a front passenger seating position of the motor vehicle,

(ii) is a holder of a subsisting operator’s licence that is not classified as a learner’s operator’s licence or a probationary operator’s licence and that is valid for the operation of the vehicle being driven,

(iii) has the operator’s licence referred to in subclause (ii) in that person’s possession, and

(iv) is of the age prescribed by the regulations;

(f.1) notwithstanding clause (e), where the person holds an operator’s licence classified as a learner’s operator’s licence, drive a motorcycle on a highway unless there is a person occupying the passenger seating position on the motorcycle or in or on a motor vehicle that is travelling in close proximity to the motorcycle who

(i) is supervising the person driving the motorcycle,

(ii) is a holder of a subsisting operator’s licence that is not classified as a learner’s operator’s licence or a probationary operator’s licence and that is valid for the operation of the motorcycle,

(iii) has the operator’s licence referred to in subclause (ii) in that person’s possession, and

(iv) is of the age prescribed by the regulations;

(f.2) notwithstanding clause (f), where a motorcycle is being driven on a highway by a person holding an operator’s licence classified as a learner’s operator’s licence, supervise the driving of the motorcycle by the person holding the learner’s operator’s licence unless the person carrying out that supervision

(i) is occupying the passenger seating position on the motorcycle or is in or on a motor vehicle that is travelling in close proximity to the motorcycle,

(ii) is a holder of a subsisting operator’s licence that is not classified as a learner’s operator’s licence or a probationary operator’s licence and that is valid for the operation of the motorcycle,

(iii) has the operator’s licence referred to in subclause (ii) in that person’s possession, and

(iv) is of the age prescribed by the regulations;

(f.3) in the case of a motorcycle, where a person holds an operator’s licence classified as a learner’s operator’s licence, operate a motorcycle on a highway while carrying a passenger except as permitted under clause (f.1) or (f.2);

(g) where the person holds an operator’s licence classified as a learner’s operator’s licence, drive a motor vehicle on a highway during any period of time that the holder of a learner’s operator’s licence is by regulation prohibited from operating a motor vehicle;

(h) where a motor vehicle is in that person’s possession or under that person’s care or control, permit another person to drive that vehicle unless that other person meets the requirements of this Act to drive that vehicle;

(i) where a motor vehicle is in that person’s possession or under that person’s care or control, knowingly or willingly permit a person

(ii) whose operator’s licence is suspended, or

(ii) who is disqualified from holding an operator’s licence, to drive that motor vehicle on a highway unless it is a vehicle that the person is permitted to drive under this Act notwithstanding the suspension or disqualification;

(j) where the person has been issued an operator’s licence under this Act, have in that person’s possession more than one subsisting operator’s licence issued under this Act;

(k) possess an operator’s licence that has been issued to another person;

(l) possess an operator’s licence that is not a subsisting operator’s licence;

(m) possess any fictitious document purporting to be an operator’s licence;

(n) use an operator’s licence that has been issued to another person;

(o) use an operator’s licence that is not a subsisting operator’s licence;

(p) use any fictitious document purporting to be an operator’s licence;

(q) where a person has been issued an operator’s licence, allow another person to use or be in possession of that operator’s licence;

(r) apply for, acquire or attempt to acquire an operator’s licence for that person’s own use or in that person’s name

(i) during any period that the person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta, another province or territory of Canada or a state of the United States of America,
(ii) during any period for which that person’s operator’s licence is suspended, or

(iii) during any period for which that person is disqualified from holding an operator’s licence in Alberta, another province or territory of Canada or a state of the United States of America, whether or not the period for which the person’s operator’s licence was issued has expired;

(s) where the person holds a subsisting operator’s licence, apply for or obtain another operator’s licence under this Act except

(i) for the purpose of obtaining a duplicate of a subsisting operator’s licence that has been lost or destroyed or has become unreadable, or

(ii) for the purpose of obtaining a replacement for an operator’s licence that is about to expire.

Registration of vehicles

52(1) Except as otherwise permitted under this Act, a person shall not do any of the following:

(a) operate or park a motor vehicle or trailer on a highway unless there is a subsisting certificate of registration issued in respect of that vehicle;

(b) knowingly operate a motor vehicle on a highway

(i) while the certificate of registration or permit issued under this Act in respect of the motor vehicle is cancelled, or

(ii) while the certificate of registration or permit issued under this Act in respect of the motor vehicle is under suspension;

(c) operate a salvage motor vehicle on a highway unless there is a subsisting in-transit permit issued in respect of that vehicle;

(d) where the person has possession of or control over a motor vehicle or a trailer, permit another person to operate that motor vehicle or trailer on a highway unless there is a subsisting certificate of registration issued in respect of that vehicle;
(e) apply for, acquire or attempt to acquire the registration of a motor vehicle or trailer during any period when the registration of the vehicle or the certificate of registration is suspended or cancelled;

(f) apply for, acquire or attempt to acquire the registration of a motor vehicle or trailer in the name of

(i) an applicant that purports to be a corporation if the corporation does not exist, or

(ii) a corporation, incorporated otherwise than under the laws of Alberta, that

(A) is required to be but is not or has ceased to be licensed as an insurer under the Insurance Act, or

(B) is required to be but is not or has ceased to be registered under

(I) the Business Corporations Act,

(II) the Companies Act,

(III) the Loan and Trust Corporations Act, or

(IV) the Co-operative Associations Act or the Cooperatives Act;

(g) use any certificate of registration that is in the name of a corporation that does not exist at the time the certificate of registration is used;

(h) unless the motor vehicle is an insured motor vehicle,

(i) apply for the registration of a motor vehicle, or

(ii) obtain the registration of a motor vehicle.

(2) Subsection (1)(h)(i) does not apply to a person to whom a financial responsibility card has been issued pursuant to the Insurance Act by an insurer who has issued an owner’s policy outside Alberta.

Licence plates
53(1) Except as otherwise permitted under this Act, a person shall not do any of the following:
(a) operate or park a motor vehicle or trailer on a highway unless the subsisting licence plate issued for that vehicle or that is otherwise permitted under this Act is displayed on that vehicle in accordance with the regulations;

(b) display on a motor vehicle or trailer a licence plate other than a licence plate issued or authorized for use on that vehicle;

(c) repealed 2021 c13 s15;

(d) permit any licence plate issued to that person to be used in contravention of this Act.

(2) Every licence plate issued under this Act or any Act that preceded this Act remains the property of the Crown, and the person in possession of a licence plate shall return it to the Registrar when so requested by the Registrar.

RSA 2000 cT-6 s53;2021 c13 s15

Insurance required

54(1) Except as otherwise permitted under this Act, a person shall not do any of the following:

(a) drive a motor vehicle on a highway unless the motor vehicle is an insured motor vehicle;

(b) have a motor vehicle on a highway unless the motor vehicle is an insured motor vehicle;

(c) where a person is the registered owner of a motor vehicle, permit another person

(i) to drive the motor vehicle on a highway, or

(ii) to have the motor vehicle on a highway,

unless the motor vehicle is an insured motor vehicle;

(d) give or lend a financial responsibility card or a copy of it to a person not entitled to have that financial responsibility card or copy.

(1.1) If a person drives or has a motor vehicle on a highway without the expressed or implied consent of the registered owner of the vehicle, that person is deemed for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) or (b) to drive or have on a highway a motor vehicle that is not an insured motor vehicle.
(2) If the registration of a motor vehicle is suspended under this Act, the motor vehicle is still registered for the purposes of this section.

(3) Subsection (1)(a) and (b) do not apply to a person to whom a financial responsibility card has been issued pursuant to the Insurance Act by an insurer who has issued an owner’s policy outside Alberta.

(4) A person, other than a corporation, who contravenes subsection (1) or section 52(1)(h) or 167(8) is liable,

(a) where the person is found guilty of the contravention,

   (i) for the first contravention, to a fine of not less than $2500 and not more than $10 000 and in default of payment to imprisonment for a term of not less than 45 days and not more than 6 months, and

   (ii) for each subsequent contravention that occurs within 5 years from the day of the contravention referred to in clause (a), to a fine of not less than $5000 and not more than $20 000 and in default of payment to imprisonment for a term of not less than 60 days and not more than 6 months;

(b) where a notice of administrative penalty is issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of the contravention, to a fine as prescribed under that Act.

(5) On the finding that a person, other than a corporation, is guilty of contravening subsection (1) or section 52(1)(h) or 167(8), or on the issuance of a notice of administrative penalty to the person under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of the contravention, the Registrar may disqualify the person from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta until that person provides to the Registrar proof of financial responsibility.

(6) A corporation that contravenes subsection (1) or section 52(1)(h) is liable

(a) where the corporation is found guilty of the contravention,

   (i) for the first contravention, to a fine of not less than $5000 and not more than $20 000, and

   (ii) for any subsequent contravention, to a fine of not less than $7500 and not more than $25 000;
(b) where a notice of administrative penalty is issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of the contravention, to a fine as prescribed under that Act.

(7) The Registrar may cancel the certificate of registration in respect of every motor vehicle owned by a person who contravenes subsection (1) or section 52(1)(h) or 167(8)

(a) on the finding of guilt of the person, or

(b) on the issuance of a notice of administrative penalty to the person under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of the contravention.

(8) Where the Registrar has cancelled a certificate of registration under this section, the Registrar shall not issue a new certificate of registration for that motor vehicle until the owner of the motor vehicle provides to the Registrar proof of financial responsibility.

Information

55(1) The Registrar may require a person who applies for a motor vehicle document to provide such information and material and to meet such requirements that, in the opinion of the Registrar, are pertinent to determining whether that person is qualified to be issued the motor vehicle document.

(2) The Registrar may require a person who holds a motor vehicle document to provide such information and material and to meet such requirements that, in the opinion of the Registrar, are pertinent to determining whether that person continues to be qualified to hold the motor vehicle document.

Refusal to grant or issue motor vehicle document

56 The Registrar may refuse to issue a motor vehicle document to a person if

(a) that person does not meet the requirements of this Act in order to be issued that motor vehicle document;

(b) that person is barred at law or under any enactment from holding or being issued that motor vehicle document;

(c) the vehicle in respect of which the motor vehicle document is to be issued does not meet the requirements of this Act in order for that motor vehicle document to be issued in respect of that vehicle;
(d) the person applying for the issuance of the motor vehicle document fails to provide to the Registrar any information or material or meet any requirements that, in the opinion of the Registrar, are pertinent to determining whether the applicant or the applicant’s vehicle, as the case may be, meets the requirements under this Act for the issuance of the motor vehicle document.

Restriction of services

57 Notwithstanding anything in this Act, where a person has not paid a fine or penalty levied against that person under

(a) any enactment or municipal bylaw, or any bylaw made under this Act, or

(b) repealed 2016 c11 s7,

(c) any law in another jurisdiction that in the opinion of the Registrar deals with matters in that jurisdiction that are similar in nature to matters dealt with under this Act,

the Registrar may,

(d) in respect of that person, refuse to perform that function or service or to issue, renew or otherwise deal with any motor vehicle document or other document until the fine or penalty is paid, and

(e) if authorized by regulation, refuse to register a vehicle in the name of the new owner if the ownership of a registered vehicle passes directly or through intermediary owners from the person who has not paid the fine or penalty to a person described by regulation.

Refusal of service re maintenance orders

58(1) In this section, “Director” means the Director of Maintenance Enforcement appointed under the Maintenance Enforcement Act.

(2) If the Director notifies the Registrar pursuant to section 22(2) of the Maintenance Enforcement Act, the Registrar shall

(a) in respect of the debtor named in the notice, refuse to perform any function or service or to issue, renew or otherwise deal with any motor vehicle document or other document, and
(b) refuse to register the vehicle in the name of a new owner if the ownership of a registered vehicle passes directly or through intermediary owners from a person who is a debtor under the maintenance order to a person described by the regulations,

except as permitted by the Director under section 22(4) of the Maintenance Enforcement Act, until the Director withdraws the notice or notifies the Registrar that the maintenance order has been withdrawn.

(3) If the Director notifies the Registrar pursuant to section 22(3)
of the Maintenance Enforcement Act, the Registrar must, as requested in the notice, suspend any operator’s licence issued to the deitor named in the notice.

(4) If the Director notifies the Registrar pursuant to section 22(7)
of the Maintenance Enforcement Act, the Registrar must, as requested in the notice, make any operator’s licence issued to the deitor named in the notice subject to any terms or conditions that the Director considers appropriate.

(5) Any suspension made under subsection (3) remains in effect, subject to section 22(5) of the Maintenance Enforcement Act, until the Director gives a notice to the Registrar under section 22(6) of the Maintenance Enforcement Act.

59  By agreement with The Board of Directors of the Alberta
Medical Association (C.M.A. - Alberta Division), the Minister may establish a medical review committee

(a) to act as an advisory committee to the Minister with respect to

(i) any matters concerning the health of persons that may have a bearing on the operation of motor vehicles, and

(ii) any physical conditions that may constitute a hazard to the general public with respect to the operation of motor vehicles,

(b) to advise the Minister as to qualified physicians available for physical and mental examination of drivers and applicants for operator’s licences, and Exclusion of liability re medical matters

60 No liability accrues to a physician, optometrist or other health care provider by reason only that the physician, optometrist or other health care provider provides to the Registrar under this Act information respecting a person’s medical condition that may impair that person’s ability to operate a motor vehicle in a safe manner.

Confidential reporting

60.1 If information is provided to the Registrar in good faith that a person

(a) is not competent to safely operate a motor vehicle,

(b) is not qualified or does not have the ability to operate a motor vehicle safely, or

(c) may have a medical or physical condition that impairs his or her ability to safely operate a motor vehicle, no person shall release the identity of the person providing the information, or release any information provided by that person that could reasonably be expected to reveal that person’s identity, unless the person providing the information authorizes the release of that identifying information in writing.

Altered documents

61(1) In this section, “document” means

(a) a subsisting motor vehicle document;

(b) a subsisting licence issued under the Motor Vehicle Transport Act (Canada);

(c) a subsisting document that is a bill of lading, way-bill, shipping bill or customs permit or any other document that pertains to goods or passengers being transported by a commercial vehicle.

(2) A person shall not

(a) mutilate, deface, alter or falsify a document,
(b) have in that person’s possession a document that is mutilated, defaced, altered or falsified, or

(c) use or permit the use of a document that is mutilated, defaced, altered or falsified.

Permits

62(1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act or a motor vehicle document, the Registrar may on receiving an application issue a permit doing one or more of the following:

(a) in the case of any vehicle,

   (i) authorizing a person to operate on a highway a vehicle that is not registered in Alberta;

   (ii) authorizing a person to operate a vehicle on a highway when that vehicle or its load does not comply with dimensional requirements specified under this Act;

   (iii) authorizing a person to operate a vehicle on a highway when that vehicle does not comply with the equipment standards applicable to that vehicle;

(b) in the case of a commercial vehicle,

   (i) authorizing a person to operate a vehicle in a manner or for a purpose not permitted under this Act or a motor vehicle document;

   (ii) exempting a vehicle or its operation from one or more requirements of this Act or a motor vehicle document;

   (iii) authorizing a person to operate a vehicle on a highway when the weight of the vehicle and any goods being carried by the vehicle exceeds the weight specified in the certificate of registration issued in respect of that vehicle;

   (iv) authorizing a person to operate a vehicle on a highway when the weight of the vehicle and any goods being carried by the vehicle exceeds the maximum allowable weight permitted under this Act for the vehicle.

(2) Where the Registrar issues a permit, the Registrar may, on the permit or in an appendix to the permit, set out any term or condition to which the permit is subject that the Registrar considers appropriate in the circumstances.
(3) Where the Registrar is of the opinion that a person to whom a permit is issued is not complying with or is contravening the terms or conditions of the permit, the Registrar may suspend or cancel the permit.

RSA 2000 cT-6 s62; 2013 c19 s2(9)

Liens

63(1) Where, under this Act, a vehicle, including any goods being carried by the vehicle, is seized, immobilized, detained, removed, transported or stored pursuant to the directions of a peace officer or the Registrar or a person authorized to act on behalf of a peace officer or the Registrar, all the costs of the seizure, immobilization, detention, removal, transportation and storage, or of any one or more of those functions, as the case may be, are a lien on the vehicle unless otherwise provided for under this Act.

(2) A lien referred to in subsection (1) may be enforced and dealt with in a manner provided for by the regulations.

1999 cT-6.4 s63

Regulations

64 The Minister may make regulations

(a) governing

(i) any matter with respect to the classification of, the application for, the information to be provided with an application for, the issuance of, the display of, the use of, the renewal of, the transfer of, the suspension of, the cancellation of, the reinstatement of, the term of, the expiration of and the qualifications or conditions required to be met in order to be issued or to hold a motor vehicle document;

(ii) any undertakings, terms or conditions that must be provided or otherwise complied with in order for a motor vehicle document to be issued or to remain in effect;

(iii) the return or surrender of motor vehicle documents to the Registrar or a peace officer;

Vehicles, Equipment, Accidents and Removal of Vehicles

Equipment standards

65(1) Except as otherwise permitted under this Act, a person shall not do any of the following:

(a) drive or operate a vehicle on a highway unless that vehicle complies with the vehicle and equipment standards set out in the regulations in respect of that vehicle;

(b) permit another person to drive or operate a vehicle on a highway unless that vehicle complies with the vehicle and equipment standards set out in the regulations in respect of that vehicle;

(c) where that person is the owner of a vehicle, drive or operate the vehicle on a highway unless the vehicle and its equipment are maintained

(i) in good working order, and

(ii) in a condition that meets the requirements of this Act;

(d) drive or operate a vehicle on a highway unless the vehicle and its equipment are used in a manner or as prescribed or provided for by regulation;
(e) sell or offer for sale in Alberta a new motor vehicle unless that motor vehicle meets the requirements of the Motor Vehicle Safety Act (Canada) and the regulations under that Act;

(f) sell or offer for sale in Alberta a new trailer unless that trailer meets the requirements of the Motor Vehicle Safety Act (Canada) and the regulations under that Act;

(g) sell or offer for sale in Alberta a new conversion unit unless the conversion unit meets the requirements of the Motor Vehicle Safety Act (Canada) and the regulations under that Act;

(h) sell a used motor vehicle if that person is of a class described in the regulations or if that used motor vehicle is of a class or type described in the regulations unless

(i) the motor vehicle has passed the inspections and tests required by the regulations within the period of time preceding the sale prescribed by regulation and the person provides the buyer with an inspection certificate for the motor vehicle in respect of those inspections and tests, or

(ii) the person provides the buyer with a written statement containing the information prescribed by regulation respecting the motor vehicle;

(i) in the case of vehicles that may be on a highway, sell or offer for sale for use in or on those vehicles any equipment or other material or item used in respect of vehicles where that equipment, material or item does not comply with the standards or specifications set out in the regulations for that equipment, material or item;

(j) in the case of vehicles that may be on a highway, sell or offer for sale for use in or on those vehicles any equipment or other material or item used in respect of vehicles where the sale or the offering for sale of that equipment, material or item is prohibited by regulation.

(2) Where a person who is an employee or agent of a dealer of used motor vehicles contravenes subsection (1)(h),

(a) where the person is found guilty of contravening this section, the dealer is also guilty of contravening this section and is subject to the punishment set out in section 158(2) unless the dealer proves to the satisfaction of the court that the dealer took all reasonable steps to ensure that the person would not contravene this section;

(b) where a notice of administrative penalty is issued to the person under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for contravening this section, the dealer is also considered to have contravened this section and is subject to a fine as prescribed under that Act unless the dealer proves to the satisfaction of an adjudicator under that Act that the dealer took all reasonable steps to ensure that the person would not contravene this section.

Inspection of vehicles

66(1) A peace officer may, for the purposes of

(a) ensuring that a vehicle or its equipment, or both,

(i) are safe to operate, and

(ii) meet the vehicle and equipment standards and requirements provided for under this Act,

or

(b) determining whether the condition of a vehicle or its equipment contributed in any manner to an accident,

do one or more of the following:

(c) direct that the vehicle or its equipment, or both, be subjected to an inspection, examination or test by the peace officer;

(d) direct that the vehicle or its equipment, or both, be subjected to an inspection, examination or test at a place and by a person specified by the peace officer;

(e) direct that the vehicle or its equipment, or both, or any specific part of the vehicle or equipment be repaired;

(f) direct that the vehicle or its equipment, or both, be removed from the highway or from operation and that it not be returned to a highway or operation until the vehicle or its equipment, or both, have been, as the case may be,

(i) rendered safe to operate,

(ii) repaired, serviced, altered or otherwise dealt with so that they meet the requirements of this Act, or
(iii) repaired in accordance with the directions of the peace officer;

(g) direct that the directions given under this section be complied with within a time period specified by the peace officer;

(h) direct that, after the directions given under this section have been complied with, the vehicle or its equipment, or both, be reinspected by a peace officer at a time and place specified by the peace officer.

(2) A direction given under this section must

(a) be in writing, and

(b) be served on the person to whom the direction is made.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a direction given under subsection (1)(c) may be given orally if a peace officer inspects, examines or tests the vehicle and its equipment forthwith after the direction is given.

(4) If a driver or an owner of a vehicle is given a direction under subsection (1)(f), a peace officer may seize the licence plate and certificate of registration issued in respect of that vehicle, and in the case of a vehicle in a prescribed class of commercial vehicles, a peace officer may seize the certificate of registration or a copy of the certificate of registration, and hold the licence plate and certificate of registration or copy of the certificate of registration, as the case may be, until the vehicle or its equipment, or both, have been, in accordance with the direction,

(a) rendered safe to operate;

(b) repaired, serviced, altered or otherwise dealt with so that they meet the requirements of this Act;

(c) repaired in accordance with the directions of the peace officer.

(5) A person shall not do any of the following:

(a) fail to comply with the directions given by a peace officer under this section;

(b) operate a vehicle on a highway in contravention of a direction given under subsection (1)(f);
(c) put a vehicle into operation in contravention of a direction given under subsection (1)(f).

Review by Court

67(1) Where

(a) a person is given a direction under section 66, a person’s vehicle is detained for the purposes of section 66 or a person’s licence plate and certificate of registration, or in the case of a vehicle in a prescribed class of commercial vehicles, a copy of the certificate of registration, are seized under section 66, and

(b) the person disputes the direction, detention or seizure in whole or in part,

the person may apply to the Court of Queen’s Bench for an order granting relief under subsection (6).

(2) Where

(a) a person fails to comply with a direction given under section
66, or

(b) a person fails to permit a peace officer to carry out the peace officer’s powers or duties under section 66, a peace officer may apply to the Court of Queen’s Bench for an order granting relief under subsection (6).

(3) Repealed 2009 c53 s179.

(4) On the filing of an application with the clerk of the Court of Queen’s Bench, the Court may, if it considers it necessary in the circumstances, hear an interim application on 2 days’ notice, or any shorter period of time that the Court may direct, and make an interim order granting such relief as the Court considers appropriate pending the determination of the application.

(5) An interim application under subsection (4) may be made ex parte if the Court considers it appropriate to do so in the circumstances.

(6) On hearing an application, the Court may do one or more of the following:

(a) confirm, rescind or vary the direction of the peace officer;
(b) direct the person to comply with the direction of the peace officer;

(c) give those directions that the Court considers necessary to ensure compliance with the direction of the peace officer;

(d) direct that the seized licence plate and certificate of registration, or in the case of a vehicle in a prescribed class of commercial vehicles, a copy of the certificate of registration, be returned;

(e) make the order subject to any terms or conditions that the Court considers appropriate in the circumstances;

(f) dismiss the application;

(g) award costs.

Investigations of accidents re general safety enhancement

73(1) The Registrar may, for the purposes of analyzing and enhancing the safe use of highways,
(a) investigate all aspects of motor vehicle accidents with a view to compiling comparative statistics on the causes of accidents, and

(b) make recommendations, based on those investigations, for increased road safety.

(2) For the purposes of carrying out the functions provided for under subsection (1), the Registrar

(a) may, in writing, require from any insurer any or all of the following with respect to any accident:

(i) copies of statements made by any person in connection with the accident;

(ii) copies of reports made by the insurer’s investigators into the reasons for or causes of the accident and the conclusion of the insurer on the liability of the persons involved;

(iii) details of any money paid by an insurer in respect of property damage;

(b) may interview

(i) the drivers involved in the accident,

(ii) any witness to the accident, and

(iii) any other person who may be able to give information, whether directly relevant or not, that will assist in determining the reasons for or causes of the accident, and with the consent of the persons interviewed may take statements in writing.

(3) In the interests of obtaining full and true information concerning an accident, any file, document or paper kept by the Registrar or any person who carries out any function under this section on behalf of the Registrar that deals with the accident, including all matters incidental to it, and that has come into existence through anything done pursuant to this section

(a) must not be disclosed to any person except as permitted under this Act,

(b) must not be used in any court proceedings, and
(c) must not be used for any purposes other than the purposes stated in subsection (1).

(4) Neither the Registrar nor any person who carries out functions under this section on behalf of the Registrar shall disclose or be compelled to disclose any information obtained by the Registrar or that person in the course of the performance of any duties under this section.

(5) No cause of action lies against any person by reason of the disclosure, for the purposes of this section, of any document or information to the Registrar or to any person who carries out functions under this section on behalf of the Registrar.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in this section, a person must not be compelled to disclose any information if the disclosure will prejudice that person.

1999 cT-6.4 s73

Testing and inspection of motor vehicles in accidents

74(1) When any motor vehicle is directly or indirectly involved in an accident, the Registrar may

(a) request a peace officer to remove the motor vehicle or cause the motor vehicle to be removed from the place where the accident occurred, and

(b) specify to the peace officer the place to which the motor vehicle is to be taken, for the purposes of testing and inspecting the vehicle.

(2) If, for the purposes of this section, a motor vehicle

(a) is towed and stored at a place agreed on by the owner and the Registrar, the owner shall pay the costs of towing and storage;

(b) is towed and stored at a place not agreed on by the owner and the Registrar, the Crown shall pay the costs of towing and storage;

(c) is towed without the consent of the owner but stored at a place to which the owner consents, the Crown shall pay the costs of towing and the owner shall pay the costs of storage;

(d) is towed with the consent of the owner but stored at a place without the owner’s consent, the owner shall pay the costs of towing and the Crown shall pay the costs of storage.
(3) On completion of the testing and inspection, if the owner of the motor vehicle wishes to have repairs carried out at a place other than the place at which the motor vehicle was tested and inspected, the Crown shall pay the reasonable costs of towing to the place specified by the owner.

(4) The Registrar is entitled to retain the motor vehicle for testing and inspection for 21 days from the day of the accident, but after 21 days the Registrar shall release it to the owner on the owner’s request.

(5) Unless the motor vehicle is irreparable, the Minister shall, in an amount that the Minister considers just, compensate a person who does not have the use of that person’s motor vehicle as a result of any testing or inspection carried out under this section.

(6) Notwithstanding that a motor vehicle has been taken for testing and inspection, the owner or a person authorized by the owner may enter the premises where it is kept during normal working hours and inspect the motor vehicle.

1999 cT-6.4 s74

Motor vehicle surveys

Disqualification from Driving

Division 1
Disqualifications Arising from Offences and Contraventions

Operator’s licence suspended

82 When a person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta,

(a) that person’s operator’s licence, if that person holds a subsisting operator’s licence, is suspended, and

(b) that person is disqualified from holding an operator’s licence, during the time that the person is disqualified from driving.

1999 cT-6.4 s82

Disqualification for impaired driving

83(1) When a person is found guilty under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in Canada, that person on being found guilty becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle for a period of one year from the day of the finding of guilt.
RSA 2000
Section 83  Chapter T-6

TRAFFIC SAFETY ACT

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if a person

(a) is found guilty under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in Canada, and

(b) has, in the preceding 10 years, been found guilty of an offence under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in Canada, that person on being found guilty of the offence referred to in clause (a) becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 3 years from the day of the finding of guilt.

(2.1) In establishing for the purposes of subsection (2) whether a person has been found guilty of an offence under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in Canada and has been found guilty within the preceding 10 years of an offence under either of those sections anywhere in Canada, the only question to be considered is the sequence of the findings of guilt and no consideration shall be given to the sequence of commission of offences or to whether an offence occurred before or after a finding of guilt.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this section, when a person

(a) is found guilty under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in Canada, and

(b) has, in the preceding 10 years, been found guilty of

(i) 2 offences under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada), or

(ii) one offence under section 320.14 of the Criminal Code (Canada) and one offence under section 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada)

anywhere in Canada, unless those 2 offences arose out of the same incident,

that person on being found guilty of the offence referred to in clause (a) becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 5 years from the day of the finding of guilt.

(3.1) In establishing for the purposes of subsection (3) whether a person

(a) has been found guilty of an offence under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in Canada, and
(b) has been found guilty within the preceding 10 years of

(i) 2 offences under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada), or

(ii) one offence under section 320.14 of the Criminal Code (Canada) and one offence under section 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada)

anywhere in Canada, unless those 2 offences arose out of the same incident,

the only question to be considered is the sequence of the findings of guilt and no consideration shall be given to the sequence of commission of offences or to whether an offence occurred before or after a finding of guilt.

(4) When a person who holds an operator’s licence is found guilty under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada), the court hearing the case shall forward the operator’s licence of that person to the Registrar.

(5) If a person is found guilty of 2 or more offences under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in Canada and the offences arose out of the same incident,

(a) the findings of guilt for those offences shall, for the purposes of subsections (2)(b) and (3)(b), be considered to constitute only one finding of guilt, which shall be considered to have occurred on the day of the earliest finding of guilt respecting those offences, and

(b) for the purposes of subsection (1), the period of disqualification shall be one year and shall run from the day of the earliest finding of guilt respecting those offences.

(6) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a finding of guilt for an offence

(a) under section 234 or 236 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately prior to December 4, 1985 is deemed to be a finding of guilt for an offence under section 237 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately after December 3, 1985, and

(b) under section 234.1 or 235 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately prior to December 4, 1985 is deemed to be a finding of guilt for an offence under section 238 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately after December 3, 1985.
(7) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a finding of guilt for an offence

(a) under section 237 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately prior to December 12, 1988 is deemed to be a finding of guilt for an offence under section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately after December 11, 1988, and

(b) under section 238 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately prior to December 12, 1988 is deemed to be a finding of guilt for an offence under section 254 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately after December 11, 1988.

(8) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a finding of guilt for an offence under section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately prior to November 1, 1989 is deemed to be a finding of guilt for an offence under section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately after October 31, 1989.

(9) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a finding of guilt for an offence

(a) under section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately prior to the coming into force of Part 1 of the Federal Bill is deemed to be a finding of guilt for an offence under section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately on and after the coming into force of Part 1 of the Federal Bill, and

(b) under section 254 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately prior to the coming into force of Part 1 of the Federal Bill is deemed to be a finding of guilt for an offence under section 254 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately on and after the coming into force of Part 1 of the Federal Bill.

(10) In subsection (9), “the Federal Bill” means Bill C-46, introduced in the 1st session of the 42nd Parliament and entitled An Act to amend the Criminal Code (offences relating to conveyances) and to make consequential amendments to other Acts.

(11) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a finding of guilt for an offence

(a) under section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately prior to the coming into force of Part 2 of the Federal Bill is deemed to be a finding of guilt for an offence
under section 320.14 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately on and after the coming into force of Part 2 of the Federal Bill, and

(b) under section 254 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately prior to the coming into force of Part 2 of the Federal Bill is deemed to be a finding of guilt for an offence under section 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as it read immediately on and after the coming into force of Part 2 of the Federal Bill.

(12) In subsection (11), “the Federal Bill” means Bill C-46, introduced in the 1st session of the 42nd Parliament and entitled An Act to amend the Criminal Code (offences relating to conveyances) and to make consequential amendments to other Acts.

Driving while prohibited under Criminal Code

84 If a person is found guilty anywhere in Canada of an offence under 320.18 of the Criminal Code (Canada), that person on being found guilty becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 6 months from the day of the finding of guilt.

Disqualification arising under National Defence Act (Canada)

85(1) When a person is found guilty under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in or out of Canada, that person on being found guilty becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of one year from the day of the finding of guilt.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if a person

(a) is found guilty under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in or out of Canada, and

(b) has, in the preceding 10 years, been found guilty of an offence under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in or out of Canada, that person on being found guilty of the offence referred to in clause (a) becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 3 years from the day of the finding of guilt.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) or (2), when a person

(a) is found guilty under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in or out of Canada, and

(b) has, in the preceding 10 years, been found guilty of 2 offences under the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person, in the preceding 10 years,

(i) twice contravened section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada), or

(ii) once contravened section 320.14 of the Criminal Code (Canada) and once contravened section 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada), anywhere in or out of Canada, unless those 2 offences arose out of the same incident, that person on being found guilty of the offence referred to in clause (a) becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 5 years from the day of the finding of guilt.

(4) If a person is found guilty of 2 or more offences under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in or out of Canada and the offences arose out of the same incident,

(a) the findings of guilt for those offences shall, for the purposes of subsections (2)(b) and (3)(b), be considered to constitute only one finding of guilt, which shall be considered to have occurred on the day of the earliest finding of guilt respecting those offences, and

(b) for the purposes of subsection (1), the period of disqualification shall be one year and shall run from the day of the earliest finding of guilt respecting those offences.

(5) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a finding of guilt for an offence under section 120 of the National Defence Act (Canada) as the National Defence Act (Canada) read immediately prior to December 12, 1988 by reason that a person contravened

(a) section 234 or 236 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately prior to December 4, 1985 is deemed to be a finding of guilt under section 120 of the National Defence Act (Canada) as the National Defence Act (Canada) read immediately prior to December 12, 1988 by reason that the person contravened section 237 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately after December 3, 1985, and

(b) section 234.1 or 235 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately prior to December 4, 1985 is deemed to be a finding of guilt under section 120 of the National Defence Act (Canada) as the National Defence Act (Canada) read immediately prior to December 12, 1988 by reason that the person contravened section 238 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately after December 3, 1985.

(6) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a finding of guilt for an offence under section 120 of the National Defence Act (Canada) as the National Defence Act (Canada) read immediately prior to December 12, 1988 by reason that a person contravened

(a) section 237 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately prior to December 12, 1988 is deemed to be a finding of guilt under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) and the National Defence Act (Canada) read immediately after December 11, 1988, and

(b) section 238 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately prior to December 12, 1988 is deemed to be a finding of guilt under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 254 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) and the National Defence Act (Canada) read immediately after December 11, 1988.

(7) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a finding of guilt for an offence under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that a person contravened section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately prior to November 1, 1989 is deemed to be a finding of guilt under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 254 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately after October 31, 1989.

(7.1) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a finding of guilt for an offence
(a) under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that a person contravened section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately prior to the coming into force of Part 1 of the Federal Bill is deemed to be a finding of guilt under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately on and after the coming into force of Part 1 of the Federal Bill, and

(b) under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that a person contravened section 254 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately prior to the coming into force of Part 1 of the Federal Bill is deemed to be a finding of guilt under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 254 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately on and after the coming into force of Part 1 of the Federal Bill.

(7.2) In subsection (7.1), “the Federal Bill” means Bill C-46, introduced in the 1st session of the 42nd Parliament and entitled An Act to amend the Criminal Code (offences relating to conveyances) and to make consequential amendments to other Acts.

(7.3) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a finding of guilt for an offence

(a) under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that a person contravened section 253 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately prior to the coming into force of Part 2 of the Federal Bill is deemed to be a finding of guilt under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 320.14 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately on and after the coming into force of Part 2 of the Federal Bill, and

(b) under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that a person contravened section 254 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately prior to the coming into force of Part 2 of the Federal Bill is deemed to be a finding of guilt under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada) as the Criminal Code (Canada) read immediately on and after the coming into force of Part 2 of the Federal Bill.

(7.4) In subsection (7.3), “the Federal Bill” means Bill C-46, introduced in the 1st session of the 42nd Parliament and entitled An Act to amend the Criminal Code (offences relating to conveyances) and to make consequential amendments to other Acts.

(8) When a person is found guilty anywhere in or out of Canada of an offence under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened subsection 320.13(1), 320.16(1) or section 320.17 of the Criminal Code (Canada), that person on being found guilty becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of one year from the day of the finding of guilt.

(9) When a person is found guilty anywhere in or out of Canada of an offence under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened subsection 320.13(2) or (3), 320.16(2) or (3) of the Criminal Code (Canada), that person on being found guilty becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 5 years from the day of the finding of guilt.

(10) When a person is found guilty anywhere in or out of Canada of an offence under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) committed by means of a motor vehicle by reason that the person contravened section 220, 221 or 236 of the Criminal Code (Canada), that person on being found guilty becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 5 years from the day of the finding of guilt.

(11) If a person is found guilty under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason that the person contravened section 320.18 of the Criminal Code (Canada),

(a) that person on being found guilty becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 6 months, and

(b) if that person is under suspension or under a prohibition at the time of the finding of guilt, the period of disqualification shall run consecutively with that suspension or prohibition.

Suspension of operator’s licence

86(1) If authority to suspend a person’s operator’s licence is not otherwise provided for under this Act, a court may, subject to subsections (2) and (3), suspend a person’s operator’s licence for a period not exceeding 3 months where the person is found guilty of contravening one or more of the following:

(a) section 69 or 71 with respect to carrying out any duty under that section;

(b) any of the Rules of the Road or other regulation designated by regulation as a provision to which this section applies;

(c) section 115(2)(b), (c), (d), (p), (p.1), (p.2), (q), (r) or (t);

(d) any municipal bylaw that fixes a speed limit within the municipality or regulates moving motor vehicles within the municipality;

(e) any regulation under the National Parks Act (Canada) designated by the regulations made under this statute as a provision to which this section applies.

(2) If

(a) a person who is not the holder of an operator’s licence is found guilty of contravening a provision referred to in subsection (1), and

(b) authority to disqualify that person from holding an operator’s licence is not otherwise provided for under this Act, a court may, subject to subsection (3), disqualify that person from holding an operator’s licence for a period not exceeding 3 months.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply in respect of an offence if the finding of guilt for the offence resulted from proceedings that were commenced under Part 3 of the Provincial Offences Procedure Act.

Licence disqualification

87(1) When a person is found guilty under subsection 320.13(1), 320.16(1) or section 320.17 of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in Canada, that person on being found guilty becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of one year from the day of the finding of guilt.

(2) When a person is found guilty under subsection 320.13(2) or (3) or 320.14(2) or (3) or 320.15(2) or (3) or 320.16(2) or (3) of the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in Canada, that person on being found guilty becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 5 years from the day of the finding of guilt.

(3) When a person is found guilty under section 220, 221 or 236 of the Criminal Code (Canada) of an offence anywhere in Canada committed by means of a motor vehicle, that person on being found guilty becomes disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 5 years from the day of the finding of guilt.

Interpretation

87.1(1) In sections 88, 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 and 88.1, “issue a notice of administrative penalty” includes service of the notice.

(2) In this section and sections 88, 88.01, 88.02, 88.03, 88.1 and 88.11,

(a) “motor vehicle” does not include an electric scooter, electric bicycle, electric personal assistive mobility device or other vehicle prescribed by regulation

(i) operated by one person and carrying only that person,
and

(ii) not exceeding 30 kilometres per hour at the time of operation;

(b) “notice of administrative penalty” means a notice of administrative penalty as defined in the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act;

(c) “suspended” means

(i) in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence, that the driver’s operator’s licence is suspended, the driver is disqualified from operating a motor vehicle in Alberta and the driver is disqualified from applying for or holding an operator’s licence;

(ii) in the case of a driver who holds a licence or permit issued in another jurisdiction that permits the driver to operate a motor vehicle, that the driver is disqualified from operating a motor vehicle in Alberta and from holding or applying for an operator’s licence;

(iii) in the case of a driver who does not hold an operator’s licence, that the driver is disqualified from applying for or holding an operator’s licence.
(3) In sections 88, 88.01, 88.02, 88.1 and 88.11, “drug” includes any drug for which a blood drug concentration is prescribed by regulation under the Criminal Code (Canada).

Refusal to accept notice of administrative penalty

87.2 When a notice of administrative penalty is issued to a driver under section 88, 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 or 88.1, notwithstanding that the driver refuses or fails

(a) to accept from a peace officer the notice of administrative penalty, the notice is deemed to have been issued at the time that the officer attempted to provide it to the driver,

(b) to surrender an operator’s licence, that refusal or failure does not prevent the administrative penalty from taking effect, and

(c) to accept service of the notice of administrative penalty, that refusal or failure does not prevent the administrative penalty from taking effect.

Immediate roadside sanction: 24-hour

88(1) If a peace officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that the driver of a motor vehicle

(a) has a medical or physical condition that affects, or

(b) has consumed alcohol or otherwise introduced into the driver’s body any alcohol, drug or other substance in such a quantity so as to affect the driver’s physical or mental ability, the peace officer may on behalf of the Registrar

(c) issue a notice of administrative penalty to the driver, and

(d) in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence, require the driver to surrender to the peace officer the operator’s licence.

2 If a notice of administrative penalty is issued under this section,

(a) the driver is immediately suspended for 24 hours, and

(b) the peace officer or a person authorized by the peace officer may seize the driver’s vehicle for 24 hours.
(3) A suspension arising pursuant to this section terminates at the end of 24 hours from the time the notice of administrative penalty was issued.

(4) Where a notice of administrative penalty is issued under section 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 or 88.1, any notice of administrative penalty issued under this section in respect of the same contravention is cancelled.

(5) No notice of administrative penalty may be issued under this section if a notice of administrative penalty has been issued under section 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 or 88.1 in respect of the same contravention.

Immediate roadside sanction zero: novice

88.01(1) In this section,

(a) “novice driver” means a person who holds a novice operator’s licence;

(b) “novice operator’s licence” means an operator’s licence classified as a learner’s operator’s licence or a probationary operator’s licence.

(2) If a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the driver of a motor vehicle is a novice driver and at the time of driving has any alcohol or drug in the driver’s body, the peace officer shall, on behalf of the Registrar,

(a) issue a notice of administrative penalty to the driver, and

(b) require the driver to surrender to the peace officer the novice driver’s novice operator’s licence.

(3) If a notice of administrative penalty is issued under this section,

(a) the novice driver is immediately suspended for 30 days,

(b) the peace officer or a person authorized by the peace officer shall seize the novice driver’s vehicle for 7 days, and

(c) the novice driver is liable to a fine as provided for under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for contravention of this section, and

RSA 2000 cT-6 s88;2001 c14 s13;2008 c40 s3;2011 c22 s12; 2013 c19 s2(13);2017 c26 ss12,22;2020 cP-30.8 s44(29)
(d) the novice driver is subject to any additional conditions for reinstatement of the novice operator’s licence as set out in the regulations for contravention of this section.

(4) The peace officer shall advise the novice driver of the novice driver’s right to voluntarily undergo the applicable test, analysis or evaluation referred to in section 88.11(2).

Immediate roadside sanction zero: commercial

88.02(1) If a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the driver of a motor vehicle is operating a commercial vehicle and has at the time of operating the commercial vehicle any alcohol or drug in the driver’s body, the peace officer shall, on behalf of the Registrar,

(a) issue a notice of administrative penalty to the driver, and

(b) in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence, require the driver to surrender to the peace officer the operator’s licence.

(2) If a notice of administrative penalty is issued under this section,

(a) for a first contravention of this section,

(i) the driver is immediately suspended for 3 days,

(ii) the driver is liable to a fine as provided for under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for contravention of this section for the first time, and

(iii) in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence, the driver is subject to any additional conditions for reinstatement of the operator’s licence as set out in the regulations for contravention of this section for the first time,

(b) for a 2nd contravention of this section,

(i) the driver is immediately suspended for 15 days,

(ii) the driver is liable to a fine as provided for under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for contravention of this section for the 2nd time, and

(iii) in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence, the driver is subject to any additional conditions for reinstatement of the operator’s licence as set out in the regulations for contravention of this section for the 2nd time,

and

(c) for a 3rd and subsequent contravention of this section,

(i) the driver is immediately suspended for 30 days,

(ii) the driver is liable to a fine as provided for under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for contravention of this section for the 3rd or subsequent time, and

(iii) in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence, the driver is subject to any additional conditions for reinstatement of the operator’s licence as set out in the regulations for contravention of this section for the 3rd or subsequent time.

(3) The peace officer shall advise the driver of the driver’s right to voluntarily undergo the applicable test, analysis or evaluation referred to in section 88.11(2).

2020 cP-30.8 s44(29)

Immediate roadside sanction: warn

88.03(1) If a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a driver of a motor vehicle has a blood alcohol concentration at the time of driving that is equal to or exceeds 50 milligrams of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood, the peace officer shall, on behalf of the Registrar,

       (a) issue a notice of administrative penalty to the driver, and

       (b) in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence, require the driver to surrender to the peace officer the operator’s licence.

(2) If a notice of administrative penalty is issued under this section,

(a) for a first contravention of this section,

   (i) the driver is immediately suspended for 3 days,

   (ii) the peace officer or a person authorized by the peace officer shall seize the driver’s motor vehicle for 3 days,
The peace officer shall advise the driver of the driver’s right to voluntarily undergo the applicable test, analysis or evaluation referred to in section 88.11(2).
Subject to subsection (3), if a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe any of the following, the peace officer shall, on behalf of the Registrar, take the actions set out in subsection (2):

(a) that a driver operated a motor vehicle while the driver’s ability to operate the motor vehicle was impaired to any degree by alcohol or a drug or by a combination of alcohol and a drug;

(b) that a driver has within 2 hours after ceasing to operate a motor vehicle a blood alcohol concentration that is equal to or exceeds 80 milligrams of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood;

(c) that a driver has within 2 hours after ceasing to operate a motor vehicle a blood drug concentration that is equal to or exceeds any blood drug concentration for the drug that is prescribed by regulation under the Criminal Code (Canada);

(d) that a driver has within 2 hours after ceasing to operate a motor vehicle a blood alcohol concentration and a blood drug concentration that is equal to or exceeds the blood alcohol concentration and the blood drug concentration for the drug that are prescribed by regulation under the Criminal Code (Canada) for instances where alcohol and that drug are combined;

(e) that a driver, knowing that a demand has been made, failed or refused, without a reasonable excuse, to comply with a demand made on the driver under section 320.27 or 320.28 of the Criminal Code (Canada).

The peace officer shall issue a notice of administrative penalty to the driver, and, in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence, require the driver to surrender to the peace officer the operator’s licence.

The peace officer shall not take the actions set out in subsection (2) if
(i) the driver consumed alcohol after ceasing to operate the motor vehicle,

(ii) the driver, after ceasing to operate the motor vehicle, had no reasonable expectation that the driver would be required to provide a sample of breath or blood, and

(iii) the driver’s alcohol consumption is consistent with the driver’s blood alcohol concentration as determined in accordance with the regulations and with the driver having had, at the time when the driver was operating the motor vehicle, a blood alcohol concentration that was less than 80 milligrams of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood,

(b) if

(i) the driver consumed the drug after ceasing to operate the motor vehicle, and

(ii) the driver, after ceasing to operate the motor vehicle, had no reasonable expectation that the driver would be required to provide a sample of a bodily substance,

or

(c) if

(i) the driver consumed the drug or the alcohol or both after ceasing to operate the motor vehicle,

(ii) the driver, after ceasing to operate the motor vehicle, had no reasonable expectation that the driver would be required to provide a sample of a bodily substance, and

(iii) the driver’s alcohol consumption is consistent with the driver’s blood alcohol concentration as determined in accordance with the regulations and with the driver having had, at the time when the driver was operating the motor vehicle, a blood alcohol concentration less than the blood alcohol concentration established under paragraph 320.38(c) of the Criminal Code (Canada).

(4) If a notice of administrative penalty is issued under this section,

(a) for a first contravention of this section,

(i) the driver is suspended
Section 88.1  TRAFFIC SAFETY ACT
RSA 2000  Chapter T-6

(A) for an immediate period of 90 days, and

(B) following the expiration of the period in paragraph (A),
    for a further period of one year,

(ii) the peace officer or a person authorized by the peace officer shall seize the driver’s vehicle for 30 days,

(iii) the driver is liable to a fine as provided for under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for contravention of this section for the first time, and

(iv) in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence,
    the driver is subject to any additional conditions for reinstatement of the licence as set out in the regulations for contravention of this section for the first time,

(b) for a 2nd contravention of this section,

(i) the driver is suspended

(A) for an immediate period of 90 days, and

(B) following the expiration of the period in paragraph
    (A), for a further period of 36 months,

(ii) the peace officer or a person authorized by the peace officer shall seize the driver’s vehicle for 30 days,

(iii) the driver is liable to a fine as provided for under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for contravention of this section for the 2nd time, and

(iv) in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence,
    the driver is subject to any additional conditions for reinstatement of the licence as set out in the regulations for contravention of this section for the 2nd time,

and

(c) for a 3rd and subsequent contravention under this section,

(i) the driver is suspended

(A) for an immediate period of 90 days, and

(B) following the expiration of the period in paragraph (A),
    for life,
(ii) the peace officer or a person authorized by the peace officer shall seize the driver’s vehicle for 30 days,

(iii) the driver is liable to a fine as provided for under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for contravention of this section for the 3rd or subsequent time, and

(iv) in the case of a driver who holds an operator’s licence, the driver is subject to any additional conditions for reinstatement of the licence as set out in the regulations for contravention of this section for a 3rd or subsequent time.

(5) The peace officer shall advise the driver of the driver’s right to voluntarily undergo the applicable test, analysis or evaluation referred to in section 88.11(2).

(6) On the expiration of a suspension imposed under subsection (4)(a)(i)(A), (b)(i)(A) or (c)(i)(A), a person may apply to the Registrar to set aside the operation of the suspension imposed under subsection (4)(a)(i)(B), (b)(i)(B) or (c)(i)(B).

(7) The Registrar may set aside the operation of a suspension imposed under subsection (4)(a)(i)(B), (b)(i)(B) or (c)(i)(B) only on the condition that the person who is subject to the suspension

(a) does not operate a motor vehicle unless the vehicle is equipped with an alcohol-sensing device satisfactory to the Registrar, and

(b) complies with any terms or conditions imposed by the Registrar.

(8) The term during which the person must not operate a motor vehicle without an alcohol-sensing device as described in subsection (7) is

(a) for a suspension imposed under subsection (4)(a), 12 months;

(b) for a suspension imposed under subsection (4)(b), 36 months;

(c) for a suspension imposed under subsection (4)(c), life.

(9) Notwithstanding subsection (8), the Registrar may consider and grant or refuse an application for exemption from subsection (8) where it is not feasible for the suspended person to comply with the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device as prescribed in this section.

(10) On an application referred to in subsection (9), the Registrar may set aside the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device, and instead impose a further period of suspension or another term or condition that will, in the opinion of the Registrar, ensure public safety.

(11) Where the operation of a suspension imposed under subsection (4)(a)(i)(B), (b)(i)(B) or (c)(i)(B) has been set aside by the Registrar on the condition that a person does not operate a motor vehicle unless the vehicle is equipped with an alcohol-sensing device, the Registrar may rescind the setting aside of the suspension if the alcohol-sensing device with which the person’s vehicle has been equipped registers a warn or a fail.

(12) A person may apply to the Registrar for a review of the suspension imposed by subsection (4)(c)(i)(B) following the expiry of 10 years after the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (4)(c)(i)(A).

(13) The Registrar may set aside the operation of a suspension imposed under subsection (4)(c)(i)(B) subject to any conditions prescribed by the regulations.

(14) If the Registrar refuses to set aside the operation of a suspension imposed under subsection (4)(c)(i)(B), the person subject to the suspension may apply to the Registrar for a reconsideration within 30 days of the Registrar’s decision.

(15) Notwithstanding subsection (14), where a person applies for a reconsideration more than 30 days after the Registrar’s decision under subsection (13), the Registrar may reconsider the Registrar’s decision under subsection (13) if in the opinion of the Registrar the circumstances in respect of the matter have substantially changed from the time of the decision.

(16) If the Registrar refuses to reconsider the decision under subsection (15), the person subject to the suspension may apply again to the Registrar at the end of 5 years after the Registrar’s refusal for a review of the suspension imposed by subsection (4)(c)(i)(B), and subsection (13) applies to that application.
(17) A contravention of section 88.1 as it read immediately before the coming into force of this section is deemed to be a contravention of this section in determining whether a contravention is a 2nd, 3rd or subsequent contravention for the purposes of subsection (4).

88.11(1) In this section,

(a) “approved drug screening equipment” means equipment that is designed to ascertain the presence of a drug in a person’s body and that is

(i) approved drug screening equipment within the meaning of section 320.11 of the Criminal Code (Canada), or

(ii) approved under this Act by the Lieutenant Governor in Council to be used for the purposes of this section;

(b) “approved instrument” means a device that is designed to receive and make an analysis of a sample of the breath of a person in order to measure the concentration of alcohol in that person’s blood and that is

(i) an approved instrument within the meaning of section 320.11 of the Criminal Code (Canada), or

(ii) approved under this Act by the Lieutenant Governor in Council to be used for the purposes of this section;

(c) “approved screening device” means a device that is designed to ascertain the presence of alcohol in a person’s blood and that is

(i) an approved screening device within the meaning of section 320.11 of the Criminal Code (Canada), or

(ii) approved under this Act by the Lieutenant Governor in Council to be used for the purposes of this section;

(d) “drug recognition evaluation” means an evaluation conducted by an evaluating officer for the purpose of determining the presence of a drug and whether the person’s ability to operate a motor vehicle is impaired by a drug, or a combination of alcohol and a drug;

(e) “evaluating officer” means an evaluating officer as defined in section 320.11 of the Criminal Code (Canada).
(2) Notwithstanding that a notice of administrative penalty has been issued to a driver under section 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 or 88.1, where a driver requests an appeal of that notice of administrative penalty and voluntarily attends immediately at a place designated by the peace officer and accompanies the peace officer to that place, if necessary, the driver shall immediately

(a) where the basis for issuing the notice of administrative penalty was an initial test performed on an approved screening device, provide a sample of breath that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis on a different approved screening device, or on an approved instrument, at the discretion of the peace officer,

(b) where the basis for issuing the notice of administrative penalty was an initial test on an approved instrument, provide a sample of breath that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis on an approved instrument,

(c) where the basis for issuing the notice of administrative penalty was an initial test on approved drug screening equipment, provide a 2nd sample of oral fluid that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis by approved drug screening equipment,

(d) where the basis for issuing the notice of administrative penalty was performance of a drug recognition evaluation, provide a sample of blood or urine that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis, at the discretion of the peace officer,

(e) where the basis for issuing the notice of administrative penalty was an analysis of blood, provide an additional sample of blood that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis,

(f) where the basis, in whole or part, for issuing the notice of administrative penalty was reasonable grounds to believe there was alcohol in the driver’s body, and an initial test, evaluation or analysis referred to in clause (a), (b), (d) or (e) was not performed on the driver, provide a sample of breath that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis on either an approved screening device or approved instrument, at the discretion of the officer,

(g) where the basis, in whole or part, for issuing the notice of administrative penalty was reasonable grounds to believe there was a drug in the driver’s body, and an initial test, evaluation or analysis referred to in clause (c), (d) or (e) was not performed on the driver,

(i) provide a sample of oral fluid that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis on approved drug screening equipment,

(ii) undergo a drug recognition evaluation, or

(iii) provide a sample of blood or urine that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis,

at the discretion of the peace officer, or

(h) where the basis for issuing the notice of administrative penalty was reasonable grounds to believe that the driver had both alcohol and a drug in the driver’s body,

(i) provide a sample of breath that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis on an approved screening device or approved instrument, at the discretion of the officer, and

(ii) either

(A) provide a sample of oral fluid that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis on approved drug screening equipment or undergo a drug recognition evaluation, or

(B) provide a sample of blood or urine that in the opinion of the peace officer is suitable for analysis, at the discretion of the peace officer.

(3) Where the result of a test, evaluation or analysis pursuant to an appeal under subsection (2) of a notice of administrative penalty issued to a novice driver under section 88.01 shows the novice driver does not have alcohol or a drug in the novice driver’s body, the peace officer shall cancel the notice of administrative penalty and immediately return the novice operator’s licence, if any, to the novice driver.

(4) Where the result of a test, evaluation or analysis pursuant to an appeal under subsection (2) of a notice of administrative penalty issued to the driver of a commercial vehicle under section 88.02 shows the driver does not have alcohol or a drug in the driver’s body, the peace officer shall cancel the notice of administrative penalty and immediately return the operator’s licence, if any, to the driver.
(5) Where the result of a test or analysis pursuant to an appeal under subsection (2) of a notice of administrative penalty issued to a driver under section 88.03 shows the driver does not have a blood alcohol concentration that is equal to or exceeds 50 milligrams of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood, the peace officer shall cancel the notice of administrative penalty and immediately return the operator’s licence, if any, to the driver.

(6) Where the result of a test, evaluation or analysis pursuant to an appeal under subsection (2) of a notice of administrative penalty issued to a driver under section 88.1(1)(b), (c) or (d) is that the driver no longer meets the conditions in those provisions in respect of which the notice of administrative penalty was issued, the peace officer shall cancel the notice of administrative penalty and immediately return the operator’s licence, if any, to the driver.

(7) Despite subsection (6),

(a) if the result of the test, evaluation or analysis referred to in subsection (2) indicates that the driver’s blood alcohol concentration is equal to or greater than 50 milligrams of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood but less than 80 milligrams of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood, the peace officer shall take the action set out in section 88.03(1) and (2)(a);

(b) if the result of the test, evaluation or analysis referred to in subsection (2) indicates the presence of alcohol in the driver’s body and

(i) the driver is a novice driver as defined in section 88.01(1)(a), the peace officer shall take the action set out in section 88.01(2) and (3)(b), or

(ii) the driver is the driver of a commercial vehicle, the peace officer shall take the action set out in section 88.02(1);

(c) if the result of the test, evaluation or analysis referred to in subsection (2) indicates the presence of a drug in the driver’s body and

(i) the driver is a novice driver as defined in section 88.01(1)(a), the peace officer shall take the action set out in section 88.01(2) and (3)(b), or

(ii) the driver is the driver of a commercial vehicle, the peace officer shall take the action set out in section 88.02(1).
(8) No person may seek a roadside appeal under this section of a notice of administrative penalty

(a) issued under section 88.01 as a result of subsection (7)(b)(i),

(b) issued under section 88.02 as a result of subsection (7)(b)(ii),

(c) issued under section 88.03 as a result of subsection (7)(a), or

(d) issued based on reasonable grounds that were formed after the time of the contravention and where in the opinion of the peace officer a roadside appeal could no longer provide any evidence of the blood alcohol or blood drug concentration of the recipient at the time of driving.

Mandatory use of alcohol-sensing device when driving

88.2(1) Where a person has been disqualified arising out of the person being found guilty under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada), on the expiration of the disqualification imposed by a court, the person may apply to the Registrar to set aside the operation of a disqualification imposed under this Act.

(2) The Registrar may set aside the operation of a disqualification imposed under this Act only on the condition that the person who is subject to the disqualification

(a) does not operate a motor vehicle unless the vehicle is equipped with an alcohol-sensing device satisfactory to the Registrar, and

(b) complies with any terms or conditions imposed by the Registrar.

(3) Notwithstanding section 92, where a person has been disqualified arising out of the person being found guilty under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada), on the expiration of the disqualification imposed under this Act, the person may apply to the Registrar for the reinstatement or issuance of an operator’s licence to the person who was subject to the disqualification.

(4) The Registrar may reinstate or issue an operator’s licence only on the condition that the person, in addition to complying with the other requirements imposed under this Act,

(a) does not operate a motor vehicle unless the vehicle is equipped with an alcohol-sensing device that meets the approval of the Registrar, and
(b) complies with any terms or conditions imposed by the Registrar.

(5) The term during which the person must not operate a motor vehicle without an alcohol-sensing device as described in subsections (2) and (4) is

(a) for convictions under section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada),
   (i) one year for a first conviction;
   (ii) 3 years for a 2nd conviction within 10 years;
   (iii) 5 years for a 3rd or subsequent conviction within 10 years;

(b) for convictions under subsection 320.14(2) or (3) or 320.15(2) or (3) of the Criminal Code (Canada), up to 5 years, as determined by the Registrar.

(5.1) A conviction under subsection 320.14(2) or (3) or 320.15(2) or (3) of the Criminal Code (Canada) is deemed to be a conviction in determining whether a conviction is a 2nd, 3rd or subsequent conviction for the purposes of subsection (5)(a).

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), the Registrar may

(a) repealed 2016 c14 s6,

(b) order the extension of the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device beyond the periods stated in subsection (5) until such time as, in the opinion of the Registrar, the person no longer poses a significant risk to public safety, or

(c) consider and grant or refuse applications for exemption from subsection (5) where it is not feasible for the disqualified person to comply with the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device as prescribed in this section.

(7) On an application referred to in subsection (6)(c), the Registrar may set aside the requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device, and instead impose a further period of disqualification or another term or condition that will, in the opinion of the Registrar, ensure public safety.

(8) Any requirement for the use of an alcohol-sensing device that has been prescribed as a condition of operating a vehicle under this Act is cancelled on a suspension or disqualification under section 88, 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 or 88.1.

Disqualification, etc. by Registrar

91(1) The Registrar may disqualify a person from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta or cancel or suspend the certificate of registration issued for a person’s motor vehicle, or both disqualify a person from driving a motor vehicle and cancel or suspend the certificate of registration issued for the person’s motor vehicle,

(a) if that person contravenes this Act or the Fuel Tax Act;

(b) if the Registrar is not satisfied as to the competency of that person;

(c) if the Registrar is satisfied that the person is not qualified or does not have the ability to operate a motor vehicle;
(d) for any other reason appearing to the Registrar to be sufficient.

(2) If a person who is not a resident of Alberta is found guilty of contravening section 65, 68, 69, 71 or 76, the regulations governing accident reports, Division 2 of Part 5, section 166, 176 or 188 or the regulations governing the destruction of non-repairable vehicles, or has a notice of administrative penalty issued to the person under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of the contravention, the Registrar

(a) may disqualify that person from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta until the fine or penalty imposed has been satisfied, and

(b) may notify the proper authorities of the jurisdiction where the person resides of the contravention and of the non-satisfaction of the fine or penalty imposed.

(3) The Registrar shall not under subsection (1) disqualify a person from driving a motor vehicle or cancel or suspend a certificate of registration issued for a motor vehicle without giving that person at least 15 days’ written notice of the disqualification, cancellation or suspension and giving that person an opportunity to make representations in respect of the matter.

(4) Notwithstanding that a 15-day notice period is prescribed in subsection (3), if the Registrar is of the opinion that the safety of a person referred to in subsection (1) or the public is in jeopardy with respect to the operation of a motor vehicle, the Registrar may take action under subsection (1) effective at the time of giving the notice to the person in respect of whom the action is being taken.

(5) Where the Registrar disqualifies a person from driving a motor vehicle under this section, the Registrar may prescribe any terms or conditions in respect of that disqualification that the Registrar considers appropriate in the circumstances.

Removal of requirements disqualification

92(1) If under this Act or by an order or judgment made under this or any other Act a person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta, or the person’s licence was suspended or cancelled, the disqualification, suspension or cancellation remains in effect notwithstanding that the period of disqualification, suspension or cancellation has expired until the Registrar removes the disqualification, suspension or cancellation.
(2) For the purpose of satisfying the Registrar as to a person’s competency to drive a motor vehicle without endangering the safety of the general public, the Registrar may as a condition of removing the disqualification, suspension or cancellation referred to in subsection (1) require that person to do one or more of the following at any time before or after the removal of the disqualification, suspension or cancellation:

(a) attend interviews conducted by or on behalf of the Registrar;

(b) take and successfully complete training, educational or rehabilitation programs or courses as required by the Registrar;

(c) provide to the Registrar medical and other reports prepared by physicians and other health care providers;

(d) take and successfully complete any examinations or other tests as may be required by the Registrar;

(e) successfully complete a drug and alcohol testing program that includes specimen collection and laboratory processing as required by the Registrar.

(a) that person’s operator’s licence is suspended or cancelled under this Act,

(b) that person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta,

(c) that person’s licence or permit to operate a motor vehicle in a jurisdiction outside Alberta is suspended or cancelled, or

(d) that person’s privilege to secure a licence or permit to operate a motor vehicle in a jurisdiction outside Alberta is suspended or cancelled.

(2) A person shall not drive a motor vehicle on a highway at any time during which that person is an unauthorized driver.

(3) This section does not apply to a person referred to in section 94.1.

Prohibition re driving while suspended or disqualified under immediate roadside sanction

94.1(1) A person shall not drive a motor vehicle on a highway at any time during which

(a) that person’s operator’s licence is suspended under section 88, 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 or 88.1, or

(b) that person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta under section 88, 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 or 88.1.

(2) A person who is guilty of contravening subsection (1) is liable

(a) for a first offence

(i) to a fine of not less than $5000 and in default of payment to a term of imprisonment of not less than the term of imprisonment determined according to subsection 734(5) of the Criminal Code (Canada), and

(ii) to having the person’s operator’s licence suspended where the person holds an operator’s licence, to being disqualified from applying for or holding an operator’s licence and to being disqualified from driving in Alberta for 6 months from the day of finding of guilt,
(b) for a 2nd offence committed after the commission of the offence referred to in clause (a),

(i) to imprisonment for a term of not less than 30 days and not more than one year, and

(ii) to having the person’s operator’s licence suspended where the person holds an operator’s licence, to being disqualified from applying for or holding an operator’s licence and to being disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for 12 months from the day of finding of guilt,

and

(c) for a 3rd or subsequent offence committed after the commission of the offence referred to in clause (a) or (b),

(i) to imprisonment for a term of not less than 60 days and not more than one year, and

(ii) to having the person’s operator’s licence suspended where the person holds an operator’s licence, to being disqualified from applying for or holding an operator’s licence and to being disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for 18 months from the day of finding of guilt.

Punishment re driving while disqualified

95(1) A person who contravenes section 94 is liable

(a) where the person is found guilty of the contravention,

(i) for a first offence to a fine of not more than $2000 and in default of payment to a term of imprisonment of not less than 14 days and not more than 6 months, and

(ii) for each subsequent offence committed within one year after the commission of the offence referred to in subclause (i), to imprisonment for a term of not less than 14 days and not more than 6 months,

and

(b) where a notice of administrative penalty is issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of the contravention, to a fine as prescribed under that Act.
(2) Subject to section 98, a person who contravenes section 94 is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta for a period of 6 months from

(a) where subsection (1)(a) applies, the day of the finding of guilt of the person, or

(b) where subsection (1)(b) applies, the date of the issuance of a notice of administrative penalty to the person under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of the contravention.

Suspension continues after licence expires

96(1) If a person’s operator’s licence is suspended or cancelled under this Act, the suspension or cancellation continues in effect notwithstanding the expiration of the licence during the period of the suspension or cancellation.

(2) If a person’s operator’s licence is suspended or cancelled under this Act, the suspension or cancellation operates to suspend or cancel any operator’s licence held by that person during the period of suspension or cancellation, whether or not so stated in the suspension or cancellation.

Extended period of disqualification

97 Notwithstanding anything in this Act, where

(a) a person is found guilty of an offence under

   (i) the Criminal Code (Canada) anywhere in Canada, or

   (ii) the National Defence Act (Canada) anywhere in or out of Canada,

(b) in respect of the conviction referred to in clause (a), that person is prohibited from operating a motor vehicle, and

(c) the period of prohibition is for a period of time that is greater than the period of disqualification from driving provided for under this Act, that person is, on the coming into effect of the prohibition, disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta during the period that the prohibition is in effect.

Disqualifications to run consecutively

98(1) Where
(a) a person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta, and

(b) during the period of disqualification referred to in clause (a), that person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta under section 94 or anywhere in Canada under section 320.24 of the Criminal Code (Canada), that 2nd mentioned disqualification referred to in clause (b) shall run consecutively to any previous disqualification that is still in effect or waiting to go into effect, as the case may be.

(2) Where

(a) a person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta, and

(b) during the period of disqualification referred to in clause (a), that person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta, the 2nd mentioned disqualification shall run consecutively to any previous disqualification that is still in effect or waiting to take effect, as the case may be.

Division 2
Disqualifications Arising from Judgments

Saving of rights

101 Nothing in this Part restricts, limits or derogates from any remedy that a person may have by any statute or at law.

1999 cT-6.4 s101

Failure to satisfy judgment

102(1) If

(a) a judgment for damages arising out of a motor vehicle accident is rendered against a person by a court in Alberta or in any other province or territory in Canada, and

(b) that person fails, within 15 days from the day on which the judgment becomes final, to satisfy the judgment, the Registrar, subject to sections 103 and 104 and the regulations, may do one or both of the following:

(c) disqualify the person from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta;

(d) suspend the registration of any motor vehicle registered in that person’s name.

(2) When, under subsection (1), a person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta or the certificate of registration of that person’s motor vehicle is suspended,

(a) the disqualification or the suspension, as the case may be, remains in effect and shall not be removed, and

(b) no motor vehicle shall be registered in that person’s name, until the judgment is satisfied or discharged, otherwise than by a discharge in bankruptcy, to the extent of

(c) at least $35,000, exclusive of interest and costs, if the judgment arises out of a motor vehicle accident occurring before January 1, 1974,

(d) at least $50,000, exclusive of interest and costs, if the judgment arises out of a motor vehicle accident occurring on or after January 1, 1974 but before July 1, 1978,

(e) at least $100,000, exclusive of interest and costs, if the judgment arises out of a motor vehicle accident occurring on or after July 1, 1978 but before January 1, 1986, or

(f) at least $200,000, exclusive of interest and costs, if the judgment arises out of a motor vehicle accident occurring on or after January 1, 1986.

(3) The Registrar, on being satisfied that

(a) a state of the United States of America has enacted legislation similar in effect to subsection (1), and

(b) the legislation extends and applies to judgments that are rendered by any court of competent jurisdiction in Alberta and have become final against residents of that state, may, by order, extend and apply the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) to judgments that are rendered by any court of competent jurisdiction in that state and have become final against residents of Alberta.

(4) If, after a person has complied with subsection (2), another judgment against the same person for a motor vehicle accident that occurred before subsection (2) was complied with is reported to the Registrar,

(a) that person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta, and

(b) the registration of that person’s motor vehicle is suspended, until the judgment is satisfied and discharged, otherwise than by a discharge in bankruptcy, to the extent of the appropriate amount set out in subsection (2).

(5) If any person to whom subsection (1) applies is not resident in Alberta,

(a) that person is disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta, and

(b) the privilege of driving in Alberta any motor vehicle registered in that person’s name is suspended, by virtue of the judgment until that person has complied with this section.

(6) If a person has been disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta or the certificate of registration of that person’s motor vehicle has been suspended as a result of a judgment obtained against a person who was not driving the vehicle involved in the accident, the Registrar may remove the disqualification or reinstate the certificate of registration, or both.

1999 cT-6.4 s102

Payment of judgment by instalments

103(1) A judgment debtor to whom this Part applies may on notice to the judgment creditor apply to the court in which the trial judgment was obtained for the privilege of paying the judgment in instalments, and the court may, in its discretion, so order, fixing the amounts and times of payment of the instalments.

(2) If the Minister responsible for the administration of the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Act has made a payment with respect to a judgment pursuant to the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Act, the judgment debtor

(a) may apply to the Minister responsible for the administration of the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Act for the privilege of paying the judgment in instalments, in which case that Minister may cause an agreement to be entered into with the debtor for payment by instalments, or
(b) may apply to the court pursuant to subsection (1) for the privilege of paying the judgment to the Minister responsible for the administration of the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Act in instalments, in which case the debtor must give notice of the application to the Administrator of the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Act, who may appear personally or by counsel and be heard on the application.

(3) Except in a case to which subsection (2) applies, a judgment debtor and the judgment creditor may enter into an agreement for the payment of the judgment in instalments.

(4) While the judgment debtor is not in default in payment of the instalments, the judgment debtor is deemed not to be in default for the purposes of this Part in payment of the judgment, and the Minister in the Minister’s absolute discretion may restore the operator’s licence and the certificate of registration of the judgment debtor.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), if the Minister is satisfied that the judgment debtor has defaulted with respect to complying with the terms of the court order or of the agreement, the judgment debtor’s operator’s licence and registration shall again be suspended and remain suspended as provided in section 102.

Application for relief

104(1) If a person becomes eligible to be disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta or to have the registration of that person’s motor vehicle suspended on account of a final judgment being rendered against that person outside Alberta for damages arising out of a motor vehicle accident, that person may make an application for relief to the Court of Queen’s Bench.

(2) On hearing an application made under subsection (1), the Court of Queen’s Bench may,

(a) if

(i) the applicant has not then been disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta or the registration of the applicant’s motor vehicle has not then been suspended, and

(ii) the circumstances so warrant,

suspension of registration, or both, on such terms and conditions as the Court considers appropriate, or

(b) if

(i) the applicant has been disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta or the registration of the applicant’s motor vehicle has been suspended by the Registrar, and direct that the Registrar remove the disqualification or suspension, or both, on such terms and conditions as the Court considers appropriate.

(ii) the circumstances so warrant,

Regulations

105 The Minister may make regulations

(a) governing, subject to section 103, any matter with respect to the imposing of sanctions where a person fails to satisfy a judgment arising out of an accident involving a vehicle;

(b) respecting the disqualification of persons from driving a motor vehicle and the suspension of registration of motor vehicles arising out of the failure to satisfy judgments referred to in section 102.

Standard speed limits

106 Subject to a speed limit that is prescribed under section 108 for a highway,

(a) 100 kilometres per hour is the maximum speed limit for a provincial highway under the Highways Development and Protection Act that is located outside an urban area;

(b) 80 kilometres per hour is the maximum speed limit for

(i) a highway that is subject to the direction, control and management of

(A) the council of a municipal district or Metis settlement, or
(B) the Minister responsible for the Special Areas Act, in the case of a special area;

(ii) a provincial highway under the Highways Development and Protection Act that is located within a city;

(iii) a highway that is located on an Indian reserve where the title to the highway is vested in the Crown in right of Alberta;

(iv) a forestry road;

(v) a licence of occupation road;

(vi) a highway located within an improvement district;

(vii) a highway that is subject to the direction, control and management of the Minister responsible for the Provincial Parks Act;

(c) subject to clause (b)(ii), 50 kilometres per hour is the maximum speed limit for a highway located within an urban area.

Standard speed limit re school or playground zone

107(1) In this section, “school zone” and “playground zone” mean that portion of a highway identified as a school zone or a playground zone by a traffic control device in the manner prescribed by regulations.

(2) Subject to a speed limit that is prescribed under section 108(1)(h) for a highway,

(a) 30 kilometres per hour is the maximum speed limit within a school zone, other than a school zone referred to in clause (c), during the periods of time and the days provided for or otherwise specified in the regulations;

(b) 30 kilometres per hour is the maximum speed limit within a playground zone, other than a playground zone referred to in clause (c), during the period of time and the days provided for or otherwise specified in the regulations;

(c) within a school zone or a playground zone that is identified by a traffic control device that shows rapid intermittent flashes of yellow light as provided for in the regulations when the traffic control device is activated, 30 kilometres per hour is the maximum speed limit during any period.
when the traffic control device is showing rapid intermittent flashes of yellow light.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(a), with respect to a school zone that is located within a municipality the council of the municipality may, for a highway in respect of which it may by bylaw prescribe speed limits and having regard to the hours of opening and closing of the school for which the school zone exists, by bylaw increase or decrease the length of the periods of time referred to in the regulations during which the speed limit is in effect for that school zone.

(4) Where a council enacts a bylaw under subsection (3), the council shall cause traffic control devices to be displayed identifying the hours during which the speed limit for the school zone is in effect.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(b), with respect to a playground zone that is located within a municipality, the council of the municipality may, for a highway in respect of which it may by bylaw prescribe speed limits, by bylaw increase or decrease the length of the periods of time referred to in the regulations during which the speed limit is in effect for that playground zone.

(6) Where a council enacts a bylaw under subsection (5), the council shall cause traffic control devices to be displayed identifying the periods of time during which the speed limit for the playground zone is in effect.

Other speed limits

108(1) In accordance with the following, a road authority may prescribe speed limits that are different from the speed limits established under section 106 or 107:

(a) in the case of a provincial highway or a portion of a provincial highway under the Highways Development and Protection Act, the Minister may prescribe a maximum speed limit that is different from the relevant maximum speed limit prescribed in section 106;

(b) in the case of a highway or any portion of a highway under the direction, control and management of a council of a municipal district or Metis settlement, the council may prescribe a maximum speed limit that is higher or lower than 80 kilometres per hour;

(c) in the case of a highway or any portion of a highway under the direction, control and management of a council of an urban area, the council may prescribe a maximum speed limit that is higher or lower than 50 kilometres per hour;

(d) in the case of a highway referred to in section 106(b) that is not a provincial highway under the Highways Development and Protection Act, a road authority may prescribe a maximum speed limit that is not higher than 100 kilometres per hour;

(e) in the case of a highway in respect of which a road authority may prescribe speed limits and for which a speed limit is prescribed under this section or section 106, the road authority may for all or any portion of that highway prescribe a lower maximum speed limit by erecting signs along the highway setting out the lower speed limit;

(f) in the case of a highway in respect of which a road authority may prescribe speed limits, the road authority may prescribe minimum speed limits that are lower than the maximum speed limit prescribed for that highway;

(g) in the case of a highway that

(i) is under construction or repair, or

(ii) is in a state of disrepair, a maximum speed limit may, with respect to that portion of the highway that is under construction or repair or in disrepair, be prescribed by

(iii) an engineer under the administration of or providing services on behalf of the Minister if

(A) the highway is one in respect of which the Minister may set speed limits, or

(B) the highway is being constructed or repaired by or on behalf of the Government,

or

(iv) a person authorized by a road authority if, subject to subclause (iii)(B), the highway is one in respect of which the road authority may prescribe speed limits,

by erecting signs along the highway setting out the maximum speed limit;
(h) in the case of a school zone or playground zone located on a highway in respect of which a road authority may prescribe speed limits, the road authority may prescribe a lower maximum speed limit than that prescribed under section 107, but the speed limit so prescribed shall not be lower than 20 kilometres per hour.

(2) Where a road authority or other person is empowered to prescribe a speed limit, the road authority or other person prescribing the speed limit may make that speed limit applicable to

(a) all vehicles or only to a certain class or classes of vehicles;

(b) daytime;

(c) nighttime;

(d) different periods of the year;

(e) different traffic lanes for the same highway.

(3) When speed limits are prescribed pursuant to this section, the road authority or the engineer or other person prescribing the speed limit shall erect signs along the highway indicating the speed limits so prescribed.

(4) Except where a speed limit may be prescribed by the erecting of signs along a highway,

(a) the Minister, where the Minister is empowered to prescribe a speed limit, may make orders prescribing speed limits, and

(b) a council of a municipality, where it is empowered to prescribe a speed limit, may make bylaws prescribing speed limits.

Application of speed limits re signs

109 Where

(a) a speed limit is established or prescribed pursuant to

(i) section 106 or 108,

(ii) the Government Property Traffic Act (Canada), or

(iii) the National Parks Act (Canada),
(b) a sign is erected along the highway indicating the speed limit so established or prescribed, that speed limit applies to all that portion of the highway that lies between the point at which a sign is erected indicating the speed limit and the next point at which a sign is erected indicating a greater or lesser speed limit or indicating that the speed limit has ceased to apply.

Traffic control devices

110 A road authority may, in respect of a highway over which it has direction, control and management, place, erect or otherwise display traffic control devices at any location on, over or adjacent to the highway for the purposes of controlling and regulating traffic that is

(a) on or entering that highway, or

(b) crossing a railway track at railway crossings located on that highway.

Division 2

Operation of Vehicles

Observance of Rules of the Road

111 A driver of a vehicle and any other person using a highway shall, insofar as applicable, obey the Rules of the Road, except when otherwise

(a) instructed by any applicable traffic control device, or

(b) directed by a peace officer.

Rules of the Road

112 The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations entitled, or otherwise referred to as, “Rules of the Road” governing the utilization of highways and the use and operation of vehicles in respect of the following:

(a) where to drive or not to drive a vehicle on

(i) a highway;

(ii) a roadway;

(iii) a traffic lane;
(b) the overtaking of vehicles by other vehicles;
(c) the passing of vehicles by other vehicles;
(d) the crossing of the centre line by a vehicle;
(e) the turning of a vehicle;
(f) the making of U-turns with a vehicle;
(g) the backing up of vehicles;
(h) the yielding of and to vehicles;
(i) the stopping of vehicles;
(j) the parking of vehicles;
(k) the merging of vehicles;
(l) the operation of traffic control signals;
(m) the driving of vehicles pursuant to lights, directions or signals shown or given by a traffic control device;
(n) the use of lamps located on vehicles;
(o) the operation of vehicles in relation to other vehicles that are
   (i) emergency vehicles;
   (ii) maintenance vehicles;
   (iii) school buses;
(p) the speed at which vehicles may be operated;
(q) the operation of slow moving vehicles;
(r) the obligations of drivers with respect to the operation of vehicles;
(s) the actions of persons in relation to the operation or use of vehicles;
(t) the operation of vehicles in relation to other vehicles that are participating in processions and parades;
(u) the walking on and use of highways by pedestrians;
(v) the riding, driving and herding of animals on a highway.

1999 cT-6.4 s112

Operation of vehicles

113(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations

(a) governing the driving and operation of

(i) emergency vehicles;

(ii) maintenance vehicles;

(iii) school buses;

(iv) cycles;

(b) governing the use of vehicles in relation to

(i) peace officers,

(ii) emergency vehicle personnel,

(iii) maintenance vehicle personnel, and

(iv) tow truck personnel who are carrying out functions, duties or work on or in relation to a highway or vehicles or persons located on or using a highway.

(2) Subject to the regulations made under subsection (1), in the case of a highway or a portion of a highway

(a) that is under the direction, control and management of the Minister, the Minister may make a regulation, or

(b) that is under the direction, control and management of a municipality, the municipality may pass a bylaw, governing the times during which, the locations at which or the circumstances under which, as the case may be, the alternately flashing lights and stop arm on a school bus may be, shall be or shall not be used while the school bus is operating on that highway or that portion of highway.

1999 cT-6.4 s113

Peace officers

114 The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations providing for and governing the powers of peace officers to give orders and directions to persons concerning the actions of persons or in relation to matters arising under the regulations made under this Division and the consequences as a result of and sanctions that may be imposed on persons not following those orders or directions.

1999 cT-6.4 s114

Prohibited operation of vehicles, etc.

115(1) For the purposes of this section, a driver of a vehicle is driving carelessly if that driver drives the vehicle

(a) without due care and attention, or
(b) without reasonable consideration for persons using the highway.

(2) A person shall not do any of the following:

(a) except where otherwise provided for under this Act, drive a vehicle in a manner contrary to the Rules of the Road or regulations governing the operation of vehicles;
(b) drive a vehicle on a highway in a manner that constitutes driving carelessly;
(c) drive a vehicle on a highway in a race unless authorized pursuant to a permit issued under subsection (3);
(d) drive a vehicle on a highway on a bet or wager;
(e) perform or engage in any stunt or other activity that is likely to distract, startle or interfere with users of the highway;
(f) drive a vehicle so as to perform or engage in any stunt or other activity on a highway that is likely to distract, startle or interfere with other users of the highway;
(g) drive a non-repairable vehicle on a highway;
(h) drive a salvage motor vehicle on a highway unless it is being operated for the purposes of conducting a road test
    under the regulations;
(i) where that person is the driver of a vehicle, permit any person, animal or thing to occupy the front seat of the vehicle in such a manner so as to impede the driver in the free and uninterrupted access to and use of the steering wheel, brakes and other equipment required to be used for the safe operation of the vehicle;
(j) where that person is the driver of a vehicle, permit any person, animal or thing in the vehicle to cause any obstruction to the driver’s clear vision in any direction;

(k) ride in a position in a vehicle that interferes with the driver’s control over the driving mechanism of the vehicle or that obstructs the driver’s clear vision in any direction;

(l) where the person is the driver of a vehicle, exchange places with any other person when the vehicle is in motion;

(m) exchange places with the driver when the vehicle is in motion;

(n) operate an over-dimensional vehicle on a highway other than in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in a permit or under this Act;

(o) repealed 2001 c14 s16;

(p) drive a vehicle on a highway at a speed that is greater than the maximum speed limit established or prescribed for that highway under

(i) this Act,

(ii) the Government Property Traffic Act (Canada), or

(iii) the National Parks Act (Canada);

(p.1) drive a vehicle on a portion of a highway that is under construction or repair or is in a state of disrepair at a speed that is greater than the maximum speed limit established or prescribed under section 108(1)(g) for that portion of highway;

(p.2) drive a vehicle on a portion of a highway at a speed that is greater than the maximum speed limit established or prescribed under section 108(1)(g) for that portion of highway where there are persons present on the highway who are constructing or repairing that portion of highway or who are directing traffic in connection with the construction or repair of that portion of highway;

(q) drive a vehicle on a highway at a speed that is less than the minimum speed limit established or prescribed for that highway under this Act;

(r) where a maximum speed limit is established or prescribed under this Act for a highway with respect to a period of time, drive a vehicle on a highway during that period of time at a speed that is greater than the maximum speed limit established or prescribed for that highway for that period of time;

(s) where a minimum speed limit is established or prescribed under this Act for a highway with respect to a period of time, drive a vehicle on a highway during that period of time at a speed that is less than the minimum speed limit established or prescribed for that highway for that period of time;

(t) subject to subsection (4), drive a vehicle on a highway at a speed greater than 60 kilometres per hour, or the maximum speed limit established or prescribed for that highway under

(i) this Act,

(ii) the Government Property Traffic Act (Canada), or

(iii) the National Parks Act (Canada),

whichever is lower, if the vehicle

(iv) is travelling on the same side of the highway as a stopped emergency vehicle or tow truck, and

(v) is passing the stopped emergency vehicle or tow truck when its flashing lamps are operating.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(c), the Registrar or the road authority may issue a permit authorizing a race to be held on a highway subject to any terms or conditions that the Registrar or the road authority considers appropriate.

(4) Subsection (2)(t) does not apply if there are 2 or more traffic lanes for traffic moving in the same direction as the vehicle and there is at least one traffic lane between the driver’s vehicle and the stopped emergency vehicle or tow truck.

Cellular telephones, electronic devices, etc.

115.1(1) Subject to this section and the regulations made under section 115.5, no individual shall drive or operate a vehicle on a highway while at the same time

(a) holding, viewing or manipulating a cellular telephone, radio communication device or other communication device that is capable of receiving or transmitting telephone communication, electronic data, electronic mail or text messages, or

(b) holding, viewing or manipulating a hand-held electronic device or a wireless electronic device.

(2) An individual may drive or operate a vehicle on a highway while using a cellular telephone or radio communication device in hands-free mode.

(3) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply to

(a) the use of a 2-way radio communication device, only for the purposes set out in the regulation, by an individual driving or operating an escort, pilot or trail vehicle who is required by regulation under this Act to maintain 2-way radio communication, or the use of a cellular telephone or other communication device by that individual for those purposes when 2-way radio communication is not functional or is unavailable,

(b) the use of a 2-way radio communication device, only for the purpose of maintaining communication with the individual’s employer, by an individual driving or operating a vehicle who is required by the individual’s employer to maintain 2-way radio communication while the individual is acting within the scope of the individual’s employment, or the use of a cellular telephone or other communication device by that individual for that purpose when 2-way radio communication is not functional or is unavailable,

(c) the use of a 2-way radio communication device, only for the purpose of participating in a search, rescue or emergency management situation, by an individual driving or operating a vehicle, or the use of a cellular telephone or other communication device by that individual for that purpose when 2-way radio communication is not functional or is unavailable, or

(d) the use of a cellular telephone or other communication device, only for the purpose of contacting an emergency response unit, by an individual driving or operating a vehicle.

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to an individual driving or operating an emergency vehicle while the individual is acting within the scope of the individual’s employment.

(5) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a vehicle that Section 115.2
RSA 2000
Chapter T-6

(a) is not on a highway, or

(b) is parked in a manner specified in a regulation under this Act.

Display screen visible to driver prohibited

115.2(1) Subject to this section and the regulations made under section 115.5, no individual shall drive or operate a vehicle on a highway if the display screen of a television, computer or other device in the vehicle is activated and is visible to the individual.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of the display screen of

(a) a global positioning system navigation device while it is being used to obtain navigation information in accordance with section 115.3,

(b) a cellular telephone or radio communication device being used in hands-free mode,

(c) a logistical transportation tracking system device that is used to track vehicle location, driver status or the delivery of packages or other goods for commercial purposes,

(d) a dispatch system used for the transportation of passengers,

(e) a collision avoidance system device while it is being used to provide collision avoidance information, or

(f) an instrument, gauge, device or system that is used to provide information to the individual regarding the status of various systems or the location of the vehicle.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to an individual driving or operating an emergency vehicle while the individual is acting within the scope of the individual’s employment.

Global positioning system

115.3(1) Subject to this section and the regulations made under section 115.5, no individual shall use a global positioning system navigation device for navigation purposes while driving or operating a vehicle on a highway.

(2) An individual may use a global positioning system navigation device while driving or operating a vehicle on a highway if the system
(a) is programmed before the individual begins to drive or operate the vehicle, or

(b) is used in a voice-activated manner.

(3) If a global positioning system navigation device is portable, an individual may use the system while driving or operating a vehicle on a highway if, in addition to the requirements of subsection (2), the system

(a) is not held in the individual’s hand, and

(b) is securely affixed to the vehicle in a manner that does not interfere with the safe operation of the vehicle.

Prohibited activities

115.4(1) Subject to this section and the regulations made under section 115.5, no individual shall drive or operate a vehicle on a highway while engaged in an activity that distracts the individual from the operation of the vehicle, including but not limited to

(a) reading or viewing printed material located within the vehicle other than an instrument, gauge, device or system referred to in section 115.2(2)(f),

(b) writing, printing or sketching,

(c) engaging in personal grooming or hygiene, and

(d) any other activity that may be prescribed in the regulations.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a vehicle that

(a) is not on a highway, or

(b) is parked in a manner specified in a regulation made under this Act.

Regulations

115.5 The Minister may make regulations

(a) exempting any individual or class of individuals, vehicles or devices from section 115.1, 115.2, 115.3 or 115.4 and prescribing conditions and circumstances for any such exemption;

(b) prescribing prohibited activities for the purposes of section 115.4;
(c) respecting the manner in which a cellular telephone, radio communication device or electronic device may be used in hands-free mode.

Regulations

116 The Minister may make regulations

(a) governing any matter with respect to
   (i) the loading of and the transporting of goods on vehicles,
   (ii) the towing of vehicles, and
   (iii) the transporting of passengers by vehicles;

(b) governing any matter with respect to
   (i) the dimensions of vehicles, including any goods transported on a vehicle;
   (ii) the operation of over-dimensional vehicles;
   (iii) the operation of vehicles that may be a hazard to users of a highway by reason of a vehicle’s unusual or novel size, dimension or shape;

(c) governing any matter respecting the amount of noise, sounds or substances that may be emitted, given off or made by a vehicle;

(d) governing any matter respecting trailers, the towing of trailers and the transporting of goods and persons by trailers;

(e) governing any matter respecting the riding of persons on or in or the carrying of persons by vehicles;

(f) governing any matter respecting the safe use and operation of vehicles;

(g) limiting the operation of vehicles during specific periods of time;

(h) governing any matter respecting the equipping of vehicles with and the use of flashing lights;

(i) designating vehicles as emergency response units and governing any matter respecting the use and operation of those vehicles;
(j) governing any matter respecting traffic control devices;

(k) governing the prescribing and utilization of speed limits referred to in section 108(1)(g);

(l) respecting the requirements for and the use of intersection safety devices;

(m) restricting the use of specified traffic lanes to vehicles carrying a prescribed number of passengers;

(n) restricting the use of specified traffic lanes to specific vehicles or classes of vehicles.

RSA 2000 cT-6 s117;2016 c14 s12

Application of Act

118(1) When a person drives an off-highway vehicle on a highway,

(a) the driving of that vehicle by that person on the highway is, and

(b) the obligations on the person driving the vehicle and any person riding in or on that vehicle while the vehicle is located on the highway are, except as otherwise provided for under this Act, subject to the other Parts of this Act in the same manner as if the off-highway vehicle were a vehicle as defined in section 1.

(2) When a person drives an off-highway vehicle in a location other than on a highway,

(a) the driving of that vehicle by that person is, and

(b) the obligations on the person driving the vehicle and any person riding in or on that vehicle are,

except as otherwise provided for under this Act, subject to this Part and sections 53(1)(b), 160(1) and (2) and 169(2)(j), (k), (l) and (m).

(3) In sections 18, 64, 70, 71, 81 and 91(1), (3) and (4), any reference to a vehicle includes a reference to an off-highway vehicle.

RSA 2000 cT-6 s118;2001 c14 s17

Registration

119(1) Except as otherwise permitted under this Act, a person shall not do any of the following:

(a) drive or permit another person to drive an off-highway vehicle unless there is a subsisting certificate of registration issued in respect of that vehicle;

(b) drive an off-highway vehicle unless the vehicle is an insured motor vehicle;
(c) where a person is the registered owner of an off-highway vehicle, permit another person to drive the vehicle unless the vehicle is an insured motor vehicle;

(d) unless an off-highway vehicle is an insured motor vehicle,

   (i) apply for the registration of the off-highway vehicle, or

   (ii) obtain the registration of the off-highway vehicle.

(2) Subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c) do not apply to the driving of an off-highway vehicle while the off-highway vehicle is being driven

   (a) on land owned by the person driving the off-highway vehicle, or

   (b) on land owned by some other person if that other person has expressly or impliedly consented to the driving of that off-highway vehicle on that land.

(3) If the registration of an off-highway vehicle is suspended under this Act, the off-highway vehicle is still registered for the purposes of subsection (1)(b), (c) and (d).

(4) Where a person is found guilty of or has a notice of administrative penalty issued to the person under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of a contravention of subsection (1)(b), (c) or (d) or section 124(6), the Registrar may cancel the certificate of registration in respect of every off-highway vehicle owned by the person.

(5) Where the Registrar has cancelled a certificate of registration for a contravention of subsection (1)(b), (c) or (d), the Registrar shall not issue a new certificate of registration for that off-highway vehicle until the owner of the motor vehicle provides to the Registrar proof of financial responsibility.

Prohibited operation

120(1) For the purposes of this section, a driver of an off-highway vehicle is driving carelessly if that driver drives the off-highway vehicle

   (a) without due care and attention, or

   (b) without reasonable consideration for other persons or property.

(2) A person shall not do any of the following:
(a) drive an off-highway vehicle on any property, whether publicly or privately owned, that the public is ordinarily entitled or permitted to use, in a manner that constitutes driving carelessly;

(b) except as permitted under this Act, drive an off-highway vehicle on any portion of a highway;

(c) permit another person to drive an off-highway vehicle in contravention of this Act.

(3) A driver of an off-highway vehicle may drive the off-highway vehicle across any highway, including the roadway, parking lane or sidewalk portion of the highway, as the case may be, if

(a) the driver stops the off-highway vehicle before driving it on the highway or portion of the highway to be crossed,

(b) all passengers disembark from the off-highway vehicle and any vehicle or thing attached to it before the driver commences to drive the off-highway vehicle across the highway,

(c) the driver yields the right of way to all other vehicles and persons on the highway,

(d) the driver drives the off-highway vehicle across the highway or portion of the highway to be crossed

(i) by the most direct and shortest route of travel available to the driver, or

(ii) if the most direct and shortest route of travel available to the driver is not the safest route, with reasonable care and caution by the safest and most direct route available to the driver,

and

(e) the driver waits to proceed across the highway until the condition of the traffic on the highway being entered on and crossed is such that the off-highway vehicle can enter on and cross the highway in safety.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(b),

(a) in the case of any highway or class of highway under the Minister’s direction, control and management,
(i) the Minister may by order authorize persons to drive off-highway vehicles along any portion of that highway, or

(ii) the Minister may issue a permit authorizing persons to drive off-highway vehicles along any portion of that highway;

(b) in the case of any highway or class of highway that is under the direction, control and management of a municipality, the council of the municipality may by bylaw authorize or issue a permit authorizing persons to drive off-highway vehicles along any portion of that highway;

(c) in the case of any highway or class of highway that is under the direction, control and management of a Minister other than the Minister responsible for this Act, that Minister may by order authorize or issue a permit authorizing persons to drive off-highway vehicles along any portion of that highway.

(5) A permit, order or bylaw issued or made under this section may do one or more of the following:

(a) prescribe terms and conditions, or either of them, under which an off-highway vehicle may be operated on a highway;

(b) prescribe the maximum speed limits, not to exceed the maximum speed limits prescribed for vehicles under this Act, that are applicable to an off-highway vehicle;

(c) prescribe the minimum speed limits that are applicable to off-highway vehicles;

(d) prescribe routes to be used by off-highway vehicles.

(6) The Regulations Act does not apply to an order made under subsection (4)(a) or (c).

Duty of driver re off-highway vehicle

121(1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, the driver of an off-highway vehicle shall at all times yield the right of way to all other classes of vehicles.

(2) When an off-highway vehicle is on or approaching a highway, the driver of the off-highway vehicle shall obey all traffic control devices regulating traffic on, approaching or leaving the highway.
Restriction on municipality

122 Whether an off-highway vehicle is located on or off a highway, the council of a municipality does not, except where this Act or any other Act specifically provides for a contrary effect, have any power to make a bylaw that

(a) forbids, in a manner contrary to or inconsistent with this Act, the operation of off-highway vehicles;

(b) requires from any owner or driver of an off-highway vehicle any tax, fee, licence or permit for the use, possession or operation of an off-highway vehicle;

(c) affects in any way the registration or numbering of off-highway vehicles.

Stopping for peace officer

123(1) For the purposes of administering and enforcing this Act, a peace officer may

(a) signal or direct a driver of an off-highway vehicle to stop the vehicle, and

(b) request information from the driver of the off-highway vehicle and any passengers on or in the vehicle.

(2) When signalled or directed to stop by a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer, a driver of an off-highway vehicle shall

(a) forthwith bring the vehicle to a stop,

(b) forthwith furnish to the peace officer any information respecting the driver or the vehicle that the peace officer requires, and

(c) remain stopped until permitted by the peace officer to leave.

(3) At the request of a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer, a passenger in or on an off-highway vehicle who is acting in a manner that is contrary to this Act shall forthwith furnish to the peace officer the passenger’s name and address.

Production of documents

124(1) On the request of a peace officer, a person driving an off-highway vehicle shall produce to the peace officer for inspection the following documents as requested by the peace officer:
(a) the person’s subsisting operator’s licence if the vehicle is being operated on a highway;

(b) the subsisting certificate of registration issued in respect of that vehicle;

(c) the subsisting financial responsibility card issued in respect of that vehicle.

(2) Subsection (1)(b) and (c) do not apply with respect to the operation of an off-highway vehicle while that vehicle is being operated on land and in the circumstances referred to in section 119(2).

(3) Where a peace officer makes a request under subsection (1)(b) or (c), the peace officer shall allow the person to whom the request was made reasonable time within which to produce the document issued in respect of the off-highway vehicle.

(4) If a person produces to a peace officer a document under this section that is illegible, mutilated, defaced or altered, the peace officer may request that person to produce to a peace officer within a reasonable time a new document or duplicate of the document issued under this Act.

(5) A person who fails to produce to a peace officer a document as requested under subsection (1) or (4) commits a contravention.

(6) A person driving an off-highway vehicle commits a contravention if, when requested to produce a financial responsibility card under subsection (1), the person produces

(a) a document that purports to be a financial responsibility card but that was not issued pursuant to the Insurance Act, or

(b) a financial responsibility card relating to an insurance policy that is not in force or is otherwise invalid at the time of production.

(7) Subsection (6)(b) does not apply where the person also produces the subsisting financial responsibility card issued in respect of the vehicle.

Onus

125 In a proceeding in respect of a contravention,

(a) in the case of a contravention of or failure to comply with section 119(1)(b), (c) or (d), the onus is on the person alleged to have contravened or failed to comply with section

RSA 2000 cT-6 s124;2016 c14 s8;2020 cP-30.8 s44(39)
119(1)(b), (c) or (d) to show that, at the time of the contravention or failure to comply, the vehicle was an insured motor vehicle, and

(b) in the case of a contravention of or failure to comply with section 124, the onus is on the person alleged to have contravened or failed to comply with section 124 to show that, at the time of the contravention or failure to comply, the person held subsisting insurance at the time that the person was required to produce a financial responsibility card.

Duty of driver, etc. re accident

126(1) Where an accident in which an off-highway vehicle is involved occurs off a highway, the driver or other person in charge of any vehicle that was directly or indirectly involved in the accident shall

(a) remain at the scene of the accident, or if the person has left the scene of the accident, immediately return to the scene of the accident unless otherwise directed by a peace officer,

(b) render all reasonable assistance, and

(c) produce in writing to anyone sustaining loss or injury, to any peace officer and to any witness all or such of the following information as is requested:

(i) that person’s name and address;

(ii) the name and address of the owner of the vehicle;

(iii) where the vehicle is a registered off-highway vehicle, the licence plate number of the vehicle;

(iv) where the vehicle is an insured off-highway vehicle, a financial responsibility card issued in respect of that vehicle.

(2) The driver of an off-highway vehicle that

(a) is involved in an accident with an unattended vehicle shall stop at the scene of the accident and shall forthwith or as soon thereafter as is practicable

(i) locate and notify the owner or person in charge of the unattended vehicle of the name and address of the driver and of the owner of the off-highway vehicle and, where the off-highway vehicle is a registered off-highway
Seizure of off-highway vehicle

127 A peace officer who on reasonable grounds believes that section 71, 119 or 120(2)(a) or (b) has been contravened may seize and detain any off-highway vehicle in respect of which the contravention was committed until the final disposition of any proceedings taken under this Act, and section 170 applies to that off-highway vehicle as if it were a vehicle to which section 169 applies.

Regulations

129 The Minister may make regulations

(a) governing the driving and operation of off-highway vehicles;
(b) exempting vehicles from being off-highway vehicles;

(c) respecting the use of helmets used in connection with the driving or operation of, riding in or on, or being towed by, off-highway vehicles;

(d) respecting standards to be met by helmets used in connection with the driving or operation of, riding in or on, or being towed by, off-highway vehicles;

(e) exempting or providing for the granting of exemptions from section 128.1(2) or the regulations made under clause (c) of persons or classes of persons driving, operating, riding in or on, or being towed by, off-highway vehicles;

(f) respecting the sale of helmets intended to be used in connection with the driving or operation of, riding in or on, or being towed by, off-highway vehicles.

Part 6.1
Transportation Network Companies

Transportation network companies

129.1 A transportation network company may only operate in accordance with the regulations under this Part.

Administrative penalties

129.2(1) Where the Registrar is of the opinion that a transportation network company has contravened or failed to comply with this Part or the regulations under this Part, the Registrar may, subject to the regulations, by notice in writing given to the transportation network company, require that transportation network company to pay to the Government an administrative penalty in an amount set out in the notice, not to exceed $50,000

(a) for the contravention or failure to comply, or

(b) for each day or part of a day that the contravention or failure to comply occurs or continues.

(2) A transportation network company who pays an administrative penalty in respect of a contravention or failure to comply shall not be charged under this Act with an offence in respect of that contravention or failure to comply.

(3) Where a transportation network company fails to pay an administrative penalty in accordance with a notice under subsection

RSA 2000 cT-6 s128; 2016 c21 s4
(1), the Government may recover the amount owing in respect of the penalty by an action in debt.

2016 c14 s9

Injunction

129.3 The Court of Queen’s Bench, on application by the Registrar, may grant an injunction enjoining any person from contravening or failing to comply with this Part or the regulations under this Part notwithstanding any penalty or sanction that may be provided by this Part or the regulations under this Part in respect of that contravention or failure to comply.

2016 c14 s9

Regulations

129.4 The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations respecting any matter concerning the operation of a transportation network company, including, without limitation, regulations

(a) defining any word used in this Part or the regulations under this Part and not defined in this Act;

(b) respecting requirements to be met by transportation network companies;

(c) respecting requirements to be met by the owners of vehicles used to perform services for transportation network companies;

(d) respecting requirements to be met by drivers performing services for transportation network companies;

(e) providing for and governing sanctions that may be imposed for contraventions or failures to comply with this Part or the regulations under this Part;

(f) respecting the form and contents of notices of administrative penalties for the purposes of section 129.2;

(g) prescribing the amounts, or the manner of determining the amounts, of the administrative penalties that may be imposed by the Registrar, not to exceed the maximum set out in section 129.2(1);

(h) prescribing limitation periods for the giving of notices of administrative penalties;

(i) respecting any other matter necessary for the administration of the system of administrative penalties;
(j) providing for any other matter that the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers advisable for carrying out the purpose and intent of this Part.

(a) the person drives the vehicle, or

(b) the person owns or otherwise has control over the vehicle and uses the vehicle for the provision of transportation in respect of that person’s undertaking, business, work or employment whether or not that person actually drives the vehicle.

Division 1
Operation of Commercial Vehicles

Use of commercial vehicles

131(1) Except as otherwise permitted under this Act, a person shall not do the following:

(a) in the case of a commercial vehicle that is used or intended to be used to transport goods or provide a service other than the transportation of passengers, operate the commercial vehicle on a highway unless the operation of that vehicle

(i) is carried out under the authority of a safety fitness certificate, or

(ii) is exempted from the requirement of a safety fitness certificate being issued in respect of the vehicle;

(b) in the case of a commercial vehicle that is a bus, operate the vehicle on a highway unless the operation of that vehicle
(i) is carried out under the authority of a safety fitness certificate and an operating authority for which an operating authority certificate is issued, or

(ii) is exempted

(A) in the case of a safety fitness certificate, from the requirements of a safety fitness certificate being issued in respect of the vehicle, and

(B) in the case of an operating authority certificate, from the requirements of an operating authority certificate being issued in respect of the vehicle;

(b.1) in the case of a commercial vehicle that is used or intended to be used to transport passengers and that is designed for carrying 10 or fewer persons, including the person driving the vehicle, operate the vehicle on a highway unless the operation of the vehicle

(i) is carried out under the authority of an operating authority certificate, or

(ii) is exempted from the requirements of an operating authority certificate being issued in respect of the vehicle;

(c) operate a commercial vehicle on a highway unless the operation of the vehicle is carried out

(i) within the requirements of this Part and the regulations made in respect of matters governed by this Part, and

(ii) where a certificate is required in respect of that vehicle, within the terms and conditions of the certificate granted in respect of that vehicle;

(d) operate a commercial vehicle in a manner that is prohibited under or does not comply with motor transport regulatory legislation;

(e) dump or unload on a highway or at a vehicle inspection station any goods being transported by a commercial vehicle unless otherwise authorized to do so by a peace officer, an employee of the Government who is under the administration of the Minister or a person performing services on behalf of or for the Minister;

(f) except where authorized by permit, operate a commercial vehicle on a highway when the weight of the vehicle exceeds the maximum allowable weight for that vehicle provided for under this Act;

(g) except where authorized by permit, operate a commercial vehicle on a highway when the weight of the vehicle exceeds the maximum weight specified on the certificate of registration issued in respect of that vehicle;

(h) operate a commercial vehicle on a highway when the weight of the vehicle exceeds the maximum allowable weight specified in a permit issued in respect of that vehicle;

(i) except where authorized by permit, operate a commercial vehicle on a bridge when the weight of the vehicle exceeds the maximum weight specified for that bridge;

(j) operate a commercial vehicle on a bridge when the weight of the vehicle exceeds the maximum weight specified in a permit issued in respect of that vehicle and that bridge;

(k) except where authorized by permit, operate a commercial vehicle on a highway that is subject to a road ban when the weight of the vehicle exceeds the maximum weight allowed for that vehicle under the road ban;

(l) operate a commercial vehicle on a highway that is subject to a road ban when the weight of the vehicle exceeds the maximum weight specified in a permit issued in respect of that vehicle and that road ban;

(m) operate a commercial vehicle on a highway if any portion or part of the vehicle exceeds the dimensions prescribed in a permit or under this Act;

(n) solicit or undertake to arrange the transportation of passengers or goods by means of a vehicle operated on a highway unless the person by, for or on behalf of whom the vehicle is operated is authorized under this Act to transport passengers or goods in accordance with the solicitation or undertaking.

(2) For the purposes of

(a) clauses (b) and (c) and subsection (1)(f) to (m), “vehicle” includes any goods carried on or in a vehicle;

(b) subsection (1)(k) and (l), “permit” means a permit issued to a person specifically allowing a vehicle to be operated on a highway that is subject to a road ban when the weight of the vehicle is in excess of that allowed under the road ban;
(c) subsection (1)(i), where a sign is erected indicating the maximum allowable weight that may be carried by a vehicle on a bridge, the weight indicated on the sign is the maximum weight specified for the bridge in respect of which the sign is erected.

Cancellation of certificate

132(1) In this section,

(a) “federal transportation legislation” means an enactment or a provision of an enactment of Canada that relates to transportation;

(b) “foreign transportation legislation” means an enactment or a provision of an enactment of

(i) the United States of America,

(ii) a state or territory of the United States of America,

(iii) Mexico, or

(iv) a state of Mexico,

that relates to transportation;

(c) “provincial transportation legislation” means an enactment or a provision of an enactment of a province or territory of Canada that relates to transportation;

(d) “transportation legislation” means motor transport regulatory legislation and includes, except where otherwise provided by regulations made under section 156,

(i) federal transportation legislation,

(ii) foreign transportation legislation,

(iii) provincial transportation legislation, and

(iv) any certificate, authorization, licence, permit or order that relates to transportation that is issued, granted, provided or otherwise made under any enactment referred to in subclauses (i) to (iii).

(2) Where with respect to the operation of a commercial vehicle the Registrar is of the opinion that

(a) a carrier, or
(b) a driver of the commercial vehicle who is employed or otherwise engaged by a carrier,

is not complying with or is contravening any transportation legislation, the Registrar may, on 15 days’ written notice to the carrier, suspend or cancel any certificate issued in respect of that carrier.

(3) Where a certificate is issued to a carrier that is a corporation and the corporation is dissolved, the Registrar may, on 15 days’ written notice to the person who in the opinion of the Registrar was the manager or a senior officer of the corporation, cancel that certificate.

(4) Where with respect to the operation of a commercial vehicle the Registrar is of the opinion that

(a) a carrier, or

(b) an exempted operator,

is not complying with or is contravening any transportation legislation, the Registrar may on 15 days’ written notice to the carrier or exempted operator, as the case may be, do one or more of the following:

(c) suspend or cancel the certificate of registration of the commercial vehicle;

(d) cause the licence plates issued in respect of the commercial vehicle to be seized and detained.

(5) Notwithstanding that a 15-day notice period is prescribed under subsection (2), if the Registrar is of the opinion that

(a) the safety of the driver or the public is in jeopardy with respect to the operation of a commercial vehicle, or

(b) the requirements relating to the insuring of the commercial vehicle have not been met, the Registrar may take action under subsection (2) effective at the time of giving the notice to the person in respect of whom the action is being taken.

(6) In giving a notice under subsection (2) or (3), the Registrar may give the notice subject to any terms or conditions that the Registrar considers appropriate in the circumstances.
(7) Where the Registrar suspends or cancels a certificate, the carrier shall, within the period of time set by the Registrar, deliver to the Registrar the document held by that carrier that evidences the issuing of the certificate.

(8) Where a carrier does not comply with subsection (7), a peace officer shall, when directed to do so by the Registrar, attend on the carrier and take possession of the document held by the carrier that evidences the issuing of the certificate.

(9) Where a certificate is or is to be suspended or cancelled pursuant to this section, that suspension or cancellation may take place without a hearing being conducted or an opportunity for representations being given, but

(a) a carrier or an exempted operator, as the case may be, may apply to the Registrar for a reconsideration of the Registrar’s decision to suspend or cancel the certificate within 30 days of service of notice of the decision, and

(b) the Registrar may grant interim relief in accordance with the regulations at any time after the giving of the notice respecting the suspension or cancellation, whether or not the suspension or cancellation is in effect.

(10) The Registrar may extend the period referred to in subsection (9) if in the opinion of the Registrar the circumstances in respect of the matter have substantially changed from the time of the decision.

(11) The Registrar may confirm, cancel or vary the Registrar’s decision.

(12) Once a decision or action of the Registrar has been reconsidered by the Registrar in respect of a matter referred to in subsection (9)(a), the Registrar may refuse to reconsider the decision again.

(13) A reconsideration commenced under this section does not, except as otherwise directed by the Registrar, stay the suspension or cancellation of the certificate.

Non-payment of fees or charges

133 When a fee or charge provided for pursuant to this Act, or a fee or charge provided for pursuant to the laws of a jurisdiction outside Alberta that is similar in nature to a fee or charge provided for pursuant to this Act,
(a) is imposed on a carrier but not paid, the Registrar may suspend or cancel any certificate or permit issued to that carrier, or

(b) is imposed on an exempted operator but not paid, the Registrar may suspend or cancel any permit issued to that exempted operator.

1999 cT-6.4 s133

Division 2
Compliance

Definition
134 In this Division, “commercial vehicle” includes any vehicle that a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe is a commercial vehicle and includes any goods being carried by the vehicle.

1999 cT-6.4 s134

Purposes of inspections
135 For the purposes of

(a) administering motor transport regulatory legislation,

(b) fostering compliance with motor transport regulatory legislation,

(c) fostering the safe operation of commercial vehicles, and

(d) preserving the physical condition of highways, a peace officer may carry out inspections under sections 136 and 139 and determine weight pursuant to Division 3.

1999 cT-6.4 s135

Inspections of commercial vehicles
136 A peace officer may carry out an inspection of a commercial vehicle and in respect of that inspection with respect to matters that come under this Act may do one or more of the following:

(a) require the driver of the vehicle to stop the vehicle for the purposes of inspecting the vehicle;

(b) enter the vehicle;

(c) inspect the vehicle;

(d) inspect

(i) any goods being carried by the vehicle, and
(ii) any record relating to any goods being carried by the vehicle;

(e) weigh the vehicle or any portion or part of a vehicle and any goods being carried by the vehicle or any portion or part of the vehicle;

(f) inspect any record relating to, issued or required under transportation legislation as defined in section 132(1);

(g) inspect any record, object or thing that relates to the vehicle, its operation or any goods being carried by the vehicle;

(h) make inquiries of any person who operates the vehicle being inspected under this section;

(i) perform or cause to be performed tests or examinations of or in respect of the vehicle or any goods being carried by the vehicle.

1999 cT-6.4 s136

Stopping for peace officer

137 For the purposes of enabling an inspection to take place under section 136 or weight to be determined pursuant to Division 3, a driver of a commercial vehicle shall,

(a) on being signalled or requested to do so by a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer, forthwith bring the vehicle to a stop, and

(b) if requested to do so by the peace officer, forthwith take the vehicle to a vehicle inspection station as directed by the peace officer.

1999 cT-6.4 s137

Vehicle inspection stations

138 When a vehicle inspection station sign indicates that the vehicle inspection station is in operation and directs that a commercial vehicle or class of commercial vehicles is to be taken to the vehicle inspection station, the driver of a vehicle that is subject to that direction shall, for purposes of enabling an inspection to take place under section 136,

(a) forthwith take the vehicle to the vehicle inspection station, and

(b) subject to any directions given by the person operating the vehicle inspection station,

(i) permit an inspection to take place, and
(ii) remain at the vehicle inspection station until the driver is informed by the person operating the vehicle inspection station that the inspection has been completed.

1999 cT-6.4 s139

Inspections of transportation business premises

139(1) In this section,

(a) “safety services” means inspections, evaluations, repairs and other services provided by persons licensed under this Act to carry out inspections of commercial vehicles;

(b) “transportation business” means any undertaking by a carrier or the holder of a permit under which

(i) goods are received, shipped or transported,

(ii) commercial vehicles are operated, or

(iii) persons are transported;

(c) “transportation business premises” means premises that are used with respect to

(i) the operation of a commercial vehicle by a carrier or the holder of a permit,

(ii) the operation of a transportation business, or

(iii) the provision of safety services.

(2) A peace officer may do any one or more of the following:

(a) during any time that any transportation business premises are open to the public or are in use, enter and inspect

(i) those premises, and

(ii) any commercial vehicle that is at the time of inspection located at or in the premises;

(b) inspect any records, objects or things that relate to

(i) the provision of safety services in respect of a commercial vehicle, or

(ii) the operation of a transportation business;

(c) make inquiries of any person who
(i) drives a commercial vehicle that is operated by a carrier or the holder of a permit, or

(ii) is employed in the transportation business or the provision of safety services;

(d) make inquiries of any carrier or holder of a permit with respect to the operation of a commercial vehicle.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(a), a peace officer shall not enter a private residence without the permission of an adult resident of that residence.

Production of documents

140(1) A person who is subject to an inspection under section 136 or 139 shall, when requested to do so by a peace officer, forthwith produce for inspection any record, object or thing that may be inspected under section 136 or 139.

(2) A peace officer may remove the record, object or thing being inspected and make copies or take photographs of it.

(3) Where a peace officer removes a record, object or thing under subsection (2), the peace officer

(a) may retain possession of the record, object or thing only for the period of time that is reasonably required to make copies or take photographs of it, and

(b) shall, on the copies being made or photographs taken, return the record, object or thing to the person from whom it was taken.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), when, on inspecting a record, object or thing, a peace officer is of the opinion that for the purposes of this Part the peace officer must retain possession of the record, object or thing for a longer period of time than that permitted under subsection (3), the peace officer may retain possession of the record, object or thing for a longer period of time if the peace officer gives to the person from whom the record, object or thing was taken a receipt for it.

(5) Where a peace officer retains possession of a record, object or thing pursuant to subsection (4), the peace officer shall, once the record, object or thing has served the purposes for which it was retained, forthwith return the record, object or thing to the person from whom it was taken.
(6) If a peace officer retains possession of a record, object or thing under subsection (4), the peace officer shall, where requested to do so by the person from whom the record, object or thing was taken and if practicable to do so, provide to that person a copy or a photograph of that record, object or thing.

1999 cT-6.4 s140

Detention of vehicle

141(1) If a peace officer is of the opinion that in order

(a) to determine or confirm the ownership of a commercial vehicle,

(b) to determine whether a person who is a carrier or an exempted operator is complying with motor transport regulatory legislation,

(c) to determine whether a commercial vehicle meets the requirements of motor transport regulatory legislation, or

(d) to determine whether a commercial vehicle is being operated in accordance with motor transport regulatory legislation, it is necessary to detain the vehicle, the peace officer may, subject to section 142, detain the vehicle for not more than 72 hours or such longer period that is reasonable under the circumstances.

(2) Where a commercial vehicle is detained, a peace officer may

(a) cause the vehicle to be removed to and stored in a suitable place, and

(b) carry out any of those functions that may be carried out under sections 136, 139 and 140.

1999 cT-6.4 s141

Review by Court

142(1) Where a peace officer is unable to detain a commercial vehicle under section 141, the peace officer may apply to the Court of Queen’s Bench for an order directing that the vehicle be seized for the purposes of section 141.

(2) Where a peace officer wishes to detain a commercial vehicle under section 141 for a longer period of time than that permitted under section 141, the peace officer may apply to the Court of Queen’s Bench for an order authorizing the vehicle to be detained for a longer period of time.

(3) Where a commercial vehicle is detained under section 141, the owner or driver of the vehicle may apply to the Court of Queen’s Bench for an order directing that the detained vehicle be released to the owner or the driver, as the case may be.

(4) Repealed 2009 c53 s179.

(5) On the filing of an application with the clerk of the Court of Queen’s Bench, the Court may, if it considers it necessary in the circumstances, hear an interim application on 2 days’ notice, or any shorter period of time that the Court may direct, and make an interim order granting any relief that the Court considers appropriate pending the determination of the application.

(6) An interim application under subsection (5) may be made ex parte if the Court considers it appropriate in the circumstances.

(7) On hearing an application, the Court may do one or more of the following:

(a) in the case of an application made under subsection (1), direct that the commercial vehicle be seized;

(b) in the case of an application made under subsection (2),
   (i) direct that the commercial vehicle be detained for a longer period of time, and
   (ii) set out the period of time for which the commercial vehicle may be detained;

(c) in the case of an application made under subsection (3),
   direct that a commercial vehicle be released from detention;

(d) in the case where a commercial vehicle is detained under section 141 or is to be detained pursuant to a seizure referred to in clause (a),
   (i) give directions as to where and how the vehicle shall be seized or detained, as the case may be;
   (ii) direct that the vehicle be released subject to security being provided to the Government in the form and an amount determined by the Court;
   (iii) give directions as to the disposition of the security given;

(e) dismiss the application;
(f) make the order subject to any terms or conditions that the Court considers appropriate in the circumstances;

(g) award costs in respect of the matter.

Administrative penalties

143(1) In this section,

(a) “regulated person” means

(i) a carrier;

(ii) an exempted operator;

(iii) a driver of a commercial vehicle;

(iv) a person engaged in carrying out safety services as defined in section 139;

(v) a holder of a permit issued in respect of the operation of a commercial vehicle;

(vi) a person engaged in carrying out inspections, evaluations, repairs and other services provided by persons licensed under this Act to carry out inspections of motor vehicles, whether or not the vehicles are commercial vehicles;

(vii) a driver examiner;

(viii) a driving instructor;

(ix) the operator of a driver training school;

(b) “regulatory legislation” means

(i) transportation legislation as defined in section 132(1), and

(ii) any regulation under this Act that provides for testing, inspecting, evaluating, repairing and providing similar services, or any one or more of those functions, in respect of motor vehicles, whether or not the vehicles are commercial vehicles.

(2) Where the Registrar is of the opinion that a regulated person has failed to comply with regulatory legislation, the Registrar may, subject to the regulations, by notice in writing given to the regulated person, require that regulated person to pay to the Government an administrative penalty in an amount set out in the notice, not to exceed $10 000

(a) for the failure to comply, or

(b) for each day or part of a day that the failure to comply occurs or continues.

(3) A regulated person who pays an administrative penalty in respect of a failure to comply may not be charged under this Act with an offence in respect of that failure to comply.

(4) Where a regulated person fails to pay an administrative penalty in accordance with a notice under subsection (2), the Government may recover the amount owing in respect of the penalty by an action in debt.

(5) The Provincial Administrative Penalties Act does not apply to a failure by a regulated person to comply with regulatory legislation.

Vicarious liability

144(1) In this section, “related function” means

(a) the loading of goods on or into a commercial vehicle;

(b) the adjusting or rearranging of goods being carried by a commercial vehicle;

(c) the unloading or removal of goods from a commercial vehicle;

(d) the provision of documentation or records, other than motor vehicle documents, with respect to the operation of a commercial vehicle;

(e) the giving of directions, directives, instructions or orders respecting the operation of the commercial vehicle.

(2) With respect to a commercial vehicle, where a person other than the carrier responsible for the commercial vehicle carries out a related function in respect of that commercial vehicle and as a result of carrying out that related function this Act is not complied with, that person and the carrier are jointly and severally liable for that non-compliance.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person referred to in subsection (2) who is not the carrier if that person establishes to the satisfaction of the court that the non-compliance occurred without the consent, expressed or implied, of that person.

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply to a carrier if that carrier establishes to the satisfaction of the court that the non-compliance occurred without the consent, expressed or implied, of that carrier.

Division 3
Weight

Weighing of vehicle

145 Where a commercial vehicle is stopped by a peace officer for the purpose of determining the weight of or being carried on a commercial vehicle, the driver of the commercial vehicle shall, if directed to do so by the peace officer, forthwith take the vehicle as directed by the peace officer to a vehicle inspection station or other weigh scale that is capable of measuring the weight of the vehicle on a stationary scale that is certified under the Weights and Measures Act (Canada).

1999 cT-6.4 s145

Checking of weight by portable scales, etc.

146(1) When a peace officer has reason to believe that the weight of or carried on a commercial vehicle exceeds the weight permitted under this Act or a permit, the peace officer may require the driver of the vehicle to allow the weight to be measured by means of a portable scale.

(2) When a portable scale is used to measure weight under subsection (1), the peace officer shall advise the driver of the vehicle that the driver has the right to take the vehicle forthwith to a vehicle inspection station or other weigh scale that is capable of measuring the weight of the vehicle on a stationary scale that is certified under the Weights and Measures Act (Canada).

1999 cT-6.4 s146

No alteration or redistribution of weight

147 From the time that a driver

(a) is directed by a peace officer under section 145 to take a commercial vehicle to a vehicle inspection station or a stationary scale, or

(b) elects to exercise the right provided for under section 146(2), whichever is the earlier, that driver shall ensure that no alteration in or redistribution of the weight of or on the vehicle occurs from that time until after the weight of the vehicle is finished being measured or a peace officer otherwise permits the alteration in or redistribution of the weight.

1999 cT-6.4 s147

Reduction of weight

148(1) When a peace officer determines that the weight of or carried on a commercial vehicle exceeds the weight permitted under this Act or a permit, the peace officer may require the driver of the vehicle to stop the vehicle in a suitable place and remain there until a sufficient portion of the goods being carried by the vehicle are redistributed or removed, as the case requires, to reduce weight so that the weight of or carried on the vehicle complies with that permitted under this Act or a permit.

(2) Where goods or any portion of the goods being carried are redistributed or removed under subsection (1), the handling and storage, or either of those functions, as the case may be, of the goods or any portion of the goods remains the responsibility of the driver of the vehicle and the owner of the vehicle and, in the case where the carrier is not the owner of the vehicle, the carrier.

1999 cT-6.4 s148

Penalty re excess weight

149 Where a person commits a contravention by reason of that person contravening or failing to comply with

(a) section 131,

(b) a regulation made under this Act, or

(c) a permit

with respect to the maximum weight of or that may be carried by or on a commercial vehicle, that person is liable to a penalty as prescribed by regulation.

Certificates of weight

150(1) In a proceeding under this Act or a bylaw, a certificate or a statement of accuracy

(a) purporting to be issued and signed by an inspector under the Weights and Measures Act (Canada), and

(b) bearing a date that is not more than one year before or after the day on which the contravention was charged,
shall be admitted in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the facts stated in the certificate or the statement of accuracy without proof of the signature or official character of the person who signed the certificate or the statement of accuracy.

(2) A certificate purporting to be signed by a peace officer

(a) stating that the peace officer weighed a vehicle on a scale, and

(b) setting out either

(i) the gross weight of the vehicle or the vehicle and the goods being carried by the vehicle, or

(ii) the gross weight carried on or by any portion, part, axle, axle group or tire of the vehicle where that weight is transferred to the road through any point or points of contact of the vehicle with the road,

shall be admitted in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the facts stated in the certificate without proof of the signature or official character of the person who signed the certificate if the scale is inspected under the Weights and Measures Act (Canada) and a certificate described in subsection (1) is issued in respect of the scale.

(3) In a proceeding under this Act or a bylaw, a certificate purporting to be signed by a peace officer or a person authorized by the Registrar

(a) stating that the weight of a vehicle was measured on a portable scale or other scale,

(b) setting out either

(i) the gross weight of the vehicle or the vehicle and the goods being carried by the vehicle, or

(ii) the gross weight carried on or by any portion, part, axle, axle group or tire of the vehicle where that weight is transferred to the road through any point or points of contact of the vehicle with the road,

and

(c) stating that the driver of the vehicle agreed to accept the weight determined as being accurate,
shall be admitted in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the facts stated in the certificate without proof of the signature or official character of the person who signed the certificate.

Establishment of weights for vehicles

151 The Minister may make regulations in respect of commercial vehicles

(a) governing any matter with respect to the weight that may be carried on a highway, including any bridge that forms part of a highway, by or on

(i) a commercial vehicle;

(ii) an axle or an axle group of a commercial vehicle;

(iii) a tire or a group or combination of tires of a commercial vehicle;

(iv) any other portion or part of a commercial vehicle;

(b) governing any matter with respect to

(i) road bans and their establishment,

(ii) the criteria under which road bans may be established,

(iii) delegating the authority to establish road bans, and

(iv) exempting the establishment of road bans from the operation of the Regulations Act;

(c) prescribing and governing any matter with respect to or the imposition of penalties or a graduated series of penalties in respect of vehicles that are carrying weight that is in excess of that permitted under this Act or a permit.

1999 cT-6.4 s151

Municipalities re weight for vehicles

152(1) Subject to this Act and the Dangerous Goods Transportation and Handling Act, a council of a municipality may, for the physical preservation of a highway under its direction, control and management, including any bridge that forms part of that highway, make bylaws restricting the weight of a commercial vehicle or a commercial vehicle and any goods being carried by the vehicle, to weight that is less than the weight that may be borne under this Act.

(2) Where there is a conflict between

(a) a bylaw made under subsection (1), and

(b) a provision of this Act or a permit,

this Act or the permit, as the case may be, prevails.

(3) The council of a municipality may by bylaw delegate to an employee of the municipality or to a committee established by the council the power to impose road bans.

(4) Where under subsection (1) a council of a municipality imposes a prohibition, limitation, condition or restriction in respect of a highway, the council shall cause signs to be erected along the highway as the council considers necessary to notify persons using commercial vehicles on the highway of the prohibition, limitation, condition or restriction.

(5) Where, with respect to commercial vehicles,

(a) a penalty is provided by bylaw in respect of overweight vehicles, and

(b) the penalty is greater than the penalty provided for under this Act in respect of overweight vehicles for a similar matter, the penalty provided for under this Act in respect of overweight vehicles shall apply as if it had been provided for under the bylaw.

(6) With respect to an improvement district or a special area,

(a) where a council of a municipality is empowered to make bylaws under subsection (1),

(i) the Minister, in the case of an improvement district, or

(ii) the Minister responsible for the Special Areas Act, in the case of a special area, may make regulations in respect of the matters for which a council may make bylaws under subsection (1);

(b) a regulation made under this section shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as if it were a bylaw made under this Act;
(c) in the case of an improvement district, the Minister may in writing delegate to an employee of the Government the power to make regulations for the purposes of imposing and governing road bans under subsection (1);

(d) in the case of a special area, the Minister responsible for the Special Areas Act may in writing delegate to the Minister or an employee of the Government or authorize the Minister to delegate to an employee of the Government, the power to make regulations for the purposes of imposing or governing road bans under subsection (1).

Division 4

General Matters

Restriction on municipality

153(1) The council of a municipality shall not impose a fee or charge in respect of the operation of a commercial vehicle by a person who is a carrier, a holder of a permit or an exempted operator, other than

(a) a business tax, where the person maintains an office within the boundaries of the municipality, or

(b) a property tax, where a municipality is authorized to impose a property tax.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the imposition of a fee or charge by a council of an urban area on a person who is a carrier, a holder of a permit or an exempted operator carrying on business within the limits of the urban area if the major portion of that person’s revenue is obtained within the boundaries of that urban area.

1999 cT-6.4 s153

Penalty re contravention

154(1) A person who commits a contravention referred to in section 157 by reason of the contravention of or failure to comply with a provision of this Part is liable

(a) where the person is found guilty of the contravention, to a fine of not more than $25 000, and

(b) where a notice of administrative penalty is issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of the contravention, to a fine as prescribed under that Act.
(2) A person who commits a contravention referred to in section 157 by reason of the contravention of or failure to comply with a provision of this Part is not liable to imprisonment in respect of that contravention.

(3) The Minister may make regulations governing fines referred to in subsection (1)(a), including setting a maximum or minimum amount for a fine, but shall not increase a fine to an amount greater than the maximum amount prescribed in subsection (1)(a).

(4) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply where a penalty is otherwise prescribed under this Part or the regulations made in respect of matters coming under this Part.

Regulations

156 The Minister may make regulations

(a) establishing and governing with respect to carriers a program under which persons are assessed defaults or demerit points for a contravention of or failure to comply with transportation legislation as defined in section 132(1);
(b) providing for and governing sanctions that may be imposed in respect of a program referred to in clause (a);

(b.1) establishing and governing with respect to carriers and other persons who engage in, have engaged in or may become engaged in the operation of commercial vehicles a program under which a profile or other record is kept in respect of safety matters and matters relating to compliance or the failure to comply with transportation legislation as defined in section 132(1);

(b.2) providing for and governing sanctions that may be imposed in respect of a program referred to in clause (b.1);

(b.3) governing any matter with respect to the safe operation of commercial vehicles, including minimum performance standards and safety management practices;

(c) providing for a person who does not own a commercial vehicle or a class or type of commercial vehicle but who, as an integral part of that person’s business, uses the services of a commercial vehicle to be treated under this Act as if that person were the owner of that commercial vehicle;

(d) exempting or providing for the granting of an exemption of the operation of commercial vehicles from the requirement of a certificate;

(e) governing any matter with respect to the operation of and the provision of services using commercial vehicles for commercial and business purposes;

(f) governing any matter with respect to driving and the physical operation of a commercial vehicle;

(g) governing any matter with respect to bills of lading and the conditions of carriage of and the insuring of goods and passengers being transported by commercial vehicles and the provision of bonds or other security respecting the operation of commercial vehicles;

(h) governing signage on or in respect of commercial vehicles;

(i) prescribing and governing classes or types of carriers;

(j) for the purposes of this Part,

(i) excluding an enactment or a provision of an enactment from the definition of transportation legislation;
(ii) providing that an enactment or a provision of an enactment may only be included in the definition of transportation legislation subject to any directions, terms, conditions or modifications established or otherwise provided for under the regulations or by the Minister;

(j.1) respecting interim relief that may be granted under section 132(9);

(k) for the purposes of section 143, respecting the form and contents of notices relating to administrative penalties;

(l) prescribing the amounts, or the manner of determining the amounts, of the administrative penalties that may be imposed by the Registrar, not to exceed $10 000 for each contravention;

(m) prescribing limitation periods for the giving of notices of administrative penalties;

(n) respecting any other matter necessary for the administration of the system of administrative penalties;

(o) designating a commercial vehicle, or a class of commercial vehicles, as a bus.

Part 8
Enforcement, Rights, Remedies and Obligations

Division 1
Contraventions

Offences

157(1) A person commits a contravention who contravenes or fails to comply with one or more of the following:

(a) section 51, 52(1), 53, 54(1), 61(2), 65, 66(5), 68(2), 69(1), 69(2), 69(3), 69(4), 69(5), 69(6), 70, 71, 76(1), 80, 88, 88.01, 88.02, 88.03, 88.1, 94(2), 94.1(1), 111, 115(2), 115.1, 115.2, 115.3, 115.4, 119(1), 120(2), 120(3), 121, 123(2), 123(3), 126, 128.1(2), 131(1), 137, 138, 140(1), 145, 147, 166(2), 166(3), 166(4), 173(5), 176(2), 183 or 188;

(b) a regulation made under this statute where the regulation specifies that it is a contravention to contravene or fail to comply with the regulation;
(c) a certificate as defined in section 130(1)(c);

(d) an order made under section 120(4);

(e) a permit;

(f) any terms or conditions to which a certificate as defined in section 130(1)(c) or a permit is subject.

(1.1) A notice of administrative penalty under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act may not be issued in respect of a contravention of section 70 or 94.1(1).

(1.2) An information may not be laid or a summons or violation ticket issued under the Provincial Offences Procedure Act in respect of a contravention of section 88, 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 or 88.1.

(1.3) An information may not be laid or a summons or violation ticket issued under the Provincial Offences Procedure Act and a notice of administrative penalty under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act may not be issued in respect of a failure to comply by a regulated person as defined in section 143(1)(a) with regulatory legislation as defined in section 143(1)(b).

(2) When an information is laid or a summons or a violation ticket is issued by a person in respect of a contravention referred to in subsection (1), that person shall on the information, summons or violation ticket, as the case may be, refer

(a) to the provision that the accused is alleged to have contravened or failed to comply with, and

(b) in the case of a contravention with respect to section 115(2)(a), to the provision of the Rules of the Road or other regulations that the accused is alleged to have contravened or failed to comply with.

(3) Where a person is alleged to have contravened or failed to comply with a provision of this statute by reason that the person contravened or failed to comply with a provision of a regulation, it is sufficient, for the purposes of subsection (2), not to refer to that provision of this statute but instead only

(a) to refer to the provision of the regulation, and

(b) to describe in words the nature of the contravention under the regulation.
(4) When a notice of administrative penalty is issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of a contravention referred to in subsection (1), the person shall on the notice of administrative penalty provide the content required by that Act or by regulations under this Act.

(5) Where an information is laid or a summons or violation ticket is issued in respect of a contravention referred to in subsection (1), a notice of administrative penalty may not be issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of the same contravention.

(6) Where a notice of administrative penalty is issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of a contravention referred to in subsection (1), an information may not be laid and a summons or violation ticket may not be issued in respect of the same contravention.

Punishment

158(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, a person who is guilty of an offence under this Act for which a penalty is not otherwise provided is liable to a fine or other punishment as provided for under the Provincial Offences Procedure Act.

(1.1) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, a person who commits a contravention to which the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act applies for which a penalty is not otherwise provided is liable to a fine or other administrative penalty as provided for under that Act.

(2) A person who is guilty of an offence under section 52(1)(c), 65(1)(h) or (2) or 115(2)(g) or (h) is liable to a fine of not less than $500 and not more than $25 000 and in default of payment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months without the option of a fine.

(3) A person who is guilty of an offence under section 51(i) is liable to a fine of not less than $300 and not more than $2000 and in default of payment to imprisonment for a term of not less than 14 days and not more than 6 months.

(4) A person who is guilty of an offence under section 176 is liable to a fine of not less than $200 and in default of payment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 months.
Onus

159 In a proceeding in respect of a contravention,

(a) in the case of a contravention of or failure to comply with section 51, the onus is on the person alleged to have contravened or failed to comply with section 51 to show that, at the time of the contravention or failure to comply, the person held a subsisting operator’s licence;

(b) in the case of a contravention of or failure to comply with section 52(1)(h) or 54, the onus is on the person alleged to have contravened or failed to comply with section 52(1)(h) or 54 to show that, at the time of the contravention or failure to comply, the vehicle was an insured motor vehicle;

(c) in the case of a contravention of or failure to comply with section 167, the onus is on the person alleged to have contravened or failed to comply with section 167 to show that, at the time of the contravention or failure to comply, the person held subsisting insurance at the time that the person was required to produce a financial responsibility card.

Owner liable

160(1) If a vehicle is involved in a contravention referred to in section 157 or a bylaw, the owner of that vehicle has committed a contravention.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the owner of the vehicle satisfies

(a) the court, where the contravention is an offence to which the Provincial Offences Procedure Act applies, or

(b) an adjudicator under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act where the contravention is a contravention to which that Act applies that, at the time that the vehicle was involved in a contravention referred to in section 157 or a bylaw,

(c) in the case of a vehicle that was in motion,

(i) the owner of the vehicle was not driving the vehicle, and

(ii) no other person was driving the vehicle with the owner’s expressed or implied consent,

and

(d) in the case of a vehicle that was parked,
(i) the owner did not park the vehicle, and

(ii) no other person parked the vehicle with the owner’s expressed or implied consent.

(3) An owner who has committed a contravention under this section is not liable to imprisonment in respect of that contravention or in respect of a default of a fine imposed in respect of that contravention.

Dismissal of charge

161 Where a person is charged with an offence under this Act or a bylaw, the court trying the case may dismiss the charge if the person satisfies the court that the offence could not have been avoided by the exercise of reasonable care or precaution.

1999 cT-6.4 s161

162(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), fines and penalties imposed under this Act belong to the Crown in right of Alberta.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), fines and penalties imposed under this Act in respect of contraventions occurring in a municipality for which policing services are required to be provided under section 4(5) or (6) of the Police Act belong to the municipality that is required to provide the policing services.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), fines and penalties imposed under this Act in respect of contraventions for which informations are laid or violation tickets are issued under the Provincial Offences Procedure Act or notices of administrative penalty are issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act by peace officers employed by a municipality belong to that municipality.

(4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to fines imposed for contraventions of sections 88.01, 88.02, 88.03 or 88.1.

Evidence in Proceedings

Certificates and affidavits

163(0.1) In this section, “recording device” means a device that is installed by the manufacturer of a motor vehicle as part of the original vehicle equipment, or by or at the request of the owner of a motor vehicle, that is capable of recording or transmitting information regarding any one or more of the following:
(a) the speed at which the motor vehicle is travelling;
(b) the direction in which the motor vehicle is travelling;
(c) a history of where the motor vehicle has travelled;
(d) steering performance;
(e) brake performance, including, but not limited to, whether brakes were applied before a collision;
(f) whether the driver was wearing a complete seatbelt assembly;
(g) the number of hours a commercial vehicle has been operating;
(h) a collision in which the motor vehicle has been involved.

(1) In any proceeding under this Act or a bylaw, a certificate

(a) stating the result of

(i) a test of

(A) the speedometer of a vehicle identified in the certificate,
(B) a device identified in the certificate and used for determining the accuracy of a radar device, or
(C) any other device identified in the certificate and used for or in connection with establishing the speed of vehicles,

or

(ii) a test of an intersection safety device,

(b) bearing a date on it that is not more than,

(i) in the case of a device referred to in clause (a)(i)(B), one year before or after the day on which the offence was charged or in respect of which contravention a notice of administrative penalty was issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act,

(ii) in the case of a speedometer or other device used for or in connection with establishing the speed of vehicles, 180 days before or after the day on which the offence was charged or in respect of which contravention a notice of administrative penalty was issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act, or

(iii) in the case of an intersection safety device, 30 days before or after the day on which the offence was charged or in respect of which contravention a notice of administrative penalty was issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act,

and

(c) purporting to be signed by a tester who is appointed under this Act to test devices of the type stated in the certificate to have been tested,

shall be admitted in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the facts stated in the certificate without proof of the signature or appointment as a tester of the person signing the certificate.

(2) In any proceeding under this Act or a bylaw, a certificate purporting to be signed by a meteorologist and stating the time of sunrise or the time of sunset in any area on any day shall be admitted in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the facts stated in the certificate without proof of the signature or qualifications of the person signing the certificate.

(3) In any proceedings under which a person is charged with, or a notice of administrative penalty is issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act with respect to, a contravention of a provision of this Act or the regulations relating to the speed at which the motor vehicle was travelling or red lights shown at an intersection by a traffic control signal,

(a) the evidence of any person involved in the installation, operation or use of an intersection safety device and the issuance of a violation ticket, or a notice of administrative penalty under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act, in respect of that failure to comply may be given by affidavit;

(b) an affidavit referred to in clause (a) is proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the facts stated in the affidavit;

(c) where the contravention is deemed by section 2(2) of the Provincial Offences Procedures Act to be an offence under this Act and an offence to which that Act applies,
(i) a copy of an affidavit referred to in clause (a) must be served on the defendant by ordinary mail at that person’s latest address, as indicated on the records of the Registrar, at least 14 days before the day of the hearing;

(ii) the defendant may, with the permission of the court, require the attendance of any person giving evidence by affidavit pursuant to clause (a) for the purpose of cross-examination.

(4) In any proceedings in respect of a charge, or a notice of administrative penalty issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act, that a person has failed to comply with this Act,

(a) the evidence of any person involved in the manufacture, installation or operation of, or analysis or interpretation of data collected, reported or transmitted by, a recording device located in a motor vehicle may be given by affidavit;

(b) an affidavit referred to in clause (a) is proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the facts stated in the affidavit;

(c) where the contravention is deemed by section 2(2) of the Provincial Offences Procedures Act to be an offence under this Act and an offence to which that Act applies,

(i) a copy of an affidavit referred to in clause (a) must be served on the defendant by ordinary mail at that person’s latest address, as indicated on the records of the Registrar, at least 14 days before the day of the hearing;

(ii) the defendant may, with the permission of the court, require the attendance of any person giving evidence by affidavit pursuant to clause (a) for the purpose of cross-examination.

Traffic control device

164(1) In any proceeding under this Act or a bylaw, the existence of a traffic control device is proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the device was properly designated and erected by the proper authority without other or further proof.
(2) For the purposes of this Act or a bylaw, a traffic sign or device marked or erected pursuant to regulations under the Government Property Traffic Act (Canada) or the National Parks Act (Canada) is deemed to be a traffic control device as defined in this Act and to have been erected under the authority of this Act.

Division 3
Peace Officers

Stopping for peace officer

166(1) For the purposes of administering and enforcing this Act or a bylaw, a peace officer may

(a) with respect to a vehicle,

(i) signal or direct a driver of a vehicle to stop the vehicle, and

(ii) request information from the driver of the vehicle and any passengers in the vehicle,

and
(b) with respect to a pedestrian using or located on a highway, request information from that pedestrian.

(2) When signalled or directed to stop by a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer, a driver of a vehicle shall

(a) forthwith bring the vehicle to a stop,

(b) forthwith furnish to the peace officer any information respecting the driver or the vehicle that the peace officer requires, and

(c) remain stopped until permitted by the peace officer to leave.

(3) At the request of a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer, a passenger in a vehicle who is acting in a manner that is contrary to this Act or a bylaw shall forthwith furnish to the peace officer the passenger’s name and address.

(4) At the request of a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer, a pedestrian using or located on a highway in a manner contrary to this Act or a bylaw shall forthwith furnish to the peace officer the pedestrian’s name and address.

1999 cT-6.4 s166

Production of documents

167(1) On the request of a peace officer, a person driving or otherwise having the care or control of a motor vehicle or trailer shall produce to the peace officer for inspection the following documents as requested by the peace officer:

(a) the person’s subsisting operator’s licence;

(b) the subsisting certificate of registration issued in respect of the motor vehicle and any trailer attached to the motor vehicle and, in the case of a vehicle in a prescribed class of commercial vehicles, either the subsisting certificate of registration or a copy of the certificate of registration;

(c) the subsisting financial responsibility card issued in respect of that motor vehicle;

(d) the customs permit issued in respect of the motor vehicle where a customs permit has been obtained in respect of the motor vehicle’s entry into Canada.

(2) On the request of a peace officer a person who is engaged in supervising a student driver in a motor vehicle shall produce to the peace officer for inspection that person’s operator’s licence.
(3) Where a peace officer makes a request under subsection (1)(d), the peace officer shall allow the person to whom the request was made reasonable time within which to produce the document.

(4) Where a peace officer makes a request under subsection (1)(b) or (c), the peace officer shall allow the person to whom the request was made reasonable time within which to produce the document issued in respect of the vehicle if the vehicle

(a) is being operated

(i) with dealer’s licence plates,

(ii) by an appraiser who has custody of the vehicle for the purpose of appraising it, or

(iii) by a person who has custody of the vehicle for the purpose of repairing it,

or

(b) is a newly acquired vehicle being operated with licence plates as allowed under the regulations.

(5) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply in respect of a motor vehicle that

(a) is registered in a jurisdiction other than Alberta,

(b) is registered only as an antique motor vehicle, or

(c) is owned by the Crown.

(6) If a person produces to a peace officer a document under this section that is illegible, mutilated, defaced or altered, the peace officer may request that person to produce to a peace officer within a reasonable time a new document or duplicate of the document issued under this Act.

(7) A person who fails to produce to a peace officer a document as requested under subsection (1), (2) or (6) commits a contravention.

(8) A person driving a motor vehicle commits a contravention and is liable to the penalty and any other sanction provided for under section 54(4) to (7) if, when requested to produce a financial responsibility card under subsection (1), the person produces

(a) a document that purports to be a financial responsibility card but that was not issued pursuant to Part 7 of the Insurance Act, or
(b) a financial responsibility card relating to an insurance policy that is not in force or is otherwise invalid at the time of production.

(9) Subsection (8)(b) does not apply where the person also produces the subsisting financial responsibility card issued in respect of the motor vehicle.

Seizure of licence plates

168(1) If a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe

(a) that a vehicle is displaying licence plates that

(i) were not issued for that vehicle, or

(ii) were obtained by false pretences,

or

(b) that a vehicle is located on a highway in contravention of section 54, the peace officer may seize and take possession of the licence plates displayed on that vehicle.

(2) When licence plates are seized under subsection (1)(a) they may be retained by the peace officer until the facts concerning the issue of those licence plates have been determined or, if an information is laid, until the final disposition of the matter.

(3) When licence plates are seized under subsection (1)(b), they may be retained by the peace officer until the owner of the vehicle is in compliance with the requirements of this Act respecting the insuring of the vehicle.

(4) If licence plates are not returned to the Registrar pursuant to a request made under this Act, a peace officer on the direction of the Registrar may seize those licence plates and return them to the Registrar.

Arrest without warrant

169(1) A peace officer may arrest a person without warrant if the peace officer, on reasonable grounds, believes that

(a) the person has committed a contravention in respect of any of the provisions set out in subsection (2), and

(b) the person
(i) will continue or repeat that contravention if not arrested, or

(ii) has provided the peace officer with inadequate or questionable information as to the person’s identification.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the following are the provisions for which a person may be arrested without a warrant:

(a) sections 51(a) and 94 relating to the operation of a motor vehicle without having a subsisting operator’s licence;

(b) section 52(1)(a) and (d) relating to the operation of a motor vehicle without having a subsisting certificate of registration;

(c) section 53(1)(b) relating to the displaying of a licence plate other than one authorized under this Act;

(d) section 61 relating to the defacing of licence plates;

(e) section 68(2)(a) relating to possession of a motor vehicle or serially numbered part,

   (i) where a serial number or other authorized identifying number or mark is not displayed in the space provided for displaying that identification by the manufacturer, or

   (ii) where the serial number has been removed, defaced, covered, altered or destroyed or become illegible;

(f) section 69 relating to the duties of a driver of a vehicle at the scene of an accident;

(g) section 115(2)(b) relating to driving a motor vehicle carelessly;

(h) section 115(2) relating to driving a motor vehicle in a race or on a bet or wager;

(i) section 115(2) and the Rules of the Road relating to the speed of motor vehicles;

(j) section 120(2)(a) relating to driving an off-highway vehicle carelessly;

(k) section 123(2) relating to the requirement that drivers of off-highway vehicles stop when so requested by a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer;
(l) section 123(3) relating to the requirement that a passenger in or on an off-highway vehicle furnish to a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer the passenger’s name and address when so requested by the peace officer;

(m) section 126 relating to the duties of a driver of an off-highway vehicle at the scene of an accident;

(n) section 166(2) relating to the requirement that drivers of motor vehicles stop when so requested by a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer;

(o) section 166(3) relating to the requirement that a passenger in a motor vehicle furnish to a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer the passenger’s name and address when so requested by the peace officer;

(p) section 166(4) relating to the requirement that a pedestrian furnish to a peace officer who is readily identifiable as a peace officer the pedestrian’s name and address when so required by the peace officer;

(q) where designated by the regulations, the provisions of the regulations relating to tampering with motor vehicles;

(r) where designated by the regulations, the provisions of the regulations relating to the defacement of signs.

(3) Where a peace officer arrests a person under this section, the peace officer may not issue a notice of administrative penalty under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of the contravention.

RSA 2000 cT-6 s169;2013 c19 s2(19);2020 cP-30.8 s44(59)

Seizure of vehicle

170(1) In this section, “vehicle” includes any contents in the vehicle or goods being carried by the vehicle.

(2) Where a peace officer believes, on reasonable grounds,

(a) that any of the contraventions referred to in section 169 has been committed with or in relation to any vehicle,

(b) that examination or testing of the vehicle will furnish evidence relevant to the contravention, and

(c) that the evidence could be lost if the vehicle is not seized at that time, the peace officer may seize that vehicle and cause it to be removed, taken and stored in a suitable place pending the granting of an order pursuant to subsection (4).

(3) When a peace officer has seized a vehicle pursuant to subsection (2), the peace officer shall, as soon as practicable after the seizure, apply to the Provincial Court for an order permitting the examination, testing or detention of the seized vehicle.

(4) On application under subsection (3), the Provincial Court may, if it considers it appropriate in the circumstances, do one or more of the following:

(a) order the examination or testing of the seized vehicle;

(b) order the further detention and storage of the vehicle;

(c) order the release of the vehicle to any person with a rightful claim to it, with or without a requirement that the person deposit with the Court security not exceeding the amount that the Court may grant in damages under the Provincial Court Act.

(5) An order made under subsection (4) may be renewed, amended or extended on application to the Provincial Court.

(6) In hearing an application pursuant to subsection (4), the Provincial Court may, if it orders the vehicle to be released to a person with a rightful claim to it without the requirement of any deposit of security with the Court, order that the costs referred to in section 63(1) be paid

(a) in any case where the seizure was effected by a member of a municipal police service, by the municipality, or

(b) in any other case, by the Crown in right of Alberta.

(7) In hearing a trial of any offence relating to any vehicle seized pursuant to this section the Provincial Court may, if the person with a rightful claim to the vehicle is not convicted of any offence relating to the vehicle, order that the costs referred to in section 63(1) be paid

(a) in any case where the seizure was effected by a member of a municipal police service, by the municipality, or

(b) in any other case, by the Crown in right of Alberta.
(8) This section does not apply in respect of a motor vehicle that is seized or immobilized under section 173 or 173.1.

Seizure of motor vehicle re insurance matters

171(1) Where a peace officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that a person has committed a contravention in respect of section 52(1)(h) or 54(1)(a), (b) or (c) in relation to the operation of a motor vehicle, the peace officer may seize or immobilize that vehicle.

(2) to (6) Repealed 2020 cP-30.8 s44(61).

24-hour seizure or immobilization of vehicle

172 Where a person has been charged with an offence under

(a), (b) repealed 2011 c22 s18,

(c) section 115(2)(c) or (d), where a peace officer believes that the safety of the public may be at risk, then, notwithstanding sections 169 and 170, a peace officer or another person authorized by a peace officer may, for a period of time not exceeding 24 hours from the time that the person was charged, seize or immobilize the motor vehicle that was being operated by that person at the time that the person was charged.

Seizure of vehicle for impaired driving, etc.

172.1(1) Where a person has been charged with an offence under section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason of that person contravening section 320.14 or 320.15 of the Criminal Code (Canada), a peace officer or another person authorized by a peace officer shall seize or immobilize the motor vehicle that was being operated by that person at the time that the person was disqualified or charged

(a) for a period of 3 days, if it is the first time the person has been disqualified or charged within 10 years, and

(b) for a period of 7 days, if it is the 2nd or a subsequent time the person has been disqualified or charged within 10 years.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where a driver has been suspended under section 88, 88.01, 88.02 or 88.1 and the driver’s vehicle has been seized under one of those sections.

RSA 2000 cT-6 s170;2003 c48 s5;2013 c19 s2(20);2020 cP-30.8 s44(60)
Seizure or immobilization of motor vehicle

173(1) Where a person has been charged with an offence under

(a) section 94 or 94.1(1),

(b) section 320.18 of the Criminal Code (Canada), or

(c) section 130 of the National Defence Act (Canada) by reason of that person’s contravening section 320.18 of the Criminal Code (Canada), a peace officer, the Registrar or a person authorized by a peace officer or the Registrar shall seize or immobilize the motor vehicle that was being operated by that person at the time that the person was charged.

(2) Where a motor vehicle is seized or immobilized under subsection (1), the seizure or immobilization is in effect for

(a) 30 days from the day that the motor vehicle is seized or immobilized, or

(b) if a shorter period of time is provided for by regulation, that shorter period of time.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where

(a) a person has previously been charged with an offence referred to in subsection (1),

(b) as a result of that charge, the motor vehicle that was being operated by that person was seized or immobilized under subsection (1),

(c) that seizure or immobilization has not been revoked or rescinded,

(d) within 3 years from the day that the motor vehicle referred to in clause (b) was seized or immobilized, the person referred to in clause (a) is once again charged with an offence referred to in subsection (1), and

(e) as a result of the charge referred to in clause (d), the motor vehicle that was being operated by that person has been seized or immobilized under subsection (1), the seizure or immobilization of the motor vehicle referred to in clause (e) is in effect for

(f) 60 days from the day that the motor vehicle is seized or immobilized, or

(g) if a shorter period of time is provided for by regulation, that shorter period of time.

(4) Subsection (3) applies only where the person who is the registered owner of the motor vehicle referred to in subsection (3)(e) at the time that that vehicle is seized or immobilized was the registered owner of the motor vehicle referred to in subsection (3)(b) at the time that the vehicle referred to in subsection (3)(b) was seized or immobilized.

(5) Subject to the regulations, no person shall release a motor vehicle from seizure or immobilization while the seizure or immobilization of the motor vehicle is in effect.

Seizure of vehicle in prostitution related offences

173.1(1) Where a person has been charged with an offence under section 211, 212 or 213 of the Criminal Code (Canada), a peace officer or a person authorized by a peace officer may seize or immobilize the motor vehicle that was being operated by that person at the time that the person was charged.

(2) Where a motor vehicle is seized or immobilized under subsection (1), a peace officer may release the vehicle to the registered owner, or a person authorized by the registered owner, if the officer is satisfied that

(a) the vehicle was stolen,

(b) every person

   (i) who was in the vehicle at the time it was seized, and

   (ii) who the peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe had committed an offence referred to in subsection (1), is eligible for, and consents to be dealt with by way of, a program of alternative measures authorized under section 717(1)(a) of the Criminal Code (Canada), or

(c) seizure of the vehicle is causing or will cause undue financial hardship.

(3) Subject to subsection (2) and any review by the Registrar under Division 3 of Part 2, when a person who is in a motor vehicle at the time it is seized or immobilized under subsection (1) is convicted of an offence referred to in that subsection, the vehicle is forfeited to the Government subject to any security interest registered under the Personal Property Security Act before the seizure or immobilization.

(4) If no person is convicted of an offence in respect of which a motor vehicle is seized under this section, a peace officer shall release the vehicle.

Claim by owner for expenses

174 Where

(a) a motor vehicle has been seized or immobilized under section 172, 172.1, 173 or 173.1,

(b) the person driving the vehicle at the time of the seizure or immobilization was not the owner of the vehicle, and

(c) the owner of the vehicle incurs expenses in respect of the release of the vehicle, the owner of the motor vehicle may claim against the person who was driving the vehicle at the time of the seizure or immobilization any expenses incurred by the owner with respect to the release of the vehicle from the seizure or immobilization.

No action against the Crown, etc.

174.1 Except as provided for under this Act, no action lies or order or judgment may be made against the Crown, the Minister, any employee of the Crown or any person acting on behalf of the Crown for anything done or omitted to be done under section 172, 172.1, 173 or 173.1.

Personal property

175(1) In this section, “personal property” means personal property other than personal property that is a part of a motor vehicle.

(2) Where personal property is in or on a motor vehicle that is seized or immobilized under section 172, 172.1, 173 or 173.1, that personal property is not subject to the seizure or immobilization and, subject to the regulations, shall, on request, be returned to the person having claim to that personal property.
Repair of damaged vehicle

176(1) In this section, “repairs” means the repair of damage to a motor vehicle that arises out of

(a) the vehicle having been in an accident that is required to be reported under this Act, or

(b) the vehicle having been struck by a bullet.

(2) A person shall not commence repairs or direct or require repairs to be commenced on a motor vehicle

(a) unless a notice in the form provided by the Registrar has been affixed to the motor vehicle, or

(b) if no notice is affixed to the motor vehicle, until the person has been authorized to do so in writing, by a peace officer or other person on behalf of the police service that provides policing services for the jurisdiction in which the vehicle was damaged.

1999 cT-6.4 s176

Right of entry to repair shops, etc.

177(1) In this section, “taxi” means a motor vehicle

(a) that has a seating capacity of not more than 10 persons, including the person driving the vehicle, and

(b) that is used to transport passengers and their baggage to a requested destination, but does not include a motor vehicle that is operated outside an urban area

(c) at regular intervals,

(d) in accordance with a set time schedule, or

(e) over a specified route.

(2) A peace officer may, without permission, enter at any time between 6 a.m. and 9 p.m.,

(a) the business premises of any dealer in motor vehicles or trailers or any person operating a taxi,

(b) any place where motor vehicles or trailers or serially numbered parts of those vehicles are kept for sale, hire, dismantling, destruction or storage, or
(c) any garage or place of business where motor vehicles or trailers are repaired, for the purpose of ascertaining whether this Act is being complied with in respect of the vehicles located in that place and by the persons employed in that place.

1999 cT-6.4 s177

Assistance to peace officer

_178(1)_ A person may assist another person who appears to be a peace officer in the carrying out of the duties of a peace officer under this Act if

(a) requested to do so by that other person, and

(b) the person to whom the request is made reasonably believes that the other person making the request for assistance is in fact a peace officer.

(2) In making a request under subsection (1), a peace officer shall not request a person

(a) to operate a vehicle in pursuit of another vehicle, or

(b) to carry out a function that would place the person in a position of apparent abnormal danger.

(3) When a person provides assistance pursuant to a request made under this section, that person is, with respect to providing the assistance, entitled to the same rights and protection under the law that a peace officer is entitled to.

(4) Nothing in subsection (3) shall be construed so as to waive or restrict any rights or protection under the law to which the person providing the assistance would be entitled if that person were not providing the assistance.

Surrender of operator’s licence

_180_ When, after a finding of guilt,
181  Chapter T-6

(a) the operator’s licence of a person is suspended, or

(b) a person is disqualified from holding an operator’s licence, the court shall by order require that person to surrender that person’s operator’s licence to the court and on the surrender of the licence the court shall cause the operator’s licence to be forwarded to the Registrar.

1999 cT-6.4 s180

Appeal

181(1) If a person who has been disqualified from driving a motor vehicle in Alberta appeals against that person’s conviction, applies for permission to appeal against the conviction or applies to quash the conviction, the disqualification remains in effect unless

(a) the court being appealed to or to which the application is made orders that the disqualification be stayed pending the disposition of the appeal or application, and

(b) the appellant or applicant serves on the Registrar by personal service or by registered mail

(i) a copy of the notice of appeal, stated case, application or other document by which the appeal or application is commenced,

(ii) a copy of the document by which the application to stay the disqualification from driving a motor vehicle is commenced,

(iii) a copy of the order staying the disqualification, and

(iv) a notice setting out the person’s full name, address, date of birth and operator’s licence number.

(2) An application for a stay of the disqualification under subsection (1) must be brought by

(a) an application, if the application for the stay is to be made in the same court as the application for the appeal, application for permission to appeal or application to quash the conviction, or

(b) an originating application, if the application for the stay is to be made in the Court of Queen’s Bench and the application for permission to appeal or application to quash the conviction is to be made in the Court of Appeal.
182 If a person fails to return a suspended or cancelled motor vehicle document as required under this Act, a peace officer on the request of the Registrar shall secure possession of it and return it to the Registrar.

1999 cT-6.4 s182

183 A person shall not do the following:

(a) fail to surrender or return to a court or the Registrar a suspended or cancelled motor vehicle document as required under this Act;
(b) fail to deliver a suspended or cancelled motor vehicle document to a peace officer acting under section 182.

Division 5
Rights, Remedies and Obligations

Action for negligence not affected
184 Subject to section 187, nothing in this Act shall be construed to curtail or abridge the right of any person to commence and maintain an action for damages by reason of any injuries to a person or any property resulting from

(a) the negligence of the owner or driver of any motor vehicle,
or

(b) the negligence of any agent or employee of the owner of the motor vehicle.

Onus where Act contravened
185 If

(a) a person sustains loss or damage arising out of the operation of a motor vehicle on a highway, and

(b) that motor vehicle is operated by a person who is in contravention of or fails to comply with this Act, the onus of proof in any civil proceeding that the loss or damage did not arise by reason of that contravention or failure to comply is on the owner or driver of the motor vehicle.

Onus on owner or driver
186(1) If a person sustains loss or damage by reason of a motor vehicle being in motion, the onus of proof in any civil proceeding that the loss or damage did not entirely or solely arise through the negligence or improper conduct of the owner or driver of the motor vehicle is on that owner or driver.

(2) This section does not apply in the case of an accident between motor vehicles on a highway.

(3) In this section, “motor vehicle” includes a self-propelled implement of husbandry.

When driver deemed agent of owner
187(0.1) In this section,
(a) “lender” means a person who holds a security interest in a motor vehicle through a written security agreement, who under that agreement has lent money to a person in respect of the motor vehicle and who is not in possession of the motor vehicle but retains title to the motor vehicle, or a person to whom the lender has assigned the agreement;

(b) “lessor” means a person who by agreement, in the ordinary course of the person’s business, leases or grants exclusive use of a motor vehicle to another person for a term of more than 30 days or otherwise grants exclusive use of a motor vehicle to another person for a period of more than 30 days, and who is not in possession of the motor vehicle, or a person to whom the lessor has assigned the agreement;

(c) “motor vehicle liability policy” means a motor vehicle liability policy under the Insurance Act;

(c.1) “renter” means a person who, by agreement, in the ordinary course of the person’s business, rents a motor vehicle to another person for a term of no more than 30 days and who is not in possession of the motor vehicle, or a person to whom the renter has assigned the agreement;

(d) “security agreement” means a security agreement under the Personal Property Security Act;

(e) “security interest” means a security interest under the Personal Property Security Act;

(f) “seller” means a person who holds a security interest in a motor vehicle through a written security agreement and sells the motor vehicle to another person under a contract in writing but retains title to the motor vehicle until the purchaser has carried out the terms of the contract and who is not in possession of the motor vehicle, or a person to whom the seller has assigned the security agreement or the contract.

1 In an action for the recovery of loss or damage sustained by a person by reason of a motor vehicle on a highway, a person who, at the time that the loss or damage occurred,

(a) was driving the motor vehicle, and

(b) was living with and as a member of the family of the owner of the motor vehicle,

is deemed, with respect to that loss or damage,
(c) to be the agent or employee of the owner of the motor vehicle,
(d) to be employed as the agent or employee of the owner of the motor vehicle, and
(e) to be driving the motor vehicle in the course of that person’s employment.

(2) In an action for the recovery of loss or damage sustained by a person by reason of a motor vehicle on a highway, a person who, at the time that the loss or damage occurred,
(a) was driving the motor vehicle, and
(b) was in possession of the motor vehicle with the consent, expressed or implied, of the owner of the motor vehicle,
is deemed, with respect to that loss or damage,
(c) to be the agent or employee of the owner of the motor vehicle,
(d) to be employed as the agent or employee of the owner of the motor vehicle, and
(e) to be driving the motor vehicle in the course of that person’s employment.

(2.1) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Division except subsections (5) and (6), in an action for the recovery of loss or damage sustained by a person by reason of a motor vehicle on a highway, the maximum amount for which a lender, lessor, renter or seller of the motor vehicle is liable in respect of the same incident in its capacity as a lender, lessor, renter or seller of the motor vehicle is the amount determined under subsection (4) less any amounts that
(a) are recovered for loss or damage under the third party liability provisions of contracts evidenced by a motor vehicle liability policy issued to a person other than a lender, lessor, renter or seller,
(b) are in respect of the use or operation of the motor vehicle, and
(c) are in respect of the same incident.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (2.1), nothing in this section relieves any person who is deemed to be the agent or employee of the owner and to be driving the motor vehicle in the course of that person’s employment from liability for the loss or damage.

(4) The maximum amount for which a lender, lessor, renter or seller of a motor vehicle is liable for the purposes of subsection (2.1) is the greatest of

(a) $1,000,000,

(b) the amount of third party liability insurance required by law to be carried in respect of the motor vehicle, and

(c) the amount established, or determined in the manner prescribed, by regulation.

(5) Subsection (2.1) does not apply

(a) in respect of amounts payable by a lender, lessor, renter or seller other than by reason of vicarious liability imposed by this section, or

(b) to prescribed lenders, lessors, renters or sellers or motor vehicles, or prescribed classes of lenders, lessors, renters or sellers or motor vehicles.

(6) This section applies only in relation to loss or damage sustained on or after the date this section comes into force.

(7) The Minister may make regulations

(a) establishing amounts payable, or prescribing the manner of determining amounts payable, for the purposes of subsection (4)(c); and

(b) prescribing lenders, lessors, renters and sellers and motor vehicles or classes of lenders, lessors, renters and sellers and motor vehicles for the purposes of subsection (5)(b).

(8) The Minister may make different regulations under subsection (7)(b) in relation to lenders, lessors, renters and sellers and motor vehicles, or classes of lenders, lessors, renters and sellers and motor vehicles, for different circumstances.

False statement

188 A person shall not knowingly make a false statement in a document, application, statement, declaration or accident report made under this Act.

189
Regulations respecting reviews and non-monetary penalties under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act

188.1 The Minister may make regulations

(a) respecting applications to the Registrar for relief under section 36 from the imposition of an administrative penalty through the issuance of a notice of administrative penalty under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for a contravention to which that Act applies by affected persons other than recipients under that Act, including, without limitation, regulations

(i) determining who is an affected person;

(ii) respecting the grounds for a request for relief and for granting or refusing relief;

(iii) respecting the relief that may be granted to affected persons;

(iv) respecting costs and expenses that may be refunded to affected persons;

(b) respecting non-monetary administrative penalties that may be imposed in respect of contraventions to which the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act applies;

(c) respecting publicly accessible information to be made available for the purposes of section 4 of the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act in respect of contraventions to which that Act applies;

(d) respecting the grounds for a request for review under section 7 of the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act respecting a notice of administrative penalty issued under that Act for a contravention and for confirming or cancelling a notice of administrative penalty under section 21 of that Act;

(e) respecting the payment of fines, applicable surcharges and late payment charges to the Crown for a contravention, including, without limitation, the period within which those payments must be made;

(f) respecting the records the Director under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act may or must provide to a recipient under section 12 of that Act;

(g) respecting the refund to recipients under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act of fines, applicable surcharges, late payment charges and costs and expenses incurred by recipients related to administrative penalties other than fines imposed for contraventions to which that Act applies;

(h) respecting notifications to recipients under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act of decisions by the adjudicator under that Act of decisions under section 20 of that Act respecting reviews of contraventions to which that Act applies;

(i) respecting the substitution by an adjudicator under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act of applicable administrative penalties under section 21(2) of that Act for contraventions to which that Act applies;

(j) respecting the relief the Director under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act may provide under section 23(2) of that Act;

(k) respecting applications under section 27 of the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for an additional period of time to pay fines and applicable surcharges for contraventions to which that Act applies, including, without limitation, prescribing the maximum number of days the Director defined in that Act may grant a recipient to pay a fine and any applicable surcharge;

(l) prescribing exceptional circumstances for the purposes of sections 15, 20, 22 and 27 of the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act relating to a review under that Act of a notice of administrative penalty issued under that Act for a contravention to which that Act applies;

(m) respecting the information that is required on a notice of administrative penalty issued under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act for a contravention referred to in section 157(1);

(n) in respect of this Act as a prescribed enactment under the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act, respecting any matter or thing that that Act refers to as being set out in, subject to, specified by, prescribed in, required by or in accordance with the regulations under a prescribed enactment, or as prescribed under a prescribed enactment.
